This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

The standing Committee on Sabbath Schools presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

It is gratifying to know that by the blessing of God upon the Sabbath School work of our Church it is steadily progressing, and stands to-day in advance of anything in its past history. Only three Presbyteries, namely, Chillicothe, Neosho and Vermont, have failed to report to the Permanent Committee; so that we have fuller statistics than usual. From these statistics, as presented by the Permanent Committee, we glean the following facts:

There are 770 schools in the home field, over which there are 2,097 officers, and in which there are 5,781 teachers, and 65,086 scholars. These schools have contributed $38,505 during the year, a larger contribution than has ever before been made.

It is gratifying to learn that the number of non-professing teachers is decreasing. Last year it was 56; this year it is 37. It is also gratifying to know that there is a marked increase in the number of Mission schools, and in the missionary spirit of our Church schools. Last year we had 29 Mission schools: this year we have 59, with 11,457 mission scholars in our Church schools, which is an increase of 700 over last year, and of more than 1,000 over 1881.

It is to be regretted, however, that there is a small decrease in the number of scholars in our schools, and also, of pastors and elders, as compared with last year; and also that there are only 27 normal classes with an attendance of 400 members, against 37 classes and 937 members last year.

But the report of the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools, presented to this Assembly, is such a full and satisfactory presentation of this department of the Church's work for the past year, that we feel we cannot do better than simply commend it to the careful consideration of all, and recommend for your adoption the following resolutions:

1. That the Assembly express their regret that no reports were received from the Presbyteries of Chillicothe, Neosho and Vermont.

2. That pastors and elders be urged to devote themselves more largely to this department of Christian work.

3. That a further and more persistent effort be made to secure normal class study and teacher's meetings for the study of the lesson.

4. That Presbyterial Superintendents be appointed as continuously as possible.

5. That the third Sabbath of October, 1883, be appointed as a day of prayer for Sabbath Schools.

The Committee on Revision presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON REVISION.

Printed copies of the Minutes of the General Assembly of 1882, and of the Synods of New York, Pittsburgh, First of the West, Ohio, Second, Iowa, and Kansas, and manuscript copies of the Minutes of the Presbyteries of Egypt and Sialkot have been placed in our hands.

We report that we have examined these minutes, and find that they have been properly certified, neatly and orderly kept.

We would direct attention to the fact that at the meetings of many of the Synods a large number of ministers and elders were absent.

We propose the following action:

1st. That the General Assembly urge a fuller attendance of ministers and elders at the meetings of our Synods.

2d. That the minutes presented to the General Assembly for revision be approved.

The standing Committee on Narrative and State of Religion presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

The excellent report of the Committee on Narrative and State of Religion brings before the Assembly the following facts:

Eight ministers have fallen asleep, less than the annual average. The number of pastors has decreased by 16. The number of ministers without charge has increased by 24. The total of ministers has increased by 8; of licentiates, 8; of students, 2; of congregations, 13; of mission stations, a decrease of 1. The increase in membership is 970. The adult baptisms are 707. Contributions have increased over those of 1882 (excluding Quarter- Centennial contributions) by $15,920.

These are selected as the more significant ones in the narrative of the year's work and experience. They are also significant on the subject of the state of religion. If it be the divine rule, that the reaping shall be in proportion to the sowing, what shall we conclude in regard to the diligence of the Church in seeking the salvation of sinners, a year of whose labors makes a gain of only 970? With the harvest still so great and the laborers still so few and the fields so white, what shall we think of the faith, whose prayers give an increase of only nine in the ministry and of 24 "without charge"? Then what is the significance of the fact that the foreign field, with only one-twenty-fourth of the ministry of the Church, yields one-tenth of the whole increase by profession, and almost one-third of the adult baptisms? Are heathen hearts, in heathen homes, in heathen lands, more accessible to the message of Christ's love, than the baptized youth in our Christian homes and Sabbath schools? Or have we the form of godliness and has its power gone to peoples by whom it would be more simply trusted, and more diligently used? God alone knows the state of religion. But there is call in these facts for self-examination, humility and repentance.

Resolved, 1. That God's favor during the twenty-fifth year of the history of the United Presbyterian Church, in his preservation of the lives of his servants, in the continuance of the means of grace, in the general temporal prosperity which made large contributions easy, and in his special interpositions, especially in the foreign mission field, encourage to a more confident trust in him, and call for fervent gratitude.

2. That the smallness of the results of the year's work suggests a poverty of spiritual life and power, utterly inexcusable in view of God's grace and bounty, and calls for "shame and confusion of face" before him, for repentance and doing the first works, for the attainment and exercise of a stronger faith, and for its manifestation in more diligent and fruitful work.

The Committee on the Board of Education presented their report. The motion was made to recommit this report with instructions to report in favor of a college under the care of the Synod of Kansas being recognized as an object to receive its share of future contributions to the memorial fund. In view of the obligation resting upon the Church to care for those who have worn themselves out in doing the work of the Lord, they would offer for adoption the following resolutions:

2. That if the $30,000 already contributed to the Endowment fund of this Board be not swelled to $50,000 through the Quarter Centennial Memorial fund, our people shall be urged to make contributions and bequests to the Board for this purpose.
3. That the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to the officers of the Board for the faithful performance of the duties imposed upon them.

II. In respect to the request of Rev. Alexander Blaikie, D. D., referred to your Committee, they would respectfully report that, while they appreciate the work done for the United Presbyterian Church in the city of Boston by Dr. Blaikie, and while they individually desire that the General Assembly may see fit to increase the annuity given to him, yet inasmuch as your Committee do not think that this request is a matter requiring action by the Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief, but that it should be referred to the Committee of Finance; therefore,

Resolved, That the Presbyteries be directed to use diligent means and measures to secure the full payment of the salaries of the pastors within their respective bounds.

The Committee on the Board of Home Missions presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

Three papers have been referred to your Committee, viz.: The report of the Board of Home Missions, the report of the General Committee of Missions, and a memorial from Denver, asking assistance in establishing a congregation in that city.

The report of the Board of Home Missions indicates that their work has been carried forward during the past year in a judicious and most successful manner. Yet, in the prosecution of their work, and by reason of inadequate contributions by the churches, the Reserve Fund which has contributed so largely to the relief of our missionaries, has been so far reduced as to render it of little practical utility.

The work of the General Committee of Missions has been done with discrimination and care; and the only regret we have to express is, that there was not a probability of securing the means necessary to occupy all the new and promising fields that are opening up. In the home field, our Church seems to be breaking forth on the right hand and on the left to an extent unparalleled in our history. Important centres of missionary work are calling for the dispensation of word and ordinances according to the usages of our Church; while numerous outposts swell the cry, against which it is painful to close our ears. We feel that our work in the home field must be largely extended, or the Church must suffer serious loss.

We recommend, therefore, the adoption of the following:

1st. That the work of the Board of Home Missions during the past year be approved.

2d. That they be directed to set apart so much of the Quarter-Centennial Fund assigned to Home Mission work, as may be necessary to restore the Reserve Fund to at least the sum of $20,000.

3d. That the report of the General Committee of Missions be adopted.

4th. That pastors, missionaries and Sessions be enjoined to give careful consideration to the claims of the home field, so widely and so rapidly opening up, and urge upon their people the importance of increased contributions to the Home Mission Fund, as a necessity forced upon us by the increasing demand for the dispensation of the word of life.

5th. That Presbyteries be enjoined to exercise due care in the occupancy of new fields, and in the present state of our finances, select those which promise the best immediate results.

6th. That the Assembly would emphasize the recommendation of the General Committee of Missions in regard to the importance of congregations and mission stations maintaining religious services every Sabbath day, even in the absence of ministerial supply.

7th. That the interests of our cause in Denver, as presented in the memorial from that place, be commended to the favorable consideration alike of the Board of Home Missions and the Board of Church Extension.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures was made the order of the day for to-morrow forenoon, immediately after the hearing of the delegate from the Reformed Presbyterian Synod, and continuously thereafter until disposed of.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions. Before disposing of this report, the Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Rev. James Sawhill, to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

The delegate not being present, the Assembly took up the next order, viz.: The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on Instrumental Music. The order of business was suspended to hear the address of Rev. A. M. Milligan, delegate from the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, and the response of the Moderator.

The Committee on Nominations was instructed to nominate a delegate to represent the Assembly in the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures. It was agreed that hereafter in the discussion of this report speeches be limited to ten minutes, except in the case of members of the Committee on Bills and Overtures. Before disposing of the report the Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Rev. J. T. Cooper, to meet at 2 o'clock P. M.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opend with prayer by Rev. J. Y. Scouller.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on instrumental music. It was agreed to close the debate and take the vote on this report at or before 4 o'clock this afternoon. The following amendment was proposed, viz.: Strike out all after the words, "prescribed in the Holy Scriptures," at the close of the second paragraph, and insert the entire minority report.

The following amendment to the amendment was proposed, viz.: Strike out all after the word, "Resolved," in the first resolution, and insert the following: That the following question be submitted in overture to the Presbyteries: Shall instrumental music be considered an incident in the worship of God?

Before taking the vote the Moderator, at the request of the Assembly, led in prayer. The ayes and nays were called on the amendment to the amendment, when it was lost by the following vote:

The first resolution was then adopted. Before the adoption of the second resolution, the Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Rev. D. W. Carson, to meet at 7.30 o'clock, P. M.

7.30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. Andrew Henry.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee, appointed by the last Assembly to prepare a summary of the principles of the Church, presented their report, which was referred without reading to the Committee on the Board of Publication.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, which was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BILLS AND OVERTURES ON INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully report on the memorials relating to instrumental music referred to it:

These memorials are in different forms and make a variety of requests. As they will all appear on the records of the Assembly, it is not necessary to cumber this report with a detailed statement of them. The request made in the one most numerously signed is expressed or implied in almost all of them that ask for additional action on the subject. This request is as follows: "The General Assembly is hereby most respectfully asked and earnestly urged to declare explicitly that in none of the congregations under the care of the Assembly can instrumental music be lawfully used in worship until the Church shall have decided by constitutional enactment that such music in worship is divinely authorized and prescribed."

The principal reasons affirmed in support of this request, as set forth in a preceding paragraph of the memorial, are—first, that the last Assembly "resolved that the enactment of the repeal did not authorize the use of instruments in the worship of any of our congregations"; and second, that "the Confession of Faith declares explicitly that nothing is to be used in the worship of God that is 'not prescribed in the Holy Scriptures.'"

In regard to the first reason, that drawn from the action of the last Assembly, there is evidently more assumed than the entire action of the Assembly justifies. In explaining its action in ratifying what it held to be the decision of the Presbyteries on the overture, the Assembly, in a spirit of conciliation, admitted the words, "not as authorizing," in place of those, "not as recommending," used in the original form of its third resolution, but certainly with no such idea as conceding that its entire action on the subject was null and void. It is hardly necessary to say that in that sense, or anything like it, the resolution as amended was not adopted, and could not have been in the last Assembly with the sentiment that is known to have prevailed in it. The language in question must be understood in harmony with the declaration in the resolution itself, "that there is no sufficient Bible authority for an absolutely exclusive rule on the subject," and also in harmony with the entire action of which that resolution was but a part, in which the prohibitory law was declared to be repealed. The repeal of a law does not authorize anything except freedom from its restraints. Formally, it neither commands nor forbids anything. It simply leaves the subject without the law repealed. Taken, therefore, in its connection and necessary limitations, the language in question cannot be understood as of the effect assumed in this memorial.

In regard to the second reason, that drawn from the declaration in the Confession of Faith, to the effect that God is to be worshiped in the way appointed in his word, it may be said that the question is not of the correctness of the principle so enunciated, but of the correctness of the application that is made of it in this case. To an ordinance of worship, or anything appointed in it, it is clearly applicable. Baptism and the Lord's Supper, for example, must be observed by the exclusive use of the elements appointed for each. But there may be mere incidents of an ordinance or helps to its observance, no part of the ordinance itself, which are not placed under such restrictions. In regard to the ordinance of praise, no intelligent Christian looks for the appointment of the particular tunes to be sung, or the particular means by which the key-note may be found, or for the use of musical notes as a help in singing, or the employment of trained singers to lead in the praise service. Such are among the things confessedly left to "Christian prudence."

Now, the question is, to which of these classes does the instrumental accompaniment belong, the essentials or the incidentals of worship? That is the very core of the question decided in the repeal of our prohibitory law. That law was what may be said to have been our statutory application of the principle cited from the Confession. To repeal that law, as has been done, was to declare it a misapplication of the principle, or that the thing forbidden by the law was one to which that general principle did not properly apply; in other words, that there was nothing in the ordinance of praise or any other Bible authority to justify such prohibition. That is the recorded judgment of the Church. While that judgment stands how can we consistently declare, as asked in this memorial, that under the principle cited the prohibitory law is in effect still operative? And if we did, of what authority or force would such a declaration be? The Assembly has no power by mere resolution to annul a decision by overture or virtually reinstate a law so repealed. It may advise a course of conduct deemed expedient in the circumstances or required in the interest of peace and harmony, but not on an assumption against which the judgment of the Church has been formally given.

It is only by overture that a declaration of the kind asked for could be authoritatively given. A request for this mode of settling the question is made by one of the memorials from the Presbyteries. While overture is the legitimate mode there is room for grave doubts of its expediency at this time. There is no reason to expect that the result would be any more satisfactory than the decision given, and there is much reason to fear the effects of the continued strain that would be on the Church. Besides, with our present differing interpretations of the law ertures, there can be but little expectation of a satisfactory result until the elf is put in a form of which there can be no misunderstanding.

Is there not a better way out of our present difficulties? Is not Providence clearly pointing it out? As the question that troubles us now stands, is there anything left for us but forbearance—mutual forbearance? It is a mistake to say that, so far as conscience is involved, the concession would be all from one side. While on the one side it is honestly believed that our prohibitory law was necessary to preserve purity of worship, on the other it is believed just as honestly that such a law has no sufficient Bible authority to justify the Church in making it a term of fellowship. They believe as honestly that in the present state of mind in the Church such a law could not be enforced; that, unsustained by the judgment and conscience of a large majority of the ministry, the officers of the Church whose special work is to study the Bible and declare its teachings, and who have most to do with the administration of the order of the Church, it is vain to expect for it such an enforcement as every existing law of the Church should have. Brethren of such convictions have the right to stand by them without challenge of their honesty. But while they may claim the repeal of the prohibitory law, they should remember that this repeal does not leave a liberty to disregard the comfort of fellow-worshipers; does not leave a liberty to disturb the peace of congregations; does not leave a liberty to violate the bonds of brotherhood or disregard the forbearance in love required by the law of God. It was by putting ourselves expressly under this law that our union was formed; it has been by acting under it, we have been preserved a united and greatly prospered Church; and at no time in our history was this forbearance more clearly a duty than now. Controversy has exhausted its power to bring us to unity of conviction. It is vain to expect such unity from further debate. It would be more likely to increase the distraction. In this view of the whole subject it does not appear that additional action upon it in any of the forms named by the memorialists is needed, or would likely be of good effect. We, therefore, submit for adoption by the Assembly the following resolutions:

1. That the action of the last Assembly on this subject be reaffirmed as explained in this report.
2. That its admonitory resolution, advising and enjoining against all action on this subject offensive to fellow-worshipers or disturbing the peace of congregations, be emphatically reaffirmed and urged with renewed earnestness on the attention of the pastors and sessions and people of the whole Church.
3. That Drs. Joseph T. Cooper, David A. Wallace and James P. Lytle be appointed a committee to address a pastoral letter to our people, setting forth the true state of the question as settled by the Church, and urging upon them the respect due the authority of the Church and to each other as Christian brethren.
4. That the Clerk of the Assembly be instructed to audit the expenses of this Committee, and to draw an order on the Treasurer of the Assembly for the money.

Rev. J. G. Carson, on his own behalf and on behalf of all present who might join with him, entered his protest against the action just taken, for reasons to be given in hereafter.

After prayer by Rev. A. McCartney, the Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

THURSDAY.

9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Elder E. G. Holliday.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A letter from the delegate of the General Synod of the Reformed Church was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

I.—It is not necessary to recapitulate the information contained in the report. It closes with certain suggestions, which appear to have been well considered and wise. Your Committee recommend that they be adopted, as follows:

First.—That the Assembly and the Church at large gratefully recognize the hand of God in his manifest care of all our missionaries and their work during the year, especially for the deliverance vouchsafed to all connected with the mission in Egypt and the overruling of all that occurred so much for the furtherance of the gospel.

Second.—That thanks be given to the Society for the Propagation of Christian Knowledge; the London and American Tract Societies; the Paisley Ladies' Missionary Society; and the British and Foreign and the American Bible Societies for their liberal grants, and to Daniel Peoples, Esq., of Liverpool, and the Hon. Judge Barringer, of Egypt, for valuable services rendered to our missions and missionaries during the year.

Third.—That, in view of all the great openings and needs of the missionary field, the Board be authorized to send out as many missionaries as the funds placed at its disposal will justify.

Fourth.—That the Assembly approve of the Manual that has been published and direct that it shall be put into the hands of all our missionaries and those under appointment for the foreign work, and that its instructions and suggestions be earnestly carried out.

Fifth.—That ten thousand copies of the Annual Report be published, and that, as far as possible, they be circulated in every congregation under the care of the Assembly.

Sixth.—That in addition to the contributions which are constantly required to carry on our missions, and with an earnest view of raising up the women in our different fields to their proper state, the churches and the friends of missions be urged to furnish the means of providing the building and the facilities which the Girls' Training Institute in India especially needs for its great work.

Seventh.—That for the year ending April 30, 1884, at least $100,000 should be contributed; and that the Board be authorized to use the money paid into the treasury at its own discretion for the payment of debt, for the vigorous prosecution of the work entrusted to it, and for contingent expenses, subject to the regulations of the General Assembly.

Your Committee has given special attention to that part of the report relating to the proposition of the American Missionary Association to transfer to the Assembly certain monies contributed to it for the establishment of a mission on the Upper Nile. It is as follows:

II.—Some months since the American Missionary Association, located in New York city, referred to this Board a proposition which had been received by it from various friends in Great Britain to commence a mission in the regions towards Central Africa, or, more especially, along the Upper Nile. It was proposed to place in our hands the funds that had been contributed for this purpose, amounting to $20,000, and without any condition as to the time or force or extent of the mission, except that it should be undertaken and carried on. This proposition was felt to be in accordance with proposals made by Dr. Barnett and others, of the Egyptian mission, years ago, in view, not only of the great needs of the multitudes of the heathen there, but also from the comparative ease with which many of our na[illegible] laborers in Egypt might be able to render important service in these regions [illegible] The proposition was therefore taken into consideration, careful corre[illegible] was opened with the Egyptian Mission and with the Missionary Asso[illegible] regard to it, and now, in view of its being brought to us by the marked [illegible] of God, and of that region being inhabited by a people who largely speak the Arabic tongue, and of such a mission being only an extension of the work we already have in hand on the Nile, the Board feels prepared to recommend it to the favorable attention of the Assembly, provided it shall be found (1st) that it can be undertaken by the brethren of the Egyptian Mission without crippling their own force and hindering their work; and (2d) that there shall be no reasonable ground to apprehend that it will embarass the Board or the Church here at home in carrying forward in the future all the other departments of our Foreign Mission work.

The Board may add that strong assurances have been given us that the friends abroad who have raised these funds may continue their interest in the work and their contributions for it. In that case, little more would be required of us than to furnish the laborers and superintend the mission.

Accompanying this statement, a voluminous correspondence had been placed in the hands of your Committee which has been read and carefully considered. Certainly this proposition, should not be rejected but for the weightiest reasons. It looks as if the Master was setting open before us a wide and effectual door and bidding us enter in. On this subject the Committee recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the Board be instructed to examine, as speedily and carefully as possible, the wisdom of establishing and conducting a mission in the regions towards Central Africa, along the Upper Nile, as proposed by the American Missionary Association; and if the way be clear, be recommended and authorized to undertake the work, and that, in case they do, the Church be called on to furnish the Board with the additional men and money necessary for its successful prosecution; and that it be authorized to use any unappropriated money that may be in its treasury for this work.

III. A memorial from the Missionary Association in India was referred to your Committee. It complains of the injustice of the operation of the regulations adopted by the Board and approved by the last Assembly. While these regulations are, in some respects, more favorable to the missionary than the old, still it is possible that the change may work hardship in some cases. Your Committee, after carefully examining the memorial and hearing the views of Dr. J. S. Barr and the Treasurer of the Board concerning the matter of complaint, recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That in the judgment of the Assembly no contract exists between the Board and a missionary in the foreign field which absolutely forbids it to make any change in the regulations in reference to salaries and allowances during his absence in the field; but that care should be taken that such change work as little hardship as possible to the missionary.

IV. It appears from the report of the Board that our missions have been greatly blessed during last year. Many have been brought to the knowledge of the truth, confessed Christ and been baptized, so that the number of communicants has been nearly doubled. Your Committee, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That this Assembly has heard with profound satisfaction of the prosperity of the work in the foreign missions, and that, for this crowning blessing, as well as for the signal mercy shown our mission in Egypt during the late civil war, formal thanksgiving and praise be returned, by the Moderator, to the King and Head of the Church.

V. From all the information in possession of your Committee, it appears that there is a loud call for increased energy in pushing forward the work of the Lord in both India and Egypt. More missionaries and more money are needed from year to year. Your Committee, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That in view of the loud call, in the providence of God, for more laborers in the foreign field and for increased contributions for this department of the work of the Church, young men and women, whom God has qualified for this service, be exhorted carefully to consider whether or not the Lord is not calling them to enter it, and that our people be entreated to see that there is no lack of the money necessary to push forward, with increased vigor, the work in the foreign field.

As recommended in this report the Assembly, under the direction of the Moderator, engaged in thanksgiving to God for his goodness to our misssions during the past year, and especially for the large number of conversions he has wrought through the labors of our missionaries.

The reasons of protest against the action of the Assembly in adopting the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, and in rejecting the report of the minority of said Committee with the amendments proposed, were read. They are as follows:

REASONS OF PROTEST.

The undersigned beg leave to enter their protest against the action of the Assembly in adopting the report of the majority of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, particularly the first resolution thereof, for the following reasons:

1. Because the action of the Assembly in re-affirming the action of last Assembly, instead of being even an attempt to give relief from the grievances complained of in the prayer of the memorialists and to heal the "breaches of Zion," is but a repetition of that action in a more offensive form, and is thus calculated to increase and deepen, rather than to remove the dissatisfaction and disturbance which exists in the Church. The grounds of this wide-spread dissatisfaction as expressed in the memorials from so many Presbyteries and sessions, and more than 6,000 of the ministers, elders and members of the Church, were entitled to at least respectful consideration. No such consideration was given to them. On the other hand, they were told in effect that their complaint was groundless, and the only relief offered was submission to what they regarded as the unauthorized and unconstitutional action of the last Assembly: thus, "when they asked bread giving them a stone, and when they asked an egg giving them a scorpion."

2. Because in assuming, by the action thus re-affirmed, to declare what is the recorded judgment of the Church, as expressed in the vote of the Presbyteries on the overture, when neither in the terms of the overture itself nor in the record of the action of the Presbyteries, as transmitted to the last Assembly, is any such judgment to be found, the Assembly has usurped a power which is subversive of the Constitution of the Church on the subject of Overtures. That Constitution reads thus: Article IV, Section 5, of the Book of Government; "Before any regulation affecting the doctrine, worship or government of the Church shall be adopted or made binding on the Church, it shall be transmitted in overture to all the Presbyteries and be approved by at least a majority of the votes of the whole Church." The Assembly, however, assumes, by its own authority, to declare that the vote of last year on the overture settled the matter that instrumental music is a mere incident of worship, such as the appointment of tunes to be sung, or the particular means by which the key note may be found, or the use of musical notes as a help to singing, or the employment of trained singers to lead in the praise service. No such principle is implied in the vote in favor of the repeal of the prohibitory law. Nothing of the kind was expressed by any Presbytery as intended by its votes. The only judgment expressed by the vote for repeal was, that the rule as it stood in the Directory was not satisfactory; or that such a rule was not needed, because without it instruments have been excluded from every exclusively psalm-singing Church since the Reformation down to 1867, with the single exception of the Associate Reformed Church. Thus a doctrine is promulgated as one of the doctrines of the United Presbyterian Church, which is directly contrary to the traditional doctrine of the Church, in all its past history, in both branches, and that, too, without compliance with the requirements of its Constitution, and in defiance of them. And thus a simple majority of an Assembly, by putting a construction on the votes of the Presbyteries other than that which is expressly declared in the record of their votes, has it in its power to convert an overture into [redacted]mething different from, or even contrary to, the meaning or design of the [redacted]esbyteries. And this doctrine, thus promulgated by the Assembly, without [redacted]ving received the direct and explicit endorsement of the Presbyteries, as required by the Constitution, is made the doctrine of the Church to which its members are required practically to submit. We protest against the adoption of such a principle as an arbitrary usurpation of the rights and powers of the Presbyteries.

3. Because the action of the Assembly declares that the meaning attached by the memorialists to the phrase, "not to be considered as authorizing the use of instruments in worship," is not the correct one, though it is the plain and obvious meaning of the language. The Assembly, however, does not explain or tell us what is its true meaning. The Church has been deceived by this word "authorized," which, we are told, was inserted in a conciliatory spirit, and at the sametime that it is not to be understood in the only sense in which it is a conciliation. Such action is misleading and self-contradictory. But it is even worse. Though not authorized, yet we are told in the absence of a written prohibitory law, that the use of instruments is left to the discretion of sessions, subject only to the restraints of Christian courtesy and prudence. By this action congregations, Presbyteries and the church at large, are exposed to continued and increasing disturbance. Ministers, members and congregations are deprived of the privilege to which they are entitled, of joining in the common worship of those congregations where instruments are used, and thus the communion of saints, both in the teaching and sealing ordinances of Christ's house, is interrupted and in a great measure marred.

The unity of the Church largely consists in uniformity of worship. This can only be maintained by requiring congregations to conform a to common law both with reference to the matter and forms of worship. This law either written or unwritten which is; nothing can lawfully be introduced into the worship of any particular congregation which is not common to the whole Church—has always existed and been recognized by all branches of the Presbyterian Church as one of the bonds and symbols of their unity. By the action of the last Assembly, as explained by the action of the present one, this unity is destroyed, and the Church is broken up into a number of independent congregations, sometimes existing side by side, and yet unable to worship or commune together, because having no common form of worship. Against the divisions and heart-burnings and alienation and strife, caused by this state of things, all the admonitions of the Assembly, however multiplied and earnestly urged, are powerless, either to protect the consciences of individuals or the peace of the Church. This is proved by the experience of our Church during the past year, and by that of all other Presbyterian Churches which have allowed the introduction of instruments without authorizing them.

4. Because in refusing to overture the subject of instrumental music in any form, and declaring the question settled, the Assembly has not only gone in the face of the facts as evinced by the very presence of these memorials, but has rejected the only possible, because constitutional, method of reaching a satisfactory settlement of this vexed question. Until it is thus decided by what all must regard as the unmistakable judgment of the Church, it will continue increasingly to agitate and distract the Church—divide and so cripple its energies—foster a spirit which cannot but be hurtful to piety—and if allowed to go on must eventuate either in the corruption and possible defection of the whole Church or the separation of those who cannot conscientiously worship together. "A house divided against itself cannot stand." The Church must either cease to be divided by the removal of the cause of division—a settlement of the question which divides it in a way which will be satisfactory to all parties—or it will fall as the result of internal dissensions, of gradual and increasing corruption or by separation, whether amicable or otherwise. It is in vain to urge forbearance in a matter of this kind. That forbearance in love which the law of God requires can only be exercised toward individuals and in matters of individual personal views and actions. Toward congregations and in matters of common action—such as the public worship of God, in which all must unite—forbearance, where conscientious convictions are involved either on one side or the other, is neither lawful, nor possible. Those who would worship together must do so in the observance of a common form where no one sacrifices his conscientious convictions. If neither of those who differ in regard to the way in which God is to be worshiped can yield his conviction, then they cannot worship together. Forbearance in that case is agreeing to differ—that is, to separate. The forbearance exercised in forming the Union, and which made it possible as it was effected at last, is toward those who dissent from some or any of the articles of the Testimony, only while they make no determined opposition, but follow the things which make for peace—that is, forbearance may be exercised toward views and convictions or opinions, not toward actions—and especially public actions, such as the worship of God in which others join. Here there must necessarily be practical conformity else there is opposition of the most determined kind.

There are other reasons which might be mentioned, but these are sufficient to justify us in protesting, and even to require us to protest, against the action of the Assembly, in whole and in part, in adopting the report of the majority of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, and in rejecting the report and amendments offered by the minority. And notwithstanding this action, we must continue to hold and teach that the law of the Church on the subject of instrumental music in the worship of God has not been changed, even though it were admitted (which we by no means do admit) that the rule of the Directory has been constitutionally repealed. We cannot consent that instruments of music are lawfully or rightfully used in any congregation or Sabbath school of the United Presbyterian Church, and therefore are constrained to resist their introduction in the future, and by all lawful means endeavor their removal wherever used in the worship of God.

And in all this we solemnly protest before God, the Searcher of Hearts, that we are influenced by no feeling of disrespect or ill-will toward our brethren, either in this Assembly or throughout the Church, but only by sincere love to them and especially by love to our Lord Jesus Christ and supreme regard to his glory and to the interests of his truth and his cause as connected with the purity of his worship.

It was agreed that the action of the Assembly, as explained in the report of the majority of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, be taken as an answer to the reasons of protest.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Edueation was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

There have been put into our hands two papers, viz.: A memorial from the Presbytery of Garnett, relating to the propriety of establishing a college west of the Missouri river, and asking the Assembly to set apart a portion of the Quarter-Centennial Fund for that purpose; and the report of the Board of Education for the year ending April 30, 1883. These bring before us the question of our denominational education in general, and, also, the part of it relating particularly to the work done by the Board.

It has been a characteristic of Presbyterians, wherever existing, that they have been devoted to the cause of education. This has been due to the fact that they recognized its importance in preparing men for the ministry, but, also, because they regarded intelligence and intellectual training as natural results of the Christian faith. Education, therefore, was looked upon as a part of their religion. In Scotland, which was the native home of Presbyterianism, attention was very early, and always afterwards given to the subject. In all the history of its progress there, and amidst all its changes, this question was never lost sight of, and in the days when the cause was most commanding in its influence, it was recognized on all hands as one that cherished and fostered the most advanced sentiments in respect to intellectual culture. It was a favorite opinion of Dr. Chalmers that collegiate endowments were necessary to foster a proper spirit of scholarship and to keep up the [redacted] of the ministry; and he urged their ample establishment as one of the [redacted] of advancing the cause of Christ.

In England, also, Presbyterianism was animated by the same spirit. So early 1586, it was urged that "in every church, where it may be conveniently done, re is to be had that some poore schollers, studiers of divinity, being fit for theogicall exercise, and especially for expounding the Holy Scriptures, may, by the erality of the godly rich, be taught and trained up to preach."

In the Secession Church in Scotland, from which we are more directly descended, theological seminary was established at Perth, in 1737, in which Professors Wilon, Moncrief and others taught the students committed to their care. They were ainstaking and thorough. Their instruction embraced not only the theology erived from the Medulla of Mark, but Latin, Greek and various branches of phisophy.

Coming over from the old countries, our fathers carried with them this same lisposition. They were filled with the true Presbyterian spirit of providing the new world with a ministry educated as it had been in the old. Various memorials —of which the venerable seminary building at Service, Pa., is one—are witnesses to this devotion. It has increased, also, and so broadened, that the Church now feels bound to provide a liberal education for its youth of both sexes, and without regard to their subsequent callings in life.

The United Presbyterian Church is second to none in appreciation of the necesity for and advantages of extended mental culture and advanced scholarship. Its history and tradition alike inspire it to such an aim. It is a question, however, whether it has seriously enough considered its duty in this respect, and whether it has made provision according to the demands of its day for its own influence through the educational advantages afforded its youth, and particularly its candidates for the ministry. It has probably not given the attention to them that its own interests have required. It has not cherished too warmly the memory of its heroic past. The great truths that are its foundation it has not esteemed too highly. And yet it may be good for it to confess that it is only beginning to learn the importance of the academical helps that give so great momentum to the best professions. Its gifts to its institutions of learning have not heretofore been large. The value of schools, according to current estimates, has not been considered by its men of means.

In many of the denominations the contributions to the cause of education are frequent and munificent, and the amount of money invested in colleges and universities, is, in some of them, reckoned by millions. Thus the Presbyterians are employing $2,482,000; the Methodists, $4,199,000; the Congregationalists, $4,796,000; and the Baptists, $7,910,000. These sums indicate not simply the generosity of the givers, but the importance that is attached by the Churches to the cause to which they are devoted. They understand that success in their work depends on their zeal in this direction. While consecrated hearts are, first of all, desirable in the ministry, intelligent minds are also necessary. And always assuming that fidelity to the Lord and his truth is the Church's first duty and guaranty of power, it is proper to say that after this its influence will be in proportion to its intellectual power. Considered, therefore, from a human point of view, the sources of its strength, in ordinary cases, are in its colleges, academies, seminaries, and in the intelligence and culture which, proceeding from them, are diffused among the people.

In respect to the request of the Presbytery of Garnett, the Committee suggest that the duty of locating a college cannot be considered as belonging to the General Assembly; and that it, therefore, has no right to devote money from the Quarter-Centennial Fund to such a purpose.

Printed copies of the report of the Board of Education have been in the hands of the members of the Assembly, and it is not, therefore, necessary to refer to its statements in detail. It represents the work as being regularly and successfully carried on.

With these objects in view, the Committee propose the following resolutions:

1. That the appropriation—$2,000—asked by the Board of Education be granted.

2. That the Church be urged to take increased interest in the cause of education, and that the claims of its colleges, seminaries and other schools be frequently and earnestly presented by the pastors to the people.

3. That the Presbyteries be requested to give special care to the training of young men under their care, and to help increase the interest of the people in the schools and the educational work of the Church.

4. That this Assembly recommend the Quarter-Centennial Commission to recognize an institution of learning, under the care of the Synod of Kansas, as an object for which donors may designate Quarter-Centennial offerings.

Took up the report of the Committee on Finance on the distribution of the memorial fund. During the discussion of this report, Rev. D. W. Collins was invited to represent the Board of Foreign Missions, Rev. A. G. Wallace the Board of Church Extension, James McCandless the Board of Ministerial Relief, and Rev. J. W. Witherspoon the Board of Freedmen's Missions. Before disposing of this report, the Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Elder Robert Blair, to meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. D. E. Shaw.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on Finance presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

I. Your Committee would respectfully report that we have examined the reports of the Treasurers of the several Boards of the Church; the report of the Treasurer of the Presbytery of San Francisco, having in charge the Chinese Mission Fund; the report of the Treasurer of the Gibson Trust Fund, in the Presbytery of Egypt; also the report of the Treasurer of the General Assembly; and having found them all neatly kept and carefully audited, and the moneys received and disbursed as directed by the Assembly, we would recommend their approval.

II. The Trustees of the General Assembly ask the Assembly to make an appropriation of $1,000 for the current expenses of the coming year.

Your Committee recommend the following:

Resolved, That the appropriation asked for be made.

III. We have examined the statement of the Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to take charge of the Assembly Monthly and find it satisfactory. An appropriation of $850 is asked for to carry on the work another year, and that two ladies be appointed to conduct a ladies' department in the Assembly Monthly. On this paper your Committee offer the following action:

Resolved 1. That the statement of the Committee having in charge this work be approved.

2. That the appropriation asked for be granted, and the Committee having in charge the work be authorized to draw on the Board of Publication for that amount.

3. That the Committee be authorized to secure two ladies to conduct the ladies' department of the paper.

4. That pastors, sessions, superintendents of Sabbath schools, and Ladies' Missionary Societies be, and are hereby advised and urged, to co-operate with the Committee in securing the introduction of the Monthly into every family of the Church.

IV. In reference to several appropriations asked for, your Committee would recommend that the Assembly direct the Clerk to draw orders on the Treasurer in favor of Stevenson & Foster, for blank books and other expenses $23.78; Murdoch, Kerr & Co, for printing 300 copies of statistics, $15; Sexton at Washington, for services rendered in meeting of the General Committee, $10; janitor of Third Church, $20; janitor of First Church, $20; assistant clerk, $25; clerks, for postage, expressage and other expenses, $17.39; delegates from the Presbytery of San Francisco to assist in defraying expenses to the Assembly, $200.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on Finance on the distribution of the memorial fund. It was resolved that the discussion on this report close at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and that speeches be limited to five minutes. This report was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE ON THE DISTRIBUTION OF THE QUARTER-CENTENNIAL FUND.

The duty assigned your Committee in connection with the Memorial Fund is two-fold. We are to report to the Assembly a distribution of the undesignated money in the Memorial Fund, and also to report regulation for the disbursement of money now in the hands of the Treasurer of the Quarter-Centennial Commission, and whatever of money he may hereafter receive.

DISTRIBUTION OF THE UNDESIGNATED MONEY.

1. In respect of objects. The objects among which this fund is to be distributed are clearly the objects for which it was contributed by the people in response to the appeal of the preliminary Conference of September 6, 1882, in Allegheny City. This Conference proposed to the people of the entire United Presbyterian Church to raise this fund for the benefit of certain specified objects, and for these exclusive of all others, except as others might be designated by the donors and approved by the Commission. Hence the undesignated money has been contributed that it may be distributed among these objects so specified; and the Assembly is under instructions, moved by the original Conference and ratified by the contributors themselves, so to do.

The objects to which we are thus confined in the distribution of the undesignated money are: The Board of Foreign Missions, Board of Home Missions, Board of Freedmen's Missions, Board of Church Extension, Board of Ministerial Relief, Board of Education, Board of Publication, Allegheny Theological Seminary, Xenia Theological Seminary, Westminster College, Muskingum College, Monmouth College, Knoxville College.

2. In respect of specific purposes. In our judgment, the undesignated money should be ultimately appropriated in the line of permanent institutions, endowments, and similarly productive funds, rather than directly for current expenses. By order of the preliminary Conference, acquiesced in by the people in making their contributions, all subscriptions to colleges and seminaries are to be invested in permanent endowment funds; and, for reasons which we need not detail because they are so obvious, we think that the appropriations to the Boards should be arranged on the supposition that they are not to "perish with the using," but to be made of abiding service in the way of mission buildings, churches, vested funds, etc.

Of course the degree of importance, attaching to any of these branches of the Church's work, should be a primary consideration in fixing its share of the undesignated money. At the same time, we believe that the dependence of any of these branches of the Church's work on special agencies, in order to the supplies of money necessary to its success, should be a chief factor in the problem of percentage. A cause may be of the utmost importance, but its importance may be so evident to all the people, and it may so appeal to their sympathies, that they may be sure to provide for it freely through the ordinary channels of giving, supplemented constantly by legacies and large donations.

Another part of the work of the Church may be fundamental, yet its importance may be, to a considerable extent, overlooked or neglected in the ordinary giving. Hence it must be provided for by special agency if the Church do effectively its great work, and not suffer material hindrances.

Now the memorial movement is a grand special agency; hence we believe that, if the relative importance of some of the objects named be more liable to be overlooked than that of others in the ordinary contributions of the people, these objects have upon this special fund special claims. Such a principle of distribution must, we think, commend itself to our people. The fund is additional and supplementary to the ordinary giving of years and years.

Would it not seem to be provided in the good and all-wise providence of our God for pushing on especially parts of the work of our Church whose importance has not been duly appreciated, and which may have suffered sad hindrance from inattention?

4. In respect of some of the objects named, as related to each other. In making a schedule of distribution, your Committee have considered the Home Missions as made up of two departments: one of them in charge of the Board of Home Missions, the other in charge of the Board of Church Extension. Accordingly, the sum of what we would assign to these two Boards, rather than what we would assign to either, is the proportion we consider due to the home field.

In like manner, the sum of what we would apportion to the Board of Freedmen's Missions and the Knoxville College, and not what we would assign to either of these specific objects, is the apportionment we would consider due to the work among the Freedmen.

Influenced by these considerations, your Committee have made out a schedule of distribution; and would recommend for adoption of the Assembly, as embodying it, the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That all designated contributions of the Memorial Fund be applied strictly to the objects designated.

2. That the Boards of Publication and Education, and other objects not specified by the original Conference, yet subsequently admitted to shares of the Memorial Fund by designation of donors, and approved by the Commission, be granted the sums designated respectively to them and no more.

3. That the Memorial Fund, less the sum of all these designations to such other objects, be ordered to be appropriated to objects, and according to a schedule of percentage, as follows: To Foreign Missions, 20 per cent.; Home Missions, 5 per cent.; Church Extension, 14 per cent.; Freedmen's Missions, 4 per cent.; Ministerial Relief, 4 per cent.; Allegheny Theological Seminary, 9 per cent.; Xenia Theological Seminary, 9 per cent.; Westminster College, 12 per cent.; Monmouth College, 12 per cent.; Muskingum College 8 per cent.; Knoxville College, 3 per cent.; provided the aggregate contributions designated to any of the above objects do not exceed the above percentage in its behalf; but if there should be such excess in the designations to any, or to several of the above named objects, then, on such condition, all the above apportionments not thus exceeded by such designations shall suffer corresponding diminution pro rata.

4. That of the undesignated money in the Memorial Fund, there be distributed to the objects specified in the third resolution respectively such sums as, with the designations to the same, will make up the percentages ordered.

DISBURSEMENT OF MONEY NOW OR HEREAFTER RECEIVED BY THE TREASURER OF THE QUARTER-CENTENNIAL COMMISSION.

Your Committee would respectfully recommend that the Assembly adopt the following in relation to moneys now or hereafter coming into the hands of the Treasurer:

Resolved, That the Treasurer be and hereby is directed to make a quarterly disbursement of all monies received and designated by donors to objects specified by the preliminary Conference, or approved by the Commission, to the objects [illegible]gnated, and that of the undesignated money received by him, he make dis[illegible]ment according to the above schedule of apportionment; that he make the first [illegible]ement the 15th of June, 1883, and quarterly disbursements thereafter until [illegible]unts be closed and subscriptions to the Quarter-Centennial Fund be settled.

The following persons asked their dissent to be entered on the minutes against the action of the Assembly in adopting the fourth resolution of this report: Revs. James A. McKee, D. S. Littell and James Sawhill.

The following resolution on aiding educational institutions was adopted:

Resolved, That applications from Presbyteries or Synods for aid in establishing or maintaining academical institutions be referred to the Board of Education, and that it be instructed to report to the next Assembly what grants of aid may and ought to be made from the funds under its control in aid of such institution.

The Committee on the Board of Church Extension presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The importance of the work committed to the Board of Church Extension appears from the amount of money received and disbursed during the year, from the extent of the field of its operations which covers the whole territory of the Church, and from the fact that over one-tenth of all our organized congregations in America are yet houseless, beside the many and promising mission stations under our care. From a consideration of the papers placed in the hands of the Committee, the following resolutions are submitted for adoption:

1. That in cases of indisposition or negligence on the part of congregations to repay loans had from the Board, Presbyteries be instructed to use all proper means to secure prompt action in this regard.
2. That the course pursued by the Board in taking individual notes on small amounts loaned to congregations, wherever deemed advisable, be approved.
3. That the Board be instructed to insist upon conformity to the rule of the Assembly as to the tenure of church property, unless the direct claim of the Board be amply sufficient to cover all legal rights in the same.
4. That the proposition to publish a set of church plans to be issued in connection with the annual report be approved, and that 3,000 copies of the same be and are hereby ordered.
5. That the work of the Board in cities, being of the very first importance and necessity, be especially recommended to the liberal support of the Church.
6. That the congregations not contributing to this Board be reminded of their duty; and that its work be commended to the favorable consideration of the Women's Missionary Societies and Sabbath Schools.
7. That the Corresponding Secretary be authorized to visit those stations and congregations in which there is special interest, when in the judgment of the Board it may be deemed necessary, and that his expenses be paid by the treasurer.
8. That the Board be directed to take under advisement the propriety or feasibility of requiring the Corresponding Secretary to devote his entire time and attention to the work entrusted to this Board, and its judgment on the point be reported to the next General Assembly.

The Committee on Statistics presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON STATISTICS.

The report of the second clerk, submitted to us, contains three items worthy of especial notice:

1st. The standing fact that a number of presbyterial reports come in imperfect.
2d. That printed summaries are required to be submitted to each General Assembly.

[illegible] have been so arranged as to give the number of elders, and [illegible] contributions to the Quarter-Centennial Fund.

We would recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That this Assembly appreciates and commends the care and diligence bestowed [illegible] this department of our Church's interests by our second clerk.

2. That we approve of the arrangement of the tables as above indicated.

3. That in view of the amount of labor to be performed immediately preceding [illegible] General Assembly, a sum not exceeding thirty dollars be placed at the disposal of the second clerk for the purpose of employing clerical help in the preparation of said summary.

4. That we urge upon clerks of Presbyteries the importance of sending in correct reports, and at as early a period as possible.

The special Committee on Temperance presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

In the judgment of your Committee, it seems altogether unnecessary that we should, in this paper, recount the evils of intemperance, or call your attention to the dangers with which it threatens the Church and the State. It does not seem necessary either that we should in this report re-state our position as a Church, on this great subject. To the United Presbyterian Church the cause of temperance has not looked in vain for sympathy and encouragement and support. In carrying forward the great temperance reform, her ministers and her members have been active and efficient workers. Our past deliverances on the temperance question have had no uncertain sound. All that appears to be called for in the present circumstances is, that we should present for adoption, by this Assembly, some resolutions which may be helpful, in this great work, for the final success of which we all work and wait and pray. We therefore recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That we regard the traffic in strong drink as one of the greatest hindrances to the progress of the cause and kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2. That as a civil remedy we regard absolute prohibition as the only efficient one for the great evil.

3. That as an Assembly, we regard "constitutional amendment," as the only sure method of securing this most desirable result, and that we will urge upon our people the importance of seeking, in all right ways, to secure such amendment.

4. That it is the judgment of this Assembly that the members of our churches should, as Christian people, insist on the presenting of such men for legislative positions as shall represent them on this matter of temperance reform.

5. That we heartily endorse the request of the "Women's Christian Union" of this city, in reference to the setting apart of one whole day of the week of prayer to the subject of temperance; and we hereby respectfully and yet earnestly ask the Evangelical Alliance, in the arrangement of their programme for 1884, to name one day on which the subject of temperance shall be the topic of prayer and conference. We further recommend that in case of the refusal of this request, the Principal Clerk of the Assembly be authorized and directed, on the appearance of the programme of the Alliance, to designate the day on which this subject shall be considered, and shall give notice of such designation through the papers of the Church.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on amending the article on overtures, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BILLS AND OVERTURES ON AMENDING THE ARTICLE ON OVERTURES.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures would report on the resolution requesting the overturing of an amendment to Section V, Article 4, Book of Government, On the General Assembly:

Your Committee, considering the subject referred to in this resolution of very grave importance, requiring more time than can be given to it by this Assembly, recommend for your adoption the following resolution:

Resolved, That Section V, Article 4, Book of Government, "On the General Assembly," be referred to a special Committee consisting of five persons to consider the propriety of overturing an amendment to the above section, and report to the next General Assembly:

The Committee on the tenure of church property presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE TENURE OF CHURCH PROPERTY.

The Corresponding Secretaries of the Board of Home Missions, and of the Board of Church Extension, respectfully report that they have taken legal advice of the attorneys of the Trustees of the General Assembly, of the Board of Home Missions, and of the Board of Church Extension, and that they have agreed upon, and do recommend the following as the amended form for the trust clause to be inserted in the deeds for the properties of congregations and in declarations of trusts, viz.:

"In trust that said premises shall be used and kept, maintained and disposed of as a place of divine worship for the use of ministers and members of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, subject to the standards and acts of said Church, as from time to time authorized by the General Assembly of said Church, and in case the congregation shall cease to exist, or to be connected with or subject to the jurisdiction of the General Assembly of said Church, or shall lose its corporate existence, the trust shall terminate and the title shall vest absolutely in the Trustees of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, who shall then have the right to sell and convert the said property into money without any liability of the purchaser of the said property to see to the application of the proceeds of such sale."

We, therefore, submit the following:

Resolved, That the form for a trust clause in deeds and delarations of trust, adopted by the General Assembly of 1873, be amended according to the above form, and that the same be adopted as a condition of all appropriations by the Board of Home Missions and the Board of Church Extension.

The Committee on the Board of Missions to the Freedmen presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

The work of this Board seems to have been carried on vigorously and wisely during the past year; and in accordance with the instructions of last Assembly, a new and very promising mission has been commenced in the city of Norfolk, Va.

There is much reason for gratitude to God for the success of these missions, and abundant encouragement to continue and increase the efforts of the Church in this field; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That the Board be and hereby is instructed to continue the work in all stations now occupied, and such others as the Board may judge promising, providing the necessary buildings, appliances and teachers as the state of funds may justify.

2. We recognize the importance of a student's fund, judiciously employed, to enable poor students to continue in school without interruption, and we commend this object to the special consideration of the benevolent as worthy of patronage.

3. That the new department for orphan children, instituted and supported hitherto by private enterprise, should be continued, and the Board is authorized to draw from the general fund for its support.

4. That the sum of $25,000 be appropriated to this Board to meet the greatly increased expenses next year.

The Committee on Finance presented the following report on the place of meeting of the next Assembly, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE ON THE PLACE OF MEETING FOR THE NEXT ASSEMBLY.

In reference to the petitions from the Presbyteries of Southern Illinois and Kansas, asking for the meeting of the next General Assembly, on the condition that it bear the expenses of its own entertainment, either in whole or in part, your Committee would report:

It seems that the congregation of St. Louis will be able to bear about one-third of the expenses of the occasion, and gives us the assurance that the principal hotels in the city of St. Louis will accommodate delegates at about one-half rates.

We offer, therefore, the following:

Resolved, That the petition from the Presbytery of Southern Illinois be granted, and that the next meeting of the General Assembly be held in the city of St. Louis, Mo.

The Committee on Finance presented a report on securing the claims of the Board of Church Extension to certain properties, which was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE ON SECURING THE CLAIMS OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

From the statement of the Board of Church Extension, it appears that in some cases the title to the property of congregations and missions, aided by the Board, is vested in the Trustees of the General Assembly; and the Board is, therefore, without direct security for its claims; therefore,

Resolved, That the following regulations be made:

1st. That the Trustees of the General Assembly carefully protect all the interests of the Board of Church Extension, in the properties to which they may hold the title.

2d. That the Trustees of the General Assembly shall transfer all the proceeds of the sales of church property to the Board of Church Extension that they may be applied to the same general work, for which the money was at first contributed.

The Committee on Finance presented the following report on the request of the agent of Matthew Bevier, deceased, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE ON THE BEVIER ESTATE.

A paper comes before us from N. C. Hutchison, agent of Matthew Bevier, of Richland Co., Ohio, asking the Trustees of the General Assembly to resign the Trusteeship of a certain piece of land-property now sold, in order that the necessary papers be made out in the transfer of the property.

Your Committee would offer the following,

Resolved, That the request be referred to the Trustees of the Assembly to take such action as may be necessary.

The Committee on Correspondence presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE.

[redacted]Your Committee recommend that the Assembly appoint a delegate to convey its [redacted]stian salutations to the General Synod of the Reformed (Dutch) Church.

The following resolution concerning providing helps for missionary work among the Germans was adopted:

RESOLUTION ON MISSIONARY WORK AMONG THE GERMANS.

WHEREAS, There are thousands of German people within the bounds of our congregations in whose spiritual condition great civil and moral as well as religious interests are involved;

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to consider the best means of reaching these people, especially in the way of giving more attention to the German language in our educational institutions, and providing a Psalter and other United Presbyterian literature in the German language, said committee to report to next Assembly.

The Committee on the Board of Publication presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

There have been put into the hands of your Committee the following papers, viz.: The report of the Board of Publication; a memorial asking for the establishment of a Branch Depository in the city of Chicago, and the report of the committee appointed by the last General Assembly to prepare and report to this Assembly a summary of the principles of the Church.

The report of the Board shows that the work committed to their management is in a prosperous condition financially, and that it is being successfully prosecuted by them in accordance with the important objects for which this Board was organized. The Board direct our attention to the fact that while "the fund for the gratuitous distribution of psalm books is inadequate to supply the demand for these which comes from weak and needy Sabbath schools, the condition of the fund for the free distribution of Bibles with Psalms is such that they are able to suply them to a greater extent than heretofore."

In regard to the memorial asking the establishment of a Depository in Chicago; as the Board is willing to put a Depository wherever it is found that there is need for it, no action on the part of this Assembly is needed.

The report of the Committee, appointed by the last Assembly to prepare and report to this Assembly "A Summary of the Principles of the Church," came into our hands at too late an hour to give it any examination whatever. The suggestion of that Committee is, that the summary prepared by them shall be published in the papers of the Church for action by the next Assembly, and is all that can now be done. Your Committee recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the operations of this Board during the past year be approved, and that the publications of the Board be specially commended to all our Sabbath schools.

2. That the appropriation asked for by the Board of $1500 be granted.

3. That attention is hereby called to the fact that applications for the gratuitous distribution of Bibles with Psalms are solicited by this Board.

4. That the appointment by the last Assembly of the Committee to prepare and report to the next Assembly a summary of the principles of the Church, be continued, and that the Committee be instructed to publish their report in the meantime in the papers of the Church.

The Committee on Nominations presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

In presenting their Annual Report again, the Board of Foreign Missions desire particularly to mention the progress, condition and prospects of the great work committed to their hands. Special thanksgivings, it is felt, are due to God for his favor to our missionaries and their work amid the varied and eventful scenes of the past year. As this is also a season of grateful anniversary associations, it is appropriate that we should note some of the marked dealings of God with our work since that 26th of May, 1858, when the United Presbyterian Church was formally organized.

At that time, 1858, the Foreign Missions of the two uniting Churches were Trinidad, with one ordained missionary, Rev. Joseph Banks; Damascus, Syria, with three missionaries, Rev'ds James A. Frazier and John Crawford, and Miss Sarah B. Dales; Egypt, with three missionaries, Rev'ds Thomas McCague, James Barnett and G. Lansing; and India, with four missionaries, Rev'ds Andrew Gordon, E. H. Stevenson and R. A. Hill and Miss Elizabeth G. Gordon. Only a few stations were then occupied and the number of schools was very small. Not a church of native members was fully organized. Scarcely any converts were known to have been gathered in. At home, also, there were few missionary societies, no missionary periodicals, and the missionary spirit was not very deep or extensive in the churches.

With the union of the churches, however, there was, happily, awakened a new spirit in the whole work of Christ, and that abroad as well as at home. At the [redacted] Assembly in May, 1859, all the missions of the united churches were committed and placed under a Board which was to consist of nine members and be located at Philadelphia; and, as a thankoffering to God, two new missions were undertaken, viz.: one to Western Africa and one to China. The former failed from the lack of persons to be sent. The latter was entered upon, and Rev. J. C. Nevin landed for us at Canton, China, June 11th, 1860, where he was joined, early in 1868, by Rev. Joseph McKelvey, and, in 1875, by Miss M. E. Galbraith.

The portions of India and Egypt which our missionaries had been led to occupy seemed to have been allotted to us by the special providence of God. In neither of them was there an organized mission from any other church. Signally, too, as they were thus committed to us, their calls for missionaries and means to sustain them and extend their work largely increased each year, until, at length, it was felt that, interesting and important as our other missions were, it would be better, everyway, to concentrate the funds and the forces, the sympathies and the prayers of our whole Church upon these two alone. Accordingly, in 1867, the mission in Trinidad was transferred to the Presbyterian Church of the Lower Provinces, and, in 1877, the one in Syria to the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, and that in China to the Rhenish Missionary Society of Germany.

In the twenty-five years of our United Presbyterian Church, these two missions have greatly prospered. In that time, the one in Egypt has extended itself from the two cities of Cairo and Alexandria, which it then partially occupied, over the Delta and up the valley of the Nile, until now its stations reach nearly to the first Cataract. In India they have spread out from Sialkot, which for eight years was the only fixed station over that and the surrounding regions, until now it is well established in the large and populous districts of Sialkot, Gujranwala, Jhelum and Gurdaspur.

In these twenty-five years the Church has sent out and supported seventy-three new laborers, viz.: twenty-three ordained ministers, one physician, one printer, one superintendent of work, with their wives, and twenty-one unmarried Christian women, who have devoted themselves to the evangelizing and training of their needy sex in those desolate lands. Twenty-two churches have been organized and nearly 3,000 persons have been brought from their degrading heathenisms and errors to confess Christ and take their places in the membership of his Church. Able Training and Theological Institutes have been formed at Asyoot, in Egypt, and at Sialkot, in India, respectively, with special reference to raising up a well-qualified native ministry in each country. Nearly one hundred schools have been formed under the best of directly religious auspices and for persons of both sexes and of all ages.

In all that pertains to the missionaries and the work, the Providence of God has been signally manifest. During this whole time only one ordained missionary, who was sent out since the union, has died in the field, viz., Rev. Ebenezer Currie, at Alexandria, Egypt, October, 18, 1869. In all their voyages to and from the missions, only one shipwreck occurred at sea, and in that no injury was done to the missionaries, Rev. John Hogg and his wife, and their loss of goods was promptly and fully made up by friends in Scotland. In each mission field a vast change has taken place; in that while the missionaries then met with only indifference or opposition, now they are almost everywhere welcomed, and are urged to carry on and extend their work.

Progress in the work and the support of foreign missions has marked these years. In 1858 there were 9 ordained missionaries, * 2 unmarried female missionaries and 4 stations; receipts, $8,574. In 1868 there were 15 ordained missionaries, † 3 unmarried female missionaries and 25 stations; receipts, $48,902. In 1878 there were 11 ordained missionaries, 11 unmarried female missionaries and 44 stations; receipts, $47,551. In 1883 there were 17 ordained missionaries, 13 unmarried female missionaries and 88 stations; receipts, $77,008.

The ratio of increase of communicants and of pupils in the mission schools is also gratifying. In 1858 there were 51 communicants * and 200 pupils; in 1868, 182 communicants † and 700 pupils; ‡ in 1878, 1,069 communicants and 2,735 pupils; in 1883, 1,909 communicants and 4,531 pupils.

Such is the record of these TWENTY-FIVE years. Is it not cheering? Nearly three thousand persons brought from heathenism and error to be in the native churches professing faith in Christ! Several thousand persons taught in the various mission and Sabbath schools more or less of the Word of Life! And several thousand more, of all ages and sexes, made to hear, through the preaching in their own tongues, much of the true God and of Jesus Christ whom he has sent. Praise be to God!

* Including Syria and Trinidad. † Including Syria and China. ‡ As far as reported.

The past year has been an eventful one in each of our missions. In India the work has greatly extended in every direction. A new, principal station has been erected at Pathankot. Valuable property has been secured at Sialkot for a Training Institute for both girls and boys, and a thorough course of study has been organized and entered upon. Boarding schools have been opened or greatly increased in their facilities for doing good, and more conversions are reported than in any former year.

During the sittings of the last Assembly, word was brought of terrible, civil troubles threatening Egypt, and fervent prayer was offered for the averting of them and the preservation of the mission and its work. But war came. All foreigners were specially threatened and exposed. All our missionaries, being foreigners, had to leave, and for nearly three months there was every reason to apprehend the most appalling disasters. But he, whose is the cause of missions, and in whose hands are all hearts and issues, was over all. Not a personal injury was done to any one of our missionaries or their families. None of the native Christians suffered, though they were in the very midst of Moslem predominance and fanaticism. No serious harm was done to any of the mission property. In not a place where the native converts were, was there a giving up of religious services. Fervent prayer was daily offered, and, often, days of solemn fasting were devoutly observed.

In the signal interposition of God peace was at length restored. All the missionaries immediately returned, and everywhere they found the work, if possible, more ready and pressing for them and for new efforts than ever before. All classes were more accessible. Mohammedan intolerance and fanaticism had been checked. In less than six months after the war closed, three of the children of Arabi Pasha, the leader in all the civil troubles, and a very determined Moslem, were found in one of our mission schools in Cairo.

SUMMARIES.

The summaries of our foreign work at the close of 1882 were:

Of the above receipts, $25,966.66 were from the Stewart legacy, leaving the amount contributed from all sources, $77,008.86, or about $14,000 more than last year. Yet the expenses have been so increased that there is a painful indebtedness to each mission.

MISSIONARIES.

In the good Providence of God not a death has occurred during the year in the band of our missionaries who were in the field or under the care of the Board. No one, also, has been compelled to retire from the work from serious or permanent ill-health.

After being laboriously engaged for several years, both in active missionary work and in the training of young men for the ministry, and having had an affection of his eyes, which has at length required rest from labor, and medical attention, Rev. Jas. S. Barr, D. D., of the India mission, has been granted leave to return for a time to this country. He has, accordingly, just reached our shores with his family, and it is hoped his visit will be materially and permanently beneficial.

On the 28th of October last, Rev. Jas. P. McKee and wife embarked again for their work in India and at the same time Miss Martha J. McKown and Miss Maggie A. Smith for theirs in Egypt. All this party were greatly recruited by their sojourn for a time among their friends in this country. Rev. John Giffen, who had returned with his motherless children from Egypt in July last, re-embarked also for his station at Asyoot, on the 19th of December. All these missionaries have safely reached their fields and actively resumed their work.

During the year four new laborers have been added to our mission, viz.: Rev. Thos. J. Finney and wife, who sailed for the mission in Egypt, on the 30th of September, and Miss Ella O. Kyle, for the same mission December 19th. With the company that sailed in September, Miss Anna E. Wilson embarked for India, where she has since united in marriage with Rev. T. L. Scott, of the mission at Jhelum.

MISS LOCKHART.

The Board records with sorrow the death of Miss Margaret G. Lockhart. In 1874 she entered upon the mission of Egypt, and devoted herself with great earnestness to the work. In 1877, however, she was compelled, from the ill-health that followed an attack of measles, to withdraw from the mission and return to this country. Here she sometimes rallied and long most-anxiously hoped to be able to resume her work. But Providence ordered it otherwise. She gradually declined and on the 6th of June last departed this life at the residence of her parents, near Barboursville, Va. She was a person of marked piety, and intensely longed to have the Gospel made known to the destitute and perishing. She had been released from the Mission and from the Board for some years before her death. Her memory will long be deservedly cherished.

THE WORK OF THE BOARD.

The Annual Report. Early after the last Assembly the Board published 5,000 copies of the Report, and very earnest efforts were made to have it widely circulated, under a strong conviction that the more our people can be brought to know of our great work, the more they will think and pray and do for it. It is believed that much good resulted from these efforts, and now it is most earnestly urged that pastors, sessions and missionary societies will endeavor to have the report for this year, and every year, circulated largely among our people and that all will be urged, carefully and prayerfully, to read it.

A Manual. According to the direction of the last Assembly the Board prepared, after extensive correspondence with other Boards and Missionary Societies, a Manual of Instructions on the subject of Foreign Missions. It has been published and a copy has been sent to each of our missionaries in the field. It will also be put into the hands of all persons here at home who are contemplating this work or are under appointment for it. A copy of it is laid herewith before the Assembly.

Moneys. The Board very gratefully mention that during the past year several bequests and legacies have come into the treasury for the foreign work and have greatly aided in carrying it on. In some instances, also, persons advanced in life have turned their moneys into our treasury to be used in the mission work, the only condition in the case being that the Board will pay them the interest during their natural life. Thus important mutual benefits are enjoyed.

NEW MISSIONARIES.

The constant enlargement of the field of operations in each of our missions calls with increasing force each year for an increase of laborers. At this time India asks for two additional ordained ministers and two unmarried female missionaries. Egypt is pleading with the same earnestness for an equal or larger number. The fields are indeed white for the harvest. Souls are perishing for the lack of the Gospel which is thus so pleadingly asked for. Shall it be sent to them? Only let the Churches furnish the means, and the Assembly direct it, and the Board will send forth laborers into the harvest.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

It is a matter of great gratification that the women of our Church are so generally manifesting an interest in our foreign mission work. In many places missionary societies have been formed, and the happiest results have followed. Valuable missionary information is often given at the meeting of these societies. In several instances correspondence has been carried on with some of our missionaries in the field, and cheering tokens have been given that the contributions forwarded for educating and civilizing heathen girls and women especially, and preparing them thus to live happier lives and fill more useful spheres, have already done incalculable good. And how appropriate is this! Christian women at work to raise up, by means of the gospel, their heathen sisters from all the wretchedness and misery of their degraded condition! Such labor will not be in vain.

At the last Assembly, 257 Congregational Women's Missionary Societies and 16 Presbyterial, or in all 273 were reported. Most earnestly is it hoped this number will be found increased for the present year, and that, ere long, every congregation will have its women's missionary society, and every woman her place in it in carrying on this good work. Christian Women working for Heathen Women!

GIRLS' TRAINING INSTITUTE.

The proper educating and training of native girls and women is a matter of the very greatest moment. They should be raised up from their long debased conditions. They should be trained to fill useful spheres. They should be fitted to become suitable wives and companions of the native young men who are being prepared for the ministry and other useful positions. In both missions the importance of this is most deeply felt. In Egypt good progress has been made in having higher schools for girls, as in Cairo and Asyoot. In India very earnest and encouraging efforts are making to have such a Training Institute at Sialkot. As this work is only well beginning there, and needs facilities for it, the mission asks for an appropriation of $10,000 for it. In view of its great importance, the Board recommend it to the favorable action of the Assembly.

A MEDICAL MISSIONARY.

Every year increases the pressing necessity for a missionary physician, especially in Upper Egypt. During the past year it was fondly hoped, at one time, that this want was about to be happily supplied, but unexpected events occurred, and the plan entirely failed. The great want, therefore, continues. Removed hundreds of miles from any but native physicians, and exposed to sudden and very threatening attacks of sickness at any time, every member of the mission up the Nile deeply feels the need of a physician, and most earnestly pleads for one. The Board is anxiously doing all in its power to procure a suitable one, and most earnestly asks for the help of the Assembly, and of our whole Church, in accomplishing it.

AN IMPORTANT PROPOSITION.

Some months since the American Missionary Association, located in New York City, referred to this Board a proposition which had been received by it from various friends in Great Britain to commence a mission in the regions towards Central Africa, or more especially along the Upper Nile. It was proposed to place in our hands the funds that had been contributed for this purpose, amounting to $20,000, and without any condition as to the time or force or extent of the mission, except that it should be undertaken and carried on. This proposition was felt to be in accordance with proposals made by Dr. Barnett and others, of the Egyptian mission, years ago, in view, not only of the great needs of the multitudes of the heathen there, but also from the comparative ease with which many of our native laborers in Egypt might be able to render important service in these regions beyond. The proposition was therefore taken into consideration, careful correspondence was opened with the Egyptian Mission and with the Missionary Association in regard to it, and now, in view of its being brought to us by the marked Providence of God, and of that region being inhabited by a people who largely speak the Arabic tongue, and of such a mission being only an extension of the work we already have in hand on the Nile, the Board feels prepared to recommend it to the favorable attention of the Assembly, provided, it shall be found (1st) that it can be undertaken by the brethren of the Egyptian Mission without crippling their own force and hindering their work; and (2d) that there shall be no reasonable ground to apprehend that it will embarrass the Board or the Church here at home in carrying forward in the future all the other departments of our Foreign Mission work.

The Board may add that strong assurances have been given us that the friends abroad who have raised these funds may continue their interest in the work and their contributions for it. In that case, little more would be required of us than to furnish the laborers and superintend the mission.

BIBLE DISTRIBUTION.

This work has been carried on in some degree, and with the happiest results as usual. The Board is happy to say that the arrangements are now about completed, through the munificent liberality of Dr. William Gibson, Jamestown, Pa., by which the Scriptures will be circulated still more and more among the Arabic-speaking populations of the East.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

The following statements in regard to work committed to this important agency of the Church are respectfully submitted:

I. PROGRESS OF THE WORK.—The last General Assembly granted aid to two hundred and twenty-two stations under the care of fifty-four Presbyteries. From seven of these stations no reports have been received. The reports of ninety are incomplete, embracing only a portion of the year—thirty-four being for one quarter, twenty-five for two, and thirty-one for three quarters. In these stations there were, on the 31st of March last, 11,875 communicants; the average attendance upon the Sabbath services during the year ending with that date was 20,622. The additions to the Church during the same period were 663 by profession, and 969 on certificate. The decrease by death and removal was 748. The average attendance in the Sabbath Schools was 13,344. The congregations having church buildings are 193; there are as yet 29 without houses of worship. During the past year these stations contributed to the Boards of the Church $8,296, and for the support of their own pastors and missionaries, $56,722. In addition to this, many of them have shown their interest in the Quarter-Centennial movement by liberal contributions. As compared with the preceding year the membership, the average attendance and the number of Sabbath School scholars are considerably larger, while there is a slight decrease in the accessions to the Church, and the contributions to the Boards and for the support of their own pastors and missionaries, yet when compared with previous years, there has been a decided advance in all these respects. It may be proper to state that sixty-six of these stations were supplied one-half time, twelve one-third, seven two-thirds, eight one-fourth, and three three-fourths; also that one hundred and four of the brethren ministering to them sustained the pastoral relation. The remainder are acting as either a stated or ordinary supply. Five congregations are reported as self-sustaining, while several others, hitherto assisted, do not ask aid for the ensuing year.

II. GRANTS BY THE BOARD.—Out of the $5,650, placed at the disposal of the Board, for certain special missions and work specially designated by the Assembly, $5,600 was appropriated; the Presbyteries, and stations, and purposes for which these grants were made are the following, viz.: Detroit, Bad Axe, $450, S. S.; Fort Gratiot, $400, S. S.; Port Huron, $400, P. S.; Oregon, Portland, $1,200, S. S.; Special Missionary, $1,200; Colorado, Denver, $1,200, S. S.; Cleveland, New Mission, in the city of Cleveland, $750, S. S. For reasons referred to in other parts of this report, only about $2,200 of this money will be required. The last Assembly also placed at the disposal of the Board, $1,750 for certain cases referred to us, and $3,000 to meet emergencies; of these amounts $4,601 has been appropriated; the Presbytery and station to which, the purpose and time for which these grants were made are the following, viz.: Boston, Lawrence, $400, P. S.; Sutton, $150, P. S.; Clinton, $200, S. S., last six months of the year; College Springs, for Cherokee county, $300, and for stations along the Milwaukee R. R., $300; Concordia, Fairview, $100, one-half time; Miltonvale, $300, S. S., last six months; Garnett, Blue Mound, $45, S. S., one-third, last nine months; Richland, $131, S. S., two-thirds, last nine months; Indiana, Madison, $100, P. S., additional; Kansas, Topeka, $100, S. S., additional; Monongahela, Chase City and Con., $100, S. S.; New York, East 116th street, New York City, $200, S.; 127th street New York City, $300, P. S.; Summit avenue, Jersey City, $300, S.; Pawnee, Wilber, $125, S. S., one-half, last nine months; Minden, $100, S. S., one half, last six months; Philadelphia, Washington, D. C., $300, last nine months; San Francisco, Los Angeles, $700, S. S.; Southern Illinois, Xenia Prairie, $150, S., last six months; Steubenville, Salineville, $300. In addition to the above $75 was granted for services rendered during the preceding year at Emporia, Presbytery of Neosho, also for a similar purpose to Chase City and Con., Presbytery of Monongahela, $8.33, and to North Branch, Presbytery of Des Moines, $12.50. The word "additional," appended to several grants in the above list, indicates an increase of the appropriations made by the Assembly. In each case this was done at the earnest request of the Presbytery having the oversight of the station.

III. APPROPRIATIONS WITHHELD.—$8,925.47 have been withheld because the conditions upon which the aid was granted had not been fulfilled. The Presbyteries, stations and amounts are the following, viz.: Alleyheny, Oak Grove, $131.25; Arkansas Valley, Anthony, $50; Argonia, $62.50; Arkansas City, $133.94; Bazine, $150; Chicaskia, $25; Lyons and Con, $150; Sterling, $40.40; Beaver Valley, Wampum, $25; Boston, Whitinsville, $50; Clinton, $40; Brookville, Elk City, $45.84; Cedar Rapids, Garner, $100; Chicago, Rock Run, $12.50; College Springs, Corning, $60.55; Creston, $62.50; Elliott, $3.12; Centre Ridge, $3.12; Victoria and Woodside, $72; Cherokee county, $225; Milwaukee R. Portland, $900; Special Missionary, $900; Warm Springs, $937.50; Pawnee, Bethany, $37.50; Burchard, $6.25; Scotch Valley, $6.25; Wilsonville, $25; Philadelphia, Washington, D. C., $33.10; Princeton, Portland, $25; Rock Island, Davenport, $187.50; San Francisco, Los Angeles, $450; Sidney, California, $82.62; Belmore, $20; Southern Illinois, Xenia Prairie, $16.88; Steubenville, Salineville, $11.58; Tennessee, Big Spring, $87.50; West Missouri, Centerview, $75; Greenwood, $75; Westmoreland, Connellsville, $34.50; Leechburgh, $12.50; Scottdale, $9.37; Wheeling, Buchanan Hill, $62.50; Wisconsin, Waupaca, $75.

IV. SPECIAL MISSIONS.—The stations of this class which have been under the care of the Board number, nominally, fourteen; but of these, two, Portland, Oregon, and Denver, Colorado, are as yet proposed new missions, in which no organization has been effected. Of the twelve remaining, seven are in charge of settled pastors. The condition of the work, generally speaking, was never better. Chicago requires no further aid. Others are steadily approaching self-support. With no remarkable increase of numbers, these missions have grown in spiritual strength, in liberality, in efficient organization, and in working ability. The interest taken in the Quarter-Centennial offering is one of the most gratifying things exhibited in the reports. Several of the stations have contributed handsome sums to this object, and have been quickened and benefitted greatly by the facts presented to them in connection with the movement, as to the history, the principles and the work of our Church. On the whole, while in one or two cases the prospects are not so encouraging as could be wished, our Special Missions give good promise, with the continued blessing of the Lord, of permanent establishment, in due time, as congregations, able to provide for themselves and extend aid to others. The details which follow are gathered from recent reports, and are as full as space will permit. Numbers following the names indicate the beginning and ending of the periods for which stations have been specially committed to the Board.

1. Bad Axe, Presbytery of Detroit. 1882-5.—In this new station there has been an increase of 10 during the year, making present membership 30. The condition of the congregation is good, and prospects of growth and success seem flattering. Owing to some peculiar circumstances, a Sabbath School had not been organized at the date of our report, but will be at an early day. They have a good building and are not in debt. The average contributions have been $19 per member. By request of his Presbytery, the Missionary, Rev. F. W. Vertican, will occupy another field in the same region next year. He thinks that owing to the character of the country and the people, our progress in that part of Michigan cannot be rapid, but that we have an excellent and promising field there for mission work. Last year the appropriation was $450. The same amount was recommended by the Presbytery and granted by the Board for the ensuing year. Rev. James P. Gibson has been appointed Stated Supply.

2. Boston, Presbytery of Boston. 1880-5.—Rev. John Hood continues as pastor. Reports from this old station indicate healthful growth and an encouraging outlook. Difficulties of former years seem to have passed away; peace and good feeling prevail. But 150 members are reported this year, yet there has been an actual net gain of 32. The apparent decrease is caused by dropping the names of 53 persons heretofore on the roll, but who cannot be found. The Sabbath School has been reorganized and made more efficient. Contributions have been liberal. Over $2,000 have been subscribed for liquidation of debt; carpets and cushions have been bought at an expense of $450, of which $350 is paid. The attendance on services is good, averaging 80 at the morning and 250 at the afternoon service. This station received $600 last year; $500 was granted for the ensuing year.

3. Burlington, Presbytery of Keokuk. 1880-5.—Rev. Peter Swan, the young pastor of this congregation, reports the work in encouraging condition. Removals of families leave a net gain of but 9, out of an actual increase during the year of 19; but prospects of growth during next year seem better. Old troubles are healed, prayer-meetings better attended, and there are 25 persons who take some part in them. The Sabbath School has gained in numbers, and increased its average contributions 31 cents per scholar. We cannot withhold a word of commendation of the liberality shown by this people. They have pledged $625 to the Quarter-Centennial fund—only one congregation in the Presbytery raising more. The appropriation for the coming year is $650, a reduction of $50 from the grant of last year.

4. Chicago, Presbytery of Chicago. 1880-3.—Our good brother, Dr. W. T. Meloy, who has proved his efficiency as a Home Missionary by five years of very arduous, but highly successful work as pastor of this church, has the great joy of reporting Chicago self-supporting from July next. We will not attempt to condense his letter or the formal action in which the congregation acknowledges the long continued fostering care of the Church. The work began in this city, so far as the Home Board is concerned, in 1860. At times there seemed to be almost no hope of success; but now we have a congregation with a membership present and active of 160, and 35 more on the roll but absent. In the last five years, or during the present pastorate, 195 have been received—48 by profession. Only 44 remain who were members when Dr. Meloy entered upon his work. Beginning in 1860 there has been paid from the Home Mission treasury, including $200 for the present year not fully paid as yet, $13,129.17. In addition to this there was spent upon the former Second Church, $1,100 and upon the Third, $3,150; so that the total expenditure of this Board in the city of Chicago has been $17,379.17. Large as this sum is, the Church will be amply repaid if, as we have no reason to doubt, the congregation continues to flourish as at present. As an indication of what may be expected, the following statement is significant: Under the impulse of the Quarter-Centennial there was raised—for parsonage debt and interest, $750; for Board of Church Extension and interest, $1,250; for Quarter-Centennial direct, $900, which will probably be made $1,000. "The effort has been heroic." A new mission is needed in that great city, and should be undertaken in the near future.

5. Denver, Presbytery of Colorado. 1882-7.—Owing to the condition of our funds, it was not deemed advisable to make an appointment to this important field until near the close of the first quarter. The brother then selected, after keeping the matter under consideration some time, declined the service. Several appointments were subsequently made with a similar result in each case. These efforts necessarily involved more or less delay. Finally, on the 12th of March, Rev. C. B. Hatch was appointed as a temporary missionary, and is now in the field diligently employed. From what he states in a recent letter it is evident that had we been able to send a suitable missionary to that place within the last five or six years and secured a house of worship there, it is almost certain that we would have had at least one self-sustaining congregation in Denver to-day. He says, "There are a great many United Presbyterians in this city; I hear of them every day and in every direction. But they are, most of them, either in other Churches or gone back to the world. * * * I am persuaded that we can now establish a church in Denver with the precious few not yet gone but ready to go into other Churches, and a very few more who would return to us if they could be assured that we would prosecute the work with vigor and determination." At present we cannot depend upon more than ten members to begin with. A hall has been rented and services commenced on the Sabbath. If we are to have a church in that rapidly growing city, it will be absolutely necessary that a church building be secured as soon as possible. With that, and an efficient missionary properly sustained, and above all, the blessing of God, there is every reason to hope for speedy success. From what has been stated it will be seen that only a small part of the appropriation will be required for the current year. The Board request that $1,200 be placed at their disposal for this mission next year.

6. Emporia, Presbytery of Neosho. 1881-4.—Rev. Clinton Riddle, who had been Stated Supply in this field for nine months, resigned at the close of the first quarter. Rev. Jos. A. Collins was then appointed, but he felt it to be his duty to decline.

He, however, consented, at the request of the Board, to do what he could for the congregation in connection with his work at Americus. Though there has not been a regular missionary in the field, services have been maintained, the ground has been held and the little flock kept together. Under the circumstances much of an advance could not be expected. Mr. W. J. Brooks, recently licensed, has been appointed Stated Supply and is now hopefully at work. Here, as in Denver, a church building is an indispensable instrumentality. $700 asked by the Presbytery has been granted by the Board, an increase of $25 over the appropriation of last year. Bro. W. J. Brooks been reappointed Stated Supply.

7. Fort Gratiot, Presbytery of Detroit. 1882-5.—This new mission, a child of the young congregation of Port Huron, was organized on the 30th of June, 1882, with 38 members, 29 of whom came from Port Huron. The Rev. D. H. Goodwillie was appointed as Stated Supply and has been laboring successfully during the whole year. The net increase has been six, making present membership 44. The town is growing rapidly and prospects of increase are good. They have a neat church building, now cleared of debt or nearly so; but the trustees already talk of enlarging. A bell costing $85 has been procured, chiefly by the efforts of one person. The Sabbath School has 13 officers and teachers, 119 scholars enrolled, with an average attendance of 85, and contributions at the rate of about $65 for the year. For the next year $400 has been asked and granted, the same as the appropriation last year. Rev. D. H. Goodwillie has been reappointed Stated Supply.

8. Indianapolis, Presbytery of Indiana. 1880-5.—Rev. J. P. Cowan, pastor. The report shows an encouraging state of things. It is unnecessary to enter into details which exhibit continued growth and general improvement in the spiritual condition and working power of the congregation. The net increase is 18; present membership 75. Contributions to Boards $200; for all purposes $993; an average of $13.94. Last year total contributions were but $590. The pastor speaks of the Young People's Society of "willing workers," and especially of the Ladies' Missionary Society as efficient helpers in the work. The envelope system has been adopted and works well. Financial condition good. If this brother patiently and faithfully works on as in the past, we may expect God to reward his labors with a result as gratifying as is this year reported in the equally difficult mission at Chicago. $650 has been asked and granted for the next year, $100 less than the preceding appropriation.

9. Marshalltown, Presbytery of Cedar Rapids. 1881-6.—Rev. W. M. Richie is the pastor. He reports encouraging progress. The growth has been, and must be, slow, but is steady and solid. The place has not, by any means, a religious atmosphere. Church-going is not the rule or habit of the people. Worldliness prevails, and has its grasp even on the churches. All the more need, however, that a pure gospel be presented, and a high standard of Christian life inculcated. The net gain is 6. The attendance is not large, but interest good, and a hopeful Christian spirit evident in the people. Their liberality has been creditable. Over $300 arrears for past supplies have been paid off; a debt of $450 on property met. and $200 raised for the Quarter-Centennial, and some for the Boards. The city is growing rapidly, and the prospects of increase are fair. $475 has been granted for the ensuing year, which is $25 less than the last appropriation.

10. Omaha, Presbytery of Omaha. 1880-5.—Rev. E. B. Graham, in charge of this station, says in his report: "We have made decided advance, although our statistics do not show it. Our attendance has increased, and our prospects are better than ever before. The congregation has suffered somewhat by removals. The loss, however, has been partially made up. By the correction of the roll we have the actual effective membership reported." A parsonage has been built and occupied. They have an efficient Sabbath School, and the affairs of the congregation appear to be in a good condition for future successful work. In their anxiety to relieve the Board they voluntarily consented to a reduction of $150 on their appropriation last year. This, together with the obligations necessarily assumed in the erection of the parsonage, has proved more than they feel able to carry, and they reluctantly request an increase of the appropriation for the next year, which has been sanctioned by the Presbytery. $625 has been granted. This is $25 less than was asked, and $75 more than the appropriation last year.

11. Oshkosh, Presbytery of Wisconsin. 1880-5.—Early in the year, Rev. John F. Black was sent to this place as Stated Supply. He has labored diligently, and seems to have secured the attachment and hearty co-operation of the people, who [redacted] his reappointment. From a very full and interesting report submitted by him to which no condensation would do justice, we have obtained a better understanding than ever before of the character of the people and of the place, and of both the encouragements and the hindrances to our work. We have an excellent people; the congregation is apparently in improved condition financially and otherwise. But there has been no net increase. At present there is a prospect of some accessions from among adherents, and the outlook is as good as at any former time, or better. We cannot regard the prospects in Oshkosh as so bright as in many other places, yet there is a good foundation there, and a wide and needy, though a very difficult field. Our people in Oshkosh evidently need more confidence in themselves, and more interest in mission work. There has been a decided advance in the grace of liberality over past years. Their contributions for all purposes, including $100 to the Quarter-Centennial, give an average of $15.08 per member. The Board has granted $500 for the next year, being a reduction of $100 on the last appropriation, and re-appointed Rev. John F. Black missionary.

12. Port Huron, Presbytery of Detroit. 1882-4.—Rev. T. W. Monteith has been for years the efficient pastor. A year ago this mission was fully self-supporting, but it was felt that the interests of our cause required extension of the work, and the new congregation at Fort Gratiot was organized, drawing 29 members and a very considerable part of the supporting strength from Port Huron. The present membership is 102. The increase during the year has been 11. As in the past good work is being done; the congregation is in all respects in good condition, and the hope may reasonably be cherished that by extending aid a short time longer it will be self-supporting.

13. Portland, Presbytery of Oregon. 1882-7.—The Board has earnestly endeavored to send a missionary to this distant and important field, we regret to say without success. Several appointments were made and declined. We have also sought to obtain all the information possible in regard to the condition of the city and the prospects for a United Presbyterian Mission there. It must be confessed that the reports received are not as encouraging as we hoped. Rev. T. J. Wilson, who so ably presented the claims of the territory occupied by the Oregon Presbytery at the last Assembly, visited Portland early in March and spent several days in gathering information, says at the conclusion of an interesting letter: "My showing is not flattering as regards our immediate prospects, and yet I think we ought to have a mission in that field, and the sooner the better. An able, energetic missionary would find hard work and many discouragements, but if properly supported, with the divine blessing, he would succeed." The Board recommends that $1,200 be placed at our disposal for this work.

14. Topeka, Presbytery of Kansas. 1880-5.—The Rev. M. F. McKirahan, settled as pastor at Alexis, Ill., was appointed early in the year as Stated Supply, and arrived on the field in September. At first he was greatly disappointed and disheartened, but with encouragement and an increase of aid from the Board he went to work earnestly. The results of his labors, so far, are very gratifying. The congregation has not grown largely; in fact by the dropping of some names from the roll, there is an apparent decrease; but it is stronger in working spirit and power, in the disappearance of differences, in the growing acquaintance of the members with each other, and their increased interest in the work and hopefulness of success. There are about fifty members who can be counted available. A "Young Peoples' Aid Society" has greatly assisted the pastor in hunting up people and in other ways. The attendance is good and increasing. The liberality of the congregation has much improved. For the support of their minister they raised $100 more than before promised. For the Quarter-Centennial they gave $250. The average, not counting Quarter-Centennial, has risen from $8 last year to $10 this. The prospects of increase are regarded as fair. The city is growing rapidly, and is a point second to none in importance as a field in which our Church should be firmly planted. Active work is necessary to secure this at the right time, and the missionary is confident that, if well supported, the mission can be made successful. A debt on the building of $1,300 is a serious burden and hindrance. The appropriation last year was $700; to this the Board found it necessary to add $100, making $800. The same amount was recommended by the Presbytery for the coming year. The Board felt constrained to comply with the request; at the same time we earnestly urge the congregation to use their utmost exertions to reduce the appropriation next year. Rev. M. F. McKirahan has been reappointed Stated Supply.

V. OTHER SPECIAL WORK.—

Chinese Mission, Los Angeles, Cal.—The peculiar methods necessarily pursued in carrying out the one great object of this mission, which is to reach the hearts of these heathen, who come to our shores, with the gospel of Christ, were stated in our last annual report. We need not, therefore, refer to them again. The long experience of Brother Nevin in this special service, his thorough knowledge of the language and character of this strange people, give him special qualifications for his difficult work. We know that he is diligently and earnestly engaged, and that the results, if not all that might be desired, are fully as great as can be reasonably expected, and give ample ground for encouragement. The mission is evidently growing in influence and usefulness. The attendance upon the various services held upon the Sabbath and on five evenings of the week is considerably larger than was reported last year. Three converts have been added to the Church, making the whole number now connected with the mission eleven. It cannot be expected that a large body of these converts will be gathered in any one locality in this country. The habits of Chinese while with us are more or less migratory, and most, if not all, of them expect ultimately to return to China. Indeed, so far as those who have embraced Christianity are concerned, this is the very thing that is most desirable, that they may thus carry back to the perishing millions of their fatherland the knowledge of the Great Salvation. And we have the satisfaction of knowing that at least three from Los Angeles mission are now usefully engaged in Christian work in China, of whom most satisfactory accounts have been received. According to the latest information received, these three are the only ones of returned California Chinese who are rendering any aid to the work for their countrymen in connection with the missions there. The divine blessing has certainly rested upon Brother Nevin's efforts. May we not hope that the handful of corn thus scattered upon the tops of the mountains will yet shake with fruit like Lebanon?

English Mission, Los Angeles, Cal.—The request of the Presbytery of San Francisco, with reference to this matter, was referred to the Board. Early in the year the Board, after receiving several earnest appeals from the Presbytery and obtaining all the information possible under the circumstances, resolved to go forward with the work. Accordingly an appropriation of $700 was made, out the money placed at our disposal, and an effort was made to obtain a suitable missionary. Several appointments were made and declined. In view of all the circumstances, it was judged best to send a young man without a family, and a licentiate highly recommended was selected, Mr. W. J. Golden, who is now on his way to the field. A recent letter from the Superintendent of Missions of the Presbytery informs us that, on the 26th of April, a congregation of twenty-three members was organized there with encouraging prospects.

Special Mission Work in the City of Cleveland, Ohio.—The last Assembly placed this under the care of the Board in connection with the Presbytery of Cleveland. Work was commenced in the field at once, the Pastor and Session of the Church on Erie street having the general charge of it. Two stations were selected, one on the east and the other on the west side. During the first quarter they were supplied by two licentiates. At the commencement of the second quarter, Rev. A. H. Elder took charge of the work, and has been in the field laboring with zeal and success since that time. The results are quite encouraging. The Presbytery has granted a petition for the organization of a congregation in the Eighteenth ward, and in a short time the second congregation of Cleveland will be on our church rolls. In this station there is a Sabbath school with 83 scholars, a prayer-meeting with an average attendance of 30 persons, an attendance of from 75 to 80 upon the preaching service every Sabbath. A subscription of $430 for the support of ordinances among themselves, is one evidence of their interest in the work. On the west side they have a Sabbath school of 60 scholars, and an average attendance of 50 persons upon the Sabbath services. The prospects are considered good for an organization here in the near future.

Warm Springs Indian Mission, Presbytery of Oregon.—Notwithstanding it has been the desire and effort of the Board and of the Presbytery to place a missionary in this field, we have not, owing to circumstances which we could not control, been able to do so. The Presbytery requests an appropriation for this purpose, which it is hoped will be granted.

Special Missionary to Oregon.—We regret to state that, owing to the condition of our funds, the lack of sufficient information as to the territory proposed to be occupied, and the failure to obtain a suitable missionary, the Board did not feel justified in making an appointment. The Presbytery renews the request for such service and an appropriation for the purpose.

VI. THE SLIDING SCALE.—Twenty-one Presbyteries sent in requests for the exemption of fifty-five stations from the operation of the rules of the sliding scale. Of these 8 have been receiving aid from 20 to 23; 11 from 15 to 20; 19 from 10 to 15, and 17 from 5 to 10 years. After patiently examining and carefully considering all the facts presented to us in each case, the Board believe that 32 of these stations may be regarded as exceptional, and therefore relieved from the operation of these rules. This action, however, is not to be regarded as sanctioning an increased appropriation in any case. The facts presented, with the judgment of the Board thereon, will be submitted to the General Committee in a special report. In connection with this matter, the following resolutions were adopted:

1st. That the Board declares that its liberal action in reference to exemption this year has been taken in view mainly of the fact that this is the first year under the new rules, and it is not, therefore, to be regarded as a precedent.

2d. That to avoid misunderstandings it is hereby declared as the sense of the Board that the exceptions recommended extend only to one year.

We are gratified to be able to state that the results already secured by the operation of the sliding scale clearly demonstrate the wisdom of its regulations. A number of congregations have been stimulated to greater liberality in the support of their own pastors or missionaries, while several have been induced to make an effort to sustain the ordinances among themselves without further aid from the Home Mission fund. It is confidently believed that if the regulations of the scale are but properly carried out, our resources will be relieved of the drain necessarily involved by the continuance of aid year after year to stations which do not appear to be any nearer self-support now than they were five, ten or fifteen years ago, and thus we will be able to extend greatly our work in new and promising fields which invite our efforts. In this connection we would request the Assembly to urge upon Presbyteries to exercise the greatest possible care in the selection of points to be occupied, and to recommend for aid only such places as give promise, within a reasonable time, of becoming self-supporting.

VII. FINANCIAL CONDITION.—Our expenditures during the year ending with the 30th of last April amounted to $39,592.40. The receipts during the same period have been: from Presbyteries, $30,661.46; from Sabbath schools, $511.82; from ladies' societies, $759.77; from legacies, $3,223 99; and from all other sources, $2,780.35; making a total of $37,937.39, which is $1,655.01 less than our expenditures. This, added to the unpaid obligations of the preceding year, viz., $2,410.98, gives us a debt of $4,065.99, burdened with which we must enter upon the work of the coming year. Had the Board been able to carry out all the instructions of the last Assembly, this debt would have been fully $8,000 more. One of two things is inevitable; either there must be greatly enlarged contributions for this service, or we must not only cease all aggressive work, but contract that in which we are already engaged. To-day we have an empty treasury and a debt of $4,000. On the 30th of June over $11,000 will become due to our missionaries. To discharge these obligations will require the entire amount of our reserve fund, and fully $3,500 more. Unless, therefore, something is done to pay this debt and restore the reserve fund to at least its original proportions, we will, within less than six months from this time, be forced back to "the unsatisfactory and disheartening process of paying our missionaries, months and months after it is due, the reward of their arduous service." No friend of the cause of Home Missions can contemplate with indifference such a deplorable result. The value and importance of prompt payment are manifest by the increased energy and efficiency of the work since the establishment of this fund.

While the contributions of the past year are $1,407 less than the year ending April 30, 1882, and $1,158 less than those of the preceding year, they are considerably in excess of those of any of the previous years.

Summary.—A condensed statement of the work and of the receipts and expenditures of the past year will be found in the statistical tables and the report of the Treasurer herewith presented.

VIII. THE COMING YEAR.—Fifty-six Presbyteries have sent in their annual reports to the Board. The following is a summary of the information thus obtained:

The names of 101 ministers and licentiates are reported for appointment, [illegible]

senting the full time of 28 men. From this number seven must be deducted, unable to leave, or requesting to be returned to, their own Presbyteries. We have thus 21 who are able and willing to receive appointments. The Presbyteries request the full time of 85 missionaries. There are, therefore, six more men willing to receive appointments than are desired by the Presbyteries. The excess of the supply over the demand is less than it has been for several years past. It is certainly gratifying to notice that the number of brethren seeking employment through the appointed agencies of the Church is increasing, and that Presbyteries are seeking supplies more fully than for some time past through the same channels. In this connection, we would call the attention of the Assembly to the fact that complaints have come to us from a number of Presbyteries of the failure of appointees to fulfill their engagements, thus causing serious injury to the work as well as vexation and disappointment. Those who receive appointments should feel conscientiously bound to fulfill them. If unable to do so, they should most certainly notify the Presbyteries at the earliest possible time, that arrangements may be made to secure substitutes.

The aid desired by the Presbyteries, so far as reported, amounts to $59,492. It is probable that this sum will be increased several thousand dollars. The requests for aid and for the service of missionaries have been referred to the General Committee, whose report is herewith presented.

The term of service of the following members of the Board will expire with the close of the current year, viz.: Rev. David Barclay, W. A. Shaw, Esq., and James McCutcheon, Esq.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board.

WILLIAM J. REID, President.
JOHN G. BROWN, Cor. Sec'y.
W. S. OWENS, Recording Sec'y.

PITTSBURGH, May 12, 1883.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

As directed by the Twenty-fourth General Assembly, the General Committee of Home Missions met at Washington, Pa., Wednesday, May 16th, and continued in session six working days.

Fifty-eight delegates were in attendance, representing all the home Presbyteries (excepting Oregon) and the Board. The Committee was organized by the election of Rev. Wm. T. Campbell, of the Presbytery of Monmouth, Chairman, and Rev. J. A. Nelson, of the Presbytery of Kansas, Assistant Secretary.

The amount of money desired for the prosecution of the work in the Home field during the ensuing year, as stated in the report of the Board herewith presented, was $59,942. Additional requests, presented after the report of the Board was printed, increased the amount to $61,742.

The appropriations made by the Committee aggregate $47,436. This amount is made up as follows: 1st. The ordinary appropriations by the General Committee, $27,445. 2d. Grants by the Board to Special Missions under its care, $8,550. 3d. The sum assigned to Special Missions to be committed to the Board at this meeting, of which two, St. Louis and Greeley, are new stations, $2,800. 4th. Grants for new missions, not special, twelve in number, $2,365. 5th. The sums to be placed at the disposal of the Board, viz.: for certain stations thought to be reduced too much under the "sliding scale," $1,726; for other cases referred, $2,550; to meet emergencies which may arise during the year, $2,000.

At the meeting of the General Committee in 1882, a debt of $2,410, due to the reserve fund, consequent upon the failure of the Church to furnish the means to meet fully the expenditures of the preceding year, was added to the appropriation. During the past year our expenditures exceeded our income $1,655, making our total debt at the present time $4,055. If this were added it would make the amount which the Church would be required to raise next year, $51,001. In the confident expectation that a sufficient sum will be received from the Quarter-Centennial Fund to restore the Reserve Fund at least to its original proportions, we have not incorporated this debt with the amount the Church will be required to raise, during the coming year, to carry on the work in the Home field.

The attention of the Assembly is respectfully called to the fact that while the total amount recommended for appropriation is $14,306 less than the amount desired by the Presbyteries, it is nevertheless, $9,499 more than the whole contributions of the Church for Home Missions during the past year. That the appropriations might be brought even within these bounds required the most anxious care on the part of the General Committee. Many stations had to be cut off entirely, while, in other cases, the appropriations had to be so reduced as to excite grave apprehensions as to the results upon the work in those fields. In view of the hard necessity forced upon us by the insufficiency of the means upon which we may reasonably rely, we cannot but emphasize the statement of the Board that one of two things is inevitable; either there must be greatly increased contributions for this service, or we must not only cease all aggressive work, but contract that in which we are already engaged.

The names of 92 ministers and probationers were submitted by the Presbyteries for appointment, representiong the full time of 88 men. The whole time of 86 men was requested by the Presbyteries. The supply and the demand for service through this agency of the Church were thus much nearer being equal than for many years. Owing, however, to the fact that the appropriations were so largely reduced, many of the Prebyteries could not take the amount of service originally requested. Of the appointments made, 52 were for the whole year, 9 for three-quarters, 9 for two, and 3 for but one, being the full time of 64 men. The equivalent of the full time of 24 men was of necessity left unemployed. This discrepancy between the original requests and the actual appointments measurably, at least, represents the extent of the reductions we were forced to make upon the amount of aid desired.

IV. THE SLIDING SCALE.

With regard to the Sliding Scale System of Appropriations, which has governed the action of the General Committee in numerous instances, while changes in the details may become necessary as experience may suggest, it is believed that the principle is just and right. We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the Sliding Scale System is hereby reaffirmed.
2. That the reduction of one-third on stations which have received aid ten years or more, be changed to one-fourth.
3. That Rule No. 4, which requires Presbyteries to present cases for exemption from the operation of the rules to the Board, at least two months before the meeting of the General Assembly, be modified so as to read "Not later than the 20th of April."
4. That when a station has been exempted from the operation of the rules, the amount of the last appropriation made shall be the basis on which reduction under the scale shall be determined thereafter.
5. Whereas, certain stations, namely,

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

With gratitude to God for his goodness during the year, in preserving the life of all the missionaries in the field, and for his blessing on their labor, we present for your careful consideration the following statements touching the important work entrusted to our care:

THE WORK.

KNOXVILLE.—The work here has gone forward without interruption. The only change worthy of note is in the afternoon service on the Sabbath. Instead of holding the Sabbath school in the College in the afternoon two school houses have been occupied. One is a quarter of a mile distant, and the other two miles. At the nearest school house very few attend aside from the pupils who attend at the College in the morning. At the other school house we reach those who seldom attend elsewhere.

The design in this change was to lessen the number of meetings in the College building, and leave the afternoon free; and also to afford an opportunity to students and others to do missionary work. Very little difficulty has been experienced in securing volunteers for the afternoon Sabbath schools.

There is a Sabbath school in the morning, followed by a sermon. The same persons, old and young, are present in the Sabbath school and at church.

Prayer Meetings.—Two prayer-meetings are held on Sabbath evening—one for males and the other for females. These are attended by students, mainly, who are living in the dormitories. A prayer-meeting is held on Monday morning, at which all the students attend, and which they conduct, as they do the others, themselves.

Day of Prayer for Colleges.—This day was observed, and in addition to a sermon in the morning, a prayer-meeting was held in the afternoon by the students.

Extra Meetings were held throughout the last week of March. They were arranged so as not to interrupt the regular work, and were attended with interest.

Bible Lesson.—The International Sabbath school lesson for the following Sabbath is recited on Monday, and both teachers and pupils are better prepared for the work of the Sabbath.

The Congregation has 31 colored members, and 10 white. Increase by profession 3, by certificate 3; decrease 15. Infant baptisms 7, adult 3.

Contributions to all the Boards, $49. Total, $180.

Average attendance 161; at nearest school house 70, at the other 35.

The College.—The laborers here are: President, J. S. McCulloch; Lady Principal, Miss Eliza B. Wallace; teachers, D. T. McClelland, Edgar MacDill, Miss Wallace, Mrs. A. H. Wait, Miss Ida McCulloch, Miss Henrietta M. Mac[illegible]ored) and Miss Maggie McDill. Miss McDill has charge of the Little Girls and Mrs. Mary J. Johnston has charge of the work in kitchen and dini[illegible]

Miss Mary L. Buchanan has assisted throughout the year in the Sabbath school and sewing without pecuniary compensation. She has also given lessons in instrumental music at half the ordinary rates of tuition.

The Enrollment for the year is 202. The attendance was seriously affected by the prevalence of small-pox in the vicinity during December and January. At no time, however, did a panic seize the students, nor was a discontinuance of the school seriously threatened. For this we are devoutly thankful to God.

One of the most encouraging things in the work of this year is the disposition of the students to hold on till the end of the term, and pass through the examinations preparatory to regular promotion.

Some, however, are still compelled to leave in order to earn money for the support of themselves and their parents.

Sewing School.—The sewing school has been conducted this year very much as it was last year. Nearly all the girls in the school are divided into three classes supervised by teachers. They sew by hand forty minutes a day, and while they sew, they sing, or some one reads from an interesting and instructive book, so that the sewing hour combines both pleasure and profit.

Students are encouraged to make garments for their own use, and some are able to cut out as well as sew. They have the privilege of purchasing any garment thus made for about half the price of the material. The beginners have made patches for several quilts and put them together, and the more advanced have made about 160 garments.

A Mother's Meeting was carried on from September 1st to March 16th. It was held on Friday afternoons, when about two hours were spent. It was opened and closed with devotional exercises, memorizing scriptures, singing and prayer, and a talk was given on the lesson sometime during the meeting.

Miss Wallace, Mrs. McCulloch and Miss Buchanan had charge of this work. The enrollment was 69; garments cut and made, 275; material used, 600 yards; receipts from garments sold, $24.38; expenditures, $11. About 30 boxes and packages of bed clothing, wearing apparel, material and papers have been received from Ladies' Missionary Societies and individuals. These have been distributed with much care, so as not to encourage thriftlessness. Comparatively few articles are given away. The prices are very low, but the money thus obtained serves to keep up the sewing schools, and is used to assist the needy both in health and when sick.

Colored Teachers.—About 70, who have at some time attended the College, have been engaged in teaching this year. Their schools continued from two to seven months, the average being less than four, perhaps. They taught in Tennessee, Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Kentucky and Arkansas. Many of them have taken an active part in Sabbath schools, and in this way not less than 3,000 have been educated to some extent indirectly through this institution.

Aid for Students.—As a church we are doing comparatively little in the way of direct personal aid to students, however deserving they may be. Some of the oldest colored institutions appeal annually to the churches for a large part of the money necessary for the support of the students. A large proportion of the students in some of the best colored colleges are helped from year to year to the extent of from $25 to $100. We have been entirely too modest in appealing for such help. Our own sons and daughters would, in many instances, give up in despair or disgust if they had to encounter the actual trials of some of the colored young men or women now in Knoxville College. The President says: "I could, if it were prudent, give names; I could relate simple, unvarnished facts; I could tell of patient, long-continued toil, of pinching economy, of self-denial that would appeal powerfully to every real friend of the colored man. Here are boys and girls whom every member of the Faculty would deem it an honor to help through an education. Are there not generous individuals and societies and Sabbath schools and churches ready to promise $25 a year, or $50 a year for one such needy student? Let them send for the names, and they will be furnished. When a young woman works hard all summer at low wages and succeeds in saving enough to barely support her four months, let us say to her that her heavenly Father has provided enough to finish. When a young man comes with $50, the savings of four months with pick and shovel, let us relieve him from worry about the $25 or $50 more that may be needed."

Boarding Department.—There were 78 boarders this year. The number was not as great as last year. The falling off may be attributed partly to the increase in the price of boarding, and partly to a wide-spread rumor of small-pox in the city, referred to above. Among the boarders there are 4 who belong to the Presbyterian Church, 9 to the United Presbyterian, 12 to the Methodist, 14 to the Baptist; the others are not members of any church. What a work there is here to be done! The daily religious exercises consist of worship as in a Christian family—all joining morning and evening in the service. Nearly all the boarders, grouped in two companies, agree to read the same chapters daily in their rooms; and on Saturday evening they meet, each company with a teacher, and talk over the chapters read during the week. These meetings are voluntary, but nearly all attend. They are opened and closed with prayer. This exercise seems to be much enjoyed, and good must result from it. There is a reading room for the girls in this department which is of great benefit. It is open every evening. A donation of $50 worth of books was received from L. M. S. of the Cleveland, Ohio, congregation. Also a donation from the Western Tract Society. For these good gifts the donors have cordial thanks.

Orphanage, or Little Girls' Home.—A new feature has been added to our work here under this title. Little girls, from the age of 5 to 15, are received and kept in the Home during the entire term. These children have no homes of their own, or live with relatives or strangers who are not able to support their own families. This Home had 8 little girls last year, all orphans, or half orphans, except one. They were under the charge of Miss Maggie McDill, who lives with them and does for them as nearly as possible all a mother could do. She teaches them to do all kinds of work, and requires them to carefully prepare their lessons for school. The number would be greatly increased if the expense could be provided for. A business man in Chicago provides for half the support of two girls. He has our thanks and will have the blessing of the Lord.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbytery of Southern Illinois paid the salary of the matron, Miss McDill, last year, and is deserving the thanks of the whole Church. This part of the work must be continued and enlarged.

The Boarding department, including the Orphanage, was self-sustaining this year, and closed the term with a small balance on hand.

CHASE CITY.—This station has been under the charge of Rev. J. A. Ramsay. Misses Ella N. Reed and Sylvia Anderson and Mrs. J. A. Ramsay have been employed as teachers.

The workers in this field meet with new discouragements every year. The demon of intemperance appeared in their bounds last winter, and proved a very strong, persistent and hurtful foe. The work was for a time much hindered by the influence of the element in the community supporting the evil cause. But by persistent and prayerful effort on the part of our workers, seconded by some good and faithful Christians in the community, the evil was, at least for the time, overcome.

Opposition arose also from another quarter and from another cause. The organization of a congregation in the mission alarmed the leaders of some of the religious sects, and stirred up their jealousy to such a degree that their influence has been exerted steadily and persistently against our work. This they have done by constantly endeavoring to persuade parents not to send their children to our school, and by personal appeal, trying to prevent old and young from attending religious services in the Mission. These oppositions only demonstrate the greatness of the need for the pure gospel, with all its sanctifying influences, in the hearts and homes of these people.

The school began its session, Sept. 1, 1882, and closed May 18, 1883. The total enrollment for that time was 205. The religious work was carried on by the combined effort of the workers named above with gratifying results. The total enrollment of the Sabbath school was 325. The preaching of the word by Mr. Ramsay, the prayer-meetings on Sabbath and Wednesday of each week, were well attended, and the religious interest among the people was at times very encouraging. The congregation which we reported one year ago as established, was fully organized June 16, 1882, with a membership of 16. The present membership is 26, with a good prospect of a permanent and steady growth.

Another discouragement has come. A letter from Mr. Ramsay has just been received, making the startling announcement that on the morning of the 15th inst., at 2 o'clock, our mission home at this station was entirely consumed by fire. The fire originated in the attic, and was not discovered till it began to break through the ceiling of the room in which two of the teachers were sleeping. Its origin is unknown. All escaped uninjured, and succeeded in saving nearly all their furniture. There is an insurance on the building of $1,250, which will only partially cover the loss. The school building was not harmed. The workers closed the session with heavy hearts. Faith still lives; and we trust God for his blessing. "Lo, I am with you," etc.

BLUESTONE, VA.—Mr. J. A. Littell has had charge of this Mission during the year. Misses Ella Gordon and Maria McClintock have been employed as teachers; and Thomas Pettis (colored) was employed as assistant, about four months, when the school was very full.

The enrollment of the school for the whole term was 328, but the attendance was very irregular, and the total average would not much exceed 100. In the religious work, Rev. J. A. Ramsay, of Chase City, preached once each month. Sabbath school was held regularly every Sabbath, followed by a prayer-meeting. A prayer-meeting was also held every Wednesday afternoon at the close of the school, in which all the school united, and were often joined by others who came expressly for the service. The number of names on the Sabbath school roll is 390, but Mr. Littell writes, "Only about 100 or 125 might be said to be members of our Sabbath school, as the others were very irregular; but the true Christian spirit has dwelt among us, and peace, union and brotherly love have made the mission attendants a distinct people among their race here. I have carefully distributed 150 copies of the New Testament and 60 copies of the Bible, and I believe there is no cabin in the bounds of our school in which a copy of one of them may not be found." Our work at this station has been carried on at a great inconvenience. We have no mission home for our workers, and rooms and boarding cannot be obtained in very convenient distance of our school. It will be essentially necessary to erect a house during the summer for the accommodation of the missionaries in this field.

NORFOLK, VA.—In December last a few friends of the Freedmen raised a small fund, and sent Rev. Matthew Clarke, under the direction of the Board, to explore needy fields in Virginia, with a view to the establishment of a new mission. After visiting several important places, Mr. Clarke returned and made report to the Board. It was agreed that Norfolk was not only the most needy field of those visited, but it also presented the best prospect for a successful work. The total colored school population of the city is about 4,000. There are school accommodations provided by the city for only 1,000. Thus it will be seen that 3,000 colored children of all ages, between 5 and 21 years, are wandering about the streets destitute of school privileges and subjected to all the evil influences of city life.

The sentiment of large-hearted, public-spirited men in the city was very favorable to our proposed undertaking. On hearing Mr. Clarke's report, it was resolved by the Board to open a mission there as soon as funds sufficient should be contributed for that special purpose. Shortly after a draft was received by the Corresponding Secretary for $400 from the same persons who had provided for the exploration of the field, with a request that it be used in establishing a mission at Norfolk. A meeting of the Board was called, at which it was resolved to occupy the place at once. Rev. M. Clarke and his wife were appointed missionaries, and in a few days left their home, arriving in Norfolk, January 15. Rooms were secured (very unsuitable), and school opened with very encouraging prospects. As soon as possible an additional teacher, Miss Ella Smith, was sent, and the work has pressed the workers to the utmost ever since.

The total number of applications for admission to the school is 467; the total enrollment for April, 342; and the total average attendance for the three months just closed, 221.

The only way so many pupils could be managed by these teachers was to divide the school into two sections—one coming in the forenoon and the other in the afternoon.

A Sabbath school has been organized and the religious work inaugurated. The Sabbath school roll contains 198 names.

It will be necessary to provide suitable buildings for this mission at the earliest day practicable.

Rev. M. Clarke writes: "Great expectations have been awakened by our enterprise, among both colored and white, and we must not disappoint them. Thus far we have the field to ourselves. No other church or society is operating in Norfolk city or county. Our school was founded in prayer, and the Lord has heard our prayers, and sent us the hungry to be fed. Dare we send them away empty? The Master says, 'They need not depart, give ye them to eat.'"

Note.—The $500 given for exploring the field and establishing this mission is a Quarter-Centennial offering of three friends of our work, one of whom is not a member of the United Presbyterian Church. He gave the half, or $250.

SUMMARY.

There has been an aggregate enrollment in all our schools of 1,197, and in the Sabbath schools not less than 1,200. This shows a large increase over last year. During the year 75 students from our schools were engaged in teaching in the public schools. Of these, 70 received their education, wholly or in part, at Knoxville College; 4 at Thyne Institute, Chase City; and 1 at Bluestone. They have taught in Tennessee, Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Kentucky and Arkansas. The aggregate enrollment of these schools is not less than 3,500. It is the rule with these teachers to conduct a Sabbath school in the district in which they are employed, using the international lessons, with the helps provided by our own Church, and our Bible Songs, when they can be obtained. Thus it will be seen, that in the fields occupied by our missions, respectively, we are, in some good measure, accomplishing the object of our establishment, and are reaching out, by the best influences possible with us, to the thousands who can never enter our college or other schools. Not less than 5,000 in all the schools of different grades. Not less than 5,000 in the more than 80 Sabbath schools! Can it be possible that the work of this mission, thus widening and deepening every year, will not have some effect in elevating the masses, touched by its kindly and gracious influences?

FINANCIAL.

The receipts for the year were as follows:

From	Presbyteries	$11,438.24
"	Bequests	2,774.44
"	Ladies' Missionary Societies	406.36
"	Sabbath schools	131.29
"	Individuals	1,659.00
"	Rent of Property at Vicksburg	149.24
"	Miscellaneous	191.82
"	Balance, last year	17.31
	Total	$16,767.20

The receipts have been sufficient to meet all the expenses of the work during the year, and to pay $4,375.30 of the indebtedness reported last year. The balance in treasury of $852.80, as seen in the Treasurer's report, will not be sufficient to pay the bills falling due June 1. There is still an indebtedness of $6,500.

PROPERTY.

No sales of property have been effected since our last report. There is, however, no loss to the Church on this account; the agent in Vicksburg secures for the Board a rental of $15 per month from our property there. And the Austin property in Knoxville is rented for $10 per month; these two properties at the present rental being equivalent to a 6 per cent. investment of $4,500.

The last General Assembly directed the Board to occupy new fields as far as possible. One new and important field has been occupied.

To equip this mission, erect the buildings referred to above, pay the present indebtedness, and meet the expenses of the whole field, the Board respectfully asks for an appropriation of $25,000 for the coming year.

VACANCIES.

The term of office of Revs. R. B. Ewing, D. D., D. W. Carson, D. D., and W. H. McMillan, D. D., expires with this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

The appropriations to Chetopa and Mt. Ayr were releases in settlement of loans; that to Oelwein was a special donation by the Presbytery of $350 and a release of $168 loan, to remove all debt. The San Jose congregation was granted a donation of $5,000 by the General Assembly of 1876; of this $1,000 was received as loans. When the house was completed a heavy debt remained, and the Board released $500 to complete the removal of the debt. The appropriation to Sharon was necessary to save the property during a partial disorganization of the congregation. The congregation is now settled again, and the debt is nearly extinguished. The Board holds the first claim. The appropriation to Chicago, was the release of a loan made to the congregation by the Synod of Illinois. The release was made at the request of the Synod. The congregation is now free of debt. Spring Creek does not call for the grant made to it.

PROPERTY.

A contract has been made to sell the parsonage lot of the Port Huron church, in order to protect the claim of the Trustees of the Allegheny A. R. Presbytery. The congregation has the option of the lot in the case of further sale.

The Board is indebted to Henderson E. Davis, Esq., Notary Public, of Allegheny ...a., for valuable services gratuitously rendered, and to the Superintendents of Mis... for their faithful co-operation and help.

THE LOAN FUND.

A Schedule is herewith submitted showing the loans now held by congregations. The amount is $28,288,

SECURITIES.

The following securities have been received during the year:

Mortgages for Donations.—Oxford, Pa., $875; Lone Grove, Neb., $180; Arlington, Wis., $500; Bad Axe, Mich., $1500; Platte Valley, Iowa, $227; North Branch, Iowa, $200; Elliott, Iowa, $450; Center Ridge, Iowa, $500; Burlington, Iowa, $2,750; Chetopa, Kan., $145; Summit Avenue, Jersey City, N. J., $2,500; Blanchard, Iowa, $500; Greenwich N. Y., $2,700.

Mortgages for Loans.—Investment for annuity fund, $3,500; Lone Grove, Neb., $150; Summit Ave., Jersey City, N. J., $1,600; Greenwich, N. Y., $800.

Personal Notes.—Marshalltown, Iowa, $500; West Mecca, O., $300; Miltonvale, Kan., $200.

Deeds.—West Twenty-fifth Street, New York, a Declaration of Trust to Trustees of General Assembly; Walton, Canada, to Special Trustees for the General Assembly; Clearfield, Iowa, Oelwein, Iowa, Sterling, Kansas, to the Board; Marshalltown, Iowa, to the Trustees of the General Assembly, subject to the Board's claim of $1,810.

PLANS FOR CHURCHES.

In accordance with the recommendation of a previous General Assembly, and the increasing demand, the Board is in correspondence with several well-known architects, and hopes soon to be able to submit some plans for churches, suitable to the congregations asking help.

WORK IN THE CITIES.

The Board again calls attention to the increasing work in the principal cities, and, in view of the large demands that will be made upon its funds, asks for more definite instructions.

VACANCIES.

Very much to the regret of the Board, Mr. A. H. Bryce found it necessary to resign his membership. Mr. William J. Sawyer was elected to the vacancy. The term of office of Mr. Thomas McCance, Rev. A. H. Harshaw and William J. Sawyer expires with this year.

In concluding this report, the Board asks the General Assembly to consider the greatness of the Home Mission field and the necessity for comfortable churches, in order to successful labor. Inviting opportunities and the many houseless congregations and missions appeal to you, and to the churches through you. The call upon us, by the providence of God, can be met only by larger contributions. Many congregations still allow the appeals of their poor brethren to be unanswered, and, as a consequence, the contributions are far below the need. How long shall this continue? How soon may the Board be warranted in saying to all our missionaries, "You may labor in the confidence of help to build churches for the people to whom you minister?"

Respectfully submitted,
By order of the Board,
E. S. McKITRICK, President.
A. G. WALLACE, Cor. Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

[redacted]tefully acknowledging the goodness of God to this Board in preserving the [redacted] its members and employes, in protecting its property, and in enabling it, [redacted]ood degree of success, to carry forward the work entrusted to it, we [redacted]y submit the following report:

Some of the more important objects for which this Board was organized are the following: To select and publish such tracts, papers, periodicals and books as shall be a sound and suitable literature for families, Sabbath schools, ministers and the community at large; to purchase or print and circulate the Holy Scriptures, or parts of the Holy Scriptures, in the authorized version, together with the Psalms in metre according to the version approved by the United Presbyterian Church; to make donations of books and libraries to weak and indigent Sabbath schools, and to grant to mission stations, theological students and missionaries an amount of suitable books equal to the contributions made to the Board during the year.

We trust it will appear, to the satisfaction of the Assembly, from our report, that the Board has met all reasonable demands and expectations in the prosecution of the important work committed to our management. We keep constantly on hand a good selection of the best theological and religious books to be obtained; such books as our ministers, theological students and people will wish to procure. These books are sold at prices fixed by the publishers, with such discounts as are usually allowed. This branch of our business cannot honestly and fairly be conducted if unjust discriminations are made between our patrons. The fact that such discriminations are made by unscrupulous dealers, which seem to afford an occasional advantage to the purchaser, ought to receive no countenance from either honest sellers or buyers, and ought never to be brought forward to the prejudice of those who deal honorably and fairly with all.

In the Bible department of our work we keep a full assortment of Bibles of all sizes and styles, from the cheap school Bible which we print from our own new plates, and sell at the low price of fifty cents retail, to the best family Bibles which can be obtained.

Ministers, Sabbath school teachers, and all readers of the Scriptures can be supplied with Bibles containing references, notes, etc., of every style and size which they may desire, as cheaply as they are furnished by any establishment in the country.

As we have a large fund, the interest of which must be used in the free distribution of the Scriptures, with the Psalms in metre, we have been able to meet all calls which have been made for donations of Bibles to needy and destitute individuals or Sabbath schools.

Our fund for the gratuitous distribution of Psalm books is inadequate to supply the demand for these which comes from weak and needy Sabbath schools, &c., while the condition of our fund for the free distribution of the Bible with Psalms is such that we are able to supply them to a greater extent than heretofore. We, therefore, suggest that applications be more frequently made for donations of Bibles with the Psalms.

Our Sabbath school periodicals and helps, we have no hesitation in saying, are vastly superior to the bulk of such publications furnished by most of the independent establishments and societies, and are better adapted to the children and youth of our Church than can be obtained in any other quarter. They are supplied at as low rates, almost without exception, as the same class of publications are furnished by other evangelical churches, although the field of our patronage is limited. It ought hardly to be expected that we should successfully compete with the larger Churches of the country in every respect in this department of our work, and yet there is no Church in the country, we think, which has made better progress than our own in the way of supplying its Sabbath schools with efficient helps for the study of the lessons and suitable periodical literature for the youth of the Church. A few years ago we had but a single Sabbath school paper, with a far less circulation than it has at the present time; while two others, with lesson papers, quarterly, lesson cards and lesson notes, have been added. It will be seen from the portion of the report which exhibits its works in the business department that the circulation of all the above publications has greatly increased. The extent of the circulation of "Quarterlies," "Youth's Evangelist," etc., indicates that these publications are very generally taken by our schools. They seem to be supplanting the objectionable publications which were recently in use in many of them. While the Board is gratified with the encouragement it has received from the Church in its earnest efforts to supply our Sabbath schools with necessary helps and good periodicals, it will endeavor to improve and cheapen them to whatever extent may be possible, compatible with its own resources and the interests of the Church.

In view of the increased and increasing circulation of these periodicals, and with the determination of affording our Sabbath schools their papers and helps at the lowest rates possible, the Board propose to reduce the prices of the following publications, beginning with January 1, 1884, viz.: (1) The Quarterly from 20 cents to 15 cents to single subscribers, and from 12 cents to 10 cents to schools; (2) The Lesson Papers from $7.50 to $6 per hundred; (3) The Young Christian from 50 cents to 40 cents to single subscribers, and from 40 cents to 35 cents to schools.

We have made donations of books, Sabbath school papers, etc., etc., not only equal in value to the amount of funds contributed to the Board, but far beyond it. We have also paid over to the American Bible Society the two thousand dollars, as directed by the last Assembly, for the purpose of assisting in the publication of the Scriptures in large print in Arabic.

We have done but little in publishing books from original manuscript.

The Board feel that they ought to be doing more in this line than they have as yet been able to accomplish. The chief difficulty in the way is the want of something to publish which would be useful to ministers, Sabbath school scholars, or the religious public. We desire to print only such books as would sell, and at the same time be useful and creditable to the Church.

If such books were written and offered to the Board, we would cheerfully publish them. But there seems to be no call for the republication of old works, out of print, or foreign publications. We issued during the year a volume of discourses by the late Rev. John Van Eaton, D. D., on the prophecies of Haggai and Zechariah, and the United Presbyterian Lesson Notes for 1883, neither of which has obtained a circulation corresponding to its value to Bible students and Christians generally.

A worthy minister of our church, who believes that we ought to chant the Psalms in public worship, made the suggestion to the Board that we obtain the privilege of combining the "Pointed Psalter," prepared and published by Trinity Church, New York, with our Metrical Psalter, with the view of introducing the chanting of the Psalms in our congregations, and that we apply to the General Assembly for its authorization of the use of the said Psalter in worship. We have ascertained from the publisher of the "Pointed Psalter" that he will furnish it in whole or in part on reasonable terms to be used in the manner proposed. The Board, however, do not regard the undertaking as practicable, and therefore do not propose to take any further action in regard to the matter unless directed to do so by the General Assembly.

The last Assembly instructed the Board to "consider the feasibility of selecting and pushing the sale of some reliable, but inexpensive Commentary and Bible Dictionary. The Board do not know of any such Commentary or Dictionary entitled to the distinction required by the resolution of the Assembly. If the Assembly will designate any particular Commentary and Bible Dictionary as specially adapted to our ministers and people, the Board will cheerfully supply them on the most favorable terms possible.

Any suggestions which the Assembly may make to the Board with the view of increasing its usefulness, or any instructions whatever which it may give in regard to work to be performed, will be gratefully received and complied with to the best of our ability.

As one important object of this Board is to afford a medium through which the strong may help the weak, and to open up a channel through which the benefactions of the Church may flow to the poor and destitute, we ask the Assembly for an appropriation of fifteen hundred dollars to be used chiefly for the benefit of mission and other Sabbath schools which may not be able to purchase the papers and helps they need.

The term of office of the following members of the Board expires with the present year, viz.: Rev. D. R. Kerr, D. D., Messrs. William Stevenson and Addison Lysle.

The following statement which presents fully and clearly the business done during the year and the present condition of our work, will enable you to form an intelligent judgment in regard to the operations of this Board. We trust it will be found entirely satisfactory to the Assembly:

Total Assets	$18,009 56

The Board has succeeded thus far in investing the permanent funds at 8 per cent. interest, secured by first mortgage on real estate. During the past year it has been difficult at times to secure first class loans at that rate of interest.

The amount indicated by "Notes of former Beneficiaries not included in permanent funds," is derived from settlements made, the parties lifting former obligations to the Board, and giving individual notes, payable in annual installments with 6 per cent. interest. This we find necessary in many cases in order to make settlement with former Beneficiaries.

II. BENEFICIARIES.

During the year, on recommendation of Presbyteries, the Board has given assistance to fourteen students of theology. Eight of these attended the Seminary at Xenia, and six at Allegheny.

The following Presbyteries have been represented: Chartiers and Muskingum, three students each; Xenia, two students, Beaver Valley, Brookville, Chicago, Kansas, Monmouth and Sidney, one student each.

All students have complied fully with the requirements of the Assembly, as to the conditions for receiving money, or at least, Presbyteries have failed to report cases of violation to the Board. Our purpose is to act strictly in accordance with the instructions of the Assembly, and if at any time there is failure on our part, the reason will be found in the fact that Presbyteries have failed to furnish the the necessary information.

III. THE BOARD.

The work performed by this Board is well understood by the Church. The ranks of the ministry are not ordinarily filled from the homes of wealth and luxury. In a majority of cases the young man must remain out of the Seminary until a sufficient amount has been acquired to complete his course, or depend upon the Church for actual expenses while in the Seminary. The fact that for the three years ending April 30th, 1883, the Board has given aid to thirty of our theological graduates, ought to be convincing evidence of its usefulness to the Church.

We ask that an appropriation of $2,000 be granted for the coming year.

The term of office of the Rev. James Brown, D. D., Rev. Russell Graham and

Mr. David Graham, members of the Board, expires at this time. It is for the Assembly to elect. Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

This Board has now completed ten years of usefulness, and, although its operations have been conducted quietly, much good has been accomplished by it. From the nature of its work, no publicity is attached to it, but its benefactions are none the less important or timely. We believe there is no amount of money given by the Church that is so far reaching in its mission of love and mercy, and that more truly merits the divine benediction, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

There are now 24 beneficiaries receiving aid quarterly from this fund; in most cases the full amount asked by Presbyteries has been given. The Treasurer's report which has been audited and found correct, shows in round figures as follows:

Receipts from Presbyteries	$ 3,400
" " Societies, Individuals and Sabbath Schools	550
" " Investments	1,250
" " Legacies	1,260
Disbursed to beneficiaries	2,900
Endowment Fund	30,000

The balance in the treasury is $851.15, which will be all absorbed by the June quarterly payments.

In addition to the above, some $300 was used for the purchase of necessary clothing and articles of comfort by the Treasurer or Ladies' Societies, and sent to cases known to be needy. This branch of our work will be continued, and it is hoped that Ladies' Societies will co-operate with us in the future, as they have done in the past.

We have record of receipts from every Presbytery, except Minnesota, Oregon and Neosho. The Board is popular with our Church and we are assured that the small amount required for the prosecution of its work is given willingly and is a source of blessing to the donors.

The Board meets quarterly in the city of Philadelphia and is conducted without any expense to the Church. Any business of importance requiring action in interim of meetings is attended to by the Executive Committee, consisting of the officers. We believe that all receiving assistance, whether disabled ministers or their widows and orphans, are truly deserving. Aid is granted on Presbyterial application only.

In conclusion, the Board would respectfully ask from the Assembly:

1st. That an appropriation of $5,000 be granted so as amply to cover our needs during the year.

2d. That our Endowment Fund be again recommended for special contributions or bequests, so that it may soon reach the $50,000 as named by former Assemblies.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE WITH THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

Nothing of special interest in the relations of the two Churches has transpired ing the year. Very pleasant personal intercourse has been had between minis- nd members of that Church and ours. The Synod continued, we believe, its Committee of Conference, and appointed a delegate to this meeting of the Assembly.

While your Committee have nothing new or important to propose, it respectfully recommends,

Resolved, That a delegate be appointed to attend the meeting of the Associate Reformed Synod at Chester, S. C., October 25th, 1883, and that the Committee of Conference be continued. J. B. DALES, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

Another year of our Church's history and work is down on the records for eternity—has gone to the great scroll of human accounts, that we shall meet face to face in the judgment of the great day. Some facts, gathered from the annals of our Church for the past year, may indicate to us the nature of that account, about which we should be still more deeply concerned, than about that meagre record with which we come before an earthly court. Gathered from all the available and reliable sources at our command, your Committee would come before you with the following report:

NARRATIVE.

In this, the twenty-fifth anniversary of our Church, we report 9 Synods and 60 Presbyteries. Whole number of ministers, 730; 525 pastors and 205 without charge. Ordained in the last year, 20; licensures in the last year, 31; whole number of licentiates, 43; theological students, 52. Number of ministers deceased in the last year, 7. Ministers dismissed, 3; ministers received, 1; net gain of ministers, 9.

Whole number of congregations, 839. Congregations with pastors and stated supply, 641; vacant congregations, 198.

Congregations organized during the year, 22; congregations dissolved, 6; mission stations in all, 92; mission stations organized during the year, 13; making a net gain in congregations of 11.

Houses of worship erected during the last year, 26, and at a cost of $91,150, and average cost of $3,500 Congregations having no house of worship, 87. Parsonages, 120; parsonages built during the year, 9, and at a cost of $17,770, average cost, $1,975.

Whole number of members reported last year, 84,473, this year, 85,443, a ne gain of 970. Increase by profession, 4,122; by certificate, 4,320; decrease, 7,472 Adult baptisms, 707; last year, 629; infant baptisms, 3,599; gain in adult baptisms over last year, 78.

Sabbath Schools open whole year, 691; part of the year, 132; whole number 823; officers and teachers, 8,643; whole number of scholars, 77,300. Amoun contributed by the Sabbath Schools during the year, $40,560.

Whole number of Ladies' Missionary Societies—Presbyterial, 16; Congregational, 335; last year but 264, with a membership of 8,464; now a membership of 10,497. Whole amount contributed by the societies last year was $17,893; this year, $25,509; increase in contributions, $7,616.

Total amount of money raised for all purposes by our Church for the last year, besides the Quarter-Centennial fund, is $15,826 more than was raised the year before. It would seem that the Quarter-Centennial movement has greatly awakened and quickened the grace of liberality among our people.

From the figures and facts as here stated, there are, in many respects, encouraging gains, and an evidence of some advance in our work, for which we should thank God and take courage.

The death record this year numbers seven, but little over one-third what it was last year. Rev. Donald C. McLaren, D. D., of the Synod of New York; Rev. J. B. Johnston, D. D., and Rev. R. R. Atchison, of the Synod of Ohio; Rev. T. P. Dysart, of the Synod of Iowa, and Revs. Josiah Alexander, J. D. Glenn and J. W. Swaney, of the First Synod of the West. Two of this number, Drs. McLaren and Johnston, were worthy fathers in the Church had each filled up the measure of a long life of usefulness, and for several had been awaiting the Master's bidding, "Come up hither." The others were taken away from their finished work rather in the prime of life. One theological student, and of the second year, Mr. J. M. Millen, was also called away by death from his preparation for the ministry. Whilst it is gratifying that the Master is sparing the lives of so many of our ministers, it is also encouraging that he is filling up the vacant ranks and adding to our number 23 young men from the Theological Seminaries.

In this death record, led us be warned, and prepare for the coming of the Lord.

MORTUARY RECORD.

He attended the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary (four terms) in New York City, was licensed to preach the gospel by the Presbytery of Saratoga in the spring of 1819, and was ordained by the Associate Reformed Presbytery of Washington June 26, 1820; at the same date was installed pastor of the Associate Reformed congregation of Cambridge, New York. In the spring of 1826 he was released from his charge at Cambridge to become pastor of the congregation at Caledonia, where he labored from May 1, 1826, until July 14, 1852, a faithful pastor and an active and influential Presbyter. In 1844 he wrote a pamphlet entitled "The Boa Constrictor," or, "Fourier Associations Exposed." In 1845 he wrote a poem, twenty-four pages, entitled "A Cupful of Truth to the Cup-bearer of Drunkenness." In 1878 he became the author of a pamphlet on Psalmody, "The Book of Psalms Versified and Annotated." He received the title of D. D. from Jefferson College, September 9, 1823. He was married to Miss Jane Stevenson, of Cambridge, New York, and had by her seven sons and three daughters. His wife died August 27, 1876. Two sons and two daughters survive him. For some years before his death, because of the infirmities of his old age, he had been honorably retired from the active ministry, and died of apoplexy at Geneva, New York, May 7, 1882, aged 87 years, 7 months and 5 days.

John Steele, was born August 30, 1820, in Xenia, O.; was graduated at Miami University in 1840, and studied theology at Oxford and Allegheny; was licensed, March 26, 1844, by the Monongahela Presbytery, and ordained, June 24, 1857, by the Associate Reformed Presbytery of Iowa. He spent many years in purely missionary work, and frequently on new ground and often in feeble health; at Warsaw, Mo., he was, for some years, engaged in teaching, and preached as opportunities presented themselves. But one daughter survives him. He died May 15, 1882, at Warsaw, Mo., aged 61 years, 8 months and 15 days.

On January 17, 1871, he was ordained and installed, by the Presbytery of Mansfield, pastor of the United Presbyterian congregation at Fredericksburg, Wayne Co., Ohio, where he continued his labors until October 15, 1878, when declining health compelled him to resign his charge. During his course at the Seminary he spent one year in our Mission among the Freedmen at Nashville, Tenn. On July 6, 1875, he was married to Miss Pauline Rosamond Anderson, of Fredericksburg, Ohio. His wife and only daughter survive him. After a lingering illness of about four years, he died of consumption at Wooster, Ohio, aged 38 years, 10 months and 16 days.

profession of his faith and united with the Church at St. Clairsville, Ohio, in his seventeenth year. He studied and was graduated at Franklin College in 1847; attended the Theological Seminary at Allegheny four terms; was licensed to preach the gospel by the Wheeling Presbytery, April 6, 1861. Soon after that he was ordained and installed pastor of the congregation of Summersett, Iowa, by the Presbytery of Des Moines. On leaving that congregation, he became pastor of the congregation of Shiloh, Ind., and remained there from 1869 until May, 1874. He was pastor of the congregations of Lexington and Utica, Ohio, from May, 1875, until November, 1879; and of Olathe, Kan., from July 1, 1880, until his death. He was married twice; his last wife, and a son and daughter by his first wife, survive him. He died at Olathe, Kan., August 23, 1882, aged 45 years, 11 months and 17 days.

THE STATE OF RELIGION.

In this part of your Committee's report the ever-present Master knows best what should and what should not be put upon the record. He only can weigh correctly in a balance the heart and life of the Church. "For the Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart." Much of the professional life of the Church may be heartless; much of the accumulating professional forces of the Church may be dead-weight and cumbrous; much of the executive zeal may be consuming to the inner vital spiritual forces; wood, hay and stubble may be piled up in figures; there may be a parade and pageantry offensive to the Master. On the other hand the unobtrusive, the less demonstrative, the earnest, quiet, and even the less executive forces of the Church may be more deeply rooting in the eternal verities and all the while reaching out to a more thorough hold and power upon the world of sinners. Yet, as a rule, the inner life may be known by the outer. The spiritual and moral power of the Church upon her own families and upon the world should give a fair data from which to decide touching the character of her religion. And yet to grasp the full measure of her spiritual influence upon the world, would require a supernal power. The great day can only reveal it all; and yet it gives your Committee pleasure to report many things encouraging in the work of the past year.

ENCOURAGMENTS.

A large majority of the Presbyteries report good attendance upon all the services of the Church; the youth and children, especially in country congregations, upon both the preaching and prayer-meeting service. The exception to this seems to be in the city congregations. Most of the Presbyteries report family religion in a healthful condition, and in a majority of cases, family instruction and family worship well observed; Sabbath observance generally commendable; in many communities our people are good examples to their neighbors; the piety of ministers, elders and people, in most cases, in harmony with the profession. Several of the Presbyteries report revivals and encouraging results. In one congregation they report eighteen adult baptisms; in many congregations manifest awakenings and increased spiritual life; the liberality of the Church about as usual; with the fact, in many cases, that the Quarter-Centennial movement seems to have inspired the Church with new views of the claims of the Lord upon the substance of his people. Brotherly love among the ministers, elders and people, with but very few exceptions, is reported very good. And this is all the more remarkable under the pressure of the distracting and vexed question of "instrumental music;" and yet it only shows that God's people filled with his Spirit, which is the "Spirit of love," can love each other although they differ somewhat in their honest convictions of truth and duty. The very winds and waves seem to be wafting us good news from our foreign field. With our reinforcements in India, new fields are being occupied and new stations are established. A large number of natives have professed conversion and been baptized. It would seem that a deeper and more wide-spread interest is manifested in personal religion among the native converts. From the encouragements and success of our missionaries in that field everything indicates that the Lord is blessing our efforts in India. The past year has been an eventful one in Egypt. For some months our foreign missionaries were driven from the field. "The confused noise of the warrior and garments rolled in blood" [illegible]ified God's little ones there, and threatened the very existence of our work; [illegible]e sudden termination of the rebellion only indicated that God was answering the prayers of the Church by "terrible things in righteousness" for the enlargement of the field there; and that the wild, wicked scheme of Arabi seems to have been laid in the deeper purposes of the Sovreign Lord in subduing the intolerance of the Arabian Moslem; until since the sudden termination of that fearfully ominous outbreak of civil strife, the field has never given such promise of successful and extended work for our Church. "Verily, thou art a God that hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour." Your Committee think there never was a time in the history of our body, that the work in the foreign field could be more confidently commended to the liberal support of our people.

Favorable reports come to us from both our Theological Seminaries: the attendance at Allegheny, 86; and that at Xenia, 21. From the former were graduated 14, and from the latter 9. The only thing to be lamented in both seminaries is, that the number is not greater, and that there is not more of the talent and piety of the Church consecrated to the ministry of the gospel. And yet the most effective forces are not always counted by numbers. The students of both seminaries seem to be consecrated and full of the true missionary spirit, and to possess average talent and piety. In no former year have the students, as a class, given greater promise of taking a high rank as preachers of the gospel.

The number in attendance at Monmouth College during the past year was 248. The religious condition of that institution is good. Eight or ten students have professed their faith in Christ during the year. 71 per cent. of the preparatory department, and over 88 per cent of the four college classes are professing Christians.

From Westminster College come equally encouraging reports. About the usual number is in attendance. Four-fifths of the students are professing Christians. During the year a Young Men's Christian Association was formed, which has proved the most practical religious society ever organized by the students. Students' prayer-meeting is well attended; a Sabbath afternoon Bible class has been well sustained; during the winter a steady interest has been sustained in the religious feature of the college.

The attendance at Muskingum College is steadily increasing. The Christian Association and the Monday evening prayer-meeting seem to have a very healthful, religious influence upon the students. It is certainly gratifying to the Church that these college fountains are so purified with the salt of the Christian religion; and that from these fountains will come currents of influence healthful and purifying to the religious life of the people.

DISCOURAGEMENTS.

With the encouragements come the usual discouragements. In some cases, the good church-goers are indifferent to the claims of the prayer-meeting. In several instances, family instruction, and the religious training of the youth and children are too much entrusted to the Sabbath school; and family religion is not at all as it should be. In some communities our people are disposed to lower the good old standard of Sabbath observance to a conformity to the world's views of the claims of the Lord's day. In several Presbyteries there is a complaint of a growing spirit of worldliness, and a consequent want of positive vital spirituality. In all our broad field, comparatively few revivals were reported last year.

The impression of your Committee, from all we can gather from the annals of the Church for the past year, is that, whilst the life and work of the Church are in comparatively good condition, there is great need of revival throughout the Church. The exhortation and promise, written in Hosea xiv, should come to all our congregations with a great deal of significance, "Take with you words, and turn unto the Lord: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips." "I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely; for mine anger is turned away from him. I will be as the dew unto Israel: he shall grow as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon. His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive tree, and his smell as Lebanon. They that dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall revive as the corn, and grow as the vine: the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon."

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

In our last report to the General Assembly, this Committee urged attention on the part of the Assembly and the churches to the following points:

1. The thorough and efficient organization of the schools; and as a guide and help to such organization, the use of the "Sabbath School Record," prepared by the Committee and published by the Board of Publication.

2. Qualifications of teachers, and normal classes and teachers' meetings for the study of the lessons as means of securing better qualification for teaching.

3. Home study of the lessons, and, as a way of securing this, the recognition of the whole family—parents and children, the old as well as the young, as members of the school.

4. Our lesson helps; congratulating the Church on the excellence already attained, commending an effort for continual improvement, and suggesting that they be made as little expensive to the schools as possible, consistently with their being financially self-supporting.

These recommendations we would renew and reiterate. Possibly some of the improvements indicated in the statistical reports may have resulted from attention to them. Certainly a well-organized and conducted school, with fully-qualified teachers conducting the recitations of lessons that have been carefully studied at home, with the best lesson helps that the sanctified ability of the Church can furnish, and this agency at work all over the Church and all through the year, ought to yield fruit of "growth in grace and in the knowledge of the Lord" both largely and permanently. Yet all this might be, and yet our Sabbath schools be fruitless.

At the risk of seeming to repeat a mere commonplace of Christian doctrine, your Committee would recall to remembrance of all workers in or for Sabbath schools that only our Lord Jesus Christ, working by his Spirit, can make our Sabbath schools successful.

The whole school work should be devotional—not simply accompanied by devotional exercises, nor simply pervaded by a devotional spirit, but consisting of an earnest, believing, humble, devotional "seeking the Lord and his strength." If pastors and elders, officers and teachers, parents and children, will recognize Sabbath school work as a way of seeking the Lord—seeking to know him, to be converted to him, to be conformed to him—and will fill every part of the work with prayer for success, the Lord will give us what we seek.

As the existence of the Committee on Sabbath schools, as a separate Committee, will probably cease with this meeting of the Assembly, we close this part of our report by emphasizing this declaration, that the greatest want of our Sabbath schools is that dependence on God for the work of his Spirit, which will, through divine grace and faithfulness, certainly receive the Spirit's power. The statistical reports show the following results:

Blanks were sent, through the Presbyterial Superintendents, to all schools, except those in the foreign fields; and more schools have reported to your Committee this year than in any previous year.

Three Presbyteries, viz., Chillicothe, Neosho and Vermont failed to respond. These Presbyteries include fourteen schools; and, as thirteen of them made reports last year, we have taken that report in order to have a statement from all the Presbyteries.

Those who will take the trouble to compare the statistics of the present year with some of previous years will find that the results are, on the whole, encouraging. They indicate that the Sabbath school work is growing in interest and in power. There are some facts worthy of special notice.

Attendance.—It is gratifying to see that so many of our pastors and elders are now taking an active part in the work of our schools. An occasional report mentions the discouragement, "want of co-operation on the part of the pastor and session," but a great majority of the reports shows a better state of affairs.

We hope that the time will soon come when every pastor and every elder will be found engaged in this good work.

Attendance of teachers and scholars.—The average attendance, when compared with the total enrollment, is not as large as it should be.

About sixty-five per cent. of our teachers and scholars are found in their places every Sabbath. As a rule, the average attendance in our schools is one-third less than the enrollment. This difference suggests the need of systematic and careful watchfulness on the part of parents, officers, teachers and scholars.

Contributions of the schools.—It is certainly encouraging to notice that our schools are growing in the grace of giving to the Lord.

The total contributions of the past year are larger than in any previous year, having reached the sum of $38,505. And this amount would be largely increased if your Committee knew the exact amount the schools have raised for the Memorial Fund. An effort was made to ascertain how much had been contributed to this purpose, but only a few schools made a definite report, amounting to some five hundred dollars ($500). But a member of the Quarter-Centennial Commission stated that the Sabbath schools and children of the Church will probably give between forty and fifty thousand dollars.

And this will doubtless appear in next year's report.

Another encouraging feature of this part of the report is that a larger amount of school expenses was paid out of the Church treasury than ever before.

Still there is room for improvement in this respect. The statistics show that about one-half of the contributions of the schools are used to maintain their expenses.

It is a matter of regret that our congregations have not seen the importance of providing for such expenses, and then allow the school contributions to be given to some benevolent purpose, or to the missionary work of the Church.

The interest which so many of our schools are manifesting towards the "Q.-C. Memorial" illustrates the importance of our selecting some suitable objects for their contributions.

We desire to emphasize the suggestions given upon this point by the S. S. Committee for the past ten years in regard to the duty of congregations defraying the expenses of their schools.

Teachers not Church members.—This year's report shows that, out of 5,781 teachers, there are only 37 who are not professing Christians.

Last year's report mentioned 56 teachers who were not members of the Church. Let it be our prayer, as well as our hope, that before another year closes these 37 teachers, in their efforts to bring others to Christ, may find him themselves and be enrolled on the Lord's side.

Normal classes—It is a cause for regret that our report this year indicates a decrease in the number of normal classes and in their attendance.

The number reported last year was 37 and 937 members; this year we have 27 classes and an attendance of 400.

So far as we have been able to learn, those who have organized and attended normal classes have testified to the great profit and pleasure received from a systematic study of God's word, and of the best methods of presenting the truth to the minds of their scholars.

As to the importance of such a training, we cannot do better than to quote the language employed by a Committee in their report to the Assembly of 1873;

"A work is given these teachers to do which is second in importance only to preaching the gospel. For the preaching of the word our young men are trained for years. No Presbytery would think of licensing a young man without this careful preparation. Yet teachers in the Sabbath school go into a work approaching the preaching of the gospel in its importance with no special training for this work. Would such a course be pursued in the matter of a mere secular education? Would any community select from its own number even its best educated members and place them in common schools as teachers without any special preparation for their work? As a matter of fact, this is not done in the common schools, and yet it is just what is done in the Sabbath school. In the judgment of the Committee this should not be so. The time was when such a course of procedure might have been profitable and successful; but that time has passed. We cannot thus continue to act in the midst of the general enlightenment of this day. Teachers must be prepared especially for the discharge of this duty. The Assembly should direct the Presbyteries or the Church Sessions in relation to it."

Scholars making profession of faith.—With gratitude to God we record the fact that 2,034 scholars made a public confession of their faith in our Lord Jesus Christ during the past year.

Out of the Presbyteries reporting this year, there is not one but reports some who made a profession of their faith. Several schools have furnished as many as 22, while one congregation was cheered with an accession of 33 members from the Sabbath school.

This proves that the past year has not been one simply of sowing the seed; but God has been pleased to show us some of the fruits of our labors.

Growth of mission schools—Next to the encouragement just mentioned, the number added to the Lord, the most inspiring feature of the year's work is the growth of mission schools and the missionary spirit in our church schools. The number of mission schools reported last year was 29; this year we have 59 missions.

The small Presbytery of San Francisco reports five mission schools—an average of one mission school to every pastor. The growth of the missionary spirit in our church schools is evident from the fact that 11,457 of our scholars belong to families outside of the Church. This shows an increase of 700 mission scholars, as compared with last year, and of more than 1,000 as compared with 1881.

This indicates that the pastors and workers in our schools are striving to attain one of the primary objects of Sabbath schools, which is to provide religious training and influences for those deprived of such at home.

It also shows that our Church is awakening to the fact that the Sabbath school is the strong right arm of the Church for reaching the world without.

Presbyterial Superintendents.—These brethren, generally, are taking a deep interest in the work to which they have been called.

And this interest would increase if the pastors and superintendents of the different schools in the Presbyteries would be more careful in filling out their reports, and more prompt in forwarding them to the Presbyterial Superintendents.

The reports that have been sent in this year show an improvement over those received last year. And the thanks of the Committee and of the Church are due these brethren for the pains they have taken to gather and prepare their reports. According to the notice published a few weeks since, your Committee name those who have sent us the ten best reports, mentioning them in the order of their excellence:

Rev. R. W. McBride; Rev. J. C. Roe; Rev. George McCormick; Rev. E. S. McKitrick; Hon. J. M. McCulloch; Rev. G. A. B. Robinson; Rev. J. T. Caldwell; Rev. W. E. Shaw; Rev. S. J. Kyle; Rev. David Anderson.

We recommend—

1st. That Presbyterial Sabbath School Superintendents be appointed as continuously as possible.

2d. That a further and more persistent effort be made to secure Normal Class study and Teachers' Meeting for the study of the lessons.

3d. That the third Sabbath of October be appointed as a day of prayer for Sabbath Schools.

The term of Rev. D. S. Littell, Rev. W. T. McConnell and H. J. Murdoch, Esq., as members of the Committee, expires at this meeting.

D. S. LITTELL, Chairman,
S. J. SHAW, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

According to the instructions of the last Assembly, your Committee began, as soon as practicable, the publication of a monthly paper devoted to Christian beneficence. In order to let the Church understand that the paper is published, by the direction of the Assembly, in the interest of the whole Church, and not a private enterprise, we have called it "The Assembly Monthly." Eight numbers of the paper have been issued. For an estimate of its value we will refer to the charitable judgment of the Assembly. No member of the Committee had any previous experience in journalistic work, hence we have gone forward with the task laid upon us with many misgivings.

We believe, however, that our labor has not been altogether in vain. Many expressions of commendation have come to us from all parts of the Church, as well as some suggestions of improvement, for which we were no less thankful. Our experience, thus far, has served to deepen our conviction that an agency of this kind will be greatly useful in developing a spirit of benevolence among our people. It will give them information concerning the work of the Church, in all its departments, which many of them would not otherwise possess. We should keep before our minds the fact that probably from one-third to one-half of our families are not receiving either of our church papers, as a consequence they have little information concerning the work of the Church, and, of course, as little interest in it. While this is the case it is certain that their offerings to the cause of Christ will be small. It is also true that the people need "line upon line and precept upon precept" concerning the duty of consecrating their substance to the Lord.

Coveteousness is one of the besetting sins of the Church, and only the frequent presentation of the matter will guard them against that sin.

Few ministers think it prudent to preach on this subject of "Giving" more than two or three times in a year, and this amount of teaching needs surely to be supplemented by much reading on the subject if the people are to be thoroughly educated in this duty.

This paper, on account of its cheapness, will be within the reach of all, and we submit to your judgment if it will not fill an important place in educating the people in the duty of Christian giving not occupied by any other agency. And we respectfully ask the Assembly to adopt such measures, as in your judgment may seem best, to secure its circulation throughout the whole Church.

LADIES' DEPARTMENT.

It is doubtless known to the Assembly that the Ladies' Missionary Societies, throughout the Church, which have done such important service in the past, have been considering the necessity of having some publication specially to represent their work. The Committee would suggest to the Assembly to take such action as will, if possible, make the "Assembly Monthly" supply this want by giving the ladies a department in it. To this end we recommend that this Committee be enlarged by the addition of two ladies, with a view to their taking charge of a Ladies' Department in the paper.

The Assembly last year authorized the Committee to draw on the Board of Publication to the amount of $850 to meet the expense of starting this paper. We have not, thus far, called on that Board for any amount, and it is probable that we will not have need to do so in the future; yet, to make the Committee safe against all possible contingencies, we ask that the same grant be continued for the coming year.

The term of office of W. H. McMillan and Henry Warner, members of this Committee, expires with this meeting. Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE QUARTER-CENTENNIAL COMMISSION.

The Quarter-Centennial Commission would respectfully report to the twenty-fifth General Assembly as follows:

I. THE APPOINTMENT OF THE COMMISSION.

As the twenty-fifth anniversary of the formation of the United Presbyterian Church drew near, some of its members, moved by the memories of the past and by the experience of God's goodness, felt that this anniversary should not pass without some expression of gratitude to the King and Head of the Church. Certain brethren, in the Synod of New York, suggested that a memorial fund should be raised, and this suggestion was incorporated in a memorial to the last General Assembly. But the Assembly, for reasons then deemed sufficient, said that, "owing to the special effort needed this year to raise the increased appropriations, for other reasons, it is inexpedient to undertake the raising of a so-called [redacted]r-wedding' fund of $500,000 at this time."

But there were some who were anxious to go on with the movement. Soon after the adjournment of the Assembly, several articles advocating the raising of a memorial fund appeared in the papers of the Church. These articles, which attracted much attention and called forth a hearty response from different quarters, resulted in calling a Convention, which met in the First Church, Allegheny, September 6, 1882. This Convention, which was composed of representative ministers and laymen from Philadelphia on the East, to St. Louis and Monmouth on the West, endorsed the proposed movement to raise $500,000 as an expression of gratitude to God for his grace; designated the objects to which contributions should be made, viz.: The Boards of Foreign Missions, of Home Missions, of Freedmen's Missions, of Church Extension, of Ministerial Relief, of Education, and of Publication, the Allegheny Theological Seminary, the Xenia Theological Seminary, Westminster College, Muskingum College, Monmouth College and Knoxville College; ordered that contributions should be made to no other objects except in certain specified cases; asked the Assembly to distribute all money not designated by the donors; appointed a Committee, called the Quarter-Centennial Commission, to have charge of the movement, to use all necessary means to bring it to the attention of the Church, and to exercise all diligence to prosecute it to completion; and directed the Commission to report in full to the next General Assembly. The following persons were appointed by the Convention as members of the Commission: Messrs. W. J. Sawyer, Joseph McNaugher, E. S. Morrow, A. P. Burchfield, J. J. Porter, Revs. William J. Reid, J. M. Fulton.

II. THE WORK OF THE COMMISSION.

As soon as possible, after their appointment, the Commission met and organized by electing Rev. William J. Reid, President, W. J. Sawyer, Secretary, and J. J. Porter, Treasurer. They asked and received the endorsement of the Synods at their Fall meetings. They entered at once upon the work before them, and have held weekly meetings ever since. They prepared circulars, describing the origin, object and feasibility of the proposed movement, and suggesting plans for its successful execution, and distributed them through the Church; they visited Presbyteries and congregations, as far as they could; they procured the appointment of agents in all the Presbyteries; they kept the matter before the people by using largely the papers of the Church; they have tried, in every fitting way, to bring the work to a successful termination. While they feel they have come far short in doing the work entrusted to them, they can say, with a good conscience, they did what they could.

The Commission take pleasure in testifying that their efforts have, almost universally, met with a cordial response. Wherever they or their agents have presented the Quarter-Centennial movement, they have been kindly and sometimes enthusiastically received.

The entire expenses of the Commission, for postage, traveling expenses, printing circulars and certificates, etc., have been about $1,500. It gives the Commission pleasure to say that this amount will be raised among themselves and their friends in Allegheny, Pittsburgh, and vicinity, so that every cent contributed to the memorial fund will go directly to the general work of the Church.

III. THE AMOUNT SUBSCRIBED TO THE FUND.

The Church has shown, by its liberality, that it is not altogether unmindful of the goodness of God during the twenty-five years of its history. We are sure if the Commission could have entered upon its work earlier in the year, a much larger sum would have been raised; but as one-third of the Assembly year had passed before the Commission was appointed, and as it required some time after their appointment to mature their plans and get them into operation, they had but a short time to do so great a work.

The total amount of subscriptions to the Quarter-Centennial Fund, up to May 23, is as follows:

Board of Foreign Missions	$ 38,031.00
Board of Home Missions	9,297.00
Board of Freedmen's Missions	4,633.00
Board of Church Extension	4,818.00
Board of Ministerial Relief	1,986.00

Board of Education	139.00
Board of Publication	22.00
Allegheny Theological Seminary	3,952.00
Xenia Theological Seminary	2,779.00
Westminster College	2,309.00
Muskingum College	4 486 00
Monmouth College	14,119.00
Knoxville College	1,144 00
Franklin College	4,905.25
Lincoln College	588.75
Orphans' Home	6,451.42
Norfolk, Va., Mission	600.00
Undesignated	287,724.28
Total	$387,984.70

We have prepared a table of all the congregations of the Church and the amount contributed by each. This table is herewith submitted. From it it appears that of the 826 congregations of the Church, 464 have contributed to this fund. 362 have not contributed. The contributions of some congregations have been lessened, and of some entirely hindered by the paying of old debts, the building of new churches, or other extraordinary expenses. These are laudable objects, and no doubt they are for the glory of God; but the convention, which appointed the Quarter-Centennial Commission, felt that money raised for these purposes should not be reckoned in the Memorial Fund, for if each congregation was permitted to spend what it raised for its own benefit and comfort, it would not be a fitting expression of gratitude to God for his goodness to the Church, nor would very much be raised for the Boards and educational institutions. As many of these congregations would like to contribute to the Memorial Fund, and as they would be able to do so another year, it might be well to continue the work for a while longer. It might also be well for the Assembly to direct all the congregations under its care to report to the Quarter-Centennial Commission, before the first of August next, all money raised during the year for building or repairing churches, paying church debts, or other extraordinary congregational expenses, that these amounts may be added to the Memorial Fund, and more exact justice done to the congregations thus situated.

The cash received by the Commission is as follows:

Board of Foreign Missions	$ 15,718.25
Board of Home Missions	8,336.53
Board of Freedmen's Missions	3,582.10
Board of Church Extension	1,797.52
Board of Ministerial Relief	828.11
Board of Education	104 80
Board of Publication	3.00
Allegheny Theological Seminary	3,063.75
Xenia Theological Seminary	165.50
Westminster College	1,209.75
Muskingum College	603.25
Monmouth College	2,600.05
Knoxville College	1,063.50
Lincoln College	299.25
Franklin College	232.50
Orphans' Home, Allegheny	2,436.51
Assembly Fund	1.00
Indian School at Carlisle	16.00
Undesignated	89,531.90
Total	$131,593.30

The amount credited to Foreign Missions includes the following special amounts: Library for the Theological Seminary in Egypt, $50; Egyptian Mission, $353; Girls' School at Cairo, $50; Asyoot College, $10; India Mission, $357.50; Buildings at Alexandria, $782; Churches in India, $300; Mission Buildings in Jhelum, $200; Sialkot Training School, $230; India Institute, $64; Woman's work in Foreign Fields, $155; Alexandria Mission, $541.54; Girls' School at Sialkot, $14.

The amount credited to Home Missions includes $64.13 to the Warm Spring Indians.

The amount credited to Freedmen's Missions includes the following: Chase City Mission, $50; Norfolk, $155.

The amount credited to Church Extension includes the following: 12th Church, Philadelphia, $100; Bayard, Iowa, $25; Liberty, Nebraska, $100.

The amount credited to Monmouth College includes contributions assigned to the Alumni Professorship, $182; Scientific Department, $50.

We bring this amount to the Assembly as the first fruits of the free-will offering of the Church; we ask them to distribute so much as has not been designated by the donors, and direct the Commission what to do with the money, and with all the money which may hereafter be received.

The testimony comes to us from all directions that this amount has been raised with comparative ease; and, if during the past year, the Church has raised $131,503 over and above its usual contributions, what might it do every year?

IV. A MEMORIAL SERVICE.

It seems fitting that the Assembly should hold a memorial service on the twenty-fifth anniversary of the formation of the union, and give formal and hearty expression of its gratitude to God for his goodness to the Church during the quarter of a century of its history. This anniversary falls on Saturday, May 26th, at 10 o'clock, A. M. The union was consummated in the old City Hall of this city, and it would be appropriate to hold the anniversary services in that place, but it is so occupied that it could not be obtained for this purpose. The General Synod of the Associate Reformed Church met in 1858 in the edifice of the First Church, Allegheny, but this building is not now used for church purposes. The Synod of the Associate Church met that year in the First Church, Pittsburgh; and this would be an appropriate place for holding the anniversary services. But the Commission would suggest, on account of its central location, and its large seating capacity, the Second Church of Allegheny.

The fathers, who took part in the public services on the day of the formation of the union, have nearly all entered the Church triumphant. Dr. Donald C. McLaren, the Moderator of the Associate Reformed Synod, Dr. James Rodgers, Dr. James P. Smart, Dr. W. S. Plummer, of the Presbyterian Church, who made addresses, Dr. William Davidson, who led in the concluding prayer, and Dr. John T. Pressly, who also made an address and who was elected Moderator of the first General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, have all finished their work. Dr. Joseph T. Cooper, the Moderator of the Associate Synod, and Dr. Samuel Wilson, the Clerk of the first General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, are the only prominent actors in those proceedings, who remain alive to this day, except Dr. James Prestley, who is not now in connection with our Church. It is certainly fitting that these survivors should have a prominent place in the proposed anniversary services.

The Quarter-Centennial Commission would take the liberty of suggesting that the Assembly adjourn on Saturday at 9.30 o'clock, A. M., and proceed to the Second Church, Allegheny, to hold a memorial service at 10 o'clock. The Commission would also suggest the following order of exercises:

Rev. J. T. Cooper, D. D., to preside; Singing Psalm 100, 1-4, L. M.; Prayer by Rev. Joseph Clokey, D. D.; Address by Rev. D. R. Kerr, D. D., "The Fathers of the Union"; Singing Psalm 77, 5-10, C. M.; Address by Rev. J. A. Collins, "The Work at Home during the Twenty-five Years"; Address by Rev. James S. Barr, D. D., "The Work Abroad during the Twenty-five Years"; Singing Psalm 72, 5, 6, L. M.; Address by Rev. D. A. Wallace, D. D., "Our Educational Institutions during the Twenty-five Years"; Address by Rev. W. P. Kane, "Our Sabbath Schools during the Twenty-five Years"; Singing Psalm 78, 5-8, C. M.; Address by Rev. N. C. McDill, "The Lessons of the Twenty-five Years"; Address by Rev. J. M. Fulton, "The Memorial Offering"; Address by Rev. W. G. Moorehead, D. D., "The Outlook Toward the Future"; Singing Psalm 80, 8-10, 11s; Prayer by Rev. G. C. Vincent, D. D.; Singing Psalm 133, 1-3, C. M.; Benediction by Rev. J. T. Cooper, D. D.

V. RECOMMENDATIONS.

We recommend the adoption of the following recommendations:

1. That the order of exercises for a Memorial Service, as suggested in this report, be adopted.

2. That the Standing Committee on Finance be directed to prepare and report to the Assembly a distribution of the undesignated money in the Memorial Fund.

3. That the Assembly instruct the treasurer of the Commission how to disburse the money now in his hands, and whatever money he may hereafter receive.

4. That the Commission be continued for another year, with instructions to complete the work of canvassing the entire Church, and report their diligence to the next Assembly.

5. That the congregations which have, during the memorial year, raised money for building churches, paying debts, or other extraordinary congregational expenses, be instructed to report the amount to the Commission before August 1, 1883, and that the Commission be directed to give them credit in the Memorial Fund for the amount thus raised and reported.

6. That the Commission be instructed, when their work is completed, to publish for free distribution a history of the Memorial Fund, a list of all the congregations of the Church with the amount contributed by each, a statement of the disposition which has been made of the money, and such other matter as they may deem to be of permanent value in such a publication.

7. That the thanks of the Assembly be given to the congregations, Sabbath Schools, Ladies' Missionary Societies and members of the Church, for the liberality with which they have contributed to the Memorial Fund and thus assisted the Boards and educational institutions; to those friends in other Churches who have helped in the work; to the presbyterial agents, to whose earnest work in their respective Presbyteries much of the success is owing; to the periodicals of the Church, which have devoted so much of their space to this movement, and have done so much in carrying the enthusiasm to the homes of the people; and especially to God to whose blessing all success is due.

By order of the Commission.

PITTSBURGH, PA., May 23, 1883.

REPORT ON CONSOLIDATING THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION AND THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

A report was submitted to the General Assembly of 1882, which met at Monmouth, Ill., by a joint Committee, composed of the Committees on Sabbath Schools and the Board of Publication, recommending that the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools and the Board of Publication be consolidated. The report was accepted by the Assembly, but without being further acted upon, the whole subject was referred to a special Committee with instructions to report to the Assembly appointed to meet in the city of Pittsburgh, in 1883.

The reasons for the proposed change are as follows: The Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools, acting under specific legislation by the Assembly of 1874, has been endeavoring to "prepare or procure the preparation of suitable Notes for teachers and Lesson Papers for scholars," and these have been published by the Board of Publication. It has been claimed, however, that since the Board of Publication bears the responsibility of managing the Bible Teacher and Lesson Quarterly, it properly belongs to it to control the preparation of the Notes, so that the work may thus have a unity that, according to the present plan, is not attainable. This is altogether reasonable. In the belief, therefore, that the efficiency of the work of the Church relating to Sabbath schools will be greatly increased by the proposed consolidation, the following plan is presented for the consideration of the Assembly.

I. The Supplement to the Charter of the Board of Publication shall be so amended as to place it under the management of a Board of fifteen (15) managers, eight (8) of whom shall constitute a quorum.

II. The Board of Publication is hereby directed to appoint at its first regular meeting after the aforesaid amendment to the charter has been secured, and annually thereafter, six (6) of its members who, with the editor of the Sabbath school periodicals, shall constitute the Sabbath School Committee of said Board, and it shall be the duty of this Committee to have general oversight of the Sabbath school interests involved in the work of the Board, to prepare and present to the Board suitable action with reference thereto, and to perform, subject to the approval of the Board, all the duties now devolving upon the Assembly's Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools.

III. The Board is also instructed to direct its editor to present the Sabbath school work, when practicable, to the Synods and Assemblies and in the Theological Seminaries, urging its importance, describing its improved methods of teaching and managing, and giving whatever other information will be likely to create for it a greater interest and promote its usefulness.

IV. The Board of Publication is hereby directed to secure such legal action as will carry these resolutions into effect.

V. The Permanent Committee is hereby declared to be dissolved so soon as the Board of Publication has been organized in accordance with the foregoing resolutions.

By order of the Committee,

J. R. JOHNSTON, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO CORRESPOND WITH OTHER DENOMINATIONS IN RELATION TO THE OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

The Committee, appointed by the last Assembly to correspond with other denominations in relation to the observance of the Sabbath, would respectfully report that, from the discussion pending the motion to appoint the Committee, they did not understand their appointment to contemplate the opening of a correspondence with other denominations, but for the purpose of answering any correspondence which might be addressed to the Assembly through them. No correspondence has been received, and none transmitted.

This subject came before the last Assembly through a communication from the Southern Presbyterian Church, asking co-operation in petitioning the civil authorities to abolish Sabbath mails. The communication received a proper response at the time. In view of the fact that co-operation, in the suppression of an evil of great magnitude, has been invited by a body of Christians so large and influential, as well as from the intrinsic importance of the subject itself, your Committee beg leave to offer a few suggestions:

1. That the pastors of our congregations, and the conductors of our periodicals, be requested to give to the subject of the sanctification of the Sabbath, by private individuals, and by those in public stations, the prominence which its importance demands. The fourth commandment is the key to the arch of moral obligation which spans and protects the interests of society; and its maintenance is as necessary to the safety and well-being of the State as of the Church, and of individuals. Weaken the Sabbath and you imperil the rest of the decalogue. Preserve the Sabbath and you strengthen the entire moral law.

2. While petitioning those in civil authority to repeal laws which require or sanction the violation of the Lord's day, and to enact others which will prohibit such violation, is our privilege and duty, both as Christians and as citizens; yet these petitions, unless generally circulated and numerously signed, do not adequately represent the friends of the Sabbath. Petitions signed by a few thousands, or even hundreds of thousands, when there should be as many millions, are in danger of being interpreted to indicate, not the strength, but the weakness of the Christian sentiment of the country.

3. It is believed that the united remonstrance of the Assemblies, Councils, Convocations, and Associations of the different religious denominations of our country, representing, as such action would, many millions of Christians, would exercise a wholesome and powerful influence on those in power, and lead to the enactment of better laws and the more faithful execution of the law in respect to the Lord's day. And if it should happen, as possibly it might, that wicked men would resent such remonstrances as an improper interference of the Church with the State in its own sphere, such resentment would serve to bring out in bolder relief the essential dignity of the Church of Christ on earth and her true character as a public witness for the holiness and the immutability of the divine law. "Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord." "And ye shall be brought before kings for my name's sake." This is true, not only of individual believers and of ministers of the gospel, but also of the Church as a collective body. Nothing is gained for the glory of God, or the welfare of the Church, by holding in abeyance the assertion of her just authority in regard to moral questions which are of present and public interest.

Your Committee, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That this General Assembly take measures to secure the co-operation of the bodies representing the different religions denominations of our country in remonstrating with the civil authorities against the transmission of the mails on the Lord s day, as well as against other forms of Sabbath desecration required or sanctioned by law.

AMENDMENTS TO THE HISTORICAL RECORD.

The Reformed Church, 1879, p. 89. The basis of union was adopted by the Reformed Presbytery at Pequa, Pa., June 9, 1779.

After the removal of the majority of the ministers to the North in consequence of the disaffection following the act of the Synod of 1831, a part of the Presbytery united with the First Presbytery of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, July 10, 1833, at Shiloh Church, in Lancaster Co., S. C. The Synod of 1839 took further action, suspending certain ministers, but the Presbytery maintained its existence until April 15, 1844, when, under the authority of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, a union with the First Presbytery was formally consummated at New Perth, N. 6. STATISTICS OF MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

Contributions for other objects than Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Missions and Church Extension are arranged under a general heading. When the particular object is known, it is given in the address column, and reference is made to it by a †.

N. B.—An * affixed to the name or a number indicates work in the congregation.

An ? affixed to the number of members indicates that the number was not reported, and it is therefore estimated.

A † prefixed to contributions shows that the aggregate was reported, but not the distributions to the several funds.

II. VITAL STATISTICS.

The following Tables have been prepared from the records of the ordained ministers of the United Presbyterian Church, and of the Associate and Associate Reformed Churches, as given in Dr. Scouller's Manual and the Minutes of the General Assembly.

Two lists have been used. One including four hundred and forty-four lives, and extending over a period of about one hundred years to the present date. The other including one hundred and fifty-five lives, and extending over the years 1869 to 1883, inclusive.

REPORT OF THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE.

In the matter of the appeal of Rev. J. C. Evans vs. The Synod of Iowa.

In the above entitled cause the Committee on Judiciary respectfully report:

That on June 21st 1881, Julia E. J. Evans filed a Libel with the Presbytery of Omaha, accusing the Rev. J. C. Evans of dishonesty; that on March 29th, 1882, the Presbytery of Omaha declared the charges contained in said Libel inadmissable; that thereafter the complainant Julia E. J. Evans prosecuted an appeal to the Synod of Iowa; that said Synod appointed a commission to try and issue the case; that said commission of the Synod of Iowa, at a meeting thereof in Indianola, Iowa, on November 14, 1882, found the said the Rev. J. C Evans guilty of the 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th specifications in said Libel, and directed the "Presbytery of Omaha to suspend the said Rev. J. C. Evans from the Gospel Ministry and from the sealing ordinances of the Church;" that thereafter the said the Rev. J. C. Evans appealed from the finding of said commission to the General Assembly; that the Twenty-fifth General Assembly appointed a commission to try and issue the case.

We further report that said commission appointed by the Twenty-fifth General Assembly conducted all its proceedings according to the rules of this court; and that said commission did not exceed its powers, and in October, 1883, adjudged "that the appeal be not sustained."

We therefore recommend that the judgment of said commission be confirmed, and that the records of its proceedings be entered upon and become part of the records of this court, and that the Presbytery of Omaha be directed to execute the judgment of the commission of the Synod of Iowa, upon receipt of a certified copy of the proceedings of this court in the cause.

A vote thereon shall be taken in each Presbytery and carefully recorded, and, together with the number of members present when the vote was taken, shall be duly certified to the General Assembly. When an overture is approved by a majority of the members thus present, the General Assembly shall enact such regulation, unless peculiar circumstances, in view of two-thirds of the enrolled members, render it inexpedient.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a report on keeping in the Church members removing from one part of the Church to another, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BILLS AND OVERTURES ON MEMBERS REMOVING FROM ONE PART OF THE CHURCH TO ANOTHER.

The Presbytery of Kansas asks that this Assembly take action regarding this, when members of the Church remove from one part of the country to another, the session, under whose care they are, give information in regard to them, if practicable, to the pastor or session nearest to the place where they expect to locate.

Your Committee recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That pastors and sessions be urged to look after members removing from the bounds of their respective congregations, so that they may be saved to our own branch of the Church.

Resolved, 2. That the Board of Publication be directed to consider the propriety of publishing, for the use of the Church, a book of blank certificates of membership, to include also the baptized membership, in which there shall be added to the form now in use, forms for notifying sessions concerning persons certified to them, and for acknowledging their reception.

The Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

It is with gratitude to God that we call your attention to the fact that this Board through the liberality of the Church, has been doing a quiet and good work for eleven years, in rendering aid and care to our aged and disabled ministers and their families.

There is now invested in the Endowment Fund $45,000, an increase since last year of $15,000.

The Board received $8,300 of the Quarter-Centennial Fund, $5,500 in legacies and contributions.

Aid to the amount of $3,600 was distributed to twenty-six persons.

The Board suggests to the Assembly a change in the rules regulating the applications for aid. The suggestion is, that after the first year, aid be granted by simple application of Presbytery, signed by the Moderator and Clerk.

The Committee offer for your adoption the following resolutions:

1st. That the rules regulating the operations of the Board be so changed, that aid can be granted in cases of renewal, by simple application of Presbytery, signed by the Moderator and Clerk.

2d. That the appropriation of $5,000, asked for by the Board, be granted.

3d. That Presbyteries be reminded of the importance of seeking out, and reporting to the Board, all requiring aid.

4th. That the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to the Board for their fidelity in this good work.

Rev. J. N. Dick, D. D., gave notice, for himself and for any who might wish to join with him, of protest against this action

The report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions was then adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

There have been referred to your Committee the report of the Board of Home Missions, the report of the General Committee of Missions, and a memorial from the Presbytery of Detroit on the subject of Sustentation.

The report of the Board of Home Missions shows that under many trials and discouragements the work has been carried forward with marked evidences of the Divine blessing.

The General Committee have carefully and minutely investigated the work done as well as that proposed to be done under the direction of the Home Board.

The utmost care has been exercised to reduce the amount asked for the work to lowest possible sum—an amount which the Church can easily give if ministers, members, missionary societies and Sabbath Schools will give to this cause the attention that its importance demands.

It is believed that a division of the funds, as contemplated in the plan of Sustentation, and the discouragement to congregations incident to placing them in the class proposed, would counterbalance any advantages that might accrue to the Church therefrom.

The pressing necessity of the great work at home must be apparent when we remember the rapid increase of our population, the vast multitudes that come to our shores from all nations, the energy shown by the foes of Christ, the work to be done in the foreign field, of which this is the basis, and the opportunities of appealing to the people, in our own language, to bring honor to the name of Christ.

To efficiently carry on the work the Church needs—

1. Laborers ready to go at the bidding of the Master.
2. Greater consecration on the part of the ministry and membership of the Church.
3. An increased appreciation of the greatness of the work, and more fervent zeal for the honor and glory of Christ.
4. Money, promptly, cheerfully and prayerfully given.
5. The conserving of the Church's power in the employment of all who have been blessed with gifts that may be useful to the cause.
6. A settled policy in maintaining the work in important fields.
7. Careful Presbyterial supervision of the work, which involves great care in selecting new stations, and securing men adapted to the special work to be done in them.

We recommend for your adoption the following:

1st. That the work of the Board of Home Missions be approved.

2d. That the report of the General Committee of Missions be adopted.

3d. That in the great and ever enlarging home field, ripe for the harvest, we recognize the call of Providence on our beloved Church to fulfill its mission to and in the world.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions was made the first order of the day for Monday afternoon.

After prayer by Rev. Alex. Gilchrist, the Assembly adjourned to meet on Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

MONDAY.

9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. M. Adair.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with, and the minutes of the last session were read and approved.

An invitation to unite in the celebration of the landing of the Scotch Presbyterian Pilgrim Fathers, was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Committee on Revision presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON REVISION.

The Committee on Revision would respectfully present the following report:

Properly certified printed copies of the minutes of the General Assembly of 1883, the Synods of Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, New York, Pittsburgh, First Synod of the West, Second Synod and the Presbytery of Sialkot from March, 1883, to January, 1884, have been placed in our hands for revision. A paper was also presented from the Clerk of the Synod of Ohio, stating that the minutes of that Synod for 1883 had not yet been printed, and consequently had not been presented to the General Assembly.

These records, as far as we have been able to examine them, have been kept according to Presbyterial order, and have been neatly and correctly printed, with the exception of a few slight verbal inaccuracies and omissions in the minutes of the First Synod of the West.

We recommend the following action:

That the records presented to the General Assembly for revision be approved.

The Committee on Statistics presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON STATISTICS.

The only papers put into our hands were: 1, the Report of the Second Clerk; 2, the Statistics of Ladies' Missionary Societies; 3, the General Statistics of the Church, bearing date 1884.

A few facts are worthy of notice:

1st. Presbyterial reports continue to come in after the time of going to press. 2d. The statistics, as furnished us for the year, are full, and with very few exceptions accurate. 3d. Additional tables have been prepared and inserted in the published minutes; such as, the Table of Vital Statistics, requiring great pains, much time, and yet affording valuable information. 4th. Whereas, a summary of the statistics is published in the papers of the Church, and appears in different forms in the minutes of the Assembly, we deem it unnecessary to embody the same in this report.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1st. That we approve the statistical tables as submitted to us this year.

2d. Congregations and clerks of Presbyteries are directed to be prompt in sending in their reports, as delay costs additional labor and expense.

3d. Vacant congregations are requested to report only the amount paid out for supplies during the year, and not the fixed salary of the congregation when settled; and also, that in making up the average salary, clerks of Presbyteries be directed not to include the amount paid by vacancies for supplies.

4th. We commend the great care and pains taken by the Second Clerk in making out these statistical tables.

5th. That any additional expense involved in this particular part of his work be defrayed from the Assembly's fund.

The Committee on Judiciary presented a report on the interpretation of the law on instrumental music in worship. During the discussion of this report, the hour of adjournment arrived, when the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. W. C. Williamson.

1:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. S. J. S. Moore.

The roll was called, and the minutes of the last session were read and approved.

All matters relating to Women's Missionary Societies, which had been brought or might be brought before the Assembly, were referred to a Special Committee consisting of the Chairmen of the Committees on the Boards of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Missions and Church Extension.

The nomination of the Special Committee on Membership in the Grand Army of the Republic, was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

Revs. J. T. McCrory, G. T. Galbraith, G. W. Hamilton, Messrs. P. T. King and Andrew Robinson were appointed a Special Committee on the subject of Temperance.

Proceeded to the order of the day, viz., the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions. This report was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Your Committee would report that they have examined the report of the Board with accompanying papers, and the memorial of the India Mission, the only things referred to us, and would offer for adoption the following:

Resolved, 1*st*. That the management of the Board during the past year be approved and that 5,000 copies of their Annual Report be printed for gratuitous distribution.

2d. That the Board be instructed to pay off the debt to the respective missions, which has been accumulating for some years, as soon as the funds can be obtained.

3d. That the Board be instructed to distribute the Quarter-Centennial Fund, appropriated to Foreign Missions, equally between the missions of Egypt and India, and that all supplies of men and means be made according to the need and importance of the different missions.

4th. That the special providential care of the mission in Egypt in troublous times, and the wonderful manifestation of gracious power in the great revival and ingathering of souls in the India field are marks of favor from God to the United Presbyterian Church, which lay the church under obligations to greatly increased zeal and liberality in this work.

5th. That one-half hour be spent by the Assembly immediately upon the adoption of this report, in thanksgiving and praise to God under the direction of the Moderator.

6th. That the matter of establishing a Women's Board, noticed in the report of the Board, be referred to the Special Committee on Women's Missionary Societies to consider and report a plan of organization to the next General Assembly.

7th. That the special attention of those who desire to make bequests to this work be called to the necessity of great care to have such bequests made in due season and according to the laws of the State in which they live, lest their wishes be defeated.

8th. That the Assembly earnestly recommend the women's part of our foreign work to the sympathy and support of the women of our Church.

9th. That the Board be directed to send out at the earliest time in their power as many new missionaries, male and female, as may be secured, and as the funds will in any way allow.

10th. That the following appropriations be made for the year:

For debt to Egypt	$14,681 99
" " India	1,890 00
		$16,571 99
For India Mission for 1884	$30,621 00
" Egypt " "	37,390 56
Missionaries in this country	2,000 00
Children in this country	1,200 00
Board's Expenses	800 00
Printing, mailing, incidentals, etc	1,000 00
		$73,011 56
Total		$89,583 55

11th. That the sum of ninety thousand dollars be placed at the disposal of the Board to meet the emergencies of the coming year.

12th. That the thanks of the Assembly and of our whole Church be devoutly given to God for the many evidences of his hearing prayer on behalf of the Foreign Mission work of our Church, and favoring it with enriching blessings.

13th. That thanks also be given to the American Tract Society; The American, and British and Foreign Bible Societies; The Turkish Mission's Aid Society; The Paisley Ladies' Missionary, and the London Tract Society for their liberal grants and contributions to our foreign work; and also to Daniel Peoples, Esq., of Liverpool, England, for his continued kindness and help to our missionaries in going to and returning from their fields; to Rev. J. H. Wilson, D.D., Barlcay Free Church, Edinburgh, Scotland, for generous contributions raised for our Mission; and to Hon. Judge Barringer, of Cairo, Egypt, for important services in civil matters.

14th. That all of our people be earnestly and much engaged in prayer that the Holy Spirit may be sent down to show and sanctify for their desired ends the plans that should be devised and the efforts that should be put forth for this great work of our Church, that more and more laborers be raised up and funds provided for it, and that God will speedily have his way known on earth, and his saving health among all nations.

In accordance with the fifth resolution of this report, the Assembly, under the direction of the Moderator, spent half an hour in praise and thanksgiving to God, for the favor with which he has blessed the Foreign Mission work during the year.

The nomination of persons to constitute the usual permanent Committees of the Assembly for the coming year, was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The following amendment was moved to the report by Revs. D. S. McHenry and W. A. Robb:

Resolved, That the repeal of the article in the Directory for Worship prohibiting the use of instruments in the worship of God, did not have the force of a positive enactment authorizing their use; that to secure such authorization further legislation by overture to the Presbyteries is required.

This amendment was lost by a vote of 75 to 116.

The following amendment was proposed by Revs. M. S. McCord and J. N. Dick, D. D.:

Resolved, That this General Assembly declares that the standards of our Church authorize the use of instruments in the worship of God.

The report of the Committee on Judiciary was then adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE ON THE INTERPRETATION OF THE LAW ON INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC.

The Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred so much of the memorials on the subject of instrumental music, as relates to the question of law, respectfully report:

A large number of the memorials refer to this subject, and there is substantial agreement among them all in asking the Assembly "to declare, that according to the standards of our Church, the use of instrumental music in worship is unlawful."

Memorials making the same request were presented to the General Assembly of 1883, but were not granted.

It is evident from these memorials that, notwithstanding the repeal of Sec. 5, Art. 2, Chap. 3, of the Directory for Worship, many of the brethren believe, as one of the memorials declares, "that even without such rule, the Constitution of the Church, its Confession of Faith, Catechisms, Testimonies, and Book of Worship, preclude the use of an instrumental accompaniment in praise."

It is proper to observe, however, in this connection, that a large majority of the representatives of the authority of the Church, as the record of the voting shows, hold that there is nothing in our standards or the Bible to justify us in having a prohibitory law on this subject.

It is to be deeply regretted that this difference of opinion should exist among brethren, who are heartily agreed in sustaining the great principles of our Confession of Faith, Catechisms and Testimony. If there is any interpretation of our law, which can be given in consistency with truth and in harmony with the conscientious convictions of brethren on both sides of the question, the Assembly ought not to hesitate in putting the seal of its authority on that interpretation.

A brief review of the state of the question, as it exists under the action of former Assemblies, may help to bring us to a right judgment in the matter.

At the time the article of the Directory for Worship on instrumental music was adopted, there was a considerable number of the officers and members of the Church opposed to it. As early as 1867, the Assembly made this article of the Directory a special overture. The vote on the overture at that time was: for retaining the article, 385; against retaining it, 157. Dissatisfaction with the article continued to increase, and in 1877 it was again proposed in the Assembly to overture it. The effort, however, was not successful, and the article remained in the Directory. The instrumental accompaniment in the meantime had been introduced into a few Sabbath schools and churches. A memorial was presented to the General Assembly of 1881, asking the Assembly to "direct the Presbyteries, in whose bounds the law was violated, to take steps to have the disorder complained of corrected." The request of the memoralists was not granted, but with the view of restoring harmony, the article in the Directory, which it was claimed was violated, was sent down in overture to the Presbyteries.

The vote on this overture, as reported to the Assembly of 1882, stood: for repeal, 620½; against it, 612½; 9 persons entitled to vote were reported as not exercising their right. The Assembly adopted the following resolution: "That the overture to repeal the rule in our Directory touching instrumental music has received a clear, constitutional majority of the votes of the Church, and therefore has been carried."

Memorials were presented to the Assembly of 1883, asking, as the memorialists to this Assembly do, that notwithstanding the repeal of the rule, the Assembly declare instrumental music in the worship of the Church unlawful. Instead, however, of so declaring, the Assembly re-affirmed the action of the former Assembly, as explained in the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

And now the question comes to us, ought we, can we, in view of the past action of the Church and the present state of the question, declare "that according to the standards of the Church, the use of instrumental music in worship is unlawful?"

In the judgment of your Committee, this declaration cannot be made for the following reasons, viz:

1. It would, in the language of Dr. J. P. Lytle in his pastoral letter, "re-establish, in effect, by a simple act of one Assembly, a law which has been overtured and declared to be repealed by the only Assembly competent to count the vote and declare the result, which is to destroy the principle on which the law of overture is founded, and to cause the difference, between a mere act of the Assembly and a law established by the votes of the whole Church, to disappear." It would be an attempt to set aside the decree of the Church, enacted through constitutional forms, in a way unknown to the Constitution for either making or repealing law!

2. It will be admitted, we trust, by all that the article of the Directory, which has been declared repealed, was the statute which applied the principle of the Confession, that "God is not to be worshipped in any way not appointed in his word," to this subject. And now that the article has been repealed, and the declaration made by the Church that this principle of the Confession does not apply to the use of instrumental help in praise, there is no such law in our standards, and there can be none, until it is placed there in the only way the Constitution has provided, viz: by regular process of overture.

3. The Assembly should not make the declaration asked, as by so doing there would be an attempt to establish a term of fellowship, to which a large majority of the ministers of the United Presbyterian Church, and perhaps a majority of her officers and members, could not conscientiously subscribe. They do not believe that there is Bible authority for such a law; they do not believe that the standards of the Church authorize it, and they cannot say, as they then would be required to say, that all who fail to observe that law, shall be excluded from the fellowship of the Church. They are willing to say that, in most cases, it would not be expedient to have any instrumental help in the praise service of our congregations. They can say, as very many of them have said, and as the last two General Assemblies have declared, that there should be no action on this subject in any of our congregations, which would be offensive to fellow worshipers, or which would disturb the peace of congregations. And they do say that there is no authority to justify the Church in having, and enforcing by its discipline, a term of fellowship on this subject.

We, therefore, recommend for your adoption the following:

Resolved, That the request of the memoralists, asking the Assembly to "declare that, according to the standards of our Church, the use of instrumental music in worship is unlawful," be not granted.

Rev. M. S. McCord gave notice of protest against this action on his own behalf and on behalf of any who might join with him.

The Second Clerk asked the Assembly to prescribe the form of blanks for the returns on the vote on the overture submitted. The request was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

After prayer by Rev. J. N. Dick, D. D., the Assembly adjourned.

TUESDAY.

9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. G. T. Galbraith.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Topeka, Kan., was chosen as the place for the meeting of the next General Assembly, and the hour of meeting was fixed at 7:30 o'clock, P. M.

Garnett, Kan., was chosen as the place for the next meeting of the General Committee of Home Missions.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a majority and minority report on instrumental music. During the discussion of the majority report, the hour of adjournment arrived, and the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. J. V. Pringle.

1:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. W. T. Meloy, D. D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Assembly was requested to appoint a Committee to prepare a programme for the week of prayer in 1885. The request was granted, and the nomination of the Committee was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

Resolved 1. That the consideration of the report of the Special Committee on the subject of Temperance be made the first order of the day for this evening.

2. That Rev. John A. Gordon be the Moderator's alternate to preach the opening sermon at the next meeting of the General Assembly.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the majority of the Committee on Bills and Gvertures on instrumental music.

The following amendment was moved by Revs. John Patterson and J. T. Tate:

WHEREAS, The General Assembly of 1882 could do nothing more than enact the repeal of our law on instrumental music; and,

WHEREAS, Nothing can be introduced affecting the worship of God until it is overtured and adopted; therefore,

Resolved, That the following be sent down in overture to the Presbyteries: "Shall the use of instrumental music in the worship of God be lawful in the United Presbyterian Church?"

The ayes and nays were demanded on the amendment, when it was lost by the following vote:

The report was then adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BILLS AND OVERTURES ON INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC.

There have been referred to us the following memorials on the subject of instrumental music:

A memorial from the Presbytery of Cleveland, asking the Assembly to declare that, inasmuch as the Scriptures, in providing for the matter and manner of worship in New Testament times, give no sufficient evidence of the Divine approval of the use of instruments in that worship; therefore, their use shall, in no case, be authorized or sanctioned in the worship of God in any of the congregations of the United Presbyterian Church; a memorial from the Presbytery of Chartiers, asking the Assembly to declare that instrumental music, if used as an ordinance of worship, is a violation of the Second Commandment; that if not an ordinance of worship, its use on the Sabbath is a violation of the Fourth Commandment; a memorial from a convention held in the City of Allegheny, Pa., asking the Assembly to declare that the standards of our Church make it unlawful for any congregation to introduce instrumental music into the public worship of God, until it has been decided, in a constitutional way, that its use is clearly sanctioned by the word of God and to take the proper steps for ascertaining, in a constitutional way, the sense of the Church on the question of the lawfulness of using instrumental music in worship; memorials from conventions in Guinston, Pa., Washington, Iowa, and New York City, and from certain ruling elders in the Presbytery of Des Moines, and from ministers and other members of the Church in the Presbytery of Keokuk, and a majority memorial from the Presbytery of Butler, endorsing the action of the convention in Allegheny, or asking substantially the same action by the Assembly; a memorial from the Presbytery of Neosho, asking that the subject of instrumental music be overtured to the whole Church in an article expressive of the truth, as taught in the Word of God, as nearly as possible, for consideration, amendment or adoption by the Presbyteries; memorials from the Presbyteries of Sidney and Monongahela, and a minority memorial from the Presbytery of Butler, asking that the present settlement of the question of instrumental music be regarded as final.

The Assembly referred so much of the memorial from the convention in Allegheny as involves an interpretation of law to the Judiciary Committee. We regard this action as a virtual reference of such parts of the other memorials as involve an interpretation of law to that Committee.

Leaving such parts of the memorials out of view, there remained for the consideration of your Committee, these three requests:

1. That the Assembly adopt a resolution declaring that, as the Scriptures do not give sufficient evidence of the Divine approval of instrumental music in worship, it shall not be authorized or sanctioned in any of our congregations. 2. That the Assembly send down in overture to the Presbyteries the question of the lawfulness of instrumental music in worship. 3. That the Assembly treat the present settlement of the question of instrumental music in our Church as final.

We cannot see how such action as is asked for in the first and second of these requests would tend to set the vexed question at rest. A declaration of the Assembly, virtually enacting a prohibitory law, might satisfy some, but would dissatisfy others. An overture on the question of the lawfulness of instrumental music in worship, while the meaning of the law of overture is itself a question in dispute, does not seem to us expedient.

We therefore recommend for adoption the following resolution:

Resolved, That no further action be taken by this Assembly.

Rev. J. A. Collins, in his own behalf and in behalf of any who might join with him, gave notice of protest against the action of the Assembly in adopting this report.

The Committee on the Board of Education presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We cordially approve the work of the Board of Education during the past year, and commend it to the liberal support of all the friends of Christian education. The organizing and sustaining of academies and colleges, controlled by the principles of the Christian religion as held by the United Presbyterian Church, is admitted to be one of the most efficient means of maintaining our existence and increasing our strength. The training and fitting of young men for the ministry seems especially important now, when more are needed than are offering themselves for this work. Applications for the aid of academies and colleges have come from several Presbyteries and Synods, and several inviting fields present especial inducements to the United Presbyterian Church at the present time. In view of these applications and inviting fields, we recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. All applications from Presbyteries and Synods for the aiding of academies and colleges are hereby referred to the Board of Education.

2. In order to enable the Board to meet the applications for aid that they may deem it best to grant, the sum of three thousand dollars is appropriated for this purpose and placed at their disposal. The Board shall expend these funds according to the following rules and regulations:

(a) Aid shall be granted to academies, only so far as the supplementing of salaries of teachers is concerned, the rooms and grounds being furnished by the community in which the academy receiving aid is situated.

(b) For the present, the Board shall not grant more than five hundred dollars in one year to any academy.

(c) It shall be the duty of the Board to recommend, and, as far as possible, secure the appointment of competent teachers.

(d) The Board shall report annually to the Assembly all its proceedings in the way of aiding academies, specifying the academies aided, the amount granted to each, the number of students in attendance and other details.

(e) All the proceedings of the Board in this particular shall be subject to the control of the Assembly.

3. Literary students of the Senior year, intending to enter the ministry of the United Presbyterian Church, when properly certified as needing aid, may be granted a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

4. In order to enable the Board to give this aid, as well as continue to aid theological students as heretofore, the sum of two thousand dollars is appropriated for this purpose, and placed at their disposal.

5. Inasmuch as there are metrical versions of the Psalms in the German language, it is unnecessary to undertake the work of providing any additional version at this time.

The Committee on the Board of Missions to the Freedmen presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF FREEDMENS' MISSIONS.

From the report of this Board it would appear that the mission work under its care has been carried on wisely and well during the past year. The different stations seem to be in a healthful and vigorous condition. The prospect at Norfolk, Va., seems to be specially encouraging. The energies of the Board, however, have been crippled by reason of debt. For some years it has had to carry a debt of $5,500; and during the past year it has been compelled to borrow $8,000 more. In addition to this, there is now due on the building at Norfolk $2,020, making the entire indebtedness of the Board $15,520.

To carry on the work for the coming year, and to liquidate at least a portion of its debt, the Board asks for an appropriation of $35,000. It also asks that this Assembly fix and authorize the payment of an annual salary to the Treasurer, in view of his increased labor, growing out of the extension of the work of the Board. In view of this your Committee recommend for adoption the following:

Resolved, 1. That we express our gratitude to God for the success attending the labor of this Board during the past year.

2. That the sum of $35,000 be appropriated for the coming year.

3. That the request of the Board be granted touching the salary of the Treasurer.

The Committee on Correspondence presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CORRESPONDENCE.

There have been placed in the hands of your Committee the following papers, viz: A communication conveying the Christian salutations of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church; a communication from Rev. E. C. Cresspell, D. D., delegate from the Reformed Church in America, conveying Christian greetings; a communication from Rev. Wm. Johnston, stating that he had discharged the duties assigned him as delegate to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South; a letter from Rev. Washington Gladden, D. D., of the Congregational Church; a communication from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, requesting this Assembly to appoint a committee to meet in conference with representatives from the different Psalm-singing churches in America; a paper from J. P. Stoddard, Secretary National Christian Association, in reference to questions of reform, and especially in regard to secret orders; and a paper from the Presbyterian Pilgrim Fathers of Florida.

The following action is recommended:

Resolved 1. That inasmuch as the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church has dissolved and will not again meet for four years, we reciprocate the Christian salutations to this Assembly and recommend no further action.

2. That a delegate be appointed to convey the Christian salutations of this Assembly to the Reformed Church in America.

3 That the report of Rev. Wm. Johnston be approved, and that a delegate be appointed to represent this Assembly in the approaching meeting of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South.

4. That the fraternal greetings of the Congregational Church be reciprocated, and that a delegate be appointed to convey the Christian salutations of this Assembly, to their National Council to convene this year.

5. That the proposition of the Associate Reformed Church South be accepted, and a committee of five be appointed to meet with similar committees from other Psalm-singing churches at Pittsburgh, Pa., Thursday, Sept. 25, 1884.

6. That the position of our Church on secret oath-bound societies, as set forth in our Testimony, and as expressed in past deliverances of the Assembly, is sufficiently clear and definite, therefore no further action is required. Also, with reference to questions of reform, former actions of the Assembly are deemed sufficient and no further action is required.

7. We acknowledge the receipt of the letter from the Scotch Pilgrim Fathers, and recommend that on the part of the Assembly no further action is necessary.

8. That a delegate be appointed to carry the Christian salutations of this Assembly to the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the United States, at their next annual meeting.

The nomination of delegates and committees appointed in this report was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The Committee on the Board of Church Extension presented a report. Before this report was disposed of, the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Elder S. K. Crawford.

7:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. Hugh Sturgeon.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

WEDNESDAY.

9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. G. W. McDonald.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A request from the Women's Christian Temperance Union was referred to the Committee to prepare a programme for the week of prayer, with instructions to set apart one day in the week of prayer, to be devoted to the subject of temperance.

The following reasons of protest against the action of the Assembly in adopting the report of the Committee on Bills and ...ertures on instrumental music were read:

PROTEST AGAINST THE THE ADOPTION OF THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BILLS AND OVERTURES ON INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC.

The undersigned ministers and elders, members of this General Assembly, do solemnly protest against the action of this body in adopting the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the subject of instrumental music, for the following reasons, viz:

1. Because it is based upon the assumption, which we believe to be unfounded, that the overture of 1881 was carried by the votes of a clear majority of the whole Church.

2. Because a change in our mode of public worship is thereby virtually sanctioned without due process of overture.

3. Because it refuses relief to the cry of thousands of pious, intelligent, loyal members of the Church.

4. Because it takes away the only hope of a speedy and righteous settlement of this question.

5. Because it continues to open the door for the corruption of the praise services of the Church.

6. Because it has a tendency to hinder, in our judgment, the proper work of the Church.

Smith, (though not coinciding entirely with all the reasons assigned,) R. W. McBride, (for the 1st, 4th and 5th reasons.)

The following reasons of protest against the action of the Assembly in refusing to amend the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions were read:

PROTEST AGAINST THE ACTION OF THE ASSEMBLY IN REFUSING TO AMEND THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

The undersigned ask leave to present for record the following protest against the action of this Assembly, in refusing to withdraw appropriations made by the Committee of Home Missions to congregations, using instrumental music in the worship of God, and to instruct the Board of Home Missions to make no appropriations to such congregations. We do this for the following reasons:

1. Because this action binds upon the conscience of many of us, a yoke which we are not able to bear, in requiring us as ministers and elders to ask our people to contribute to the Home Mission Fund money which will be used in assisting congregations, who are using a form of worship which we regard as unscriptural and which the General Assembly of 1882 says the adopting of the overture did not sanction.

2. Because it binds this burden upon ministers and probationers who may be appointed to preach in these organ-using congregations, the necessity of either leading in a form of worship they regard as unscriptural, or else disobeying authority in refusing to preach in such congregations.

3. Because it tends to cultivate in our congregations, a disposition to disregard the superior courts of the Church, inasmuch as by assisting with our money these congregations, which have introduced and are using organs in worship, we do encourage them in their open disobedience to the requirements of the Assembly of 1882, which has said, "This Assembly instructs and enjoins the lower courts to abstain and have all under their authority abstain from any action in this matter, that would disturb the peace and harmony of congregations, or unreasonably disregard the conscientious conviction of members."

4. Because this action will necessarily interfere with many of our congregations and members in their support of our Home Mission work, inasmuch as it compels them either by contributions to assist and encourage congregations, who are worshiping God in unscriptural forms, or else refuse to help the Church in her Home Mission work.

5. Because it is of great importance that we, as a Church, maintain uniformity of worship in our congregations, and by this action our Assembly does sanction the use of a form of worship which has no place in our Directory for Worship, and in so doing gives encouragement to members to regard the authority of our Church, in giving a common rule to govern our congregations in the worship of God, as of very little importance. For these things we do protest.

The following reasons of protest against the action of the Assembly in adopting the report of the Committee on Judiciary on the interpretation of the law on instrumental music were read:

PROTEST AGAINST THE INTERPRETATION OF THE LAW ON INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC.

We, the undersigned, ask leave to present our protest against the action of this Assembly in adopting the report of the Judiciary Committee on the interpretation of the law on instrumental music in worship for the following reasons:

1. Because the judicial questions involved in the memorials, presented in good faith, by Sessions, Presbyteries and Conventions, are not answered by the Committee's report, as required by our Form of Government, Chap. V., Art. IV., Sec. 3.

2. Because this action conflicts with the vote of the Assembly in the session immediately preceding.

3. Because the repeal of a statute, applying a principle of the Confession of Faith, does not and cannot, as claimed in the report of the Committee, affect that principle.

4. Because the Church has never said, as is affirmed in the 2d reason of the Committee's report, and has never been asked to say that the principle of the Confession, that "God is not to be worshiped in any way not appointed in his word," does not apply to the use of instrumental music in worship, and to allege this, as the report does, is an unwarranted assumption.

The majority of the respective Committees, with reference to whose reports these protests were taken, were appointed to answer these reasons of protest. Rev. James Bruce was added to the Committee on the Board of Home Missions.

Revs. J. A. Collins, W. C. Williamson and Mr. J. S. McCaughan were appointed a Committee on Divorce Reform.

Took up unfinished business, viz., the report of the Committee on the Board of Church Extension. This report was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

We have considered the report of this Board, and would call the attention of the Assembly to their proposal as to the use to be made of the Hanna Fund, and would advise its approval. Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That the Board be authorized to employ any portion of the Hanna Fund, which, in its judgment, it may deem best, in the erection of parsonages.

2. That the work of the Board during the past year be approved.

8. That an appropriation of $30,000 be made to this Board for the present year.

We have also considered the special report of the Board, and would recommend the following:

Resolved, That the Assembly does not deem it expedient to take any action at the present time.

The regulation concerning the tenure of Church property by congregations securing aid from the Board of Home Missions, as amended and adopted by the General Assembly of 1883, was referred to a Special Committee, consisting of Revs. R. Armstrong, D. D., J. A. Collins and D. C. Wilson.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Publication was made the order of the day for this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Committee on Finance presented a report. During the discussion of this report, the hour of adjournment arrived, when the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. W. H. Anderson.

1:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. L. Whitla.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Resumed the consideration of unfinished business, viz., the report of the Committee on Finance. This report was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

Your Committee would respectfully report that we have examined the reports of the Treasurers of the Boards of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Mission, Church Extension, Publication, Education, Ministerial Relief and the General Assembly Fund, and find them all neatly made out and carefully audited, and would recommend their approval.

We have also examined the reports of the Treasurers of the Chinese Mission and the Gibson Trust Fund, and find them also carefully prepared, but not audited.

In this connection your Committee would recommend that the Clerk of this Assembly be instructed to notify the Treasurers of the various Boards of the Church, as well as the Treasurers of any fund under the care of the Assembly, that hereafter they be careful to have their accounts properly audited, and the auditors' certificate attached before presenting them to the Assembly.

We would further recommend—

1. That the memorialists from the Synod of New York in regard to designating "The permanent Clerks of the Assembly a committee to prepare a series of rules or suggestions for the guidance and the government of the Financial Agents in the work that is assigned them," be directed to such rules already published in the Digest, page 110.

2. That the thanks of this Assembly be and are hereby tenderd to the Quarter-Centennial Commission for the faithfulness with which they have prosecuted their work, and especially to God for the success which has attended them. Your Committee are of the opinion that whilst the amount, which was first stipulated as a Memorial Fund, has not been raised directly for that purpose, nevertheless the stimulus which has been imparted in other directions far exceeds the most sanguine hopes of the Church, and demonstrates the fact that the Church has not reached her ability in the grace of giving.

3. That the Commission be continued for another year, with instructions to publish a suitable memorial volume, and make a full report to the next Assembly.

4. In reference to the memorials received from the Presbyteries of Oregon and Colorado, that a fund be established and known as the "General Delegate Fund," and that this Assembly make an assessment of ten (10) cents per capita on the membership of the whole Church, and that when Presbyteries pay the assessment in full, their delegates be reimbursed in full for their expenses incurred in attending such meetings; and in case any Presbytery shall fail to pay its quota in full, the delegates from such Presbyteries shall be reimbursed in like ratio; that this Assembly appoint a Treasurer to take charge of said fund, giving him such instructions as it may deem necessary.

5. That provision be made for the payment of $2,800, due June 15, 1884, borrowed by the Trustees of the General Assembly to cancel matured mortgage on the Boston (Mass.) church property, by making the appropriation for the General Assembly Fund $4,000, which will be sufficient with the balance now in the treasury to pay this debt and the ordinary expenses of the Assembly. And inasmuch as this appropriation cannot be collected for about ten months, and to enable the Trustees of the General Assembly to pay this $2,800 at once, that the Treasurer of said Trustees be authorized to borrow from the Trustees of the Allegheny Theological Seminary this amount, and collect the interest from the congregation of Boston. And further, that the legacies referred to in the Treasurer's account, amounting to $176.25, be transferred by said Treasurer to the Endowment Fund of Ministerial Relief.

6. Being deeply impressed of the need of such a paper as the Assembly Monthly, and fully satisfied from the reports which have come to us of the good that can be, and has already been, accomplished by placing it in every family of the Church, we would recommend: 1st. That the publication of the paper be transferred from the Permanent Committee on Finance to the Board of Publication, for the following reason: It is the request of the Permanent Committee on Finance, who base their request on the fact that the paper needs an amount of business management and clerical work which they, with all their other duties, have not the time to give. 2d. That the Board of Publication shall assign such an amount of space in the paper to each Board of the Church as it may think proper, and that each Corresponding Secretary be made responsible for the filling of the same each month with such facts concerning the work under his care, as in his judgment will be best calculated to enlighten and interest the people concerning it. 3d. That to enable the Board to publish the paper without loss at the present price, namely, twelve cents per annum, an appropriation of $1,200 be made for the current year. And further, that said Board shall have power to appoint such persons to do editorial and clerical work as they may judge best. 4th. That in the event of the request of the Permanent Committee being granted, the Committee be discharged and the thanks of this Assembly be and are hereby tendered to them for the faithful manner in which their duties have been performed.

7. Mrs. Mary Stewart, of Eden, Peoria county, Illinois, has sent the sum of $100, to be appropriated as this Assembly may direct. We would recommend that it be appropriated to the Ministerial Relief Fund, and that the thanks of this Assembly be tendered the donor for her liberal and timely gift. Your Committee are not unmindful of the fact that these voluntary bequests are becoming more frequent, and would gratefully acknowledge the grace of God which is enabling the members of the United Presbyterian Church to consecrate their substance to the Lord.

8. Deeming it important that the Assembly should know the use made of the Quarter Centennial Fund, we would recommend that each Board and Institution, receiving aid from the Quarter-Centennial Commission, shall report to said Commission by the 1st of July, 1884, the use made of the moneys, the nature of the investments and the income derived therefrom, and shall make a similar report at the 1st of April, 1885, and that the Commission make a report thereof to the next General Assembly.

9. In the judgment of the Committee it would serve a valuable purpose to have a detailed statement of the contributions of the various funds; therefore, Resolved, That the several Boards be recommended to report the names of the congregations, Sabbath Schools and other contributors, and that they adopt a uniform plan for doing this.

10. In regard to the petition of Rev. A. Blaikie, D. D., for an increase of annuity, we recommend that an appropriation of $400 be made to him from the Assembly's Fund.

11. That the following bills be paid, viz:

Expenses of the Assembly's Commission in the Evans' appeal	$ 26 10
" " Committee on Railroad Fares	18 00
" " Delegate to A. R. Synod, (South)	60 00

The Committee on the Board of Publication presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

There has been put into the hands of your Committee but one paper—the report of the Board.

From the financial statement accompanying the report, we find that the business of the Board has been prosperous during the year.

In the report of the Board it is stated that "there is a demand from many in the Church for a revision of the Psalter," and instructions are asked in regard to this matter. Your Committee are of the opinion that a judicious revision of the Psalter is needed and should be made. The Board also asks instructions in regard to the insertion of what they call "the chapter on commissions," adopted by the last Assembly. This, being only an act of the Assembly, can properly have no place in the Book of Government, and should not be placed there.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1st. That the operations of the Board during the past year be approved.

2d. That the Board be directed to make or have made such a revision of the Psalter as in their judgment shall be deemed wise and proper, and to submit the same to the next General Assembly for approval.

3d. We commend the work and publications of the Board to the favorable consideration of our people.

The Committee on Sabbath Schools presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

Two matters were laid before your Committee:

I. A memorial from certain ministers of the evangelical churches of Chicago, in regard to the use of God's word in the Sabbath schools. The memorialists, deploring the custom obtained in many Sabbath schools of using lesson leaves, class books and other helps to the exclusion of the Bible as a "Text-Book," request the sympathy and co-operation of this Assembly in placing the Bible in the hands of every Sabbath school teacher and scholar.

In order to accomplish this object they recommend:

1. That each scholar own a Bible.
2. That the teacher encourage its actual use by the scholar.
3. That each school enjoin its use in all regular exercises.
4. That the first Sabbath of October be fixed as the date when every member shall possess a Bible of his own.
5. That the first Sabbath of November be observed as a day of thanksgiving for the open Bible.

II. The second matter laid before us was that part of the report of the Board of Publication that relates to the Sabbath school work of the Church.

At the last Assembly the Board of Publication and Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools were consolidated, and the Sabbath school work of the Church has been done by the Board of Publication through their Committee on Sabbath schools.

The report is printed and before the Assembly, and needs but little notice by this Committee, but we would call attention to the following items:

1. An increase of contributions during the past year over any previous year of $16,000.
2. Only 28 teachers out of 6,130 are reported as non-professors.
3. A decrease of teachers' preparation meetings.
4. A large increase of the number of Sabbath school scholars making a profession of their faith in Christ.
5. The report praises the Presbyterial Sabbath school superintendents in their work and their reports.
6. The Board urges the use of the Helps published by our own Church.
7. The Board recommends:
1. The re-appointment of efficient Presbyterial Sabbath school superintendents.
2. The collection and publication of information of Sabbath school work by the Board through the Presbyterial superintendents.
3. The importance of normal classes and preparation meetings.
4. The observance of the third Sabbath of October as a day of prayer for Sabbath schools.

I. Your Committee heartily concurs in the desire and effort of the ministers of Chicago to obtain the general use of the Bible as the text-book in the Sabbath school, and while we know that God's word is the text-book in our Sabbath schools, yet, believing that there is danger of the Bible being used as supplementary to the Helps, and not the Helps supplementary to the Bible, we would favor some action by this Assembly in that direction.

II. Your Committee is satisfied that the last Assembly acted wisely in consolidating the Board of Publication and the permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools, and believes that their work in the department of Sabbath schools has been efficiently done.

Your Committee would offer the following for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the work of our Board of Publication in the department of Sabbath schools be approved.

2. That the Sabbath school publications of our own Board be commended to our Sabbath schools for their use.

3. That our Sabbath schools be urged to use the Bible as the class text-book, making the lesson leaves and other helps subordinate to the Bible.

4. That the superintendents of Sabbath schools be urged to encourage each scholar to possess a Bible, and where necessary furnish Bibles to the scholars.

5. That teachers be urged to make themselves efficient in God's word by teachers' meetings, normal classes and private study.

6. That Presbyterial superintendents give all aid in their power to advance the cause of Sabbath schools, and to this end co-operate with the Committee on Sabbath Schools of the Board of Publication in their published monthly reports.

7. That our Board of Publication take into consideration the propriety of publishing the Lesson Leaves without the Bible text in order to encourage a more general use of the Bible both in the study and recitation of the lesson.

8. That the third Sabbath of October be observed as a day of prayer for Sabbath schools and of thanksgiving for the open Bible.

The report of the Special Committee on a Single Secretary for certain Boards was presented and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON MEMORIAL OF NEW YORK SYNOD.

The Synod of New York asks this Assembly to consider the propriety of appointing one person as Corresponding Secretary, and to give his entire time to the interests of the following Boards of the Church: Home Missions, Church Extension and Freedmen's Missions. This request is founded on the grounds of economy and efficiency. After careful consideration, your Committee has failed to discover how either economy or efficiency could be secured by the change anticipated. The combined salaries of the three Secretaries is only $1,700. Besides, your Committee question whether the Assembly could obtain a person possessing the necessary qualifications for discharging the duties required by the different operations of these Boards. Therefore,

Resolved, That it is inexpedient at present to make any change in the operations of these Boards.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the form of the return of the vote on Overture was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BILLS AND OVERTURES ON THE FORM OF THE RETURN OF THE VOTE ON OVERTURE.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully submit the following form for the return of the votes on the overture, the report to be made by the Clerks of Presbyteries to the Principal Clerk of the Assembly, on or before the 25th of April, 1885:

I certify that the vote on the overture, submitted by the General Assembly of 1884, was taken in the Presbytery of ....., on the ..... day of ....., 188.., and was as follows: Ayes, ...; nays, ... Total, ...

The special Committee on Women's Work in the Church presented the following report, which was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON WOMEN'S WORK IN THE CHURCH.

WHEREAS, The report of the Board of Foreign Missions calls attention to the subject of women's work and a women's Board; and

WHEREAS, Our sisters in Christ are our co-laborers in the work of the Lord; and

WHEREAS, There is considerable diversity among us, and among women themselves, as to the best agency to be employed in developing the Christian [redacted] and resources of this portion of our membership; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly heartily bids the women of our Church Godspeed in their laudable efforts on behalf of Christ.

2. That their contributions be solicited to all the enterprises of the Church to the prejudice of none.

3. That without committing this Assembly to the measure, a committee be appointed to consider the subject of establishing a Woman's Board, and, if in their judgment, the way be clear, to mature and report a plan of organization to the next General Assembly for their consideration and action.

The special Committee on Divorce Reform presented the following report, which was adopted;

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON THE SUBJECT OF DIVORCE REFORM.

WHEREAS, The marriage relation is the basis of all Christian civilization and must be maintained as sacred; and,

WHEREAS, The tendency of the times is to regard it as a mere civil contract, a mercenary and temporary arrangement, to be entered into from motives of base selfishness, and to be broken up as caprice or interest shall suggest; and,

WHEREAS, The civil processes for divorce are, in many instances, made easy by law, and still more easy in some cases by skillful attorneys and pliant courts, which, in some States, have full discretion in the premises; and,

WHEREAS, All ministers are by law made civil officers entrusted, in part, with the solemnization of marriage, and may become involved in whatever guilt may attach to the marriage of persons divorced on unscriptural grounds; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That in the judgment of this Assembly no minister should join in marriage any person who is known to have been divorced on other than Scriptural grounds.

2. That there is loud call for some legislation to secure uniformity in the matter of divorce, and prevent the great and growing evils so appalling under the present regulations.

3. That this Assembly earnestly invokes State governments to take measures to secure such legislation and allow divorce only upon Scriptural ground.

4. That this Assembly is in full sympathy with the movement calling a convention in the interest of this reform, and instructs the Principal Clerk to transmit a copy of this action to said convention when it shall meet.

The Standing Committee on Narrative and State of Religion presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

After reading the report of the Permanent Committee on Narrative and State of Religion, your Committee deems it unnecessary to either add to or summarize that report, as it will but burden the minutes without adding any value to them. All that is necessary on this subject may be found in a convenient form in the report of the Permanent Committee.

The following paper with reference to the property of the West Twenty-fifth Street Congregation, New York City, was adopted:

RESOLUTION ON THE WEST TWENTY-FIFTH STREET (N. Y.) CHURCH PROPERTY.

Resolved, That this Assembly authorize the Trustees of the General Assembly to release the West Twenty-fifth street Church, N. Y., from the declaration of trust executed by said congregation on condition that said congregation repay to the [redacted] the Church all the money that it has received with interest.

We also recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the delegates to the Pan-Presbyterian Council, whe may be present at the meeting in Belfast, be authorized to fill any vacancies in their delegation from ministers and ruling elders of our Church who may be in attendance at the Council.

The following answer to the reasons of protest against the action of the Assembly in refusing to amend the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions was read and adopted:

ANSWER TO PROTEST OF J. N. DICK, D. D., AND OTHERS.

This protest is against the action of this Assembly in refusing to withdraw appropriations made by the Committee of Home Missions to congregations using instrumental music, etc.

1. The protest assumes that the right of individuals and congregations to give specific direction to their contributions through the Home Board does not exist, which assumption is incorrect.

2. Our system is not so inflexible that it will not admit of changes in appointments necessary to accommodate the preferences of supplies. Our rule for the distribution of men provides that "the reasonable wishes of the missionary, if known shall be regarded so far as the circumstances of the case will permit."

3. The third reason assumes that the action of the Assembly of 1882, as set forth in the resolution quoted, was absolutely prohibitory—an assumption which is neither warranted by the terms of the resolution, nor by any interpretation given of it by any Assembly.

4. The fourth reason of the protest is sufficiently met in our answer to the first.

5. The fifth reason assumes that the introduction of that which is simply a help in praise necessarily changes the form of worship—an assumption which we believe to be unwarranted.

The following answer to the reasons of protest against the action of the Assembly in adopting the report of the Committee on Judiciary on the interpretation of the law on instrumental music was read and adopted:

ANSWER TO REASONS OF PROTEST OF REV. M. S. McCORD AND OTHERS.

This protest is against the action of the Assembly in refusing to grant the request of memorialists, that the Assembly declare the use of instrumental music in worship unlawful.

The first reason of protest is that "the judicial questions presented by the memorialists have not been answered."

The memorialists ask the Assembly to declare the use of instruments unlawful. This the Assembly refused to do, and gave reasons for its action in the preamble of its report, which sufficiently meet this objection of the protest.

The second reason of protest is, "that the action of the Assembly on this subject conflicts with the vote in the session immediately preceding."

Our answer to this is that that vote was not an expression of the judgment of the Assembly on the merits of the question proposed, but simply to free the subject before the Assembly from embarrassment, and enable it to act on the report of the committee.

The third reason of protest is, that the repeal of the statute applying a principle of the Confession of Faith does not, and cannot, as claimed in the report of the Committee, affect that principle.

Our answer to this third reason is, that the article of the Directory applying this principle to the subject of instrumental aid in worship, having been repealed by regular process of overture and thus declared to be a misapplication of the principle of the Confession to this subject, there is nothing in our standards making instrumental aid to vocal praise in worship unlawful.

The above answer to the third reason of protest also contains a sufficient answer to the fourth reason.

The following answer to the reasons of protest against the action of the Assembly in adopting the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on instrumental music was read and adopted:

ANSWER TO THE PROTEST OF REV. J. A. COLLINS AND OTHERS.

We respectfully submit the following answer to the protest against the action of the Assembly in adopting the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on instrumental music.

1. The first reason of protest is met by the answer of the Assembly of 1882 to the protest of Rev. James Harper, D. D., and others.

2. To the second we answer that, if there be any change, it is the result of the repeal of the law prohibiting the use of musical instruments in worship. That law was repealed by due process of overture.

3. As to the other reasons, it seems to us that, leaving other objections to overture out of view, there is a sufficient answer to them in the reason given in the report of the committee why this Assembly should not overture the question of instrumental music.

The following resolutions of thanks were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.

Resolved, 1. That the hearty thanks of this Assembly are due and hereby tendered to the ladies who have so kindly waited on us at dinner; to the families of the congregation of St. Louis and others who have entertained members of the Assembly, and to the friends of neighboring congregations who have furnished dinners for the Assembly.

2. Thanks of the Assembly are due and are hereby given to the representatives of the press who have given such full and faithful reports of our proceedings.

3. That the hearty thanks of this General Assembly be and are hereby given to the officers and managers of the following railroads, viz., N. Y., P. & O., and O. & M., the C. & A., the I. & St. L., the W., St. L. & T., the St. L. & San F., the Vandalia, the P., C. & St. L., the Tenn. Central, the C., B. & Q., the I., B. & W., the St. L. & C., the St. L. & C Short Line, for their kindness in granting reduced rates to the delegates and their friends attending the meeting of the Assembly, and to Mr. C. F. Gray, the representative of the railroads, for his kindness in arranging the return tickets of the friends of the Assembly.

4. That the hearty thanks of the Assembly be tendered to the Moderator for the courteous and impartial manner with which he has presided over our meetings.

The minutes of this session were read and approved.

The Assembly was dissolved, when the Moderator said: By virtue of authority to me delegated, I do hereby dissolve this General Assembly, and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet at Topeka, Kan., on the fourth Wednesday of May, 1885, at 7:30 o'clock, P. M.

Prayer was offered by Rev. James S. Barr, D. D., Psalm cxxii: 4, 5, L. M., was sung, and the Apostolic benediction was pronounced by the Moderator.

MINUTES OF THE COMMISSION

ON THE APPEAL OF REV. J. C. EVANS.

FIRST SESSION.

SECOND U. P. CHURCH, MONMOUTH, ILL.,
October 9, 1883, (Second Tuesday,) 1:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Commission, appointed by the Twenty-fifth General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America in the appeal of the Rev. J. C. Evans against the Synod of Iowa, met according to the Assembly's order at the above time and place.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the Chairman, Rev. W. T. Campbell, D. D.

APPENDIX.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Your Trustees would respectfully report as follows:

At the request of the Board of Church Extension, a deed was executed for the church lot in Evans, Colorado, the members of the congregation having removed to other localities.

We have not reached a settlement of the Church's claims against the 116th street congregation, New York, but as the business is now before the court, we hope for a speedy and satisfactory adjustment.

The mortgage for $11,500 on our church property in the city of Boston, falling due March 24, 1884, was cancelled by an appropriation from the Board of Church Extension, contributions by the congregation, and the payment of the remainder, $2,800, by your Trustees, for which amount our Treasurer has a note in bank, which will mature by June 15, and for the payment of which we ask the General Assembly to make provision.

We have been notified of the following bequests to the General Assembly for the Boards of the Church, viz: by Andrew Mann, late of Sterling, Rice county, Kansas, property of the supposed value of $10,000, for the benefit of Foreign Missions; by Samuel McCoy, late of Marshall county, Illinois, property of the supposed value of $10,000, for the benefit of Home and Foreign Missions; and by Mrs. Jane Maddin, late of Birmingham, Iowa, four lots in Birmingham for the benefit of Home and Foreign Missions.

The bequests of Rev. Dr. Hannay, of Owen Sound, Ontario, and of John M'Naughton, of Caledonia, New York, will be collected as soon as practicable.

Our Treasurer, James M'Candless, Esq., will forward a detailed statement of our financial accounts.

The time for which James M'Candless, R. E. Stewart and Graham Scott were elected Trustees, will expire on the first of July next.

All of which is respectfully submitted by order of the Board of Trustees.

R. B. Ewing, President,
Graham Scott, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The Foreign Missionary Work of our United Presbyterian Church is carried on in the Northwestern provinces of India, and in the Delta and Valley of the Nile, in Egypt. The wisdom of concentrating all our foreign missionary efforts upon these two important fields is more manifest every year. In the six years since this concentration was made, the stations occupied have grown from 44 to 99; the missionaries from 11 to 19; laborers of every kind from 174 to 274; the total communicants from 1,069 to 2,648, and the contributions from $47,551.01 to $64,179.69.

THE PAST YEAR

Has been one of eventful interest in both of our missions, and no year has closed with as urgent calls for help—especially for so large a number of new missionaries, both male and female. All these calls the Board most earnestly forward to the Assembly and the Churches. India alone pleads for six new men and eight new Christian women for the work; and one of the missionaries of Egypt recently exclaims: "Truly, truly, the Lord is doing His own work in this great and troubled land. The harvest is so, so ripe. O, for the reapers! will they not come?"

From this statement it will be seen there is a marked difference between the sum appropriated by the last Assembly and the receipts. It is the difference between $100,000 and $64,179.69, and the results are painful and trying. With great labor the missions make the estimates for each year, and they make them the lowest that they think they can in any way safely be. Then the Board supervise these estimates, and after often making them still lower, they ask the Assembly for the sum that thus is certainly needed. The Assembly usually appropriates all, (or, as last year, more) than is thus asked for. That appropriation the Board and the missions consider a promise, and proceed with the work accordingly. When then the amoun. raised falls short of the sum thus appropriated, the results cannot but be disastrous In this way the past year has closed with a debt of $16,571.99. This money the Board or the missions have had to borrow. Surely this cannot be right.

Most earnestly the Board asks the Assembly to appropriate or promise only what is demanded for the work, and that the churches faithfully see that that amount is raised. In no other way can the Board and the missions know what to do.

For the year before us the Board have reduced the sums asked for by the missions several thousand dollars, and it is confidently believed that the work cannot possibly be carried on in any way commensurate with its greatness, and its necessities for any amount less. Feeling assured of this the Board most anxiously ask that Churches, Missionary Societies, Sabbath Schools and all friends of missions will send contributions early, regularly and fully to our Treasurer. In this way only can the work go forward.

MISSIONARIES.

The Board very gratefully records the fact that not one of the foreign missionaries in either field has fallen by death during the year.

The Rev. Jas. S. Barr, D.D., and family, of the India Mission, are still remaining in this country, and while he is recruiting his health he is doing good service by calling attention to the Foreign Mission cause, and in translating into Hindoostani valuable works for the use of the students of theology under the care of the mission.

A. M. Nichol was compelled, by the feeble state of his health, to retire from the mission in Egypt, and in July last returned with his family to this country. He was much esteemed for his work at Monsoora. It is yet to be seen whether he will be able to return to his field of labor.

In January last, Miss Eliza Calhoun, of the mission at Gujranwala, India, entered into the marriage relation with a missionary of the Presbyterian Board and thus retired from our service. With this announcement the Board would make grateful mention of her faithfulness and worth as a missionary of Christ. For fourteen years she labored, first in the schools, and latterly in the Zenana of our mission, with very marked efficiency and success, and she now bears with her our earnest wishes for her happiness and usefulness in the new sphere of life upon which she has entered.

NEW MISSIONARIES.

Early in the year the Board had the prospect of sending at least one new missionary to each of our foreign fields. It has been, however, a matter of deep regret, that only one of these hopes was realized. On the 6th of October last, the Rev. Chauncey Murch and wife sailed from this city for Egypt. After spending some time in the study of the Arabic language at Cairo, he has been appointed to the mission station at Luxor, and will enter upon his work there in September next.

Most pressingly are new missionaries called for, especially for India at once. Besides the calls thence for a far wider preaching of the Gospel throughout that field, there is also a most urgent need for more missionaries there to have the oversight and proper training of a large number of converts who have been gathered in during the year and who now so much need the most watchful care and culture in all things in the Christian life and walk.

MEDICAL MISSIONARY.

For several years requests have been urgently made for a physician to meet the necessities of the missionaries in Upper Egypt. At length one has been secured in the person of Elmer E. Lansing, M. D., who sailed with his wife for this field on the 17th of April. He was born in Egypt, and as he remained there the first twelve years of his life, he will probably be able soon to recall the language and readily adapt himself to the climate of the country and the habits of the people. He will practice his profession in the interest of the mission, and, it is hoped, will be an important helper to our missionaries.

THE WORK OF THE BOARD.

Besides the ordinary work of carrying on the missions, the Board have had the following items on hand during the year:

As directed by the last Assembly, a transfer has been made of the Chinese Mission property at Los Angeles, California, to the Board of Home Missions.

As directed also by the Assembly, the Board published ten thousand copies of the Annual Report, and they were sent wherever desired. Nearly all of them were circulated, and it is believed they have been read, in many instances, to the increase of the interest of our people in the Foreign Mission work, and of their prayers and efforts also for it. Most anxiously is it desired that the reports each year shall go into every family and be read by every member of our whole Church.

As in several previous years the Board had its Secretary visit the Theological Seminaries at Xenia and Allegheny, and bring the cause of Foreign Missions before the students. It was specially gratifying to find that there was a very deep interest in this work among the students in both institutions—and if the funds will only be furnished, it is believed a most valuable reinforcement may be had from them at once for the work that is now so earnestly calling for it in both of our missions. Is there not some devoted friend of Christ and his cause, or some congregation or missionary society that will undertake to provide the salary for a new missionary, male or female, or both, and that immediately? The call is most urgent.

QUARTER-CENTENNIAL FUNDS.

No distribution has been made of money that has come into the treasury of the Board from the Quarter-Centennial Commission. Understanding that it was the will of the donors of this money, and that it was in accordance with [redacted] of the last Assembly that the funds thus contributed should be expended for mission buildings, churches, and other necessary appliances which are not provided for in the regular contributions of the Church, and which should be of permanent use in the mission work, the Board, early in the year, asked the missions under their care to send specifications of objects, which, in their judgment, were of the character referred to, together with the amount which they thought should be appropriated to each object. It was also the mind of the Board that the whole amount appropriated to each mission should be in proportion to the estimates for the year for each mission. This course had been pursued in relation to the Stewart and other legacies. The India Mission sent a strong appeal to the Board to have the appropriation divided equally between that and the Egyptian Mission.

The Board knowing that they were in debt to a considerable amount to each mission, and being of the opinion that this indebtedness should be discharged before any distribution should be made, asked the treasurer of each mission to forward a definite statement of the amount of the indebtedness up to the beginning of the present year. This statement was not received until a few weeks ago. It showed an indebtedness to India, at the time specified, of $1,800, and to Egypt, of $14,682. Considering the matter further, the Board were in doubt whether they had the right to pay this indebtedness out of the Quarter-Centennial funds without being directed so to do by the General Assembly. In these circumstances they concluded to refer the whole matter to the Assembly, with the recommendation that the Assembly will either direct that the whole amount of the fund allotted to the Board be equally divided between the India and Egyptian Missions, with instructions to the treasurer of each mission to first pay the indebtedness of the mission before any distribution is made to any other object; or, if the Assembly shall deem it better, to direct the Board to first pay the whole indebtedness to each mission and then divide the remainder equally between them—it being understood that the objects to which the remainder is appropriated in the missions shall have received the sanction of the Board.

The whole amount received by the Board from this Fund thus far is $46,600.

WOMEN'S WORK.

It is gratifying to know that the women of the Church are manifesting a growing interest in the work, and that they are exciting a deeper interest in it on the part of others, and especially in the children and youth. Many inquiries have come to the Board from the representatives of societies and from individuals in regard to specific work that might be undertaken and carried on by the women. In response to these the Board prepared and sent out through the Church papers, and to the several societies, a letter suggesting that the women of the Church would make an effort to raise all the funds necessary to sustain the work which is done by the female missionaries, and for the women and girls in the foreign fields. The proposition met with much favor and elicited a very general interest on the part of the women.

It now becomes an important question, and one which is agitated by the women themselves, whether they should not have a more definite organization by the creation of an auxilliary Board through which their efforts to sustain the work among the women might be concentrated and made more effective. The attention of the Assembly is specially called to this matter. It needs careful consideration. The experience of other churches suggests that if a Woman's Board be created, its object, its powers and its relation to the existing Board of Foreign Missions should be carefully considered and specifically defined. We recommend, therefore, that if the Assembly shall, in their wisdom, favorably regard the creation of a Woman's Board, a judicious committee be appointed to mature a constitution and plan of operations for said Board, that they publish in the Church papers, as early as practicable, the results of their labors, and report their action to the next Assembly for approval.

THE CHILDREN.

One of the most cheering features of our work is that it is more and more awakening the interest and bringing out the efforts of the young in many parts of the Church. Touched with a sense of the need which heathen children have of being [illegible]ht the way to be saved, many boys and girls are now regularly laying by some[illegible] for sending out and supporting the missionary. Many of the Sabbath Schools, [illegible]n some instances particular classes in Sabbath Schools, are making liberal missionary contributions. Children's Societies and Bands are being formed, and in several cases are now raising the means of supporting some child in the mission schools, or some native teacher or Bible reader. All this is encouraging, and the more so, as it not only has much good done now by these offerings, but it also helps while young to form habits that may be of the utmost service in their future lives for the cause of Christ and the good of the world.

THE MISSION TO CENTRAL AFRICA.

Immediately after the last Assembly, the Board endeavored, as directed, to obtain every possible item of information as to the propriety of our Church accepting the proposition that had been made by the American Missionary Association, to commence a mission in Nubia and the more central parts of Africa, and thence be able to dispose of the whole matter. After a careful correspondence with the parties who were interested in the movement in England, as well as in this country, it was found that the mission contemplated was to be on a far larger scale, both of men and women, and general missionary operations, than it would be desirable or possible for our Church to undertake. As it was also found that the co-operation and help which had been proffered from abroad would be more or less contingent upon our doing all that was thus contemplated the Board were unanimously led to abandon all thoughts of the undertaking, and therefore respectfully declined the proposition. The wisdom of this decision has been confirmed by providential indications since.

BENEFACTIONS.

At the request of the mission in India through this Board, the Board of Publication have donated it a number of copies of the Psalter, and one or more copies of all the publications it has ever issued, and forwarded them to that mission.

The American Tract Society repeated this year the munificent grant it had made the preceding year, of two hundred dollars, to be used by the mission in Egypt in the circulation of whatever religious reading matter might be deemed best in connection with its work. This act is gratefully appreciated and much good may result from it.

The American and British and Foreign Bible Societies have continued their grants, the former $2,497.17, the latter $517.00, and thus many copies of the Word of God have been put in circulation.

The Turkish Missions' Aid Society has continued its interest in our work, and frequently mentioning it in its publications, has done much to awaken the sympathies and prayers and contributions of British Christians on its behalf.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of Paisley, Scotland, has, according to its uninterrupted custom for nearly thirty years, generously contributed during the past year again for the support and usefulness of the Girls' School under the care of our mission at Alexandria, Egypt. Valuable aid was thus furnished us, and much good was done.

BEQUESTS.

The Board mentions gratefully again, that during the past year great help has been given our work by the bequests which, in several instances, the lovers of our Lord and of his cause, have made to it in their Wills. The whole amount thus received was $10,633.78. "Thus being dead," these friends of Christ yet speak, and in most useful and important ways "their works follow them." What more beautiful and appropriate than for Christians thus to place Christ and His cause among their heirs!

Most earnestly, however, would the Board urge the careful attention of our people to this subject. During the past year several times moneys that were intended for Foreign Missions failed to reach our Treasurer from some neglect or oversight. One most worthy person had written out her wish but had not signed the paper when she died, and thus her intended bequest was lost. Another used a defective or improper title for the Board. Another died within the time required to give effect to the Will. In these and in some like cases the intended bequests failed. But with promptness and care in making the Will there will be no danger or difficulty and the happiest results will follow.

THE MISSIONS.

In India, the work has been signally favored during the year. Property has been secured for the Training Institute and the Girls' School at Sialkot, and there is every promise that soon these Institutions will be in a condition to render important service for the cause of Christ. Already their first fruits are most encouraging. The printing press of the mission has done much good work during the year in furnishing the natives with several thousand volumes of important matter in their own tongues. The Zenana work has, in many instances, been manifestly blessed, and the itinerating in the different districts, and especially by Rev. Samuel Martin, in the District of Sialkot, has been accompanied with little less than marvellous results.

In Egypt the work has been steadily prosecuted; but in the midst of greater difficulties than in any single year perhaps in the history of the mission. For some months the cholera swept, as a terrible scourge, over the land, removing by death numbers of the native Christians, and very seriously interfering with all mission work in every place where it came. The unsettled state of the country from the war in the Soudan, and from frequent changes in the government, has tended to keep the minds of many largely turned from the things of the Gospel. The false and ensnaring courses which Plymouthism has pursued by means of men who now most unhappily seek to destroy the faith which they once labored to extend, have had very disastrous results in several localities. But in the midst of all these trials the mission work has gone forward, and as a whole has had manifest tokens of God that labor is not in vain in the Lord.

TOTALS.

Missions, 2—India and Egypt; missions or districts, 13, viz; in India, Sialkot Gujranwala, Gurdaspur, Pathankot, Jhelum, Zafarwal; in Egypt, Upper Thebaid, Middle Thebaid, Lower Thebaid, Fayoom, Cairo, Monsoora, Alexandria; stations, 99; foreign missionaries in the field, 17*; unmarried female missionaries, 14; native ordained ministers, 9; licentiates, 10; native helpers and teachers, 205; total laborers, 274; theological students, 11; churches, 25; church buildings, 19; communicants, 2,640; increase during the year, 1,129; baptisms, 931; number of schools, 95; total pupils in day, boarding and training schools, 5,410; Sabbath Schools, 3,574; total of moneys raised by the natives, $24,464; volumes of books published, 16,300; value of mission property, $181,736.

ESTIMATES.

Believing that the estimates received from the Missions for the year were much above what the Church would contribute, the Board have disallowed anything for building purposes, supposing that this would be provided for by the Quarter-Centennial Fund. In addition to this the Board have directed that a reduction of ten per cent. should be made on the remaining estimates for each mission. After these reductions have been made the following appropriations are asked for:

* Two more in this country.

For debt to Egypt	$14,681 99
" " India	1,890 00
		$16,571 99
For India Mission for 1884	$30,621 00
" Egypt " "	37,390 56
Missionaries in this country	2,000 00
Children in this country	1,200 00
Board's Expenses	800 00
Printing, mailing, incidentals, etc	1,000 00
		$73,011 56
Total		$89,583 55

It will be noticed no appropriation is recommended for sending out new missionaries. Yet never was there such pressing need for them. Most earnestly do the Board join the missions in entreating not an appropriation merely, but the MONEY to send out some immediately. But to send them without funds only increases the burden and the shame of debt.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. That the thanks of the Assembly and of our whole Church be devoutly given to God for the many evidences of His hearing prayer on behalf of the Foreign Mission work of our Church, and favoring it with enriching blessings.

2. That thanks also be given to the American Tract Society; the American and British and Foreign Bible Societies; the Turkish Mission's Aid Society; the Paisley Ladies' Missionary and the London Tract Society for their liberal grants and contributions to our foreign work; and also to Daniel Peoples, Esq., of Liverpool, England, for his continued kindness and help to our missionaries in going to and returning from their fields; to Rev. J. H. Wilson, D. D., Barclay Free Church, Edinburgh, Scotland, for generous contributions raised for our Mission; and to Hon. Judge Barringer, of Cario, Egypt, for important services in civil matters.

3. That the Assembly earnestly recommend the women's part of our foreign work to the sympathy and support of the women of our Church.

4. That the Board be directed to send out at the earliest time in their power as many new missionaries, male and female, as may be secured, and as the funds will in any way allow.

5. That the following appropriations be made for the year:

6. That five thousand copies of the Report be published, and Pastors, Sessions, Missionary Societies and others be urged to have it circulated and read in every congregation.

8. That all of our people be earnestly and much engaged in prayer that the Holy Spirit may be sent down to suggest and sanctify for their desired ends the plans that should be devised and the efforts that should be put forth for this great work of our Church, that more and more laborers be raised up and funds provided for it, and that God will speedily have His way known on earth, and his saving health among all nations.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

The Board of Home Missions respectfully submits the following statements in regard to the important work committed to its care:

I. THE PROGRESS OF THE WORK.—Aid was granted during the year ending March 31st to two hundred and nine stations, under the care of forty-six Presbyteries. From eight of these stations no reports have been received. The reports of ninety-nine are incomplete, embracing only a portion of the year—forty-seven being for one, twenty for two, and thirty-two for three quarters of the year. The large number reporting for one quarter is owing to the fact that their appropriations in many cases were but for three months of the year. In the stations reporting, there was on the 31st of March a membership of 11,324. The average attendance upon the Sabbath services during the year was 19,324. The accessions to the Church have been 765 by profession and 1,211 on certificate. The decrease by death and removal has been 641. There has thus been a net gain of 1,335 members. The average attendance in the Sabbath Schools connected with these stations was 13,015. The number of congregations having Church buildings is reported to be 175. During the year these stations have contributed to the Boards of the Church $7,060, and for the support of their own pastors or missionaries, $51,631. Seventy-five of these stations were supplied one-half time, two three-fourths, seven one-fourth, six two-thirds, nine one-third, two one-sixth, and one three-eighths. One hundred and ten of them enjoy the services of settled pastors. The remainder have either stated or ordinary supply. Seven congregations are reported self-sustaining. A considerable number hitherto assisted do not ask aid for the coming year. The number of pastoral visits made, prayer meetings attended, and sermons preached, show an increased activity and zeal on the part of the brethren engaged in the work

II. GRANTS BY THE BOARD.—Out of the $1,726 placed at the disposal of the Board for certain stations thought to be reduced too much under the "sliding scale," $1,360 was appropriated; the Presbyteries and stations to which these grants were made, are the following, viz: Boston, Whitinsville, $66, S.; Cedar Rapids, Garner, $67, P. S.; Chillicothe, Mt. Joy and Con, $33, S. S.; College Springs, Red Oak, $100, P. S.; Des Moines, Greenfield, $80, P. S., St. Charles, $33, P. S.; Minnesota, Zion and Leven, $183, P. S.; Tennessee, Big Spring and Con. $16; Westmoreland, Connellsville, $175, S. The last Assembly also placed at the disposal of the Board, $2,550 for certain cases referred to us and $2,000 to meet emergencies; of these amounts $3,483.25 have been appropriated, the Presbyteries and stations to which these grants were made, are the following, viz: Arkansas, Valley, Anthony, $175, S. S., ½; Chicaskia, $175 S.S, ½; Caledonia, Howard, $250, S.; Munsford, $50, S, fourth quarter. College Springs, Blanchard, $150, P. S., for last six months; Garnett, Richland, $30 additional to the Assembly's grant, Quenemo, $50, ¼; Trading Post, $50, ½; Kansas, Hiawatha, $128.25, Leavenworth, $20; Minnesota, Minneapolis, $250, for exploration; Neosho, Newton, $300, S S.; New York, West Twenty-fifth street, New York City, additional to the Assembly's grant, $100, P. III. APPROPRIATIONS WITHHELD.—$5,723.68 have been withheld because the conditions upon which the aid was granted have not been fulfilled. The Presbyteries, stations and amounts are the following, viz: Allegheny, Fleming, $37.50; Oak Grove, $43.75; Arkansas Valley, Anthony, $25; Argonia, $31.25; Arkansas City, $31.30; Bazine, $50; Chicaskia, $50; Lincoln, $50; Lyons and Con, $50; Sunny Dale, $156.90. Brookville, Elk City, $13,75; Mt. The above includes, in addition to the 1st, 2d and 3d quarters of the current year, the 4th also of the preceding year.

IV. SPECIAL MISSIONS.—Seventeen stations so designated have been under the care of the Board during the year. Of these, two, Emporia and Port Huron, come before the General Committee, the time for which they were committed to the Board as special missions having expired. All these missions are now fully organized congregations. Denver, Los Angeles, St. Louis—Grand Avenue, and Portland have been organized during the year.

Speaking generally, the condition of the work in these stations is good. In a few instances there has been no growth, and the outlook is not bright, but in most cases the increase is quite encouraging, and the prospects of success very fair. In but one instance has a pastoral relation been dissolved, and in but one is there any change now to be made in the stated supply. Thus one of the leading objects of making these stations special missions—permanency of supply—seems to be in a good degree attained.

In the judgment of the Board it is very desirable to avoid any undue increase in the number of these special missions. We therefore recommend that no station be placed in this class unless its condition and needs be clearly such as to render the case exceptional.

The details of information received by the Board will be found mainly in the statistical tables. A few facts are given below which cannot well be tabulated. The numbers following the names indicate the beginning and ending of the terms for which stations have been committed to the Board.

Bad Axe, Presbytery of Detroit. 1882–5.—Early in the year Rev. J. P. Gilson, settled as pastor at Birmingham, Mich., was appointed as missionary, but did not enter upon the work until the third quarter. He has been called to become the pastor, but has not yet been installed. He speaks hopefully of the prospects. The amount asked and granted for the coming year is, as last year, $450.

Boston, Presbytery of Boston. 1880–5.—Rev. John Hood continues as pastor. The reports show healthful growth and a good degree of interest. $600 was asked for the coming year, but the Board felt constrained, because of the present and prospective condition of the treasury, to grant but $500, and to urge upon the congregation to make every possible effort to raise an additional $100 for the pastor's salary.

Burlington, Presbytery of Keokuk. 1880–5.—The pastor, Rev. Peter Swan, reports the last year, on the whole, the best in the history of the mission. The prospects are very good, and the work well organized and actively prosecuted. $600 has been granted for the coming year, a reduction of $50.

Creston, Presbytery of College Springs. 1883-6.—Rev. L. N. Lafferty, the pastor at Kirkwood, Ills, was appointed as stated supply early in the year, and entered upon his work at the opening of the third quarter. He is reappointed for next year. The town is an important railroad centre, is likely to become the county seat, and there is good reason to believe that a few years of earnest labor, properly sustained by the Church, will result in the establishment of a congregation. $800 was asked for the coming year, but the Board granted only $700, hoping that an additional $100 could be raised by the people.

Denver, Presbytery of Colorado. 1882–7.—This new and promising mission was organized as a congregation June 3, 1883, with 19 members. The report shows a very encouraging increase since. Rev. C. B. Hatch has given himself with great zeal and energy to the work as stated supply. He will continue to serve in that relation. Our work in Denver would no doubt have been more speedily successful had we begun it years ago, but even as it is the prospects are encouraging that faithful and patient labor will ultimately be rewarded by the establishment of a congregation. A new church building is approaching completion, and when it is entered the missionary feels that his work will become in every way more active and prosperous. $1200 has been granted for the next year. Last year's appropriation was the same.

Emporia, Presbytery of Neosho. 1881–4.—As the time has expired for which this station was placed under the care of the Board, no appropriation or appointment has been made. The Rev. W. I. Brooks has been laboring diligently as stated supply during the year. A house of worship is probably completed and entered by this time, and thus one great hindrance to success or to progress has been removed. In handing over this station again to the General Committee the Board has no special recommendation to make. Our work in Emporia has thus far not been so decidedly encouraging as in some other places. Still some progress may be claimed; and with the blessing of God upon our future efforts we may hope for ultimate success.

Fort Gratiot, Presbytery of Detroit. 1882–5.—Rev. D. H. Goodwillie continues to serve as stated supply at this place. The congregation appears to be in excellent working condition, the growth encouraging, and the prospects of success good. An addition to the church building is in progress, designed for Sabbath School and other purposes, but so arranged that when desired it can be used to enlarge the audience room. The expense of this improvement has been provided for by the congregation. Four hundred dollars has been granted by the Board for the next year the same amount as last year.

Greeley, Presbytery of Colorado. 1883–6.—Rev. H. F. Wallace began his labors as stated supply in this field about the middle of the second quarter of the past, and has been reappointed for the coming year. The erection of a church building will be pushed as rapidly as possible. In all departments of the work a good degree of interest is shown by the people. The prospect of increase by immigration is good. From the peculiar character of the community, Evangelical churches have difficult work and slow progress in this place. The outlook, however, is encouraging. The Presbytery asked $600 for the field for the coming year. The Board has granted $500, the same as last year.

Indianapolis, Presbytery of Indiana. 1880–5.—The letters received from the pastor Rev. J. P. Cowan, while not showing any increase in the membership, indicate a healthful condition of the congregation in nearly every respect, and the prospects to be as good as at any time in the past. The growth is slow but appears to be sure. An effort is being made to secure a parsonage. If successful it will go far toward assuring the establishment of a self-sustaining congregation in that city. Five hundred and fifty dollars has been granted for next year, a reduction of $100 from the appropriation of last year.

Los Angeles, Presbytery of San Francisco. 1883–8.—A congregation was organized in this field in April last year. Rev. W. J. Golden has served faithfully as stated supply during the year, but will be released at his own request at the close of the current quarter. The Board is making efforts to send promptly another missionary to take charge of the work there. Arrangements are being made looking to the erection of a church building. The prospects for rapid increase are not very favorable, but there is good ground to hope for ultimate success. Eight hundred dollars for the next year has been recommended by the Presbytery and granted by the Board, an increase of $100 over the appropriation of last year. This sum, however, seems to be required to give the missionary a sufficient support.

Marshalltown, Presbytery of Cedar Rapids. 1881–6.—Rev. Wm. Richie resigned the Pastorate and left the field during the third quarter. This change and the removal of some of the members, has weakened the congregation to some extent. There is, however, such interest taken in the Sabbath School and prayer meetings, and such an evident desire on the part of the people to maintain our cause, that we think the prospects are hopeful. They desire to secure a settlement as soon as possible, and with this in view the Board will make appointments of stated supplies for longer or shorter terms, as may be found best. The Presbytery asked $500 for the station. The Board has granted $475, the same as last year.

Omaha, Presbytery of Omaha. 1880–5.—This mission continues under the pastoral care of Rev. E. B. Graham. The work during the past year has prospered in every way. The congregation looks forward to being self-supporting in a very short time. Plans are forming for new mission Sabbath Schools, and active missionary work is being done. The amount asked and granted is $450, a reduction of $175 from the appropriation of last year.

Oshkosh, Presbytery of Wisconsin. 1880–5.—Rev. J. F. Black has served as stated supply during the year and has been reappointed. Though there has been but a slight gain in the membership the spiritual condition of the congregation has improved.

The work in the Sabbath School has been more satisfactory, though the attendance has not been quite equal to that of the preceding year. There has also been some improvement in the contributions of the congregation. In other respects the condition and prospects of the field remain the same as reported last year. The Presbytery asked for $500 and the Board appropriated $450 for the next year. As this is a reduction of $50 on the grant of last year, the congregation will be expected to add at least that amount to their contribution for the support of the missionary who has labored so faithfully among them for the past two years.

Port Huron, Presbytery of Detroit. 1882–4.—This station ceases with the expiration of the present year to be under the special care of the Board. It is in a good condition. As stated last year, the congregation had become self-supporting a few years since, but it was divided to organize the new congregation at Fort Gratiot, and hence it was compelled to ask aid again. At the time it was committed to the Board the hope was that help would not be required for more than two years. This expectation has not been realized, and the General Committee will be asked for another appropriation this year. There is no reason to doubt, however, that in a very short time Port Huron will be fully self-supporting.

Portland, Presbytery of Oregon. 1882–7.—The Rev. W. R. Stevenson was sent to Oregon in October last with instructions to explore Seattle, as well as Portland, and to use his judgment as to which of these places should be first occupied. He decided in favor of Portland, and has been laboring there for some months. The results thus far have justified the wisdom of his decision, being of the most encouraging character. A congregation of eighteen members has been organized. Services are held in a hall which is well located and very suitable for the purpose. The attendance has been growing in numbers and interest. They have a Sabbath School with an attendance of fifty scholars, and a prayer meeting with an attendance of twenty-five persons. Efforts are being made to secure a lot and a church building. The missionary expresses himself as much encouraged with the prospects of the work. We believe that we may reasonably hope for the establishment of a successful congregation in Portland after a few years of faithful effort sustained by liberal aid. $1,200 has been granted to the mission for the coming year.

St. Louis, Grand Avenue, Presbytery of Southern Illinois. 1883–6.—This new congregation grew out of a mission Sabbath School established in December, 1881. Preaching was begun in July, 1883, and a congregation organized the following October. Rev. T. C. McKelvey has been serving as stated supply and has been reappointed for the ensuing year. He does not expect a very rapid increase, but regards the work as no longer a mere experiment, and as likely to be rewarded with a growth quite as steady and healthful as our church can expect anywhere. The people contribute very liberally and are zealous in helping forward the work. The Board, in compliance with the recommendation of the Presbytery, has appropriated to the mission $1,000 for the coming year, the same amount as granted last year.

Topeka, Presbytery of Kansas. 1880–5.—Rev. M. F. McKirahan has continued as stated supply and has been reappointed. The reports show that much zealous and efficient work has been done. The attendance upon the Sabbath services has increased in numbers and interest. The Sabbath School has nearly doubled. A decided improvement has taken place in the financial condition of the congregation. The Board of Church Extension proposed to relieve the congregation of its obligations to them if it would improve the property to the extent of $700. This has been accepted. The required amount has been raised and the work of the improvement is in progress. The prospects may be regarded as more favorable than at any former period. $700 has been granted for the next year, a reduction of $100 on the previous appropriation

V. Other Special Work.—Chinese Mission, Los Angeles, California.—In the last two annual reports the Board has fully explained the methods of work pursued by Rev. J. C. Nevin, the missionary in charge. It is not necessary to repeat what has been hitherto stated. The condition and prospects of the mission are much the same as previously reported. There has been a slight gain in the number of converts and some increase in the attendance upon the various services held upon the Sabbath and during the week. Mr. Nevin states that his work is as successful in its visible results as can be expected in the circumstances. In accordance with the directions of the last Assembly the Board of Foreign Missions has transferred the property of the mission to the Home Board

Warm Springs, Indian Mission, Oregon.—This mission, as is well known, was placed under the care of the United Presbyterian Church by the government of the United States in pursuance of what has been aptly termed "the peace policy" in the treatment of the aboriginal tribes. As stated in our annual report two years since, "It is the judgment of the Board that we should either occupy the field efficiently or relinquish it that it may be given to some other denomination more able to prosecute the work vigorously. We believe that the time has come for the adoption of the latter alternative. The Board therefore recommends that the charge of this mission be resigned or transferred to some other branch of the Church. With the fullest recognition of the importance of the work, we believe this to be our wisest course. We have not been able to keep in the field, and have at present no prospect of securing a suitable missionary. In the straightened condition of our finances we are not able to meet the outlay necessary to the efficient prosecution of the work. There are also facts which will be stated to the General Committee, which, in the judgment of the Board, render it very doubtful whether we can, as a church, usefully retain the charge of this mission.

General Mission Work in Dakota.—The matter of the appointment of a general missionary to Dakota referred to the Board by the last Assembly was considered early in the year, and Rev. W. T. Moffit appointed to the service. He entered upon the work as soon as possible and with two or three unavoidable interruptions has been zealously engaged in the work ever since. A number of promising stations have been established and arrangements have been made for a more extended and thorough exploration of the field. It is the judgment of Mr. Moffit that the work should by all means be continued next year, and if continued it will be much more fruitful in results. He believes that the stations already opened up should be occupied immediately, and he asks that two or more missionaries be sent into the field for this purpose and that sufficient means be granted for the support of the work. In a recent letter, he says: "The work here is very encouraging. We need the aid and sympathy of the Church. In many places we can have the whole field if we will occupy now. Soon others will take them if we do not. We could employ ten men instead of two the next year, and the Church would reap a rich harvest from their labors in the near future

VI. THE SLIDING SCALE.—Eighteen Presbyteries sent in requests for the exemption of thirty-three stations from the operation of the rules of the sliding scale. Of these, one has been receiving aid for 22 years, seventeen from 10 to 20 years, and fifteen from 5 to 10 years. After a patient and careful consideration of the facts presented to us in each case, it is the judgment of the Board that eighteen of these stations may be regarded as exceptional, and therefore should be relieved from the operation of these rules. In some of the cases the information was so meagre and indefinite that we could not form an opinion, while in others the reasons given could not be regarded as sufficient. The facts presented with the judgment of the Board thereon will be submitted to the general committee in a special report.

It is the unanimous opinion of the Board that the years in which the aid granted has actually been paid are only to be counted when determining the periods referred to in the sliding scale.

Experience proves very clearly the value of the regulations of the sliding scale; and we repeat the conviction expressed last year, "That if these regulations are but properly carried out, our resources will be relieved of the drain necessarily involved by the continuance of aid year after year to stations which do not appear to be any nearer self-support now than they were five, ten or fifteen years ago, and thus we will be able to extend greatly our work in new and promising fields, which invite our efforts." We would also again request the Assembly to urge upon Presbyteries, "to exercise the greatest possible care in the selection of points to be occupied and to recommend for aid only such places as give promise within a reasonable time of becoming self-supporting."

VII. FINANCIAL CONDITION.—Our expenditures during the year ending with the 30th of April, amounted to $41,802.30. The receipts from all ordinary sources during the same period have been $33,657.14, viz, from Presbyteries, $28,262.24; from miscellaneous sources, $2,302.34; from legacies, $1,892 28; from Sabbath Schools, $413.12; from Ladies Societies, $787.16. We have also received from the Quarter Centennial Commission, $16,191.39. This latter sum cannot properly be included in our receipts, inasmuch as it has been designated for a special purpose by the Assembly. We are, therefore, confronted with the disagreeable fact that our receipts from the income which may be properly used to meet current expenses falls short of our expenditures eight thousand one hundred and forty-five dollars. While our fears in this respect have not been fully realized, the fact is sufficiently discouraging to cause anxiety. This is especially the case when we remember that last year our receipts fell $1,655 below our expenditures, and the previous year the deficiency was $2,410.98. So that during the past three years we have accumulated a debt of no less than $12,211.14. This will absorb three-fourths of all the Quarter Centennial money we have received. Should the Church continue to withhold to the same extent contributions to this object for the next two or three years, contraction rather than expansion of the work is inevitable, while we will be forced back to the miserable system of delayed and uncertain payment of the missionaries laboring in the field.

By a reference to the Statistical Summary appended to this report, it will be seen that our receipts fall below those of the preceding year $4,280.25, and that they are considerably less than any year since 1879. Our expenditures during the past have been $2,309.90 greater than they were during the preceding year.

Summary.—A condensed statement of the work and its results, also of the receipts and expenditures of the past year will be found in the Statistical Tables, and the Report of the Treasurer herewith presented.

VIII. THE COMING YEAR.—Fifty-five Presbyteries have sent in their annual reports to the Board. The following is a summary of the information thus received:

The names of 94 ministers and licentiates are reported for appointment, representing the full time of 93 men, The Presbyteries request the full time of 86 men for the supply of mission stations or for appointments to vacant congregations. As several of the brethren whose names are reported will not probably be able to leave the bounds of the Presbyteries reporting them, the supply of available ministers and licentiates will for the first time in many years be less than the demand. It is true, however, that there are a considerable number of ministers and licentiates in the Church able and willing to fill appointments, whose names have not been reported. Presbyteries should see to it that these brethren shall not by private arrangement with congregations interfere with the full employment of the appointees of the Assembly. The permanency and efficiency of our excellent system of bringing together the supply of and the demand for ministerial service depends upon its faithful administration by the Presbyteries. As long as this system exists, no encouragement should be given to brethren who will not submit themselves to its provisions. As was the case last year, complaints have come to us from a number of Presbyteries of the failure of appointees to fulfill their engagements, causing serious injury to the work as well as disappointment and vexation. Is there no way in which these brethren can be made to realize their obligations to fill their appointments, or at least when they cannot do so to notify the Presbyteries to which they have been assigned at the earliest time possible, that arrangements may be made to secure substitutes and prevent disappointments?

The aid desired by the Presbyteries for stations under their care amounts to $59,320. As several Presbyteries have not yet reported, it is probable that this sum will be increased several thousand dollars. The requests for aid and for ministerial service have been referred to the General Committee, whose report is herewith presented.

The term of service of the Corresponding Secretary, and of the following members of the Board will expire with the close of the current year, viz: Rev. James Kelso, Geo. M. Reed, Esq., and Rev. J W. English, elected to serve in place of Rev J. H. Veazey, who resigned early in the year.

Respectfully submitted by order of the Board,

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS.

In accordance with the directions of the Twenty-fifth General Assembly, the General Committee of Home Missions met at Marissa, Illinois, Wednesday, May 21, and continued in session six working days.

Fifty-seven delegates were in attendance, representing all the Home Presbyteries (except Muskingum and Stamford) and the Board. The Committee was organized by the election of Rev. D. C. Wilson, of the Presbytery of College Springs, Chairman; Rev. Andrew Renwick, of the Presbytery of Monmouth, Recording Secretary.

The amount of money desired for the prosecution of the work in the Home field during the ensuing year, as stated in the report of the Board herewith presented, was $59,320. Additional requests, after the printing of the report, increased the amount to $61,450, not including the sum to be placed at disposal of the Board for emergencies.

The appropriations made by the Committee aggregate $53,478. This amount is made up of the following items: 1. The ordinary appropriations by the General Committee to stations heretofore receiving aid, $29,678. 2. The grants by the Committee for new stations, $2,250. 3. Grants by the Board for Special Missions already under its care, $9,975. 4. Grants by the Committee for Special Missions placed under the care of the Board at this meeting, of which Alpena, in the Presbytery of Detroit, is a new station, $4,500. 5. Amount placed at the disposal of the Board for cases referred to it, $3,100. 6. Amount placed at the disposal of the Board to meet the needs of stations referred under the sliding scale rules, $975. 7. Appropriation to the Board to meet emergencies, $3,000.

The appropriations are over $3,000 greater than those of any previous year, and more than $6,000 above those of last year. During the past three years the expenditures of the Board have exceeded the contributions of the Church to the amount of $12,211. Had it not been possible to borrow from the Reserve and Quarter-Centennial Funds, this amount would now be a debt which we would be compelled to pay before a single dollar could be expended on the work for the coming year. This large deficiency has been met by drafts upon these funds which were intended to be held sacred, while no effort is even suggested to refund the money. The result seems inevitable, if the experience of the past is any guide, that within a very few years all our reserve funds will be exhausted, and the Church will be forced to contract its efforts, and compelled to adopt the system of delayed payments—a system which in former years proved such a serious hindrance to the success of the work.

We desire, also, to call the attention of the Assembly to the fact, that while the total amount recommended for appropriation is much less than the sum requested by the Presbyteries, it is, nevertheless, $19,821 in excess of the receipts of last year. The calls for aid were so numerous and pressing that the General Committee, after refusing to enter upon much of the new work which is inviting our efforts, and in many instances reducing the appropriations to fields already occupied to the lowest amount consistent with the safety of the work, felt constrained to ask the Church for this unusually large sum in the hope that the blessing of God upon a reviving interest in the Home field may secure the necessary liberality.

The names of 99 ministers and probationers were submitted by the Presbyteries for appointments. These represent the full time of 95 men. Of these 59 received appointments for the whole year; 9 for three-quarters; 7 for two quarters; and 8 for one. It is gratifying to be able to state that very few efficient laborers were left without employment.

I.—AID GRANTED.

III. SPECIAL ACTION ON MISSIONS.

1. It is recommended that the following stations be placed under the care of the Board as Special Missions, viz: Alpena, Michigan, in the Presbytery of Detroit, for a term of three years; with an appropriation, for the first year, of $300.

Davenport, in the Presbytery of Rock Island, for a term of five years, with an appropriation of $600, and the appointment of the Rev. G. W. Hamilton as missionary.

Emporia, Presbytery of Neosho, for an additional term of two years, the amount of the appropriation to be determined by the Board.

Lawrence, Presbytery of Kansas, for the term of five years, with an appropriation of $400.

Leavenworth, Presbytery of Kansas, for the term of five years, with an appropriation of $600, and the appointment of Rev. J. A. Montieth as Stated Supply.

Newton, Presbytery of Neosho, for the term of five years, referring the amount of aid and the appointment of a missionary to the Board.

2. The Board, in compliance with instructions from the last Assembly, secured a thorough exploration of the field at Minneapolis, Minn. The results were submitted to the General Committee. In view of all the facts presented, it is not deemed advisable to recommend the establishment of a mission in that city at the present time.

3. With reference to the Mission among the Indians on the Warm Spring Reservation, in Oregon, the following action was taken:

Resolved, That the Board of Home Missions be directed to make further efforts to secure a suitable missionary for this station, and if successful to make a special appeal to the Church for the necessary funds.

Resolved, That if a Missionary cannot be secured within a reasonable time, the Board is hereby empowered and instructed to relinquish the charge of the Mission.

4. As the work among the Chinese at Los Angeles, Cal., is of a special character, differing materially from the ordinary operations of the Church in the Home Field, and as it is desirable that this Mission should be placed on a more permanent basis;

Resolved, That the Chinese Mission at Los Angeles, Cal., be constituted a Special Mission and placed under the care of the Board, without definite limitation; and that the sum of $1,400 be placed at the disposal of the Board for the support of the Missionary, Rev. J. C. Nevin, during the coming year.

5. WHEREAS, Certain Stations, viz., Blue Mound, Presbytery of Garnett; Rome town, Presbytery of Lake; Argyle, Swan Lake and Caledonia, Presbytery of Minnesota; Sutton, Presbytery of Boston; Pleasant Valley, Presbytery of Neosho; Newark, Presbytery of New York; Fairview, Presbytery of Omaha; Rock Island, Presbytery of Rock Island; Roseville, Presbytery of San Francisco; Wampum, Presbytery of Beaver Valley; Mt. Joy and Sciota, Presbytery of Chillicothe, have not been considered by the Board of Home Missions under the sliding scale rule, and it appears that the Presbyteries concerned intended to apply for exemption, and,

WHEREAS, The interest of the work may require an increase of the appropriation in some instances;

Resolved, That these cases be referred to the Board with authority to act as in their judgment may be advisable.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS.

1. That we recommend to the General Assembly to consider the propriety of establishing a Sustentation Fund for the purpose of aiding such congregations as need help, to enable them to keep up the regular worship of God, and yet are not properly mission churches; that is, churches that are so located that they may be expected to increase in numbers with the prospect of soon becoming self-supporting.

2. That in cases where congregations have been in good faith disorganized, and afterwards organized in more favorable circumstances, the years, during which aid has been received, shall be counted in applying the sliding scale, from the date of reorganization.

3. WHEREAS, The Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Home Missions has served the Church with great fidelity and satisfaction, and his present term of office expires at this meeting of the General Assembly, it is fitting that the General Committee should give some expression of sentiment: therefore,

Resolved, 1. That in the present Corresponding Secretary the Church has found a workman who needs not to be ashamed, but one who has ever proved himself equal to the emergencies of his position, and discharged his duties with eminent wisdom, faithfulness and general acceptance.

2. That, while it is not our prerogative to nominate his successor, we would hail with great satisfaction his re-election.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

The year just closed has been one of decided advancement in this work at all the stations occupied. No teacher or worker was removed by death during the year; but by reason of severe sickness, Prof. S. A. Wilson, withdrew from the work in the College before the middle of the first term. At the close of the first term Miss Ella Gordon, was forced, by declining health, to vacate her place in the same field. These were sore trials, which we pray may be sanctified to the Board and the workers in the field. It is still felt that special thanksgiving is due to Almighty God for his kind care exercised over his work, and for the blessing he has caused to rest on the labors of his servants.

Rev. R. B. Taggart took charge of the chair vacated by the withdrawal of Prof. [redacted], and Mrs. Marion McClelland that made vacant by the retirement of Miss [redacted], to the end of the term.

THE WORK.

KNOXVILLE.—The year at this station has been one of advancement in several respects. The work at two mission stations has been continued without serious interruption, and a third school has been supplied in part with workers from the College. The largest attendance reported at the Sabbath morning services was 227, and the smallest was 84; the average attendance for the year is 153. The average at the mission schools is about 25, 30 and 60, making 115 in these schools. Volunteer teachers have never been wanting, even during the long summer vacation, and seldom did a class be without its stated teacher.

Prayer Meetings.—The attendance at prayer meeting during school term is very full, every seat being usually occupied, and extra seats brought in. The Sabbath evening prayer meetings are held sometimes with the males and females separated, and sometimes the meetings are united. The separate meetings are intended to call out the more timid. A Monday morning prayer meeting is held in the college chapel, which all the students attend.

Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations have been organized, and systematic work is carried on from house to house in Bible readings and prayer meetings. Reports are made weekly, and the Workers' Class go out to labor two and two, after study and prayer and practical hints one to another in the meeting.

Extra meetings were held in January for one week, and again in February for more than a week, with the assistance of Rev. Henry E. Brown, of the International Y. M. C. A. These meetings were not allowed to interrupt the regular school work, and the effect was good in the quickening of believers, and in bringing many apparently into newness of life.

The Statistics of the congregation are: Colored members, 28; white, 9. Increase by profession, 4; by certificate, 1. Adult baptisms, 3; contributions to the Boards, $52. Total, $229.

The College.—The year closes with the following laborers: President, J. S. McCulloch; Lady Principal, Miss Eliza B. Wallace; Teachers, Revs. D. T. McClelland, R. R. Taggart, Mrs. A. H. Wait, Miss M. A. Cleland, Miss M. A. Aikens and Mrs. M. McClelland. Mrs. M. C. McCulloch has had charge of the sewing classes. Miss Maggie McDill has been the matron of the Little Girls' Home, and Mrs. Mary J. Johnston has superintended the work of the kitchen and dining room. Miss M. L. Buchanan, has given her time largely to drilling regular and special classes in vocal music, besides giving lessons in instrumental music to a large number of students.

The Enrollment for the year is 243. There has been less fluctuation in the number present each month than formerly. Not only were more students ready to begin in September, but a larger proportion have held on to the end in May. This tendency to put in the full year should receive all the encouragement possible, since the loss of a few months is a very serious drawback to thoroughness in mental training in a class. The aid given by societies, Sabbath Schools, congregations and individuals has done much to continue in school those who have proved themselves worthy of help. It is to be hoped that a larger number from year to year may thus be enabled to make a full year's progress along with their respective classes.

Aid to Students, when given with caution and judgment, is at present, one of the most efficient ways of forwarding the Lord's work among colored people. The demand for well-educated, Christian teachers is so great that, unless some special effort be made to keep the most advanced students in college, they will be tempted to engage as teachers long before they finish courses of study prescribed in the catalogue. A very small proportion of the students now in colored colleges appreciate the importance of a higher education sufficiently to induce them to spend the time and money, and undergo the self-denial required to reach it. The number of thoroughly educated graduates of colored colleges is alarmingly small. Every consideration which leads the Church to make provision for an educated ministry pleads for the education of students who are now looking forward to the ministry of colored churches. Why should these churches be compelled to supply their pulpits with half-educated men? How long must they wait to secure pastors who, in mental discipline, Bible learning, and literary culture, can match their co-laborers in the white churches? The United Presbyterian Church and other Churches have established institutions whose main object is to prepare such pastors; but, though a beginning has been made, the demand is still overwhelming. If all the students in these institutions were ready to graduate to-day, the deficiency of well qualified laborers would be only a little less appalling. Thousands upon thousands would be left under the religious ministration of men who seldom read a chapter from the pulpit, and who cannot do without blunders that are shocking. Is it not time for the Church to awake to the importance of this work? The Providence of God has brought into Knoxville College young men and women who, with a few years of systematic study, will be prepared to do a great work in schools and churches. They have, in many instances, shown a commendable desire to advance to higher attainments by denying themselves in dress and luxuries, and by persevering toil. Few of the more advanced students need further discipline of this kind. They are by it all the better prepared to appreciate a little help to enable them to remain in school from year to year. Shall they not have it?

Colored Teachers.—About 90 of the present and former students of the College have taught during the past year. The average time taught is over four months. The average number enrolled in the schools is about 45. The average attendance has been about 30, and the average wages, so far as reported, $26.50. They taught in Tennessee, West Virginia, Kentucky, Arkansas, Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina and Virginia. Their total enrollment would be about 4,000.

Training School.—The demand for thoroughly qualified Christian teachers being so great, it was decided one year ago to establish a Training School for teachers, in connection with the College. Two large rooms adjoining each other were arranged with folding doors, so that they can be occupied separately or together, as the case may require. The primary department occupies these rooms. Mrs. Agnes H. Wait has charge of this department. Students who expect to teach or who have taught have charge of the classes, and, under her inspection, and subject to her criticism and correction, teach alternate hours. In this way a class of eighteen teachers has, this last year, received a thorough drill in the practice of teaching, under one whose long experience and whole-hearted consecration has given her rare qualifications for her profession, and the Primary Department has the advantage of the most thorough and careful instruction.

Sewing.—This department has been under the charge of Mrs. McCulloch since November. The plan of having all under one teacher has worked much more satisfactorily, and the improvement made by many of the girls is very decided. The report shows 325 garments, mostly underwear and aprons, cut and sewed. Set together six quilts, quilted two, made 300 pieces of patch-work for quilts. The little girls did most of the patch-work. Each one who makes a garment that will pass inspection has the privilege of buying it at about half the cost of the material, and more than half the garments made are disposed of in this way. The remaining garments are sold at a reduced rate to those who attend the Sabbath School, and are known to be worthy of such help. Over 600 yards of material have been used. A large proportion of this material has been furnished by Ladies' Missionary Societies, Sabbath Schools and congregations.

Clothing sent.—About 30 boxes, barrels and packages have been received, containing second-hand clothing, bed-clothing and new material, mostly muslin and calico. The bed-clothing is for the rooms of the dormitory, the new material for the sewing department, and the half-worn garments are sold for a small amount to the individuals and families attending the Sabbath School. Over one hundred dollars have been obtained in this way. This is partly expended for new material and things necessary for the sewing-room; for medicine and medical attendance in very needy cases, and sometimes for school books to lend to pupils.

Little Girls' Home.—Seventeen have been inmates of the Home, and fifteen of them have been in nearly all the year. Miss McDill has her trials and perplexities in administering such a home, as some mothers can well understand, but like a good mother, she has many an hour of pleasure in the happiness and enjoyment of so many little ones. The President says: "As I see them and hear them at play in the adjoining room; as I hear them reciting their verses and questions on Sabbath evening; and as I hear them singing voluntarily the many Psalms with which they are familiar, I cannot doubt the impressions here made on young minds and hearts will be lasting and bear fruit to the glory of God." The annual report of the President closes as follows: "It is cause for devout thanksgiving that so many individuals, societies, Sabbath Schools and congregations are enlisted in the religious training of the children of former slaves, but when we reflect that the national government will probably soon expend millions annually to lessen the alarming illiteracy of these people, and that thousands of additional teachers will be needed to meet the demand, how urgent is the call to keep the college full of those who need a year or two more of thorough drill, in both secular and religious training, to fit them for their work. These higher institutions, established and sustained by the Church, are all on a thoroughly religious, Christian basis. They have the machinery in operation, courses of study mapped out, teachers of the best social position and literary ability consecrated to the work. Why should these forces be expended largely in doing common school work? Why should the advance classes be allowed to dwindle down to two or three? Why should the most promising students be compelled to lose time, in making a living, when the demand for more thorough qualifications is so urgent? These considerations make it more apparent from year to year, that greater prominence must be given to the keeping up of the classes in the college proper, and that the great end of Christian missions will in this way be most readily reached."

Boarding Department.—The Boarding department opened September 1, 1883, with 43 boarders, not including teachers; an increase of 28 over last year. At this date we have 97 boarders, as against 54 at the close of the term last year, a gain of 43. The total number of boarders received during the year is 111, including 17 in the Little Girls' Home.

The expenses of this department have been as follows: For work during vacation from May 21 to September 1, 1883, $80.00; furnishing, $73.33. For provisions during the year, $2,944.63. For fuel, $426.63. For furnishing, $134.88. The department was entirely self-sustaining, being able to pay cash for every article purchased, and the annual report to the Board adds: "If all remain to the end of the term, and all bills for boarding are paid in full, we will have a surplus of about $500." The Little Girls' Home has had an expense of $500 this year and an income of $800. There has been an excellent class of students in this department this year, the majority seeming to wish to do right and make the best possible of their opportunities.

The religious exercises here are the same as formerly, all engaging morning and evening in worship before leaving the dining-hall. The Bible reading exercise is continued with good results; that is, each student agrees to read a chapter each day, then on Saturday evening all meet with a teacher and spend an hour together. At these meetings the roll is called, and each one states whether he has kept up the reading. There is nothing compulsory in this exercise, and no word of censure is spoken if the required number of chapters has not been read, but by this arrangement a very general reading of the word is secured. The questions that are asked by the students at these meetings give the teachers an insight into their inner life that enables them to know better how to deal with them. The ignorance and superstition thus revealed are appalling, and show that the work to be done is very great and can be accomplished only by the help of the Holy Spirit.

It becomes more apparent every year that the success of our work largely depends on the Boarding Department. Here we get the students away from their homes, surrounded by a new and better atmosphere, in which they realize something of what a Christian home should be. After obtaining a glimpse of this higher and better life, they begin to strive for something better than mere animal enjoyment. The annual report to the Board closes with these words: "As our boarders rise one after another for prayer, and are taken to the rooms of teachers and Christian students, to be prayed with and instructed in the way of salvation; and the class of inquirers meets with our President every Sabbath evening, and not a day-scholar among all these, we realize more and more that we must have them away from their homes to accomplish much good. Our aim is to bring them to Christ, and everything we undertake should tend directly to that end."

CHASE CITY.—This field has been cultivated with much energy, and the results have been quite satisfactory. The opposition with which we have constantly met since occupying this post has entirely disappeared, and the work receives the hearty commendation of both whites and blacks in the neighborhood. The regular attendance at all the services, including the day school, were frequently interrupted during the winter by the unusual severity of the storms of snow and rain which frequently continued for a week at a time. No sickness other than that which is usual appeared in the community.

The Rev. J. H. Veazey has been in charge of this field since last July. Regular preaching service is conducted every Sabbath day. Sabbath School and prayer-meetings are held regularly. The attendance and interest at all the services are gratifying. The congregation, organized over a year ago, has now a membership of 30. The total enrollment of the Sabbath School for the year is 316. The total enrollment of the day school for the same time is 237. The workers at present at this station are: Rev. J. H. Veazey and Misses Ella N. Reed, Sylvia And[illegible]

Anna A. Keller. (Nineteen pupils who have been at some time in this school were engaged in teaching last winter.) The mission dwelling destroyed by fire in May, last year, has been replaced by a new one, at a cost of $2,060, and is now occupied by the missionaries.

The insurance on the building destroyed was promptly paid by the company, through their efficient agent at Pittsburgh, James W. Arrott. The net amount received was $1,237.

BLUESTONE.—This mission has been in charge of Rev. J. A. Ramsay, who was transferred from Chase City in August of last year. This, in some respects, is the best year in the history of this mission. Discord and dissensions, which have formerly existed, have not appeared in any form. The services have been conducted regularly on Sabbath and during the week. Mr. Ramsay has preached regularly in the chapel, and held Sabbath School every Sabbath. Prayer-meetings have been systematically conducted, and the missionaries have made many personal visits to the homes of the people for whom they labor.

On the 20th of April a congregation was organized here with ten members, nine of whom are heads of families. This announcement we make with feelings of gratitude. It is cause for thankfulness when we can succeed in breaking through the strong barriers of superstition and long established custom, and rescue even one from the cruel bonds which bind with the strength of a perpetual death.

The organization however, is a signal for an attack on our works and for persecutions against these few who have come out on the side of Christ, little less cruel and relentless than that common among the followers of the false prophet of the heathen world. It is even now begun. But Christ will sustain his own.

The total enrollment in the Sabbath School has been 370, and in the day school 265. The average attendance has been less than one-half the total enrollment in both schools. The circumstances tending to reduce attendance were the same that are named above as operating against large attendance at Chase City.

Our missionaries here have hitherto been compelled to board, there being no mission home provided. This year a mission home was erected, similar to the one at Chase City, and at about the same cost. This was a necessity long felt.

The workers here at present are Rev. J. A. Ramsay, Misses Sadie Peet and Maria McClintock, and Mrs. J. A. Ramsay.

NORFOLK, VA.—This new field has been occupied during the year. A wide door and effectual is opened up to us here; and after having done all we could under the circumstances, we feel we have thus far come very far short of meeting the demands of the case. We hope to be able to do much more and better work another year. Rented rooms (although unfit for the purpose, but the best we could secure) have been occupied, both for the day school and religious services. The workers in this field are Rev. M. Clarke, Prof. W. W. Grove, Mrs. Kate Clarke, Misses Ella Shaw, Mary Coon and Helen McLean.

The total enrollment has been 773, with an average daily attendance for the whole term of 334. The Sabbath School roll contains 490 names. The average attendance for the whole term is less than 100. When better established, greater regularity will be secured.

The school was conducted mostly on the half-day principle—those coming in the morning being dismissed at noon, and others taking their places in the afternoon.

Last July an eligible lot was purchased on which suitable buildings for a permanent work here might be erected. The lot is situated on the corner of Princess Ann avenue and Charles street, extending along each 125 feet, and cost $2,500. Plans and specifications for a school building were prepared by W. S. Fraser, architect, Pittsburgh, and after some delay in securing estimates, the contract was awarded to Murray & Jarvis, of Norfolk, for the sum of $15,545, all complete.

The building is of brick, 64x84, and three stories high above the basement. The first floor contains, beside other rooms, a chapel 40x60 feet.

After carefully surveying the field and taking into consideration its wide extent, its needy condition—being wholly unoccupied—the Board unanimously decided that it would only be throwing away a great opportunity, and a forfeiting of our right to the occupancy of a field providentially opened to us, to enter in a half-hearted and hesitating manner, suggesting either a lack of purpose to continue, or a feeling of indifference to the greatest work yet opened to us among the Freedmen.

The building will be completed early in June, and during the summer will be put in order for occupancy at the opening of the next school year, September 1st. The missionary, in closing his annual report, expresses the following sentiment, which the Board heartily endorses: "On a review of the past sixteen months we feel that we should all be thankful to God for the extensive field of usefulness opened up for us in Norfolk, Va. The harvest was fully ripe, and the reapers began work not a day too soon."

SUMMARY.

The aggregate enrollment in all the schools under our care this year is 1,518, and in our Sabbath Schools over 1,600, showing a very encouraging increase over last year. Since our last report, 110 students from our school were engaged in teaching in the public schools. Of these, 90 received their education, wholly or in part in the Knoxville College; 19 at Thyne Institute, Chase City; and 1 at Bluestone. They taught in Tennessee, West Virginia, Kentucky, Arkansas, Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina and Virginia. Tne aggregate enrollment of these schools is not less than 5,000.

As formerly, it is a rule with these teachers to conduct a Sabbath School in the district in which they are employed; and these they model after the Sabbath Schools in which they were trained in our missions, always when they can obtain them, using our Bible songs and the International lessons; more than 6,000 pupils in all the schools of different grades, and at least as many in the Sabbath School, all more or less directly under the influence of this mission. How many homes are made happier; how many hearts are made lighter; how many souls are brought to the enjoyment of peace by these gracious influences? Who can tell?

A bequest of $500 has been received from the estate of Mrs. Susan Archer, of Steubenville, Ohio, to be invested and the proceeds to be used in assisting worthy students in Knoxville College. This is the first sum received for the establishment of a Students' Fund according to the recommendation of the Assembly at its meeting at Cambridge, Ohio, 1878. We hope this fund may be speedily increased.

The Board respectfully asks for an appropriation of $35,000 to meet present liabilities and support the work next year.

Vacancies occur as follows: By tho removal of R. A. Balph, and by expiration of the term of H. J. Murdoch, Peter Dick and Rev. W. L. Wallace, D. D. In view of the increased labor connected with the office of Treasurer of this Board, owing to the extension of our work, we respectfully request that the Assembly fix and authorize the payment of an annual salary for the same.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension respectfully submits the following report and asks the General Assembly to engage in special thanksgiving and prayer for the blessing of God upon the work.

Monthly meetings have been held, and the Board has endeavored to faithfully discharge the trust committed to it. All matters requiring special consideration have been referred to committees for full and careful examination. The hand of God upon the Rev. J. M. Fulton has prevented his attendance upon the meetings, and deprived the Board of his valuable services.

PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

The correspondence of the Board with the missionaries indicates a very healthy spirit of earnest work on the part of the congregations. It is becoming more clearly understood that a comfortable house of worship is necessary to the success of a mission, and applications are therefore made at an earlier period. Presbyteries, also, being assured of support, are more prompt to enter upon new fields. There has been a marked increase of mission work in the cities. This involves a larger expenditure of funds, but it also indicates a better proportion in the work of the Church, and gives promise of a growth corresponding to the changing condition and needs of our population. Appropriations have been made for Denver, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Omaha, Cleveland and Providence, and the mission in Portland, Oregon, will soon require liberal help.

The Presbytery of Philadelphia has not found sufficient encouragement to continue the mission in Washington City, and has, therefore, authorized the sale of the property.

The General Assembly of 1880 directed the Board to pay $6,000 of the debt on the Boston church. As the party holding the mortgage refused to accept payment until the maturity of the debt, the Board invested the money until it would be called for. The whole amount with interest on the over due payments has been paid. About $3,000 of the debt remains, which the congregation feels itself unable to meet. The Board has declined to take further action except by the instruction of the General Assembly.

In view of the large amount involved, and in accordance with the recommendation of the last General Assembly, the Corresponding Secretary, by order of the Board, visited Denver and Greeley, Colorado, but it was not practicable to extend the visit to other important fields. At Denver a lot was purchased, and a church, planned by the approval of the Board with special reference to Sabbath School and missionary work, has been erected and is nearly ready to be occupied. After a very careful investigation, the Board approved the transfer of the Evans congregation to Greeley, and recommended the erection of a church suitable to the character and importance of the field.

Application was made by the Presbytery of New York for aid to the East One Hundred and Twenty-seventh Street Church, to prevent the foreclosure of a mortgage. Effective relief could be given only by assuming a very heavy debt, or by extensive changes in the building involving a considerable increase of the debt, and long and careful management of rents. The Board, therefore, declined to take action, but recommended that private measures be taken to prevent the foreclosure, and make the property productive and self-relieving.

The will of the late Mr. John Thompson, of Thornville, O., containing a bequest of $5,000 to the Board, was contested. After being fully satisfied that no injustice would be done to any one, the bequest was defended. A favorable verdict has been rendered.

For several years the Treasurer has reported the names of congregations contributing, so far as they could be obtained. This involves a very large amount of labor and some additional expense. It is submitted to the General Assembly whether this plan should be continued.

The Board has been able to pay all claims as they matured, but in order to do this it was necessary to call in some investments.

RECEIPTS.

For several months there have been much anxiety and embarrassment by reason of the postponement of contributions until near the close of the year. It became necessary to discourage applications even from worthy missions, and to give notice that prompt payment could not be guaranteed. The balance is, indeed, a little over $7,000, but this was received within a short time of closing the account.

The receipts from all sources have been as follows:

From Congregations	$10,522 18
" Missionary Societies	422 11
" Sabbath Schools	470 89
" Individuals	554 00
Total direct contributions from the churches		$11,969 18
From Quarter-Centennial Fund		32,430 00
" Legacies		2,267 45
" Interest and Rents		1,721 93
" Loans repaid		1,845 50
" Sales of property		2,134 02
" The Hanna Fund		3,143 39
" Investments called in		5,800 00
Total		$61,311 47
Balance May 1, 1883		8,185 72
Total		$69,497 19

The payments have been:

To Congregations	$38,924 95
" Annuity	125 00
" Quarter-Centennial Investments	22,000 00
" Expenses for all purposes	1,378 85
		$62,428 90
Balance May 1, 1884		7,068 29
The liabilities of the Board are, Appropriations not paid		$20,012 50
Excess of appropriations over balance		12,944 21

From the above it will be seen that the work could not have been sustained during the past year, except for the Quarter-Centennial and Hanna Funds, and that still it was necessary to draw largely upon the permanent investments. The necessity for help grows with the enlargement of the Church, and, therefore, serious embarrassment will be felt during the coming year, unless the contributions shall be largely increased.

It will also be noted that the direct contributions of the churches for this work were less than during the previous year, and amounted to barely forty per cent. of the amount appropriated by the General Assembly, and of the amount required for the help of the dependent missions. The particular attention of the Assembly is asked to this.

The circumstances of the congregations asking help have not allowed the use of the Loan Fund to any considerable extent. The appropriations to Topeka and Cedar Rapids were releases of debt, on condition of valuable improvements to be made.

THE THOMAS HANNA FUND.

During the year the Associate Reformed Presbytery of Allegheny transferred to the Board a fund which was formed from the bequest of the late Mr. Thomas Hanna, of Allegheny, Pa. It consists of securities to the amount of $13,840, and $1,809.66 in cash, making a total of $15,649.66. The overdue interest on some of the loans will cover the possible shrinkage in a few of the congregational securities. This will be kept as a special fund to be known as THE THOMAS HANNA FUND As it is not, by its terms, restricted to the building of churches, it is proposed, if approved by the General Assembly, to use it to aid in the erection of parsonages, so far as it may be done without interfering with the other work of the Board. This will be done in the form of loans at a low rate of interest.

THE QUARTER-CENTENNIAL FUND.

In accordance with the purpose of the Quarter-Centennial Fund and the instructions of the last General Assembly, the Board has not used any of the money so received for current expenses, or to aid missions which can be sufficiently helped from the ordinary resources, but has set it apart for special missions in which large sums are required. The money not so used at once is invested until it may be required. The Denver church has been erected chiefly by this fund, and the appropriation to Providence, R. I., is for a memorial church, but the work is not yet begun. The amount received from the Commission is $32,430. Of this, $10,000 has been appropriated to Denver, and $22,000 have been invested in bonds and first mortgages on valuable real estate until it may be required.

PROPERTY AND MORTGAGES.

The church at Mt. Vernon, Ohio, has been sold and also the balance of the Kansas land donated by the late Mr. Thomas Buck. The congregation of Wenona, Ill., has sold its property and placed the proceeds with the Board. A schedule of property and securities for investments is herewith submitted.

The following securities have been received during the year:

Mortgages for Donations.—Americus, Kan., $250; Bagley, Iowa, $650; Beulah, Kan., $435; Chartiers, Pa., $1,000; Page Centre, Iowa, $1,000; Emporia, Kan., $2,180; Indian Creek, Iowa, $500; Adair, Iowa, $650.

Mortgages for Loans.—Beulah, Kan., $200; Chartiers, Pa., $500; Wilkinsburg, Pa., $800.

Personal Notes.—Liberty, Neb., $150; Lebanon, Mo., $300.

Deeds.—Burchard, Iowa; Davenport, Iowa; Wahoo, Neb.; Stevens Creek, Cal.

VACANCIES.

The term of office of Rev. E. S. McKitrick, Mr. Samuel Dyer and Rev. J. T. McCrory expires with this year. The vacancy caused by the removal of Rev. A. H. Harshaw was filled until the meeting of the General Assembly by the election of Rev. M. M. Patterson.

In conclusion, the Board asks for this work a very careful consideration and an appropriation of at least the sum heretofore granted. And in behalf of the missionaries and their feeble missions, it asks a place for this work in the heart and gifts of every minister and member of the Church.

Respectfully submitted.

By order of the Board.

E. S. McKitrick, President.
Alex. G. Wallace, Cor. Secretary.

SPECIAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION ON THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY GIVING HIS WHOLE TIME TO THE WORK.

The last General Assembly directed the Board of Church Extension "to take under advisement the propriety or feasibility of requiring the Corresponding Secretary to devote his entire time and attention to the work entrusted to this Board," and to report to you our judgment in the matter.

After carefully considering the subject in the light of our experience, keeping in view the constant and somewhat rapid enlargement of the work entrusted to our care, we earnestly recommend that such action be taken by the Assembly as will secure for this important department of the Church's work the entire time and attention of the Corresponding Secrecary of this Board, and for the following reasons:

1. Since the Board is almost wholly dependent upon the Corresponding Secretary for information concerning the circumstances and needs of congregations applying for aid, except so far as that is given in their formal applications, it seems very desirable that he should visit at least a large number of such congregations, and to do so would require his undivided time to be given to the duties of his office.

2. By experiment in several instances, we have found that a personal visit by the Corresponding Secretary to congregations in financial difficulty has resulted in so developing and directing their energies and resources that they have been able to promptly relieve themselves of financial burdens, and in some cases without much help from the Board.

3. In congregations needing help, especially in mission churches, there are often not many members who are well informed in regard to suitable plans for church buildings, proper selection of location, and other particulars more or less essential to the success of a congregation. In such cases, they need and desire the aid and advice of experience. But such aid cannot be given by one whose time is largely taken up with pastoral duties.

4. The interests of this Board have always been largely advanced by the personal presentation of its claims upon the Church, through Synods and Presbyteries, and to congregations, whenever that has been practicable. But it has not ordinarily been practicable to do more in this direction than attend the meetings of the nearest Synods.

5. It is believed that the additional expense involved would be far more than made up by preventing the injudicious use of funds by congregations without experience in building churches, and by guiding them to the most approved and successful methods of conducting their financial affairs, as well as by largely increasing the contributions of our congregations to this work.

6. The personal attention of the official representative of this Board to the work entrusted to us, as occasion may arise, devoting his time and talent to the care of its interests, does not seem to us to be an experiment, so confident are we, in view of our experience, that it would add greatly to its usefulness as an agency of the Church in strengthening this important department of the Master's work.

By order of the Board,

E. S. McKitrick, President.
Samuel Dyer, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

In presenting our Annual Report to the Assembly, we gratefully acknowledge the goodness of the Head of the Church in preserving the lives of all the members and employes of this Board, in the protection of its property, and in the favor He has shown to its work.

Our work is of such a nature that the Assembly and the whole Church can understand what we are doing, and how we are meeting the great ends for which this Board has been established, without any special reference to its details in this report further than appears in the exhibit of the Business Manager which accompanies it.

The consolidation of this Board and the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools thus placing the work of the Board under the control of fifteen managers, eight of whom constitute a quorum, and six of whom with the Editor of the Sabbath School Periodicals constitute its Sabbath School committee, has contributed to the efficient and harmonious management of our work.

The changes in our Charter rendered necessary by this enlargement of the Board have been made as directed by the Assembly.

It will perhaps be a disappointment to the Assembly to find that we have done almost nothing in the way of bringing out new books prepared by our own ministers and members suitable for families and Sabbath Schools. We have not done so for the simple reason that we have not been able to obtain original works of such merit as to justify their publication and circulation among our people. We could doubtless print a large number of volumes equal to most of those issued by religious boards and publishing houses, but we feel that there would be no gain to the cause of religion by such publications, while the experiment would be attended with financial loss.

As there is a demand from many in the Church for a revision of the Psalter, and as our plates now in use are becoming worn and must soon be replaced by new ones, we ask the Assembly to give the Board such instructions in regard to the matter as in its judgment may be necessary to secure needed improvement in the selection and arrangement of suitable music when new plates must be procured.

The Assembly of 1882 having declared that Chapter III, Article II, Section 5, the Directory for Worship was repealed, and having adopted a Chapter on Commissions, we respectfully ask the Assembly to give such direction as may be proper in regard to changes in future editions of the Directory.

In the department of Sabbath School work we present the following:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

This committee has endeavored to perform all the duties devolving upon the Assembly's Permanent Committee; and is virtually the same committee, as a majority of its members belonged to the former committee.

In our judgment, the Sabbath School interests of the Church have not suffered by the change that was made. It is our conviction, that as the Board and its committee become better acquainted with this important department of the Church work, we will be better enabled to meet the wants of the Sabbath Schools of our Church. One benefit resulting from this change is that the committee is able to make such changes as seem necessary without the delay and inconvenience, which it formerly experienced.

Another advantage arising from this consolidation has been to bring the Editor of our Sabbath School Periodicals into fuller acquaintance with the work and its wants.

The blanks that were sent out to the different schools to help us make up our statistical report, did not contain so many questions as the former blanks. The number of questions was reduced, hoping that all of our schools would send us a report. In our desire to simplify the questions and the work on the Presbyterial reports, one or two spaces have been unintentionally omitted. We regret that on this account our report as to the number of teacher's preparation meetings and normal classes is not so satisfactory as we desire. In this year's report both these meetings are counted as one, it being impossible to distinguish them in the reports from Presbyteries.

Notwithstanding the fact that the blanks have been shortened, and that repeated efforts have been made to get a full report from all our schools in the home field, we have not heard from them all.

Five Presbyteries, Arkansas Valley, Big Spring, Delaware, Minnesota and Stamford, have failed to send us their reports, but for purposes of comparison we add last year's figures from these Presbyteries to those reporting this year.

These figures will not soem attractive to some, but clothe them with flesh and blood, and let each number represent a living soul, and they will then give us some conception of the important interests entrusted to this department of the Church's work.

Comparison of these figures with those reports presented in former years shows that in several respects the work of the past year has been encouraging.

This year we have had some facts brought to our attention, which seem to deserve special mention.

Contributions of Schools.—It is a cause for rejoicing and thanksgiving among the friends of the Sabbath School that our schools are learning to "abound in the grace" of giving to the Lord. The total contributions during the past year exceed those of any previous year by more than $16,000, the grand total being $55,237. The amount reported last year was $38,505, and of this amount about $500 was designated for the Quarter-Centennial. Deducting this sum from the total amount reported this year, we have still $54,737 as the actual amount raised this year. Of this sum you will see that about one-third was contributed to the "Q. C." fund; and it is to this movement, partly, that we are indebted for the increased contributions. Two or three schools gave over one thousand dollars each to the different objects mentioned in the report. This illustrates the importance and necessity of officers and teachers selecting suitable objects for the contributions of their schools, rather than spend their money offerings in maintaining the expenses of the schools. In cases where it is at all possible the congregations should be trained to defray the exepnses of the schools.

Teachers not Church Members.—Out of the 6,130 teachers in our schools, we are glad to be able to report that there are only 28 who are not professing Christians.

The number mentioned in last year's report was 37, and the preceding year, 56. As these 28 teachers are scattered over 53 Presbyteries, or an average of about one-half a teacher to each, we think the old question so often introduced into our conventions and conferences, "Should a non-professor be allowed to teach in Sabbath School?" might safely be omitted in future, our statistics showing it has no practical bearing on our work.

Teachers' Meetings.—We regret that there has been such a marked decrease in the number of teacher's preparation meetings and normal classes. According to the report of last year there were 128 teacher's preparation meetings and 27 normal classes, 155 in all. This year the entire number reported is but one hundred. It is true that many of our teachers are widely scattered, and many are kept quite busy. Still we cannot help thinking that by some effort and self-sacrifice they could attend such meetings. These 4,800 teachers who do not attend will find such meetings a great help in the study of the lessons.

Scholars Making Profession of Faith.—This part of our report shows that our labor to bring others to Christ has not been in vain in the Lord. Some Presbyteries and schools seem to have been favored with the Master's special blessing. One Presbytery, Rock Island, containing only eleven schools and eleven hundred scholars reports an accession of ninety members to the Church from their schools, one school alone reporting twenty-two. In the Presbytery of Allegheny one school reports twenty-five making a profession of faith, and another reported twenty-eight scholars uniting with the Church during the year. This part of our report should lead pastors, workers and teachers to give thanks unto the Lord for His goodness.

Presbyterial Superintendents.—The reports which have been received from these brethren show that many of them are interested in their work. Some of them have been active in holding conventions or conferences upon some part of the Sabbath School work. Our report shows that forty-three conventions and conferences have been held. Several Presbyteries report none, but the Presbyteries of Philadelphia and Butler take the banner, each holding four. Some of these reports are models of neatness, and are worthy of honorable mention. Besides this they contain much information that is valuable to the committee. Some of them have worked faithfully to prepare full and accurate reports, and the committee is under special obligations to them for the assistance which they have rendered in gathering the reports.

Helps.—It is gratifying to know that our schools are using the "Helps" and Periodicals published by our own Church. The reports received this year show that our helps are giving more satisfaction than in any previous year. We are glad to know that our efforts to improve them are so well appreciated, and it will be our aim to continue to do so. We have received some valuable suggestions which we will try to carry into effect as soon as possible.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1st. That where Presbyteries have efficient Presbyterial Sabbath School superintendents they re-elect them to this position.

2d. Inasmuch as special efforts are now being made by our Editor to collect information concerning the actual workings of our schools from month to month for publication in the periodicals, principally in the Bible Teacher, in brief paragraphic form, we urge all Presbyterial superintendents to lend whatever assistance they can in this direction, that by becoming better acquainted with each others methods and the results of our labors we may be mutual helpers in the work.

3d. That the Assembly again urge upon pastors and sessions the importance of teachers' preparation meetings and normal classes.

4th. That the third Sabbath of October be observed as a day of special prayer for Sabbath Schools, and that pastors and sessions be requested to hold special services on that day in the interests of this work.

We have added to our liabilities the sum of six thousand dollars in the purchase of additional real estate at the rear of our present property. This amount will be further increased in the near future by an addition to our present building, which we find necessary to accommodate our business.

We do not ask for any appropriation to this Board to carry on its present work. The term of office of the following members of the board expires with the present year, viz: Revs. W. R. McKee, S. J. Shaw, J. M. Wallace, and Messrs. Thomas McCance and Henry Warner.

III. THE BOARD.

The Assembly of 1883 instructed the Board as follows:

"Resolved, That applications from Presbyteries or Synods for aid in establishing or maintaining academical institutions, be referred to the Board of Education, and that it be instructed to report to the next Assembly what grants of aid may and ought to be made from the funds under its control in aid of such institutions."

Three applications for aid have been made to the Board, one for the partial endowment of a college, to be located within the bounds of the Synod of Kansas; one for maintaining an Academy at Minden, Nebraska, in the Presbytery of Pawnee; and a third, from the Presbytery of San Francisco, asking the Board to provide for the organization of an academy within the bounds of that Presbytery.

The special report adopted by the Board is as follows:

We are under the necessity of reporting that there are no funds under our control that can be employed in this way. The proceeds of funds received from the Speer estate, and the yearly contributions from congregations and individuals are not properly available for this purpose. From the Quarter-Centennial Fund, we have indeed received, and have on hand $146.55—a sum too small to be employed by itself in aiding academies.

Yet the Board regards academic education as exceedingly important. It is the foundation of true scholarship. Success in college and in after life is dependent on it. Academies are needed as feeders to our colleges. Our Union Schools, in general, are not adapted to training boys and girls for college. In many places, these schools have broken down and destroyed the academies, but are not filling, and cannot fill their place. In consequence, our colleges are suffering for the want of academies as preparatory schools. On account of this want fewer students enter college, and many of those who do enter, are imperfectly prepared, a defect in their education that, in most cases, is never entirely remedied.

It is true our colleges have Preparatory Departments, but the Preparatory Department of the college supplies only a local want. It accommodates those who live in the more immediate neighborhood of the college, but not those who live at a distance. At the age when boys and girls ought to begin their preparatory course, they are too young to be separated from home. The study of languages, in order to be mastered, must, as a general thing, be commenced at an early age. Hence academies are imperatively needed in every region where there are boys and girls to be prepared for college, in order that these precious youth may not be drawn at too tender an age from under the blessed influence of Christian homes.

Besides, academies are needed in an economical point of view. Railroad fare and board bills constitute a large part of the expense of obtaining collegiate education at the present time. To build up academies all over the land will be one of the most efficient means of aiding indigent young men to obtain an education and enter the ministry. It will aid them, too, in a way that involves none of the evils that are incident to, or are supposed to be incident to, the beneficiary system.

Hence academies are needed. They are IMPERATIVELY DEMANDED. Their establishment will put education within the reach of many, who otherwise will be uneducated, and will counteract the present tendency to make collegiate education possible only to the rich. It will draw students from the poorer classes, just such as are more likely to enter the ministry. It will build up our colleges, extend the benefits of education, increase the number of candidates for the gospel ministry, strengthen the church, advance the cause of Christ and save immortal souls.

We say, then, Let every Christian community, if possible, have an academy; let every Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church, if possible, have an academy within its bounds.

We are of the opinion that the General Assembly and Board of Education should not only encourage this good and important work, but also actively aid in its promotion. We therefore recommend the adoption of the following plan for aiding academical institutions:

I. That the sum of three thousand dollars be appropriated to the Board of Education for aiding in the building up of academies, and that congregations and individuals be recommended to contribute liberally to the Board for this purpose.

II. The Board shall expend the funds thus obtained, according to the following rules and regulations:

1. Aid shall be granted academies only so far as supplementing the salaries of teachers is concerned, rooms and grounds being furnished by the community in which the academy receiving aid shall be situated.

2. For the present the Board shall not grant more than five hundred dollars in one year to any one academy.

3. It shall be the duty of the Board to recommend, and as far as possible, secure the appointment of competent teachers.

4. The Board shall report annually to the Assembly all its proceedings in the way of aiding academies, specifying the academies aided, the amount granted to each, the number of students in attendance, etc.

5. All the proceedings of the Board shall be subject to the control of the Assembly.

We ask that an appropriation of $2,000 be granted the Board for the coming year.

The term of office of Rev. D. M. Ure, D. D., Rev. D. MacDill. D. D., and T. J. Maxwell, M. D., members of the Board, expires at this time. It is for the Assembly to elect.

Respectfully submitted,

D. MACDILL, President.
E. F. REID, Rec. Sec.
W. T. CAMPBELL, Cor. Sec.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The Board of Ministerial Relief, in presenting its Eleventh Annual Report, would say that during the year just passed the operations of the Board have been conducted quietly, but with good results. Letters received from beneficiaries show in thankful terms that relief afforded has been timely and much appreciated. As the operations of our Board become more extended, we are more and more impressed with the wisdom of the Church in thus providing for those, who in the Providence of God, it is our duty to assist. There are now 26 beneficiaries receiving aid quarterly from this fund. In most cases the full amount asked by Presbyteries has been granted.

The Treasurer's report which has been audited and found correct, shows in round figures, as follows:

Received from Quarter-Centennial Fund	$ 8,300 00
" " Legacies	1,800 00
" " Individuals	1,200 00
" " Investments	2,400 00
" " Presbyteries, Societies and Sabbath Schools	2,100 00
Distributed to Beneficiaries	3,600 00
Invested in Endowment Fund	45,000 00
Balance in Treasury May 1st	621 92

The balance in the treasury will be more than absorbed by the June payments. In addition to the above, some $400 was used in our supplementary work, that is, the purchase of necessary clothing or articles of comfort, by our Treasurer and Ladies' Societies, and sent to cases known to be needy. This branch of our work is extending and will be continued, and it is hoped that Ladies' Societies will co-operate with us in the future as in the past.

The Board meets quarterly in the city of Philadelphia, and is conducted without expense to the Church. We believe that all beneficiaries, whether disabled ministers, or their widows and orphans, are truly deserving. Aid is granted only on Presbyterial application.

At present our rules require formal application in cases of renewal each year. The Board would suggest to the Assembly a change of the rule in this respect, which would tend to simplify the operations of the Board and the duties of Presbyteries, viz: to require a formal application stating all the circumstances for the first year only. In case of renewal after the first year, aid be granted by simple application of Presbyteries, signed by Moderator and Clerk.

The Board desire to express thanks to all who have contributed to our funds during the past year, and for the kindly interest of the Church in our behalf. We feel assured that all donations are given willingly, and are a source of blessing to the donors. We also recognise the great help to our endowment through the Quarter-Centennial Fund.

In conclusion, the Board would respectfully ask from the Assembly:

1st. That an appropriation of $5,000 be made as usual, so as amply to cover our needs during the coming year.

2d. That a change of the rules be made, as set forth above, which experience has proved would be beneficial and simplify the work of Presbyteries.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

The Assembly of 1880 ordered that the blanks formerly in use be abandoned, and that "an outline" be furnished by the Permanent Committee, upon which a conference should be held in each Presbytery, and from which the material for a report should be gathered. Some questioned the wisdom of the change at the time; others were heartily tired of filling blanks, which were growing distressingly numerous, and welcomed any change as an improvement. The majority were ready to give the new method a fair trial. It has now been on trial for four years, perhaps a sufficient length of time to show its advantages and disadvantages. Its greatest benefit seems to us to be in the fact that it provides for—if we could only say compels—an annual conference on the State of Religion in the bounds of each Presbytery. We thus learn the ways of working of others, their hindrances and discouragements, their labors and trials, and are brought to realize our own deficiencies, our reasons for gratitude and content, our opportunities and dangers. To come face to face with the actual situation among us as far as we can get at it, to render an account of our work in the presence of our brethren once every year, may be both a very humbling and very stimulating exercise. But ten out of forty-seven Presbyterial reports show that no conferences were held, and in several instances the amiable clerks were required to make bricks without straw, to furnish a report without any data on which to build it. From two of them come quite earnest pleas for a return to the old method of blanks. At the risk of dwelling too long on what may seem an unimportant matter, we quote their words. One says: "Our Presbytery thus far will not take hold properly of a conference on the State of Religion. Two years ago was our best effort, but last year and this they had none at all, but directed the pastors to send me by mail statements of the condition of their charges. That is simply a very bad form of the old way when printed blanks were sent to each." Certainly he had reason for saying so, since he informs us that only four out of fourteen congregations sent in any report. Another says: "The preparation of these reports is the most unsatisfactory duty to myself that I have to perform. The conference of the Presbytery is often merely formal, and not unfrequently is passed over altogether, and the poor clerk instructed to make a report out of whole cloth. I believe the old plan, requiring a written report according to a written formula, although somewhat stiff, was on the whole more effective and satisfactory."

We suggest that it might be well, in view of the facts mentioned and opinions expressed, to consider whether the present plan should be continued longer, or how it may be more successfully worked. If the present plan be continued, your committee recommend that the Assembly direct each Presbytery to appoint early in the year a Committee on the State of Religion to arrange for a conference and prepare a report for the Permanent Committee of the Assembly. It is certain, however, that no plan will work well unless brethren endeavor to work it. It cannot be expected to work itself.

NARRATIVE.

The membership of the Church, as reported by the Presbyteries, is 87,637—a gain of 2,194. The year has been one of eminent success in the foreign field, the two Missionary Presbyteries showing a net increase of 739 in their membership.

The following general summaries in some measure show the work of the year: Whole number of congregations 858, a net gain of 19; ministers 732, a gain of 2; adult baptisms 1,110; Sabbath Schools 825,as against 823 last year; amount contributed by Sabbath Schools $50.925, a gain of $10,365; houses of worship built 37, at a cost of$141,833; the amount contributed to the Quarter-Centennial Fund, $186,443; the whole amount contributed to all purposes, $1,184,185. Last year, besides the Quarter-Centennial Fund, there was raised $15,826 more than the previous year; this year besides the Quarter-Centennial Fund, there has been an increase of $51,691 in the ordinary receipts. Thus it appears that the Quarter-Centennial effort has stimulated contributions rather than withdrawn them from the regular agencies of the Church.

Ladies' Missionary Societies.—Presbyterial 27, a gain of 11; congregational 345, a gain of 10; membership 11,007, a gain of 414; amount contributed $28,082, a gain of $2,426.

As far as statistics show the condition of religion among us, there is evidence of life and growth that is quite encouraging.

Eight brethren of the ministry in this country have passed away within the year. Some held more conspicuous positions and filled a larger measure of usefulness than others, and their loss is more widely and keenly felt by the Church in general. But all bore a good report as faithful men of God, and leave vacant places in the hearts and homes of God's people to whom they were specially endeared. And possibly in that day when men render an account of their stewardship, the least known among them may be pronounced the most faithful and receive the greatest reward. We record their names in the order of their departure from us: William Dickie Turner, James Hervey Buchanan, David Alexander Wallace, Moses McQuorter Oldham, David Calhoun Cochran, William Guthrie Spencer, Samuel B. Reed, Alexander Downs Clark. Your committee have arranged for the following persons to take part in the "Memorial Service" of the Assembly on Friday evening, the order of their names indicating the respective persons of whom they speak: Revs. James Ingles, J. W. Kerr, J. C. Hutchison, Joseph Kyle, Joseph Alter, W. P. McNary, J. C. Boyd, John G. Brown, D. D. But though the true and touching tributes these brethren will pay will awaken memories of the past,and stir tender emotions for the hour, their impression will soon be gone. It is fitting that we insert in the records of the Church, at least the bare facts of their history, that others may know how they lived, and labored, and died.

IN MEMORIAM.

WILLIAM DICKIE TURNER, of First Presbytery of Ohio, was born at Generostee, Anderson County, S. C., August 25 1806. He was the son of James and Martha (Dickie) Turner. He connected himself with the congregation of Generostee when about sixteen years of age; graduated at Miami University in 1832. He studied theology for the most part under the direction of Rev. S. R. McGaw, attending Allegheny Seminary only the first year, and was licensed April 24, 1835, by the First Ohio Presbytery. After supplying for about a year in Ohio and Indiana, he settled at Bloomington, Ind., and was ordained and installed June 16, 1836. There he remained thirty-three years, until the year 1869, when he was released because of ill-health, and for the same reason never settled again. He died at Bloomington, Ind., of heart disease, on Monday, August 6, 1883, having on the previous Sabbath occupied "his accustomed place in church and Sabbath School," giving to the end an [redacted] of love to God's house to the people to whom he so long preached. He [redacted] April 22, 1834, to Julia Anne Woodward, of Richmond, Ind. His wife and six daughters survive him, three daughters and four sons having gone before him.

JAMES HERVEY BUCHANAN, of Sidney Presbytery, son of Andrew and Phebe (Pedan) Buchanan, was born near Lancaster, Fairfield County, O., July 10, 1816; united with the Church, probably in Rush Creek congregation; graduated at Jefferson College in 1835; attended Allegheny Theological Seminary four terms; was licensed by Second Ohio Presbytery April 15, 1840, and by the same Presbytery ordained, October 12, 1842. From 1842 to 1847 he was stated supply at Birmingham —now Ninth Church, Pittsburgh. His first pastorate was at Cedarville, O., from May 22, 1848, to November 21, 1854. From 1855 to 1867—twelve years—he was Principal of Oxford Female Institute. He became pastor of Huntsville and Roundhead congregations in 1870, resigning the former in 1879 and the latter in 1881. Subsequently he was stated supply for one year at California, Mich., and for two years at Homestead, Ill., where he died. Besides his labors as a preacher and teacher, he edited from 1868 to 1870, at Xenia, O., "The United and Reformed Presbyterian Pulpit." Licensed in 1840, he continued in the harness without interruption till his death in 1883, and right fitly on his death-bed appropriated Polycarp's words—"Forty-three years have I been in the Master's service, and I know he will not forsake me now." He was married April 8, 1846, to Mary Salome Carpenter, of Lancaster, O., who died in 1873. To them were born three sons and two daughters, all of whom survive him except one daughter. He died suddenly of embolism of the heart.

DAVID ALEXANDER WALLACE, D. D., LL. D., of Mansfield Presbytery, was born in Oxford Tp., Guernsey Co., O., June 16, 1826. He connected with the Church at Wheeling, W. Va., probably in 1843; graduated at Miami University in 1846; studied theology at Oxford and Allegheny Seminaries, one term each; was licensed by the 2d Ohio Presbytery, April 10, 1849, and ordained by New York Presbytery, June 3, 1851. His several pastorates began and ended as follows: Fall River, Mass., June, 1851, to January, 1854; East Boston, January, 1854, to September 10, 1856; 1st Church, Monmouth, October, 1856, to August 23, 1860; 2d Church, Monmouth, December 30, 1863, to December 29, 1869; Henderson, Ill., December 22, 1874, to December 28, 1875; Wooster, April 16, 1878, until his death. But though he was "a mighty man in handling the oracles of God," as one writes who frequently heard him, his greatest work was in behalf of Christian education. He was an educator from his youth, commencing when sixteen years of age as Principal of Wheeling Academy, and continuing as President of Muskingum College from 1846 to 1849. By this experience and training he was prepared for his great life-work in connection with Monmouth College, the Presidency of which he held from 1856 to 1878. He took it in its infancy and nurtured it by laborious, self-sacrificing effort until it attained the strength of manhood. He was shortly before his death invited to the Presidency of Westminster College, which he declined, and was preparing to enter upon a professorship in Xenia Theological Seminary, to which he had been chosen by the Synods having it in charge, when God filled the Church with astonishment and sorrow by his unexpected removal. He published a little book on "Church Membership," and numerous addresses. These words from an editorial of the "Christian Instructor" seem to us to express the truth—"Whatever Dr. Wallace undertook to do, he did it heartily as unto the Lord. And the great lesson of his life and success is the one set before us in the divine word—'Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might.'" He was married August 27, 1857, to Martha J. Findley, of New Concord, O. He died at Wooster, O., October 21, 1883, of nervous prostration, leaving a wife, four sons and one daughter to mourn his loss, one son having crossed the river before him.

MOSES MCQUORTER OLDHAM, of Xenia Presbytery, son of Isaac and Sarah Oldham, was born at Cambridge, O., August 27, 1817; united with the Church in 1837, in Willis Creek Congregation, Guernsey County, O.; received his literary education at Madison and Granville Colleges; studied theology with Reverends Elijah McCoy and John Anderson; was licensed by the Reformed Dissenting Presbytery, September, 1843, and in September, 1846, ordained and installed by the same as pastor of Salt Fork (Ohio) Congregation, where he remained till 1852. No other facts of his ecclesiastical history are reported, and the only estimate of his character we have seen is contained in this brief sentence: "He was a good man." He was thrice married—October 1, 1844, to Falista Taft, Xenia, O.; 1855, to Tabitha Orr, Belmont County, O.; 1873, to Elizabeth Good. In his later years he practiced dentistry. He died in New Orleans, La., October 27, 1883. A wife, three sons and two daughters survive him.

DANIEL CALHOUN COCHRAN, of Kansas Presbytery, son of Robert and Sarah (Calhoun) Cochran, was born at Cadiz, O., August 1, 1814. He united with the R. Congregation of New Athens, O., in 1838; graduated at Franklin College in 1842; attended Allegheny Seminary; was licensed April 29, 1845, by Steubenville Presbytery; ordained June, 1849, and soon after installed as pastor of Ashland congregation, where he continued but a short time. He was settled afterwards at Ellisville from 1851 to 1856, at Twin Grove from 1857 to 1862, and was subsequently engaged in mission work in Illinois and Kansas until he became too infirm to labor longer in the ministry. One writes of him: "He was qualified for his work; he was faithful in his calling; he was loved of all." He was twice married—June 18, 1847, to Jane B. Hearst, of Ashland, O.; September 3d, 1850, to Martha A. Shearer, of Ellisville, O. He died of Bright's disease, at Summit, Kansas, October 30, 1883. His wife, three sons and six daughters survive him.

WILLIAM GUTHRIE SPENCER, of Princeton Presbytery, son of James and Nancy (Guthrie) Spencer, was born near Xenia, O., January 8, 1836. He united with the congregation of Cæsar's Creek, November 11, 1854; graduated at Westminster College; studied theology four terms at Xenia Seminary; was licensed by Xenia Presbytery, March 29, 1864; ordained and installed by Southern Indiana Presbytery as pastor of Portland Mills congregation, Indiana, April 26, 1865. There he remained until April 3, 1877, when he became pastor of Somerville and Eden congregations in the same Presbytery. From this charge he was released on account of ill-health, September 12, 1882. He was clerk of Princeton—formerly Southern Indiana—Presbytery most of the time he was in it, and published a history of it in 1880. From personal fellowship we knew him to be a man of genial Christian spirit. He was married to Rachel C. Hays, September 14, 1865, who with three sons and two daughters survives him. He died at New Wilmington, Pa., February 29, 1884, of enlargement of the spleen, caused by malaria, leaving the record of a faithful and conscientious servant of the Lord.

SAMUEL BARR REED, D. D., was born in Huntington County, Pa., June 6, 1831; graduated at Franklin College; was licensed in 1856, and ordained by Allegheny Presbytery [Associate] and installed as pastor of the Associate Church, Pittsburgh, April 18, 1857. Soon after the Union he became pastor of the Fifth United Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, and continued in this relation till 1874. He afterward labored in Evans, Colorado, five years among the Freedmen in Knoxville Tenn., and in Davenport, Ia., where he died. The last ten years of his life he had to struggle with impaired health, sometimes at work, sometimes recruiting. Five weeks before his death he was unable to preach, and gradually sank until the end. "His disease seemed to be a general breaking down of the vital forces." He was an earnest and diligent minister of the Word, and had a warm place in the affections of many of God's people and of his brethren in the ministry.

ALEXANDER DOWNS CLARK, D. D., of Allegheny Presbytery, son of Alexander and Eleanor (Downs) Clark, was born in Lancaster County, Pa., December 23, 1813, united with the Church at St. Clairsville, O., graduated at Franklin College in 1839, studied theology at Allegheny Seminary, was licensed April 30, 1844, by the Second Ohio Presbytery, and ordained by the same, August 12, 1846. From 1845 to 1861 he was stated supply at Athens, O. From October, 1861, until his death he was pastor of the Sixth Church, Allegheny. From the beginning of his ministerial career he occupied prominent and important positions in the Church. It shows the high esteem in which he was held by the Institutions in which he studied that he was successively called to the Presidency of Franklin College (1845-61) and to the Professorship of Biblical Literature and Criticism in Allegheny Seminary, which latter position he held from 1847 until he died, a period of thirty-six years. He was a man of fine scholarship and genial spirit. One long associated with him in his most important work for the Church writes of him: "He has died beloved and lamented by his people, by all who have been associated with him in any part of his work, and by all who had an opportunity of knowing and appreciating his sterling qualities of head and heart." He was married October 11, 1849, to Mary L. Lee, of Cadiz, O. Six daughters and two sons were born to them, all of whom, with his wife, survive him, except one son. He died at his home in Allegheny, April 12, 1884, of nervous prostration.

Thus the year closes with a fresh breach in our ranks that is visible from all parts of the Church. Eight times during this year the Lord has knocked and said: "Do your best work now. Be ready; very soon the Master may say to any one of you, [redacted] work, come up higher."

The State of Religion.

It is trite to say that God only knows the State of Religion in the Church at any given time. We cannot forecast the future and tell the final outcome of the several forces and influences that we see at work. And yet there are signs of the times of which we wisely take note, and by which we form an opinion concerning the present condition and future prospects of the Church. After all our modest professions, we each of us, sometimes on very slender evidence, come to our own conclusions and maintain them with vigor and persistence. One with a keen eye for shortcomings sets up a wail; another who can see good everywhere strikes a psalm of thanksgiving. Nearly always there are reason and room for either. Perhaps we cannot do better than give a brief summary of the reports received from the Presbyteries and let each one form his own judgment from the facts.

You look into your garden after its cultivation has fairly begun; what prospect is there of a gratifying return? Everywhere there are plants shooting through the soil. Weeds also spring up beside them, but the marks of the gardener's hand are seen. Genial showers come and pour their benediction on his efforts and already there is some return for his labor. In some parts there is poorer soil than in others; some spots show a less painstaking care than others, and in every part its productiveness is dependent on the sunshine and the rain. The Church is the garden of the Lord, "a garden enclosed is my sister, my spouse." Let us look over the Church of which we have a care, of which we are a part. Is it well cultivated? Is good seed sown? Does it find a favorable soil? Is it choked by weeds? Is it caused to grow by the Spirit's genial showers? Are there any fruits of God's grace and the husbandman's labor?

The Work Done.—It is believed that a pure Gospel is preached among us everywhere, and generally increased attendance and interest show that it is appreciated. Besides the weekly prayer meetings attended by a fraction of the Church membership varying from one-sixth to two-thirds, young people's prayer meetings in many congregations have been carried on with success and profit. The Sabbath Schools, with but few exceptions, have been open the whole year, teaching the Catechisms along with the Scripture lessons, teaching the children of the Church and not many besides. Concerning family religion, including worship and teaching, the reports for the most part are favorable, though in several instances it is recorded: "This is the dark part of our report;" "Here is where we lose most." Family discipline, though less stern, is thought in many quarters to be quite as effective as in former times, yet it is sad to learn that in others it is "almost forgotten," "the children seeking such amusements and associates as they may fancy." It thus appears that in our congregations and homes some good work is being done for the Kingdom of Christ. Whatever imperfections and failures may appear, the culture of this garden has not by any means been neglected.

Very gratifying reports come to us of what is being done in our higher institutions of learning. Westminster College reports from actual count seventy-five per cent. of those in the college classes as members of the Church, and further states: "The general State of Religion in the college has never in many years been as good as now." Muskingum College reports an "excellent class of students in attendance," of whom seventy-five per cent. are church members. In Monmouth College all of the senior class are professing Christians, and ninety per cent. of all the students. Such a preponderance of Christian influence in our colleges is something to be thankful for, especially as to them we must look for young men of scholarship and piety to fill the depleting ranks of the ministry. From one of our theological seminaries we received no answer to our letter of inquiry. In the other the grave and serious deportment of the students, the increased attendance on students' prayer meetings, the interest in missions, the brotherly spirit, show the power and presence of religion in their hearts and some spiritual fitness for the work to which they look forward.

Results.—What fruit is there of our labor in the conversion of souls? We have already referred to the encouraging increase in the membership of the Church which statistics show. Besides the ordinary blessing upon the means of grace, a number of congregations have had special manifestations of divine favor. These were given usually in connection with special services. The following report is suggestive: "At our fall meeting of Presbytery arrangements were made for conducting special meetings in our congregations, and as a result there was a manifest outpouring of the Holy Spirit in several of our congregations, by which God's children were quickened and many were added to the church." Similar results followed the use of the same means in other places, but they cover a very small part of the whole field. In our Foreign Missions the year may be fitly characterized as one of revival, the tidings of which should incite the Church at home to prayer and work for greater things in our own land and to increased interest in Foreign Mission work.

What fruit is there in right living? More than one says: "Our standing is generally a little above the average of Church members in other denominations."—maybe a partial estimate and certainly a poor measure. In regard to honesty and temperance, however, both in practice and sentiment, we think we may justly claim a high place. The Sabbath is better observed in the country than in large towns and cities, but everywhere it is too little prized for spiritual ends. The world encroaches upon the Church, and spirituality is greatly smothered. Particular mention is made of dancing and other worldly amusements as unfriendly to spiritual life and difficult to control. Despite all this, however, we believe there is more spirituality in the Church to-day than it gets credit for. It is not proclaimed upon the house top, but it abides in the house. It is not worn upon the sleeve, but it really exists in the heart, revealing itself to the few rather than to the many, to the bosom friend rather than to the community at large. Brotherly love continues, notwithstanding the "sharp contention" of the past few years. Interest in the various agencies of the Church is sustained and increasing.

The Quarter-Centennial effort, aside from its results in money, has done good in quickening the liberality of the churches. There is uniform testimony that the truth is loved, and if there be a lamentation it is for the degeneracy of those in other parts. There have, of course, been many and strong hindrances to overcome. Besides worldliness, frivolity, indifference and other kinds of resistance with which others must contend, there are peculiar hindrances encountered by us because of the evils against which we lift up a testimony. Particular stress is laid on "secretism" in many of the reports. Nor can we hide from ourselves the fact that the decided division of sentiment on the use of instruments in worship is a source of weakness. The minds of the people are withdrawn from the great work of the Church, there is apprehension here and weariness there; some tremble for the truth and some sigh for peace.

Looking over the whole field we cannot but feel that the past year has been one of at least moderate fruitfulness and prosperity. Increase of membership, reports of revivals here and there, the encouraging state of affairs in our mission work, and the increased contributions to the regular work of the Church give us renewed reason to thank God and take courage.

From the suggestions made we cull out a few of the more important ones. Several reports suggest that Presbyteries arrange for special services in all the churches under their care during the winter season. In the same line another suggests "faithful preaching and earnest prayer more persistently employed. Nothing like these. They are the Church's strength. Failure here is weakness and discomfiture." Very many emphasize the need of more fervent and persevering prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Faithful work and earnest prayer will secure God's blessing, which is all-powerful to overcome every hindrance, to destroy every root of bitterness, and to bring abiding peace, purity and prosperity to our beloved Zion. "Ye that make mention of the Lord, keep not silence and give him no rest till he establish and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth." "Awake, O north wind, and come thou south; blow upon this garden that the spices thereof may flow out."

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

According to the instructions of the last Assembly, your Committee have continued the publication of the Assembly Monthly during the past year. The experience of the Committee thus far has deepened our conviction of the value of such an agency in cultivating the spirit of beneficence in the Church. There is certainly no grace of the Holy Spirit in which the people of God in general need to be educated more than the grace of giving of their substance to God, and an important agency in securing that education will be the frequent reading of facts and principles bearing upon the subject. When our people are made thoroughly acquainted with the work which the Church is attempting to do in all its departments, and understand their duty to support that work with their offerings, then and not till then will we have a full treasury and a prosperous Church.

It is a well known fact that a large part of the Church is not reached and is not likely to be reached by the larger and more expensive publications of the Church. The Assembly, which ordered the publication of the Monthly, fixed the price at so low a figure that it is possible for sessions to send it into all the families of their respective congregations. If this design is carried out and adhered to, it cannot fail to do an amount of good beyond computation.

The financial condition of our Monthly is not so satisfactory as was our report of last year. This is not due to any large decrease in our subscription list, for that only varies about three hundred from the number reported last year. The reason of this is in the fact that the paper needs an amount of business management and clerical work which the members of the Committee, with all their other labors on their hands, cannot give it. For the future management of the Monthly your Committee respectfully offer the following recommendations:

1st. That the publication of the paper be hereafter placed in the hands of the Board of Publication, with instructions to carry it on according to the intention of the Assembly in establishing it.

2d. That the Board shall assign such an amount of space in the paper to each Board of the Church, as they shall think proper, and that each Corresponding Secretary shall be made responsible for the filling of that space each month with such facts concerning the work under his care as in his judgment will be best calculated to enlighten and interest the people concerning it.

3d. That the Board shall have power to appoint such other persons to do editorial work upon the paper as they may judge best.

4th. That in the event of the paper being put into the hands of the Board, the Permanent Committee on Finance shall be discharged.

The following is a financial statement of the affairs of the paper:

REPORT OF THE QUARTER-CENTENNIAL COMMISSION.

The last Assembly continued the Quarter-Centennial Commission for another year, and instructed them to complete the work and report their diligence to the next Assembly. In compliance with these instructions, we report to the Twenty-sixth General Assembly as follows:

I. THE PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

The Commission have held meetings through the year, as frequently as seemed necessary, and have taken such steps as they judged best for attaining the object for which they were appointed. Early in the ecclesiastical year they caused circulars to be distributed in all the congregations of the Church, stating the progress which had been made, asking those congregations which had already subscribed to the Quarter-Centennial Fund to increase their subscriptions, and urging those which had done nothing to give their help. They have also kept the subject before the people, by frequent reports and communications in the papers of the Church, which have generously opened their columns for this purpose. These circulars and communications have kept the interest in this movement from dying out.

The last Assembly also instructed the Commission, when their work was completed, to publish a history of the Memorial Fund, which would comprise a list of all the congregations of the Church with the amount contributed by each, a statement of the distribution which had been made of the money contributed, and such other matter as they might deem to be of permanent value in such a publication. To secure the necessary information the Commission, about February 28th, sent to all the congregations carefully prepared blanks, with a letter of instructions, asking them to report to the Secretary the money subscribed and paid to the Memorial Fund by the congregation itself, by the Sabbath School, by the Ladies' Missionary Society, and by such individuals as did not wish their subscriptions to be included in the subscription of the congregation.

It had come to the knowledge of the Commission that some congregations, under the influence of the Quarter-Centennial movement, had been stimulated to the payment of old debts, and that others, which would have made liberal contributions to the Quarter-Centennial Fund, were burdened to the extent of their ability in erecting new churches; and the Commission felt that it would be nothing but justice that the efforts of these congregations should, in some way, be recognized in the final report, though they did not, on account of the circumstances in which they were placed, contribute much directly to the Memorial Fund. Therefore, in the blanks referred to, these congregations were requested to report to the Commission the money they had raised, since the beginning and under the influence of the Quarter-Centennial movement, for paying church debts, erecting new buildings, etc.

In the same blanks, congregations were requested to inform the Commission of the effect which the Quarter-Centennial movement had produced within their bounds.

Out of the 839 congregations of the Church, only 370 have reported in answer to the circular dated Feb. 28, leaving 469 from which no report has been received. A very few of these reports state that the effect of the movement has been injurious, in the way of lessening the contributions to the Boards; some affirm that there has been no apparent effect; but the great majority declares that good has been done in awakening an interest in the history of the Church, in cultivating sociability among the members of the Church, in stirring up the spirit of liberality, and in various other ways. If the weight of evidence, gathered from these reports, is to be believed, the Quarter-Centennial movement has been of great benefit to the Church, without taking the money raised into consideration.

According to the reports received from the 370 congregations referred to, and also from partial reports received a year ago from 272 other congregations, in all 642 congregations, these 642 congregations, with the Sabbath Schools, Ladies' Missionary Societies and individuals, have subscribed to the Memorial Fund $435,047.08. 133 of the same congregations report that they have subscribed for the payment of Church debts, the erection of new buildings, etc., during the progress of the Quarter-Centennial movement, $266,630.60. This makes a total of $701,677.68, which is to be credited, directly or indirectly, to the Memorial Fund.

II. THE MONEY PAID.

The last Assembly directed the Commission to distribute the money then in their treasury, and whatever money might afterwards be received, among certain specified objects according to a fixed percentage, the first distribution to be made June 15, 1883, to be followed by quarterly distributions. These directions have been obeyed. Four distributions have been made during the year. The objects to which payments have been made, and the amount paid to each, will be seen in the following table:

Board of Foreign Missions	$ 46,600 00

At this date, May 24, 1884, there are $27,136.66 in our Treasury. It is hoped that the outstanding subscriptions and subscription notes will be paid before the meeting of the next Assembly. Though it now seems probable that the Memorial Fund will not reach the $500,000, yet the sum raised will be of great use to the different Boards and educational institutions of the Church. And if we add to the Memorial Fund, properly so called, the amount reported above as raised under the influence of the movement, it will be seen that the proposed half million has been more than reached. We would lay the whole amount on the altar of our Lord, as an humble expression of our gratitude to him for his goodness to us as a Church during the twenty-five years of our history.

III. RECOMMENDATION.

The Commission are still of the opinion that a suitable memorial volume should be published, when the work is completed. It is hoped that this can be done during the next twelve months. We therefore recommend that the Commission be continued for another year, with instructions to push the work to completion, and to made a full report to the next Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Commission,

WILLIAM J. REID, President.
W. J. SAWYER, Secretary.

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 24, 1884.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON AMENDING THE ARTICLE IN THE BOOK OF GOVERNMENT ON OVERTURES.

The Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to consider the propriety of overturing an amendment to Section 5, Article IV., of the Book of Government, respectfully recommend that the following question be sent down in overture to the Presbyteries:

Shall Section 5, Article IV., of the Book of Government be amended so as to read as follows:

No regulation affecting the doctrine, worship or government of the Church shall be adopted, until, by a two-thirds vote of the General Assembly, it shall have been transmitted in overture to the Presbyteries. A vote thereon shall be taken in each Presbytery and carefully recorded, and, together with the number of members present when the vote was taken, shall be duly certified to the General Assembly. When an overture is approved by a majority of the members thus present, the General Assembly shall enact such regulation, unless peculiar circumstances, in the view of two-thirds of the enrolled members, render it inexpedient.

The General Assembly shall have power to make such regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PROVIDING RELIGIOUS LITERATURE FOR THE GERMANS.

Your Committee appointed to consider the best means of providing for Germans in our institutions of learning and in our publications would respectfully report:

I. That they have not accomplished as much perhaps as was contemplated in their appointment, partly owing to the fact that they could not meet together and could consult only by correspondence, and partly because they had not access to German libraries or publications.

II. But in their investigations they have ascertained:

1. That the Shorter Catechism and other tracts and books, such as our Church might use, are to be had in the German language.

2. That German is taught in all our colleges to a greater or less extent.

3. That there are literal metrical versions of the Psalms in German, from which selections might readily be made for the use of our German members.

III. We would therefore recommend:

1. That our institutions of learning be advised to enlarge their course in German as far as practicable, and that our students be exhorted to study the language.

2. That the whole matter of providing a Psalter or versions of the Psalms and a literature be handed over to the Board of Publication.

WM. M. RICHIE, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE TO PREPARE A SUMMARY OF THE STANDARDS OF THE CHURCH.

The Committee appointed in 1882, to prepare a summary of the Standards of the United Presbyterian Church, and directed, in 1883, to publish their work in the papers of the Church, for final action by this Assembly, would respectfully report that the manuscript was prepared for the press by the Chairman; but in its transfer to the other members of the Committee, it was mislaid, and so overlooked until too late for publication.

It is herewith transmitted to the Assembly, with regrets for the delay, that such farther action may be taken as may be deemed proper.

6. Statistics of Missionary Societies.

Contributions for other objects than Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Missions and Church Extension are arranged under a general heading. When the particular object is known, it is given in the address column, and reference is made to it by a †. By "Home Work" is meant that the money has been used in the Congregation, for missionary work, or for building, repairs, &c.

N. B.—An * affixed to the name or a number indicates work in the Congregation.

An ? affixed to the number of members indicates that the number was not reported, and it is therefore estimated.

A ‡ prefixed to contributions shows that the aggregate was reported, but not the distribution to the several funds.

REPORT ON THE MEMORIALS RELATING TO THE LAW ON OVERTURE.

Memorials from the Presbyteries of Monongahela, Monmouth and Steubenville have been referred to us, asking that an overture be sent down to the Presbyteries on the law on overture.

The memorialists suggest some changes as to the mode of submitting an overture to the Presbyteries, and also concerning who shall vote and who shall be counted in summing up the vote.

While conceding the necessity for further legislation on this subject at the proper time, your committee are of the opinion that that time has not yet arrived.

We therefore recommend for adoption the following resolution:

Resolved, That the prayer of the memorialists be not granted.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on the vote of the Presbyteries on the overture submitted by the last Assembly, which was adopted:

Resolved 1*st*, That the action of the Boards of Home Missions and Church Exten-on, under the resolution of the last Assembly with reference to the West Twenty-fth Street Church, New York, be sustained.

2*d*. That this Assembly authorize the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly release the West Twenty-fifth Street Church from their declaration of trust, on con-ition that they repay all the moneys they have received since 1881, or secure the ame with interest by a mortgage upon the church property, according to the laws f the State of New York.

The Committee on the Board of Education presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Three papers have been referred to us, viz.: (1) The annual report of the Board f Education. (2) A memorial from the President and Trustees of Tarkio College, questing aid from the Board of Education, and also the privilege of soliciting funds the church at large. (3) A statement from the Board of Managers of Xenia heological Seminary, respecting the election of David MacDill, D. D., to a profess-ship in that institution.

I. The report of the Board of Education. From this report we learn that in both partments of her work, viz., the assisting of young men preparing for the ministry d the assisting of academies under our church control, the work has been efficient d in the main satisfactory, although only two-fifths of the money appropriated last ar was received.

As to the former, viz., the matter of beneficiary students, we learn that there has en a considerable increase in their number, though still far from being oppressively rge. The only unfavorable statement is, that in some cases the pledges given by neficiaries respecting the use of tobacco have been violated. The use of the weed r young men preparing for the ministry is bad enough, especially when dependent part on the funds of the church for support; but when in violation of solemn edges, it is immeasurably worse. As to the latter, viz., the matter of beneficiary ademies, we find that the instructions of the Assembly have been carried out tisfactorily. We find no evidence as yet that the wise provision of the church for e development of academic or "secondary" education, an education intermediate tween that of the common school and that of the college, as so much needed in our merican education, not least in that of our church—has been imposed upon by the tempt to promote local or individual interests, or multiply contiguous academies the expense of the church's benefactions. It is confidently hoped that it will not. We submit the following:

Resolved 1. That the work of the Board of Education for the past year be com-ended.

2. That the refusal of the Board to aid young men preparing for the holy minis-, who are known to violate their solemn pledges by the use of tobacco, is espe-lly worthy of endorsement.

3. That the sum of $5000 be appropriated to this Board for the coming year.

II. In relation to the petition of the President and Trustees of Tarkio College for aid from the Board of Education for the coming year, under the act of the Assembly granting aid to academies, and also for permission to solicit funds in the Church at large, the two difficulties in the way of granting the former request are, (1) the fact that while the work of that college for the present, as a beginner, is almost exclusively that of an academy, it is yet a regularly chartered college and not an academy, and (2) the danger that if the request be granted, it might become a precedent to other colleges to make application for aid.

We submit the following:

Resolved 1. That the request of the President and Trustees of Tarkio College for aid from the Board of Education in the sum of $500 for the coming year be granted, with the distinct understanding that it shall not be regarded as a precedent to other colleges to apply for aid from this Board.

2. That the request for permission to solicit funds through the Church at large be granted.

III. In the matter of the Xenia professorship we submit the following:

Resolved, That the election of Rev. David MacDill, D. D., by the Synods having control, to a professorship in Xenia Theological Seminary, and his assignment to the chair of apologetics, ecclesiastical history and church government, as reported by the Board of said Seminary, is hereby confirmed.

After devotional exercises and addresses by the Corresponding Secretary of the Board and others, the Assembly took up the second order of the day, viz: the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions. The first resolution was adopted. Pending the consideration of the second resolution, the report of the minority of the General Committee of Home Missions was offered as an amendment to the second and third resolutions. Pending the discussion of the amendment, the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. J. C. Bigham.

The question demanding the attention of the committee has relation to a union of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South and the United Presbyterian Church of North America.

The present proposition to effect this union originated in a conference composed of delegates respectively appointed by the highest courts of these two churches. By this conference, certain resolutions were adopted proposing that these two churches should continue their efforts for union, and that in the meantime some plan should be devised by which they could co-operate in the aggressive work of both churches.

It appears that Dr. Paul, of our own church, and one of our delegates in the conference, and also the writer of the report of said conference, submits to this General Assembly "A General Plan of Union." This plan met with the approval of Rev. M. W. Pressly, the delegate from the Associate Reformed Synod. It appears also that this plan meets the cordial approbation of Dr. R. Lathan, professor in the Theological Seminary at Due West, S. C.

The plan proposed has been laid before this General Assembly. Your committee have given it their special attention and are happy in being able to say that they can see in it nothing that ought not to be satisfactory to both parties concerned. It presents, in case it expresses the mind of the Associate Reformed Synod, the most gratifying evidence, in addition to that which may be drawn from their history, that these two churches have been and are really one. If this be so, there ought to be a more visible expression of this unity than at present exists.

It appears to your committee that it would be premature for this Assembly to take any formal and definite action, touching the plan of union that has been submitted. Your committee, however, are fully persuaded that the Assembly is called upon to give expression to its views in the following resolutions which are hereby submitted:

WHEREAS, The General Assembly has heard with great pleasure the report of the Conference Committee on Union with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South; and whereas, It is believed that the two churches are practically one in doctrine, worship and government, and that it would be for the glory of God if they were organically one; Therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That in general we approve of the following "General Plan," which we understand to have been embodied in a circular, and extensively distributed throughout the Southern Church.

GENERAL PLAN FOR UNION.

I. Let the Confession of Faith, the Catechisms, and the Testimony of the United Presbyterian Church be the doctrinal standards of the United Church.

II. Let the forbearance in love, which is required by the law of God, be exercised toward any brethren who may not be able fully to subscribe to the standards of the United Church, while they do not determinedly oppose them but follow the things that make for peace, and the things wherewith one may edify another.

III. Let it be explicitly declared that this forbearance is to be extended to those who may not be able to assent to the declaration of Article XIV of the United Presbyterian Testimony on Slave-holding.

IV. Let action be taken concerning details as follows:

a. Let the respective Presbyteries and Synods of the two Churches remain as at present constituted until otherwise ordered.

b. Let the Supreme Court of the Church be a General Assembly composed of delegates from the respective Presbyteries, the number of delegates to be according to the proportion of members constituting each Presbytery, as now fixed by the United Presbyterian Church, until a change be found expedient.

c. Let it be declared that the different Boards and Institutions of the respective Churches shall not be affected by this union, but shall have control of their own funds and shall conduct their operations as heretofore, and that the Associate Reformed Synod of the South shall retain its name, and all its corporate rights and privileges, and be controlled in its government, discipline and worship as at present, until the interests of the Church shall require a change.

2d. That —— —— be a committee to convey the salutations of this Assembly to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, and to co-operate with a similar committee from said Synod (if one should be appointed) in formulating a basis of union.

3d. That in our judgment, the explicit declaration referred to in No. III of the "General Plan for Union," while not objected to, is unnecessary. It adds nothing to the force of No. II.

4th. That the details in No. IV should be so arranged that the government, discipline and worship of both churches will be, at as early a day as possible, brought under the same regulations.

The Committee on the Board of Publication presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

The general work of this Board, as indicated by its report, is in a prosperous condition, and its usefulness and efficiency increasing. The work of revising the Psalter is progressing as rapidly as the importance of the work will allow. The work of conducting the paper called the Assembly Monthly has involved the Board in great additional labor and considerable expense, and the Board desire instruction as to what shall be the future of the paper. The enlargement and rearrangement of the building have occasioned considerable outlay of money, which, however, it is believed, is a profitable investment. The accounts of the Board are presented in form according to the direction of the Assembly.

We recommend for adoption the following:

Resolved, 1. That the work of the Board of Publication during the past year be approved.

2. That the Board be directed to continue the work of revising the Psalter, and report to the Assembly at as early a period as is consistent with the requirements of the work.

3. That the publication of the Assembly Monthly be discontinued.

On invitation, Rev. W. X. Ninde, Bishop in the M. E. Church, addressed the Assembly. The Moderator made an appropriate response.

Proceeded to the order of the day, viz.: a conference on Sabbath Schools, Rev. J. H. Wright in the chair. The conference rose and reported a pleasant session.

The subject of temperance was made the order of the day for Monday evening.

It was resolved that when the Assembly adjourns this afternoon, it adjourns at 4 o'clock to meet on Monday at 9 o'clock, A. M.

After prayer by Rev. G. R. Murray, the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. N. H. Brown.

The roll was called and the minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The following telegram was received from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church:

The following resolution on The Daily Capital and the Sabbath was adopted:

RESOLUTION ON THE SABBATH EDITION OF THE TOPEKA DAILY CAPITAL.

WHEREAS, The Assembly has been greatly gratified with the report of the proceedings published in the Topeka Daily Capital; and,

WHEREAS, It is understood that the paper will be issued on to-morrow (the Sabbath) containing the proceedings of to-day; therefore,

Resolved, That a committee be appointed who shall at once wait upon the publisher and express our sense of obligation for the favor he has done the Assembly in reporting the proceedings thus far, and to specially request that the part of his edition intended for the members of the Assembly, and for circulation through them, be dated Saturday, May 30th, or Monday, June 1st, and not circulated until that day.

Revs. W. W. Barr, D. D., J. A. Pollock and J. M. Jamieson were appointed the Committee proposed in the above resolution, and Rev. M. F. McKirahan was requested to act with them.

Requests for the appointment of certain trustees under the will of Robert Mackey and for the proper disposition of a bequest of the Misses Black, of Frankfort, Indiana, were presented and referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Committee on the Board of Freedmen's Missions presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

The report of the Board of Freedmen's Missions for the past year is one of thanksgiving. None of the laborers has been laid aside by sickness in any part of the field.

At Knoxville religious worship has been observed throughout the year, except on three Sabbaths, when the rooms were undergoing repairs. In a room comfortably seating one hundred persons, the prayer meetings have been crowded. The enrollment of two hundred and eighty-five in the schools is larger than in any former year.

At Chase City the bitter opposition has disappeared, the enrollment in the Sabbath School during the year has been three hundred and twenty-six, and the members of the Church number thirty-two, reported faithful and consistent. There are a reading room and a library which have already done much for the mental culture of the people.

At Bluestone also the bitter opposition has disappeared. The membership is sixteen, and the enrollment in the Sabbath School is three hundred and thirty-seven.

At Norfolk the enrollment in the Sabbath School is one thousand, and in the week day schools one thousand and fifty. The total number in all the mission schools for the year is about eight thousand. Well may we say with the teachers and with the Board, "What hath God wrought?" The special attention of the Assembly is called to the impossibility of procuring a suitable place of lodging and healthful food for the teachers in Norfolk.

Attention is also called to the fact that the contributions to this Board from all sources fall short of the appropriation of last year more than ten thousand dollars.

To carry on the work for the coming year, the Board asks an appropriation of $35,000, also an additional appropriation of $5,000 to provide a home for the missionaries at Norfolk.

The term of office of Revs. J. T. Cooper, D. D., J. D. Irons and H. W. McKee, Esq., expires with this meeting.

In view of the above statements, your committee recommend for adoption the following:

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly gives thanks to God for the success of the past year, and invokes his blessing for the year to come.

2. That the sum of $35,000 be appropriated for the work of the year, and an additional sum of $5,000 to provide a home for the missionaries at Norfolk.

3. That an earnest effort be made by pastors and Presbyteries to give to the Board the full amount of the appropriation.

The nomination of persons to confer with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, on the subject of union, was referred to a Special Committee, to be nominated by the Moderator.

The Committee appointed to visit The Daily Capital reported that they had been received very courteously, and assured that the matter, they were commissioned to attend to, would be arranged in accordance with the desire of the Assembly.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the Xenia memorial was made the order of the day for Monday, at 3:30 o'clock, P. M.

After prayer by Rev. D. S. Littell, the Assembly adjourned.

MONDAY.

9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. D. W. Collins, D. D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Moderator nominated and the Assembly confirmed the following as the Committee to nominate the Committee of Conference with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South: Revs. James Kelso, Wm. M. Richie and David Donnan.

A letter was received from Rev. R. W. McBride, a member of the Committee appointed by the last Assembly to report on membership in the Grand Army of the Republic, excusing himself for not attending to the duty to which he was assigned, on account of his appointment as Missionary to the Warm Springs Indians. His excuse was accepted, and it was ordered that his letter be placed on file.

Rev. John G. Brown, D. D., offered his resignation as Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Home Missions. His resignation was referred to the Committee on the Board of Home Missions.

The report of the delegate to the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church was presented and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

A supplemental memorial from Rev. Charles B. Smyth was referred, without reading, to the Committee on the Board of Home Missions.

The report of the delegates to the Third General Council of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System was read and accepted. The nomination of the Committee asked for in this report was referred to the Committee on Nominations. The resolution, adopted by the Committee of Conference of the Psalm-singing Churches, with reference to the use of the Book of Psalms by the Alliance, was referred to the same Committee.

The Moderator was directed to send the following telegram to the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, now in session in Morning Sun, Iowa:

TOPEKA, KANSAS, June 1, 1885.

To the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, in session at Morning Sun, Iowa:

The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church send fraternal greetings. Read Ephesians VI: 23, 24.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on Home Missions, Psalmody and Secret Societies was presented. After the resolutions of the report were adopted, the preamble was recommitted.

Proceeded to the order of the day, viz.: the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Church Extension. The report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

We have examined the report of the Board and find that its work has been conducted with wisdom and efficiency during the past year. We have also had before us a schedule of the funds and property in the hands of the Board. From these we learn that the interests of the Church, committed to the care of this Board, are carefully managed and its funds advantageously and safely invested. During the past year donations to the amount of $20,000 have been made to nineteen congregations, and loans to the amount of $7,050 to six congregations. Of the amount appropriated by the last Assembly to this Board, a little less than forty per cent. was contributed by the Church. And the Board reminds the Assembly that for the past five years the direct contributions of the Church to its funds have averaged a little less than forty-three per cent. of the appropriations. It has also been ascertained that three hundred out of the eight hundred and forty-one congregations of the Church contributed nothing to this Board during the past year.

We recommend the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the work of the Board during the past year be approved.

2. That in view of the importance of a church edifice to the maintenance and growth of our congregations, and of the fact that about ninety of our congregations are still without such an edifice, we earnestly urge the Presbyteries and Sessions to take measures to secure from every congregation under their care their full quota of the appropriation to this Board.

3. That the sum of $30,000 be appropriated to this Board for the ensuing year.
4. That the Board be instructed to continue its efforts to assist weak congregations in the erection of parsonages.
5. That the Corresponding Secretary be recommended to visit the Synods, as far as practicable, to present the claims of this Board.
6. That in view of the enlargement of the work of this Board, and of the increase of labor required for its efficient prosecution, the salary of the Corresponding Secretary be increased to $800.

The preamble of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on Home Missions, Psalmody and Secret Societies, which had been recommitted, was presented and adopted. The whole report was then adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BILLS AND OVERTURES ON THE MEMORIALS RELATING TO HOME MISSIONS, PSALMODY, SECRET SOCIETIES AND THE DISTINCTIVE PRINCIPLES OF THE CHURCH.

1. So much of the memorial of the Presbytery of Wheeling, as relates to the more vigorous prosecution of Home Mission work, seems properly to pertain to the Committee on Home Missions, and what is asked by the Presbytery will do doubt be, in substance, embraced in the report of that committee.

2. The part of the memorial relating to Psalmody and Secret Societies, and the Memorial presented by various members of the Assembly relating to the same subjects, and also to the subject of Communion, demands serious consideration. While reports in relation to violations of our distinctive principles may be and it is believed are in some cases untrue and in others exaggerated, yet enough is indicated in the memorials and otherwise known to justify and require a deliverance by the General Assembly. To meet, as far as seems to be practicable, the prayers of the memorialists, and to discharge as far as it can its duty in the present state of the Church, it is resolved by the Assembly:

1st. That the General Assembly hereby declares anew its devotion to all the distinctive principles of the Church, and its determination so far as in it lies, to have all under its supervision properly instructed in these principles, and to have them carried out by kind and faithful discipline.

2d. That the sessions of all the congregations throughout the Church be directed to see that the distinctive principles of the Church are properly taught in the Sabbath Schools under their care, and that pastors are enjoined to give careful and needed instructions upon these subjects in their public and private ministrations.

3d. That the sessions of the Churches be enjoined to be faithful in requiring the intelligent assent of those whom they admit to membership in the Church to all her distinctive principles, and to exercise the discipline which the Scriptures and the standards of the Church require in the case of any who violate these principles.

4th. That Presbyteries are hereby enjoined to exercise proper Presbyterial care with respect to the distinctive principles of the Church, by seeing that sessions, of which they have the oversight, are faithful in the admission of members and the exercise of discipline; by Presbyterial conventions relating to these matters, and by such other means as may be best adapted to secure the end in view; and that they report their obedience to this injunction annually to the General Assembly, in connection with their report upon the Narrative and State of Religion.

The Committee on Judiciary presented the following report on the memorial from Salinas City, Cal., which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY ON THE MEMORIAL FROM MEMBERS OF THE SALINAS CONGREGATION.

The memorialists state that they are aggrieved by the introduction and use of an organ in the praise-service of the congregation of Salinas, of which they are members, and they ask the Assembly to give them relief.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved 1. That we refer this matter to the Presbytery of San Francisco, with the suggestion that if the memorialists shall be dissatisfied with the final disposition made of it by said Presbytery, they should present the case to the Synod of the Pacific before bringing it to the Assembly.

2. That we kindly remind all the parties, concerned in the case, of the duty of taking care to avoid offense to the consciences of any of God's people, but "to follow the things that make for peace and things wherewith one may edify another."

3. That the Clerk be and hereby is directed immediately to inform the Presbytery of San Francisco, and Mr. J. G. Armstrong and the other memorialists, of this action.

The Committee on Correspondence presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE.

There have been submitted to your Committee reports of Rev. J. M. Adair, appointed by the last General Assembly to carry our greetings to the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, and of Rev. W. P. McNary, delegate to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South; also a communication from Rev. C. B. Betts, delegate of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, in which are extended to us the Christian salutations of the Church he represents.

Concerning the reports of our delegates we recommend the following:

Resolved, That the action of our representatives, as reported, be approved.

Concerning the letter from the delegate of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, we recommend the following:

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly cordially reciprocates the fraternal greetings of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South.

2. That correspondence be continued.

After prayer by Rev. W. R. Cox, the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Elder W. E. Brown.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Proceeded to the order of the day, viz.: the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions. The report, which was amended and adopted, is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

As the report of the Board, with its statements and suggestions, has been laid before the Assembly, and will also be published in the Minutes, it is not necessary to restate, even in summary, its contents. The following resolutions are offered, as covering the more important recommendations of the Board:

1. That special thanks be given to God for his favor during the year, and especially for the manifest outpouring of his Spirit and the gathering in of so many from among the heathen to confess Christ.

2. That the thanks of the Assembly be returned to the American and British and Foreign Bible Societies, the American Tract Society, the Ladies' Missionary Society, of Paisley, Scotland, the Turkish Missions Aid Society, many of the civil authorities in India and Egypt, Daniel Peoples, Esq., of Liverpool, and others, for their generous and timely help.

3. That notwithstanding the great stress there is upon us at present from lack of funds, yet the Board be directed to send out reinforcements to each mission during he ensuing year, and that this Assembly issue a call to the brethren throughout the Church to raise, by September 1st, 1885, the funds needed for this purpose.

4. That 10,000 copies of the Annual Report be published, and that every pastor and session be urged to have it circulated and read among their people.

5. That the Sabbath Schools be recommended to raise the means of carrying on the work of the Training Institutes at Asyoot and Sialkot, and that the women of our Church provide for the women's work among the heathen.

6. That the following appropriations be made for the ensuing year: For Egypt, $38,000; for India, $31,200; returned missionaries, $3,500; children in this country, $1,100; expenses of the Board, $800; printing, mailing, incidentals, etc., $1,200; indebtedness of the Board, $4,691.62; indebtedness to India, $4,290; to Egypt, $15,000; total, $99,781.62.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, on the memorial from the Xenia Convention, was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE MEMORIAL FROM THE XENIA CONVENTION.

A memorial from the Xenia Convention was referred to your committee relating to instrumental music. The memorialists feel aggrieved by the action of previous Assemblies on this question, and ask this Assembly to grant them relief by declaring "instrumental music in the worship of God in our church illegal, until at least declared legal by overture."

There is a division of opinion on this subject, and conscientious convictions are positive on both sides of the question. Some believe that there is no warrant in the Scriptures for the use of instruments; while others believe just as firmly that their use belongs to the things incidental to the worship of God, and should be left to the Christian prudence of the people of God. While they feel free, in the exercise of brotherly charity, to dispense with the use of instruments when their use would not be for edification, and while they would urge that careful regard be had for the convictions of their brethren, their conscience will not allow them to consent to any action having the force of a prohibitory law, to be enforced by discipline. They are unwilling to make that a term of fellowship which they believe is not made such by the word of God. They believe that, while the edification of the church may require members to deny themselves the exercise of the liberty they enjoy in the gospel, a law for all the church, and binding under the pains of discipline, is without Scripture authority.

The Assembly of 1882 declared the law repealed. It also enjoined the lower courts and the congregations to seek the peace of the Church. This left all free, subject only to the law of love and the question of edification. In view of these things, your committee recommend the following resolutions for adoption:

1. That the action of former Assemblies, enjoining sessions to refrain from divisive courses and uncharitable conduct in respect to this matter, be reaffirmed.

2. While making no demand for the restoration of the law already declared repealed, it is the judgment of this Assembly that the law of charity requires that brethren and congregations refrain grieving the hearts and wounding the consciences of many dear brethren who feel that the use of instrumental accompaniment in praise is a corruption of worship.

3. That further than the foregoing, the prayer of the memorialists be not granted.

Rev. R. W. French entered his solemn protest against the vote adopting the foregoing report.

A supplemental report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the same subject was presented. Before disposing of this report the hour of adjournment arrived, when the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. John A. Reynolds, D. D.

8 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. David Barclay.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Kansas requested the Assembly to direct its officers to sign a petition to Congress for the suppression of Sabbath trains, mails and parades. The request was granted, and the Moderator and the Principal Clerk were ordered to sign such petition.

Proceeded to the order of the day, viz.: a conference on temperance, Rev. W. W. Barr, D. D., in the chair. At 9:30 o'clock the conference rose and reported, through the chairman, a pleasant and profitable discussion.

After prayer by Rev. H. F. Wallace, the Assembly adjourned.

TUESDAY.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

On invitation, Hon. A. B. Campbell, Adjutant General of Kansas, addressed the Assembly on the subject of temperance in this State, and bore emphatic testimony to the fact that "Prohibition prohibits" in Kansas. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

RESOLUTIONS ON PROHIBITION.

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly has heard with great gratification the statements of Adjutant General A. B. Campbell.

2. That this Assembly is for prohibition first, last and always.

3. That prohibition's power for good is so manifest in Topeka, the capital city of Kansas, that this alone justifies us in our position.

The following telegram was received from the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church:

MORNING SUN, IOWA, June 1, 1885.

To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church:

The Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church return greetings. Read Hebrews XIII: 20, 21.

The following resolution commending the parsonage fund of the Board of Extension was adopted:

RESOLUTION ON THE PARSONAGE FUND.

WHEREAS, Many of our home missionaries suffer great inconvenience and hindrance for the want of suitable dwelling houses; therefore,

Resolved, That the parsonage fund of the Board of Church Extension be commended to the missionary societies and Sabbath Schools of the Church, as a special work, having a strong claim on their sympathies, and worthy of their liberal support.

The Committee on Finance presented their report. Before disposing of the report, it was laid on the table to listen to an address by Bishop Vail, of the Protestant Episcopal Church. After this address and the response of the Moderator, resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on Finance, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

Your committee would respectfully report that we have examined the reports of the treasurers of the Boards of Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Freedmen's Missions, Church Extension, Publication, Education, Ministerial Relief, of the General Assembly Fund, the Gibson Trust Fund and the Chinese Mission, and find them carefully prepared, (and with the exception of the last two,) properly audited. With these exceptions, the recommendations of the Finance Committee, and the directions of the General Assembly of last year were complied with.

We have also considered the report of the Quarter-Centennial Commission, and recommend that the request of the Commission be granted, viz.: "That the Commission be continued for another year," with the thanks of this General Assembly for their past faithfulness. We also recommend that the directions of the last Assembly, to the effect "that each Board and institution receiving aid from the Commission make report of same," be reiterated, and that such report be made not later than April 30, 1886.

We have received and examined the report of the Trustees of the General Assembly, and recommend its approval.

We recommend that the $383 received by the Trustees of the General Assembly from the rent of the Andrew Mann farm, Hanover, Ind., which his will says is "to be used, as much as possible, in educating a native ministry in heathen lands," be equally divided between the Theological Training Colleges of Egypt and India, and the same be paid to the Treasurer of the Board of Foreign Missions for this purpose.

We recommend that the action of the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly, in the sale of lots in Birmingham devised by Jane Madden, be approved.

We recommend that in the case of forty-three acres of land "left by will by Mr. John Greenlee, of Mercer county, Pa., to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, subject to life estate of his son, Wm. Greenlee, and also to the payment of $500 to each of said Wm. Greenlee's children," that the said Board of Trustees be authorized to compromise the same, by accepting such amount as in their judgment is fair and right, from said Wm. Greenlee, and "give him a release or quit claim of all interest in same."

We recommend that the sum of $361, received from the estate of Nannie J. Buchanan, of Pennsylvania, be appropriated to the permanent fund of the Board of Ministerial Relief, and that the sum of $346.28, received from the estate of Samuel McCluskey, of Iowa, be appropriated to the General Assembly fund.

For lack of sufficient information, and the Assembly having no "contingent fund," your committee cannot recommend the appropriation of any sum for the "annual current expenses of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian system."

We recommend that the whole matter of the payment of $300 to Dr. Alex Blaikie be referred to the Board of Ministerial Relief, for them to act in accordance with the directions given by the General Assembly of 1880.

There was due last year the sum of $2,800 borrowed by the Trustees of the General Assembly, to cancel matured mortgage on Boston (Mass.) church property, and your committee recommended an appropriation for the General Assembly fund of $4,000, which sum was deemed sufficient, with the balance in the Treasurer's hands, to pay this debt and the ordinary expenses of the Assembly. As during the past year only $1,155.12 was received by the Treasurer, (a sum not sufficient to meet necessary payments,) we would recommend that an appropriation of $5,000 be made to the Assembly fund to meet this obligation and the necessary expenses of the Assembly.

In regard to the $100 devised by the Misses Black, of Mt. Pleasant, Presbytery of Northern Indiana, we would recommend that the executor be requested to pay the amount to the Board of Trustees of the United Presbyterian Church at Mt. Pleasant, for the use of said church other than its general expenses.

In regard to bequest of Robert Mackey, your committee would recommend the appointment by the Assembly of Revs. J. P. Lytle, D. D., and W. S. Owens as trustees under the provisions of said will.

We recommend the payment of the following bills:

Expenses of Committee on Railroad Fares	$ 12 79
" Delegate to Associate Reformed Synod, (South)	45 00
Principal Clerk for expenses, postage, stationery, salary, etc	164 00
Second Clerk for expenses, postage, stationery, salary, etc	274 40
To clerks additional for preparing Minutes	25 00
Expenses of Delegate to Conference Committee of Psalm-singing Churches at Pittsburgh	7 40
Sexton United Presbyterian Church, Garnett, Kan	10 00
Attendance, services of Sexton, etc., United Presbyterian Church, Topeka	24 00
Delegates from Oregon, (two at $62.50 each)	125 00
" " California, (two at $62.50 each)	125 00
J. K. Hudson, for special edition of Topeka Capital	6 56

Resolved, That Financial Agents be urged to attend all meetings of Presbytery, as the Assembly's officers, and be diligent in the discharge of their duties as laid down by former Assemblies.

The Special Committee on Temperance presented their report. Before disposing of this report the hour of adjournment arrived, when the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Bishop Vail.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. David Donnan.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The supplemental report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the memorial from the Xenia Convention was taken up, and adopted. It is as follows:

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT ON THE MEMORIAL FROM THE XENIA CONVENTION.

Resolved 1. That this Assembly, taking into consideration the great work which the Lord is giving us as a Church to do, together with the responsibilities which it involves, and overwhelmed with the sense of our obligations to him for his unmerited favor in blessing the work of our hand in all the various fields of labor in which he has given to us to be co-workers with him, and at the same time deeply conscious and ashamed of our own ingratitude and our vast shortcoming in this work, and of our unmeetness for the great responsibilities that are upon us for the future, by reason of the weakness of our faith and the power of unbelief in us, the want of whole-hearted hearted devotion to the person and cause of our glorious Lord and Captain of our salvation and worldliness, and most earnestly desiring to embrace and improve the opportunities which he is offering to us in his providence, hereby calls the whole church to unite in the observance of a day of special prayer, in which we will agree together in fervent supplication with thanksgiving and confession of sins to the Lord our God, beseeching him to "be merciful to us and shine on us with his face," that in the way of enabling us to take hold of his covenant of grace and renewing our engagements to him and to each other, we may receive a fresh baptism of the Holy Spirit, for the removal of hindrances and difficulties, the restoration of mutual confidence and the revival of all grace in us, "that so his way may be known in the earth and his saving health among all nations."

2. That the first Wednesday of September, 1885, be designated for this purpose.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions was resumed. After some discussion, the second and third resolutions of this report, together with the amendment offered, were referred to a Special Committee, consisting of Revs. W. W. Barr, D. D., D. W. Collins, D. D., D. S. Littell, D. R. Kerr, D. D., J. A. Reynolds, D. D., and John A. Wilson. It was also agreed that this Committee should have leave to report at any time.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions. The resolution, reported by the Special Committee as a substitute for the second and third resolutions of the report, was adopted. The Assembly united in singing Psalm CXXII: 4, 5, L. M., and adjourned after prayer by Rev. J. T. Cooper, D. D.

8 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Prof. J. H. Wilson.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Certain resolutions on the resignation of Rev. John G. Brown, D. D., and his reappointment as Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Home Missions were read and referred to the Committee on Nominations.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions. The consideration of the resolution on the appointment of a Corresponding Secretary, who shall give his whole time to the work, and fixing his salary, was deferred till after the consideration of the report of the Committee on Nominations. All the rest of the report was adopted.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Special Committee on Temperance, which was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

A communication from the National Temperance Association was placed in the hands of your committee, which recommends that this year be regarded as the Centennial of Temperance Reform, asks co-operation in the observance of a Centennial Temperance week, suggests the week commencing September 20, 1885, and requests that delegates might be appointed to attend a Centennial Temperance Conference to be held in the city of Philadelphia, September 23 and 24, 1885; also, a communication from the National Committee of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, asking an endorsement of their organization, and also a petition to secure a day of prayer in the week of prayer. Your committee would recommend the following:

1. That, in viewing the progress of temperance during the past century, we have reason to be profoundly thankful to the Almighty God and Father for the progress that has been made, and the encouragement this gives to labor on in this great work.

2. We heartily approve the setting apart of the week commencing September 20, 1885, as a Centennial Temperance Week, and that ministers and Sabbath schools be recommended to hold suitable temperance services on Sabbath, September 20, and suggest that on that day a contribution be made to assist in distributing temperance literature especially among the Freedmen.

3. We recommend that Presbyteries appoint one or more delegates to attend the Centenial Temperance Conference to be held in the city of Philadelphia, September 23 and 24, 1885.

4. While we deem it the duty of Christian ministers and people to aid in advancing the great cause of temperance reformation, yet, since all the ways and means employed are not such as are proper for the sacredness of the Lord's day, we would caution ministers and people against holding or attending such meetings on the Sabbath as are inconsistent with the sacredness of that day.

5. Believing that the liquor traffic and its results constitute a very great obstacle in the way of the gospel in every land, the Principal Clerk is hereby directed to petition, in the name of this Assembly, the International Committee of the Evangelical Alliance to set apart one day of the week of prayer for 1886, to be devoted to the cause of temperance progress, and in case this petition is not complied with, he be directed to designate one day for this purpose, and recommend its observance by our people.

6. We highly appreciate the spirit and work of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union, in its general aspect as carried forward through its ten thousand local auxiliaries, and bid our sisters God-speed in their brave endeavor "For God and Home and Native Land."

7. That there can be no compromise with this evil; that absolute, unconditional prohibition is the end at which we should aim, and the ultimatum which alone we are willing to accept.

The following report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the employment of theological students during their vacation was adopted:

REPORT ON THE EMPLOYMENT OF THEOLOGICAL STUDENTS DURING THEIR VACATIONS.

Your committee respectfully report that a memorial from the Presbytery of Stamford has been referred to us, in which it is proposed to send down in overture an elaborate system of regulations in reference to the employment of students of theology in missionary labor.

We are of opinion that our Book of Government and the action of the Assembly of 1878 are sufficiently explicit in placing the whole control and direction of students of theology in the hands of their respective Presbyteries. While our Book gives explicit direction as to the studies and licensure of students in all ordinary cases, it leaves much to the discretion of Presbyteries. It is our opinion that the employment of students in missionary labor, under the direction of Presbytery, may be of great service in the Home Mission field, and at the same time afford them the very best training for future pastoral work. We, therefore, offer the following resolutions:

1. That there is no necessity for an overture on this subject.

2. That when, in the judgment of Presbyteries, it would be advantageous, in the training of students under their care, to have them engage in some appropriate mission work during vacation, they are at liberty to so employ them in connection with the Board of Home Missions.

The Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief presented a report, which was recommitted.

After prayer by Rev. A. R. Munford, the Assembly adjourned.

WEDNESDAY.

9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. A. G. Wallace, D. D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The report of the Committee to prepare a summary of the standards of the Church was presented and approved.

The report of the Committee of Conference with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South was presented and approved.

The Committee on Nominations presented a report on the "Resolutions on the Resignation of Rev. J. G. Brown, D. D.," which was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS ON RESIGNATION OF REV. J. G. BROWN, D. D.

Whereas, This General Assembly has reluctantly accepted the resignation of Rev. John G. Brown, D. D., as Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Home Missions, offered by him on account of failing eye-sight, and

Whereas, During the coming months the work of that office is less burdensome than during the rest of the year, and he, after his labors of thirteen years, is desirous of and requires rest, and this General Assembly desiring to consult his comfort, and fully appreciating his past faithful services in the cause of Home Missions; now therefore,

Resolved, That when the salary of the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Home Missions shall have been fixed by this General Assembly, as per the report now under consideration, the Committee on Nominations be requested to report, for confirmation by this General Assembly, the name of the Rev. Jno. G. Brown, D. D., for the first period of six months, if he will accept of the same, and that his successor, as selected by this General Assembly, assume the duties of the office on and after that period.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions. This report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

There have been referred to your Committee, the report of the Board of Home Missions, the report of the General Committee, a minority report of the General Committee, a paper designated, "A Memorial from Rev. C. B. Smyth, et al., of East 116th Street United Presbyterian Church of New York," and the resignation of John G. Brown as Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Home Missions.

The Board of Missions report their work in a very prosperous condition; more mission work accomplished, more substantial results secured, more money received and expended than in any previous year of our history.

The General Committee have reviewed the work as presented in the annual report of the Board, and have made their recommendations for the coming year, after the most careful consideration.

The demands are such that the Committee has felt justified in appropriating more money and sending more laborers into the ripe fields than ever before.

We recommend for your adoption the following:

1. That the work of the Board of Home Missions be approved.

2. That the recommendations of the General Committee of Home Missions be approved, and that the question of granting or withholding appropriations of money to congregations using musical instruments in worship be referred to the Board of Home Missions, in the confidence that said Board will carry out the spirit and intent of the action of this Assembly, in adopting the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the memorial of Xenia Convention.

3. That in view of the promising character of the great and needy fields of Dakota and Washington Territories, the Board of Home Missions be directed to prosecute the work in those fields as vigorously as the men and means will permit.

4. That the Board of Home Missions be the Committee contemplated in resolution No. 2 of the General Committee of Home Missions, viz.: "That we request the General Committee to appoint a Committee, whose duty it shall be to consider the methods of transacting business in the General Committee of Home Missions, and what changes might with advantage be made in them, and to report to the next General Assembly."

5. That in view of the increased interest in and the need of actively supporting the work of Home Missions, the Church be urged to contribute $60,000 for this work during the ensuing year.

6. Your Committee have examined the memorial of the Rev. C. B. Smyth, et al., of East 116th Street United Presbyterian Church of New York, and it is the judgment of your Committee that it has not come regularly before us.

Resolved, That no action be taken.

7. Resolved, That Superintendents of Missions be directed to report delinquent appointees to their respective Presbyteries, in order that they may be called to account for their delinquency.

8. Your Committee would report in regard to the resignation of Dr. John G. Brown:

Resolved, 1. That since the resignation of Dr. John G. Brown, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Home Missions, is understood to be based upon impaired sight, and the Assembly cannot, under such circumstances, insist upon his continuance in the arduous work, his resignation is hereby reluctantly accepted.

2. In view of the long continued and highly efficient service of Dr. Brown, we hereby express our heartfelt thanks for the efficient labor rendered, and also our earnest desire and prayer to God that the affliction which has rendered this step necessary on his part may be removed; that the blessing of the Master whom he has so earnestly and faithfully served may rest upon him, and that his life may be spared many years for active service in the Master's vineyard.

The Committee on Sabbath Schools presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

The only matter placed in the hands of your committee requiring action is that part of the report of the Board of Publication relating to the Sabbath School work of the Church.

The printed report is before the Assembly, and requires but little notice by the committee. By way of comparison, however, we call attention to the following items:

1st. Last year three Presbyteries were found not reporting. This year, including these same three, there are eight.

2d. Although the total average attendance reported this year is 8,201 less than last year, the contributions to the Boards of the Church are $1,166 more than last year.

3d. Although the scholars attending the Church services are reported this year as being 6,807 less than last, those professing their faith in Christ are 79 more than last year.

4th. The Board recommends:

1. That the matter of gathering statistics of Sabbath School work be referred to the Second Clerk of the Assembly.

2. That Presbyterial Superintendents be directed to visit the Sabbath Schools under their care.

3. That the third Sabbath of October be observed as a day of special prayer for Sabbath Schools, and that pastors and sessions be requested to hold special services on that day in the interest of this work.

Your committee would note with thanksgiving to God the evidences of his blessing on this important department of our Church work.

We heartily concur with the Board in seeking to have the pastors develop and utilize for the Sabbath School all the lay talent in their congregations.

Your committee would recommend the following for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the report of the Board of Publication, so far as it relates to the Sabbath School work, be approved.

2. That the first and third recommendations of the Board be approved.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report, on the resolution to overture the chapter on Commissions, which was adopted:

REPORT ON OVERTURING THE CHAPTER ON COMMISSIONS.

Your committee respectfully report that this subject was fully considered by the Assembly of 1882, and finally disposed of by a series of resolutions, recognizing the right of Synods, Presbyteries and Sessions to appoint commissions in special matters, and adopting the chapter on commissions as reported to it, in the form of rules defining the scope and regulating the procedure of such commissions. In the judgment of your committee no further action is required. We therefore recommend for adoption the following:

Resolved, That no further action on this subject is necessary.

The Committee to nominate a Committee of Conference with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON NOMINATING A COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE WITH THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

The committee appointed to nominate a committee to confer with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South on the subject of union, would respectfully present the following, viz.: D. R. Kerr, D. D., J. T. Cooper, D. D., W. W. Barr, D. D., W. J. Reid, D. D., and D. W. Carson, D. D.

The Committee on Revision presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON REVISION.

There were placed in our hands for revision certified copies of the minutes of the General Assembly, Synods of New York, Pittsburgh, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, First Synod of the West, Second Synod, Synod of Ohio, and the Presbytery of Sialkot for 1884; and of the Synod of Ohio for 1883.

As far as we were able to examine these records, we find that business has been transacted according to Presbyterial order, and that the records have been neatly and correctly printed, except the minutes of the Presbytery of Sialkot, which are written in a plain and legible hand. We therefore recommend the following action:

Resolved, That the above mentioned records be approved by the General Assembly.

The Committee on Statistics presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON STATISTICS.

There have been referred to your committee: 1. The report of the Second Clerk, with statistical summaries for the year ending March 31, 1885; statistics of Ladies' Missionary Societies, and the alphabetical list of ministers. 2. A resolution asking that, once in five years, the names and postoffice addresses of all the Ruling Elders in the Church be printed in the Assembly's minutes.

I. With reference to the statistical tables, it is enough to say that they have been compiled, as in other years, with commendable care and accuracy. Our annual minutes have been brought to a degree of excellence in this part of them, which leaves little, if anything, more to be desired. We note with satisfaction the statement of the Second Clerk, that reports have been received in season from all the Presbyteries excepting Sialkot, which lies at such a distance that no blame can justly be attached to the clerk.

The attention of the Assembly is especially called in the report to the desirability of making some provision for the safe keeping of blanks and other papers, for which the clerks are responsible.

We recommend the following resolutions for adoption:

1. That the statistical tables, as submitted to the Assembly, be approved.

2. That the clerks of the Assembly be authorized to purchase a suitable desk or case for the safe keeping of all papers and blanks in their charge, the expense to be paid out of the Assembly's fund; and that the Board of Publication be requested to place it in some secure and convenient room in their building.

3. That the Second Clerk be empowered to make any change which he may think desirable in the statistical table of Ladies' Missionary Societies.

II. In regard to the resolution for the publication in the minutes, once in five years, of the names and addresses of Ruling Elders, your committee are not satisfied that the benefits to be derived from the printing of such a list would be sufficient to warrant the labor and expense required. It would add largely to the size and cost of the minutes; would necessarily increase the price of copies purchased by our people, thus hindering their wider circulation, and would involve an immense amount of trouble to the clerks. Unless, therefore, some greater advantage can be shown than your committee has been able to see, we cannot recommend favorable action; therefore,

Resolved, That the resolution referred to be not adopted.

The Standing Committee on Narrative and State of Religion presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

The report of the Permanent Committee on this subject is so full that it seems unnecessary for us to recapitulate, or to dwell upon the statements therein made.

We notice in brief, that while the past year has not been noted in the history of the church, by seasons of special religious interest as in some former years, yet it has been one of decided advance in church work.

For the Home Mission cause alone more than $10,000 have been raised in excess of the amount for the previous year.

Very significant, also, is the fact that there has been an increase of membership by profession in the churches of the foreign field of 831. It is an interesting and solemn thought that after years of patient and laborious sowing and waiting in these fields, we seem to be near the time of the great harvest. For this we are to thank God and take courage.

We believe there never was a time when our church was better organized in all her departments for work at home and abroad, never a time when such fields were so fully opened to us, and when our people were so willing to put their hands to the work.

Special attention is called this year to the great field for labor and full of promise in the Northwest, where the stream of immigration is now sending such multitudes, a field that can be reached in a few hours, one that would give scope to every energy of our church, and one in which we are called to work at once, while the land is comparatively unoccupied.

In view of these encouraging facts, we are called the more to remember, that our true strength is not in numbers, or organization, or denominational zeal, but in the presence of the Holy Spirit in the hearts of ministers and people, as a spirit of light, of love and of power, making them vessels "sanctified and meet for the Master's use."

While we rejoice in the success of the past, we cannot ignore the fact that in reference to many of the great matters of personal religion, such as Sabbath observance, family worship and family instruction, and in separation from the world, we come far short of our duty; and in reference to the whole work of the church, we may well ask with humiliation and shame, how much more would have been accomplished, if we had been stronger in faith, more earnest in prayer, and more willing to sacrifice ourselves for the glory of God and the welfare of souls?

We cannot study the work of the year without feeling that, as churches and individuals, we need to feel in a far higher degree the constraining power of the love of Christ, making us more willing to spend and to be spent for him.

We offer the following:

Resolved 1, That we present to God, our heavenly Father, our most hearty acknowledgement of his goodness to us as a church during the past year, in the midst of our unworthiness.

2. That in order to develop greater interest in our church work, pastors be urged to carefully explain to the people from time to time, the specific nature of the different Boards of the church, and press their respective claims.

3. That on the adoption of this report, the Assembly engage in prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon our ministers and people for the coming year.

As recommended in the last resolution of this report, the Assembly spent some time in devotional exercises, Rev. J. A. Williamson in the chair.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises presented the following additional report, which was adopted:

ADDITIONAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

We recomend that Rev. J. H. Wright, of the Presbytery of Xenia, be the Moderator's alternate to preach the opening sermon at the next meeting of the General Assembly.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

There have been referred to your Committee the report of the Board of Ministerial Relief and a memorial on Ministerial Sustentation from the Presbytery of Detroit.

I. From the report of the Board we are gratified to learn that the aged and disabled soldiers of the cross and their families are beginning to find, through the agency of this Board, a warm place in the hearts of our people. Only five Presbyteries failed to contribute to this Board the past year. For the financial condition of the Board you are referred to its report. The Board deserves and should receive the hearty support of the entire church. We recommend for your adoption the following:

Resolved, That $5,000, the amount asked by the Board for the current year, be granted.

II. The memorial from the Presbytery of Detroit requests the appointment of a Special Committee, to report to the next Assembly a scheme of Ministerial Sustentation adapted to the needs of our Church. We recommend for your adoption the following:

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly hearken to the voice of the petitioners, and that a committee be appointed to act according to the specifications in the petition.

2. That Revs. D. H. Goodwillie, Richard Turnbull and W. W. Curry be appointed said committee.

APPENDIX.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Your Trustees would respectfully report that since your last meeting the following items of business have recieved their attention:

The following officers were elected to serve for the year ending June 30, 1885, viz., President, Rev. R. B. Ewing, D. D.; Vice President, Rev. S. Collins, D. D.; Secretary, Graham Scott; Treasurer, James McCandless.

At the request of the Board of Church Extension, we sold the church property in Washington City, and the proceeds of said sale were turned over to said Board of Church Extension. We also executed quit claim deeds for the church property in Chase City, Virginia, and the First Church, Harlem (late 116th street, New York); the latter giving the Trustees a mortgage for $1,200 to secure money advanced by the Boards of the Church. We have received as rent of the Andrew Mann farm, Hanover, Ind., $383, which the Assembly is asked to make disposition of. The will reads, "to be used as much as possible in educating a native ministry in heathen lands." We propose to sell the farm as soon as we can get a reasonable price for the same. We have sold some lots in Birmingham, Iowa, (left the Church by Jane Madden) for $500, payable $100 cash, and the balance in one, two and three years, with eight per cent. interest per annum.

Mr. John Greenlee, of Mercer county, Penn'a., left by will about forty-three acre of land to "The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America," subject to the life estate of his son, Wm. Greenlee, and also to the payment of $500 to each of said William Greenlee's children. Wm. Greenlee is now about forty years old, and has one son ten years old. As the Church may not realize anything out of this bequest for a long time, some of his neighbors advise us to make a compromise by accepting a reasonable amount paid now, and giving him a release or quit claim for all interest in the land. The Assembly is asked to give the Trustees advice and direction in regard to compromising this matter, and other similar cases that may arise, as it is very common for bequests to be left subject to life estates of wife or children, which tie them up for years sometimes, when it would perhaps be better for all parties interested to make a compromise and settle the matter at once.

Our Treasurer's account, properly audited, has been filed, which will show the financial transactions of the Board of Trustees.

The term for which Rev. R. B. Ewing, D. D., Rev. Samuel Collins, D. D., and J. W. Arrott, Esq., were elected Trustees, will expire on June 30, 1885. You are requested to fill the vacancies.

All of which respectfully submitted.

GRAHAM SCOTT, Secretary.

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 22, 1885.

THE YEAR'S WORK.

In many respects the past year has been an eventful one.

In India with occasional local outbursts of opposition amounting in some instances to persecution, there has also been a marked and gratifying manifestation of the Holy Spirit with the labors of our missionaries. The interest in the schools has been steady and large. The conversions of the natives, especially in some of the districts, have been numerous and cheering, and such is the state of the work that most earnestly does this mission call still for reinforcements this year again of six ordained missionaries and eight unmarried female missionaries.

In Egypt the public mind has been widely agitated by the rumors of war, but the mission work has not been interrupted in a single place. The schools have been well attended. Cheering accessions have been made to the mission churches. The troubles from Plymouthism have abated and throughout this field also the pressing cry is for more missionaries—at the very least for two male and two female missionaries this year.

At home the calls for funds to carry on the work have been urgent, and while the contributions have been larger than the previous year, yet in consequence of increased demands they have not been equal to the necessities of the case. The current expenses have not been met and from time to time the Board have had to borrow. Scarcely anything has been done to remove the unfortunate debt of last year, but it is rather increased. In several instances also reinforcements might have been made to our missions if we had only had the means of sending them. This is a painful feature of our condition. Will not the mere mention of it arouse our whole Church to make an effort to have the funds that are so much needed furnished immediately?

FINANCIAL SITUATION.

The last Assembly appropriated $90,000 for current expenses for the year, and for the payment of the indebtedness of the Board to the missions. The whole amount that came into the treasury from all sources during the year was $71,767.96. For the present year, after reducing materially the estimates made by the missions, the sum required for current expenses will be $75,800. To pay the indebtedness to the missions $23.981.62 will be required, making a grand total of $99,781.62. In view of this financial exhibit it is evident that, loud as is the call for new missionaries, none can be sent to either mission field during the current year unless the contributions of the churches shall be largely increased The Board simply state the facts. The responsibility must rest upon the Assembly and the Church.

MISSIONARIES.

In the good favor of God, not one of our missionaries in the field was removed by death during the year, or in any way permanently laid aside.

Rev. A. M. Nichol finding that his physical condition would not warrant his return to the mission in Egypt again, was released from the care of the Board, and will remain in this country. Rev. Jas. S. Barr, D. D., has not returned to the mission in India, but in various ways has rendered important service to it in this country. Miss Isabella Strang returned from the mission in Egypt in July last, and after recuperating for a time will, it is hoped, resume her work at an early day.

As we are preparing this report the Rev. J. R. Alexander and family of Egypt, and Rev. Andrew Gordon and family, and the Misses Elizabeth McCahan and Cynthia E. Wilson, of India, are approaching our shores on a furlough. All these missionaries have been arduously engaged for about ten years or more each, and seriously needed a change and rest. It is believed also their visits to the churches and missionary societies at home will be greatly helpful to the missionary cause.

In this connection, however, the Board cannot but express regret that there should be occasion for such returns of our missionaries, and are assured that they are made only because they are necessary, as certified to us by the physicians and the Missionary Associations on the ground.

A PIONEER FALLEN.

It is with sorrow the Board record the death of the Rev. James Barnet, D. D., one of the first of the Foreign Missionaries of our Church.

In 1846 he founded with his brother-in-law, the late J. G. Paulding, M. D., under appointment of the Associate Reformed Church, the mission in Damascus, Syria. In 1854 he joined the Rev. Thos. McCague in beginning the mission in Egypt. In this service he continued with slight interruptions until 1875, when he returned with his family to this country, and at length worn down with much bodily weakness he departed this life, after a brief illness, at his home in Emporia, Kan., October 2, 1884.

Dr. Barnet was truly a good man. He was ever zealous for the truth and cause of his Divine Master. He was thoroughly devoted to the mission work at home and abroad. He rests from his labors and his works do follow him.

NEW MISSIONARIES.

Miss Josephine L. White and Miss Mary J. Campbell sailed on the 12th of November last to join the India Mission. It is due to say that the Board were not able to send them out and did it only because two of the Women's Missionary Societies engaged to raise the funds required. Each Society took up one of these young ladies, and thus there was presented the beautiful sight of our Christian women here at home furnishing the means of sending out and sustaining those who will labor to christianize and save the ignorant and unhappy women of heathenism.

Most earnest calls have been made from both missions for still more laborers, but the Board have been unable to send them. How long shall it thus be? The cry for help and little or no help be given!

THE MEDICAL SERVICE.

The medical missionary, E. E. Lansing, M. D., entered upon his work at Asyoot, Egypt, May 16th. From that date to January 1st, he had 250 patients under his care. In these cases he had the opportunity of being the Christian as well as the medical missionary, and with encouraging results.

Dr. Lansing concludes his report by saying he had been led to observe:

1st. An increasing appreciation of and demand for medical services.

2d. The necessity of proper accommodations for invalids requiring special attention.

CONTRIBUTIONS.

It is believed there is a regular increase of the number of contributors to this great work in the churches, Sabbath Schools, missionary societies and of the individual members of our congregations; and if the day would only come when every member of our Church would make a contribution for it, there would be ample means for all our work.

In the face of this, however, how sad is the fact that there are whole congregations where throughout the entire year and in the midst of all the privileges their members enjoy, not a single offering is made to this cause. In view of this melancholy fact is it any wonder that the Board has continued indebtedness and painful hindrances in its way?

Yet there are

ENCOURAGEMENTS.

In many families there is frequent conversation, reading and prayer upon this subject. In many Sabbath Schools superintendents and teachers often speak of it, and give their scholars an opportunity of contributing to it. In an increasing number of the churches and Presbyteries our women, as they remember how much the gospel has done for them and realize that it is nothing but the gospel that can raise up under the Spirit of God their heathen sisters and have them blessed, are forming societies on this behalf, and are undertaking to support missionaries of their own sex especially, in our needy fields. In many of the churches also pastors and sessions are more frequently referring to this subject in their prayers, in the collecting and presenting of facts in regard to it, and in having their people be more regularly and fully informed about it, and have the opportunity of contributing for it.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

It has ever been an anxious wish of the Board that all the women of our Church would be engaged in helping to carry on our Foreign Mission work, and very encouraging are the facts in regard to this. At the last Assembly it was reported there were 27 Women's Presbyterial Missionary Societies and 345 congregational, or 372 in all, with 11,007 members, and contributing for all purposes during the year, $28,082. Their contributions through our treasury to Foreign Missions for the year ending April 30th, last, amounts to $6,762.78.

Most gratefully do the Board mention that the Women's Missionary Society of Beaver Valley Presbytery, of Monmouth Presbytery, and of several congregations in Argyle Presbytery have each assumed the support of one of our women missionaries, and the happiest results are promising to follow.

Could not all the women of our Church be engaged in this work, and in this way could not all our female missionaries be happily provided for?

SPECIAL WORK.

Throughout the Church, and especially in many of the Sabbath Schools and missionary societies, there is a great desire for some particular or special work. Inquiries are often made for some child that may be taken up in one of the missions, or for some work that may be assumed as the immediate work of those who love this cause. In all these, however, there is often uncertainty as to the results. Often too there is difficulty in having such arrangements made as could be carried out satisfactorily from year to year, and it is scarcely possible to keep as many separate accounts as would thus be necessary.

After much consideration the Board are impressed with two important forms of Special Work, which may be most earnestly recommended.

1st. Special Work for Sabbath Schools.—In both of our missions, next to the preaching of the Gospel, is the duty of educating and training well qualified native ministers and native teachers. In each of our missions, and besides the day and boarding schools, there is an Institute of the most excellent character for this very thing, viz., the Training College at Asyoot in Egypt, and the Training Institute at Sialkot in India. In each of these there are already many promising boys and young men and might be many more if only the means were furnished to meet the current expenses.

Now could not the Sabbath Schools of our Church undertake this important part of our great missionary work—the work of raising up the future ministers and teachers of India and Egypt? Could not each school do something for it? The money should be paid to the Financial Agent in each Presbytery, and he would remit to our Treasurer, stating the school contributing it. The Board would arrange to have some one at each of these institutions often publish for these school accounts of the way the contributions are used, and the good which they are doing. Is there not here a special work of the best kind for all the Sabbath Schools and children of our Church?

2d. Special Work for Women.—In our foreign work we have fifteen unmarried Christian women engaged in active missionary service, viz: In India—Misses Elizabeth G. Gordon, Cynthia E. Wilson, Elizabeth McCahan, Rosa A. McCullough, Emma D. Anderson, Euphie E. Gordon, Josephine L. White and Mary J. Campbell; in Egypt—Misses Martha J. McKown, Anna Y. Thompson, Maggie A. Smith, Mary A. Frazier, Harriet M. Conner, Isabella Strang and Ella O. Kyle. Besides being engaged in the girls' schools, these devoted missionaries often go from house to house and teach the native women to read the Scriptures, and to know the way of salvation, and for this there is a great necessity. All over the East the missionary men cannot have the opportunity of instructing the native women, but Christian women can, and already much of the most promising as well as needy work of our missions is being done in this way.

Now could not the women of our churches here at home, our Women's Missionary Societies and Girls' Mission Bands and others raise the money that is required for the support of those who are thus engaged? Is there not a special work here of the best kind?

One society or several combining might assume the support of some one of these missionary women, or could support some one in part. The missionary thus taken up might in some measure be considered the missionary of those contributing thus for her support and her letters to them and theirs to her might do much to keep actively alive the missionary spirit.

Will not all the women of our Church think of this? Is there not here a special work for them, and one every way worthy of their sympathy and their efforts?

OUR HELPERS.

Wm. Gibson, M. D., of Jamestown, Pa., has remitted the income of the property in Erie, Pa., donated to the use of this Board for circulating the Holy Scriptures among the Arabic speaking populations of the East, and thus over 2,300 copies were distributed the past year. The American and British and Foreign Bible Societies have made their usual grants, and the American Tract Society has contributed again to aid in the circulation of religious literature among the people of Egypt. The Ladies' Missionary Society of Paisley, Scotland, have made their usual grant for the support of the Girls' School in Alexandria, and the Turkish Missions Aid Society have furnished substantial encouragement and aid again for our work.

Mr. Daniel Peoples, of Liverpool, has generously rendered his usual important services to our missionaries during the year. These services he has given without compensation, and in the most fitting times and places and ways.

The Board cannot but express its grateful sense of the generous contributions made for our work during the year by Messrs. David Duncan Sons, of New York, Charles Arbuthnot, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and others, who, though not members of our Church, have most liberally helped us.

THE ANNUAL REPORT.

With a view of having our people furnished as widely as possible with the means of becoming acquainted with our Foreign work, the last Assembly directed that 10,000 copies of our Report should be published. This was done and nearly every copy has been put in circulation.

It is hoped some copies of the Report went into every congregation. Pastors, Sessions and Missionary Societies especially have been urged to scatter them as widely as possible among all the people, and it is believed good has been done. The more all—old and young—are made to know of this subject the more they think and pray and do for it. A plentiful supply and a general reading of these Reports it is believed never fails to do good.

THE PRESS.

Much has been done by this important instrumentality. In Egypt though there has been great unsettledness in the public mind, there has been a growing demand for the Word of God, and for religious, educational and other useful publications. This mission has eight book depots, employs nine men in them, has 12 colporteurs, and during the past year has sold and distributed 37,615 volumes, of which about 9,000 were copies of the Scriptures alone.

It is a matter of special thankfulness that the American, and British and Foreign Bible Societies generously meet all the expenses of the Bible work of our mission in Egypt.

SUGGESTIONS.

1st. That in view of their Christian privileges and of all the Gospel has done for them, all the members of our churches ask themselves what they ought to do on behalf of this cause.

2d. That the Annual Reports be circulated as far as practicable in every congregation, and that information on the subject of missions be given as widely as possible among all of our people.

3d. That the members of our churches will still, as has been so appropriately and usefully done by many heretofore, remember this great work in their last wills —doing for it while they live and providing thus for its being carried on when they are dead. No one can tell the good that we have reason to believe has been done and is now being done by such loving and grateful acts.

4th. That as much may be accomplished by combined effort, and that all may have most promising special objects in view, it is earnestly recommended:

First. That the Sabbath Schools of our Church undertake to raise the funds for carrying on our Training Schools at Sialkot in India, and Asyoot in Egypt, and thus to bring forward a well qualified native ministry and other laborers for the millions of people in both Egypt and India; and,

Second. That the women of our Church undertake to raise the means of supporting our women foreign missionaries, and carrying on the women's work of our Church among the heathen.

CONCLUSION.

Most earnestly do the Board urge that much prayer will be offered on behalf of this cause—that conscientious and regular offerings will be made by every member of our Church for it—and that more and more all will expect great things from God for it, and faithfully attempt and do great things for God in it.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

The Board of Home Missions respectfully submits the following report in regard to the important department of the church's work entrusted to its management:

I. PROGRESS OF THE WORK.—For the year closing with March 31st aid was granted to two hundred and twenty-eight stations, with a few connections uncounted. They were under the care of forty-nine Presbyteries. From eight of these stations no reports have been received. The reports of ninety cover only a portion of the year. In the stations reporting there was on the 31st of March a membership of 10,815, with an average attendance upon the Sabbath services of 17,157. The accessions to the church were, by profession 781, and by certificate 1,051. The decrease from all causes was 635. The net increase, therefore, has been 1,197. These figures, as compared with those of last year, show a greater number of stations aided, but a less aggregate membership and a somewhat diminished net increase. Yet it is highly gratifying to find that the additions by confession of faith are actually larger, and that the proportional gain is in no respect less. The net increase of 1,197 is fully eleven per cent. of the entire present membership, showing that the fruits gathered in our mission fields at home are not so meagre as is sometimes asserted when compared with the results abroad. 160 stations are supplied with preaching full time. Over 73 of them pastors are settled. A very considerable number heretofore assisted is not this year asking aid. In the Mission Sabbath Schools 12,562 scholars are instructed in saving truth. The number of church buildings reported is 179. $7,551 have been contributed to the Boards of the Church, and for the support of the missionaries $53,540; an increase, in each item, over last year, though the number of members reported is less. On the whole there is abundant reason to feel that the work is in prosperous condition and that the blessing of God has accompanied and made successful the faithful labors of his ministers and people.

II. GRANTS BY THE BOARD.—Out of the $975 placed at the disposal of the Board to meet the needs of stations referred under the "sliding scale" rules, $695 were appropriated. The Presbyteries and stations to which these grants were made are the following, viz: Boston, Sutton, $50, P. S.; Cedar Rapids, Fairfax, $250, S.; Chillicothe, Mt. Joy and Con., $15, S. S.; Garnett, Blue Mound, $55, P. S.; Neosho, Pleasant Valley, $90, S. S.; New York, Newark, $100, S.; Omaha, Fairview, $90, P. S.; Steubenville, Carrollton and Con., $45, S. S. Out of the $3,100 for cases referred to the consideration of the Board, $2,350 were granted as follows, viz: Cleveland, Poland, $300; Detroit, Austin and Con., $250; Illinois Southern, Lebanon, $600; Neosho, Emporia, special mission, $700, S. S.; Newton, special mission, $500, S. S. Out of $3,000 to meet emergencies, $1,850 were appropriated as follows, viz: Cedar Rapids, Marshalltown, special mission, additional to appropriation, $25, S. S.; College Springs, Creston, special mission, additional, $100, S. S.; Dakota Mission, $350, S. S.; Detroit, Alpena, special mission, additional, $175, S. S.; Monongahela, Mt. S.; Omaha, Columbus and Con., $150, S. S.; Pawnee, Blue Hill, $150. S. S.; San Francisco, Los Angeles, special mission, additional, $100; Roseville, $100, for last year.

The above includes the fourth quarter of last, with the first, second and third quarters of the current year.

IV. SPECIAL MISSIONS.—Under the action of the Assemblies of 1879 and 1880 certain stations have been committed, for a given term of years in each instance, to the special care of the Board. The main end in view in this modification of our general system was to secure for missions in the large cities and other important centres greater permanency of supply; if possible, pastoral settlement, and a more consistent and stable policy in the support and management of the work. The first period of five years under this system closes with this meeting of the Assembly. Eight stations, six of which have been in our care for the whole, and two for the greater part of that time, cease to hold a special relation to the Board. Their requests will be submitted directly to the General Committee. Thirteen others, making a total of twenty-one, have been in our charge during the year.

It is but proper that at this time a fuller report than usual should be given as to these special missions, especially those whose terms now close. That report will be found below. A few words may be said here as to the practical effect of the regulations under which the stations have been committed to the Board. In our judgment the system has thus far worked well. We have been able to secure a permanency of supply and a measure of success that seemed impossible of attainment in the past. In most of the stations now passing from under our immediate care it is highly probable that before many years the self supporting point will, by the blessing of God, be reached, and permanent congregations established in great centres of population and influence. The condition of a few is not such as to warrant this hope, as will be seen in the detailed statements; but this discouraging state of things cannot now, as in former years, be justly attributed to frequent and unwise changes in the laborers employed or in the support given; it is due to other causes over which we can exercise no control. In other words one result of the special care given to these stations is that the church is enabled to judge intelligently of the actual condition and prospects of the work in them, and so to decide wisely what should be done for them. While, however, we believe that experience proves the wisdom and efficiency of the system of special missions, we desire to repeat, and to emphasize strongly, the advice given in former years against any undue increase of the number of stations placed in this class. To meet the needs of the great majority, we would say nearly all of the missions, the long established general methods of our church are admirable and amply sufficient. No departure from them should be permitted in any case where the necessity for special treatment is not clear from the history or from the peculiar circumstances and condition of the mission. The possibility of really efficient management by the Board will be destroyed, and we believe our whole Home Mission work will become demoralized if the STRICTLY EXCEPTIONAL nature of the Special Mission regulations is overlooked in practice.

Alpena, Presbytery of Detroit. 1884–7.*—At this new station the Rev. J. L. Thompson has been laboring as stated supply during the greater part of the year, and has been reappointed. He speaks encouragingly of the condition of the Mission, the spirit of the people, the interest in and attendance upon the services, and the prospects for increase and success. A house of worship has been secured at comparatively low cost, and is nearly paid for. A promising Sabbath School has been organized, and regular prayer meetings begun. Alpena is a county seat, on the western shore of Lake Huron, and is a leading lumber point and fishing station. It is regarded as an important basis for Evangelistic work upon the whole surrounding region. Large numbers of people in sympathy with the principles and usages of our church come into the place, chiefly from Canada. The Presbytery asked and the Board has granted $600 for the coming year.

Bad Axe, Presbytery of Detroit. 1882-5.—The Rev. J. P. Gibson is the pastor. He regards the prospects as, on the whole, encouraging, but does not look for rapid growth. The Presbytery asks that Bad Axe be continued as a special mission. It is the judgment of the Board that the request should not be granted. There seems to be nothing in the character of the place, a town of 800 people, or in the condition and needs of the Mission to justify any departure from the common methods of our Home Mission work.

Boston, Presbytery of Boston. 1880–5.—Rev. John Hood pastor. The congregation is reported in improved and steadily improving working condition, and the prospects seem bright for speedy self-support. Continuance as a special mission is not asked. The pastor hopes that the $300 aid asked this year will be granted, and adds, "From present prospects we feel pretty confident that after that we can go alone."

Burlington, Presbytery of Keokuk. 1880-5.—Rev. Peter Swan, pastor. This young congregation continues to show encouraging growth in every way, and promises to be firmly established ere long. Bro. Swan has been devoting himself as earnestly and zealously as ever to the work. Presbytery asks continuance as a special mission for another term of five years, and a grant of $550. The Board is of the opinion that Burlington should be continued as a special mission, but that the term should be limited to three years and the appropriation to $500. This amount of aid would be $100 less than the grant of last year and ought to be sufficient.

Chinese Mission, Los Angeles, Cal. 1884.—By the last Assembly this mission in charge of the Rev. J. C. Nevin, was committed to the care of the Board as a special mission without definite limitation of time. The Board has endeavored and will endeavor to do what it can to sustain the missionary in his work, which is peculiar and utterly unlike that of our ordinary Home Mission stations. Bro. Nevin reports that week day meetings for teaching, with Sabbath School and preaching services on the Lord's day, have been constantly maintained; that there has been some increase in attendance and a marked and encouraging improvement in the disposition of Christian people to become helpers in the Sabbath School, and four have been received by baptism and one by certificate. His work is unvarying and laborious, but he feels that it is not without fruit. This year, as last, $1,400 has been appropriated.

Creston, Presbytery of College Springs. 1883–6—The Rev. L. N. Lafferty has served as stated supply during the whole year and is reappointed. His labors have been blessed. The city is quite a railroad centre, has now a population of about 8,000 and is steadily growing. The prospects are very good for steady, though not rapid increase, and for success in building up a strong church within a reasonable time. $700 has been appropriated for the coming year, being a voluntary reduction of $100.

Davenport, Presbytery of Rock Island. 1884–9—After the death of Dr. S B. Reed some time elapsed before suitable arrangements could be made for supply. Since the first of January, however, the Rev. W. A. Spaulding has been serving as stated supply and will be continued as the missionary. In his special report to the Board Bro. Spaulding gives a statement of the condition and prospects of the work under his charge which is highly encouraging. The people are united. The congregation has "a good report of them that are without." There is a band of active and interested young men, and a young people's meeting, from both of which great good is expected. We quote a sentence from his letter: "I think the great need now is for the Board to stand at our back firmly for a time. I hope, as the congregation hopes, that after this year we can cut down rapidily on our solicited aid and possibly be self-sustaining by the time our "special" term is out. That, at least, is our ambition." The Board granted the amount asked, $600, being the same as last year's appropriation.

Denver, Presbytery of Colorado. 1882-87.—During the first two quarters of the year, Rev. C. B. Hatch, the earnest and devoted stated supply, continued his work. In the third quarter his health gave way to such an extent as to necessitate the cessation of his labors and a removal from the field, at least for a time. Although much better, he has now concluded that he cannot resume charge of the mission, and the Board is trying to secure a suitable man to take his place. Meantime Mr. J. D. Rankin, a licentiate of Westmoreland Presbytery, is in the field as stated supply for the present quarter and seems to find great acceptance with the people. He reports the condition of the Mission as quite encouraging and can see nothing, though of course his opportunities for knowing all the facts were but limited when he wrote, to forbid the expectation of success in our efforts to build up a congregation in Denver. With some features of the situation Bro. Hatch was somewhat discouraged, but it is hoped the difficulties he felt may be overcome. The Board regrets the necessity for his voluntary removal from the Mission. With his well-known zeal and untiring energy he did much, as our first missionary in Denver, to lay a strong foundation for the Church. $1,000 was asked and appropriated for the coming year and power given to certain members of the Board to appoint a missionary. The reduction of $200 in the appropriation asked was voluntary on the part of the congregation.

Emporia, Presbytery of Neosho. 1881-4-6—During the year Rev. W. I. Brooks has continued to serve, as stated supply, with fidelity and laborious devotion to the work. He has had many trials to endure, but has certainly accomplished much during the few years of his ministry at this place for the cause of the Master as represented by our church. The new church building was completed and entered early in the year. It will be paid for in full except the amount received from the Board of Church Extension, as soon as the sums subscribed are all collected. There has been a reasonable growth, and the prospects for the future seem better than at any time in the past. Bro. Brooks does not desire reappointment to the field, and the Board has accordingly tendered the appointment to another whose acceptance is hoped for. $700 has been appropriated for the coming year, being the same amount as last year.

Fort Gratiot, Presbytery of Detroit. 1882-5—Rev. D. H. Goodwillie, the efficient stated supply, has occupied this field from the first and has been reappointed. He reports very encouragingly as to growth, condition and prospects. Quite an addition was made to the church building during the year, for Sabbath School and other purposes, and the expense provided for. If no misfortune overtakes the Mission it will soon be self-sustaining. Aid is asked this year, but no request is made by the congregation for continuance as a special mission.

Greeley, Presbytery of Colorado, 1883-6.—This young and vigorous organization is now a pastoral charge, under the care of the Rev. H. F. Wallace. Its membership has more than doubled during the year, a house of worship has been erected; a thorough organization for work in all departments has been effected, and all signs promise a steady growth and rapid developement of self-supporting power. $600 was asked for the coming year, but the Board, seeing no necessity for an increased appropriation, granted the same amount as last year, $500.

Indianapolis, Presbytery of Indiana. 1880-5. Our efficient missionary, Rev. J. P. Cowan, continues at his post as pastor. He reports that during the year there has been no net increase, but a decided improvement in several ways in the condition of the congregation, affording continued encouragement to hope for final success. The contrast in the condition of things five years ago and now is indeed striking. A parsonage is completed and occupied, but payment for it will tax the resources of the people for some time. They have not much wealth and do not gain rapidly in that respect. One cause of this, recently, has been the business and industrial depression which hinders the growth of all manufacturing places. The Presbytery asks that Indianapolis be continued as a special mission for three years, and that $600 be granted. The Board recommends that the first part of the request be granted, but that the appropriation be not more than that of last year, $550.

Lawrence, Presbytery of Kansas. 1884-9. No special report has been received from this station, as there is no stated laborer in the field; the congregation desiring to hear different men, with a view to settlement. Supplies have been sent, as they could be secured, during the several quarters. It has been learned by the Board that some dissatisfaction is felt because of the "special" relation to the Board, in which the congregation was placed, at the request of the Presbytery last year. It is, therefore, recommended that it be taken from the list of special missions, and its application for aid is referred for consideration and action to the General Committee.

Leavenworth, Presbytery of Kansas. 1884–9.—Under the appointment made a year ago by the Assembly, Rev. J. A. Monteith has been, until very recently, laboring as stated supply. In a special report, written in March, Mr. Monteith, while expressing the highest appreciation of our people in Leavenworth, stated that he regarded the prospects as not at all encouraging, and that he had concluded to accept a call made for him by the congregation of Cedar Rapids. A few weeks later, however, he wrote again saying that a very marked change had occurred. There was an encouraging accession at the communion just held, and many things led him to feel that a new interest had been awakened and that better days and brighter prospects were opening for our cause. It is greatly to be regretted that a change must now be made in the laborer, but doubtless the hand of God is in it for good, and he will guide us in the selection of one to do his work in that place. Our people in Leavenworth are true and faithful. They need and should have, while there is any prospect of success, all the encouragement the Church can give. We think the should be aided to repair and improve their place of worship. The Board granted $600, the same amount as last year, and will as soon as possible send a supply to the field.

Los Angeles, Presbytery of San Francisco. 1883–8.—Early in the year the Rev. J. M. Hervey was sent to this place as stated supply. He has labored with efficiency and acceptance and has been reappointed for the coming year. His report is cheerful and encouraging. There has been reasonable growth and very satisfactory improvement in the working power and spirit of the people. Their great hindrance is the want of a house of worship. They have a good lot, well located, and we hope that during the coming year they will be enabled to build. $800 was appropriated by the Board.

Marshalltown, Presbytery of Cedar Rapids. 1881–6.—Soon after the beginning of the first quarter the Rev. W. B. Cherry was appointed stated supply, and has been in the field ever since. He has been reappointed for the coming year. No special report has been received as to this station, but it is due to the missionary to say that he is not in any way to blame. The regular reports and all other information in our possession indicate that the condition of the mission is fully as good as at our last report. The field is a difficult one, but success may be hoped for as the result of faithful labor. The Board added $25 to the amount granted at the beginning of the year, making the appropriation $500. The same sum, $500, has been granted for the coming year.

Newton, Presbytery of Neosho. 1884–9.—After the meeting of Assembly last year the Board appropriated $500 for this station, but found it impossible to secure a missionary to enter the field until the beginning of 1885, when the Rev. C. L. McCracken began his labors as stated supply. He has been reappointed for the coming year, and it is earnestly hoped that he will remain. It is evident from his report that our cause in Newton has been greatly injured by the want of anything like regular preaching, and by repeated failures to get needed help and keep useful laborers in the field. He regards the prospects as good if provision is now made for permanent and regular services and pastoral work. A church building is much needed. The amount granted for the coming year is $600.

Omaha, Presbytery of Omaha. 1880–5.—Rev. E. B. Graham, pastor. The congregation has increased in numbers, and is in good condition spiritually. Two new mission schools have been organized and the members show a deep interest in the work. But for the active mission work undertaken the congregation would probably be self-sustaining. A few years more of aid will, with the Divine blessing, bring it to that point. There is no request for continuance as a special mission. The Board is gratified in being permitted to return this station to the General Committee in so promising a condition.

Oshkosh, Presbytery of Wisconsin. 1880–5.—The term of this station, as a special mission, expires at this time. When it was committed to the care of the Board in 1880, we were instructed to investigate its condition and prospects before undertaking to prosecute the work further. This was carefully done, and our judgment at the time was, that while the prospects of success were not encouraging, aid should not be withdrawn until we had given the field another trial, as full and fair as possible. During the whole five years but one change has been made in the missionary. The brother who has served as stated supply for the last three years, Rev. J. F. Black, has done his work to the entire satisfaction of the Board. He declines to remain longer. The Board has great difficulty in arriving at any conclusion as to what should be done in the case of Oshkosh. We have some most excellent and devoted people there. But there is, apparently, no ground on which to base a hope that we can ever establish a self-sustaining church. The Presbytery asks that it be continued as a special mission. We are fully satisfied that if our work there is to be continued at all, this should be done. But as there are serious doubts as to the advisability of further expenditure in Oshkosh, the whole matter is submitted, without any recommendation, to the General Committee.

Portland, Presbytery of Oregon. 1882–7.—Rev. W. R. Stevenson, by whom this mission was organized, and who has labored in it so efficiently ever since, has been reappointed as stated supply. The past year has been one of prosperity and solid advancement. A new and beautiful church has been erected: a parsonage has been built. The congregation, though not greatly increased in numbers, is evidently in fine working condition. The Sabbath School is well organized and attended. Prayer meetings are made remarkable by having an average attendance larger than the membership. Missionary and people are in excellent spirits, and looking forward hopefully. The outlook for our cause in this important place is indeed bright. The young church seems to have been awarded at once a high place in the regard of the community and has an open door set before it. May no man be able to shut it. There are, indeed, some discouragements, chief among which is the severe, and, in that region, unprecedented depression of all business interests. This prevents the large immigration that was so confidently expected, and may make the growth of our mission slow. But on the whole we have every reason to thank God for the success already vouchsafed, and to hope for his blessing still to attend the work. $1,100, a voluntary reduction of $100, was asked for the coming year and granted by the Board.

St. Louis, Grand Avenue, Presbytery of Southern Illinois. 1883–6.—Rev. T. C. McKelvy has continued during the year as stated supply. He reports the condition and prospects of the Mission quite as good as at any previous time. The statistics show a healthful growth. The Presbytery asked $1,000 for the coming year, but the Board has not seen the way clear, at present, to repeat so large an appropriation, and has granted $800. Because of a lack of information as to the wishes of the Presbytery and of the missionary in the matter, the appointment of the missionary was referred, with power to act, to the members of the Board who may be at the meeting of the General Committee.

Topeka, Presbytery of Kansas. 1880–5.—The Rev. M. F. McKirahan continues his good work as stated supply, and was reappointed for the coming year with hearty good will. He has himself made the mission at Topeka and its work of improvement during the year, so familiar to the Church that we need scarcely enter into details of the progress made. The meeting of the General Assembly, also, among this people, renders any statement of their condition quite needless. It is enough to say that within a few years, by the blessing of the Lord upon the untiring efforts of his servant, our mission here has been changed from a dispirited handful of people into a live, active, growing congregation, with good prospects of steady increase and of becoming self-supporting at no distant day. Presbytery asks that Topeka be continued as a special mission for three years, and that $600, a reduction of $100, be granted. The Board endorses this request in all its parts.

V. OTHER SPECIAL WORK.—In addition to the above stations regularly committed to our charge as special missions, other important work has claimed and received the special attention of the Board.

Warm Springs Indian Mission, Oregon.—In our last report, for what seemed good reasons, we recommended that the charge of the Indians on the Warm Springs Reservation, which we hold, under the regulation of the Government at Washington, be resigned or transferred to some other branch of the Church. The Assembly gave us the authority asked, but directed that an effort be first made to find a suitable missionary, and if successful in this, that a special appeal be made to the Church for the necessary funds. The man was found. Rev. R. W. McBride, a pastor in Monmouth Presbytery, accepted an appointment to the mission, and on the 16th of last November preached his first sermon to the Indians. Our appeal to the Church was responded to by contributions sufficient to sustain the work thus far. Mr. McBride has been steadily at work since he entered the field. His report, the main parts of which will be published in the church papers, during the week of the General Committee's meeting, is full and exceedingly interesting. This important work, for which as a Church we have been so long responsible, but which, hitherto, we have not been able to prosecute with efficiency, seems at last to be placed upon a basis that warrants the hope of usefulness and success. It will require liberal expenditure for its proper support. In our judgment the missionary does not claim too much when he states that $1,500 should be given for the coming year, though the Presbytery has ventured to ask but $1,250. The Board has made no definite appropriation, but asks authority to make another special appeal to the Church on behalf of the mission. There should, by all means, be provision made in some way to erect a suitable house for the missionary, and we hope that action looking to that end will be taken by the General Committee and the Assembly.

Mission Work in Eastern Washington Territory, Presbytery of Oregon.—Rev. Jos. Alter, pastor of Nortonville and Valley Falls, Kansas Presbytery, accepted an appointment to this work. He arrived at Waitsburg, W. T., on the 25th of October last, expecting to explore at least part of the field before the setting in of winter, but was stricken down at once with fever, and confined to bed for seven weeks, so that he could not begin work until about the first of January. During the third quarter he visited many points, finding many members of our church, but usually scattered, one family in a place. He thinks that if we had a few congregations in that region our people would gather about them as centers, and thus be kept in the church and made useful. At a few, such as Waitsburg, and near Colfax, several families are gathered. Since the missionary wrote his report the Presbytery has directed him to organize at or near these places. The work done as yet is preliminary. Mr. Alter thinks that not less than two men, and, if possible, three, should labor in this great and growing field during the next year.

Missions in Dakota.—The Rev. W. T. Moffett has continued at work during the year, but has done no exploring since July last. From his letter it appears that many points in this great Territory, now filling up so rapidly with immigrants, invite and give promise of richly repaying our efforts. But the Board, in view of the lack of funds, and because of our inability to secure suitable men for the field, felt constrained to order the cessation of exploring work and of organization, and directed Mr. Moffett to confine his labors to the supply of Bonilla and its connections. It is not possible, in this report, to present all the facts about this field, or to discuss the question of what the Church ought to do with reference to it. That the field is wide and promising is indisputable. That we ought, if we had the men and the means necessary, to enter it actively can hardly be doubted But whether we can efficiently prosecute the work we have already upon our hands, and at the same time begin and successfully carry forward a number of new enterprises in that distant field, is a question which we submit for the earnest and prayerful consideration of the Assembly, trusting that the Head of the Church will guide to a wise decision.

VI. THE SLIDING SCALE.—As time goes on it becomes more evident that the regulations adopted with a view to keeping constantly before the minds of the people in our mission stations, that the aid extended by the Church ought to be, and must be but temporary, are producing good effects. Careful inquiry and faithful dealing on the part of presbyteries, and very great labor for the Board are made necessary by a wise and cautious, yet firm and impartial application of the principles underlying these rules; but all the trouble involved will, it is believed, be amply repaid in the end. As a number of changes have been made in the rules since their first adoption, and important decisions have been made as to the meaning of parts of them, it might be well to direct the Board to have them re-written in such manner as to embody these changes and decisions, and republished in their next annual report.

Requests have been received and acted upon by the Board from 26 presbyteries for the exemption of 46 stations for the coming year, from the operation of these rules. Nearly two days were spent in patient and careful consideration of the facts presented. Twenty-one of these cases, not quite one-half, are recommended for exemption. In the others, except a very few submitted without any expression of opinion, the Board could not see that the reasons given were such as to warrant a departure from the rules. Specific information in each case will be laid before the General Committee during its meeting.

VII. FINANCIAL CONDITION.—Our expenditures during the year ending with the 30th of April, amounted to $44,019.84. The receipts available to meet the necessities of the work have been during the same period $43,324.04, viz: From Presbyteries $30,532.53; legacies, $5,049,27; ladies' societies, $1,-708.15; Sabbath Schools, $763.95; miscellaneous sources, $5,270.24. We have also received from the Quarter Centennial Commission during the year $2,750. This, however, cannot be included in our receipts, as it has been set apart for a special purpose by the Assembly. It will be seen from the above statement that our income was $695.90 less than our expenditures. This amount, therefore, will be added to our debt, making it $12,902.04. In view of the severe financial depression which has prevailed all over the country, it is certainly gratifying that our receipts came so near meeting our expenditures, and that we have been compelled to add so little to our burdensome debt. Inasmuch as the appropriations by the last Assembly, although much below the demands of the work, were considerably larger than ever before, and the financial condition of the country gave no indications of improvement, we were led to anticipate a much larger deficiency. Last year the deficiency was no less than $8,145; in 1883 it was $1,655, and in 1882 it was $2,410.98. The Church, during the past year, has contributed to the cause of Home Missions, $10.362.90, more than was raised for this purpose during the previous year, and several thousand dollars more than any preceding year, with one exception, and that was the year 1880 when we received the munificent bequest of Archibald Stewart. There are one or two other facts worthy of notice. The contributions from Sabbath Schools are unusually large, while the Ladies' societies contributed more than twice as much as during any previous year. Certainly we have some ground to believe that the Church is realizing to a greater extent than it has ever done the importance and necessity of the great work of Home evangelization. May the interest widen and deepen until the liberality of our people will keep pace with the rapid expansion of the work.

Summary.—A condensed statement of the work and its results, also of the receipts and expenditures of the past year, will be found in the Statistical Tables, and the Report of the Treasurer herewith presented:

VIII. THE COMING YEAR.—Fifty-five Presbyteries have sent in their annual reports to the Board. The following is a summary of the information thus received: The names of 96 ministers and licentiates are reported for appointment, representing the full time of 93 men. The Presbyteries request the full time of 87 men for the supply of mission stations or appointment to vacant congregations. As usual the names of several brethren are reported who cannot be expected to fill appointments at a distance from their places of residence. The number therefore available for general appointment will not in all probability be sufficient to furnish the amount of service called for by the Presbyteries. This deficiency, however, can be made up from the ranks of those ministers and licentiates able and suitable for the work whose names have not been submitted to the General Committee.

The aid desired by the Presbyteries for stations under their care amounts to $56,017. As several Presbyteries have not yet reported, this amount will no doubt be increased a few thousand dollars. The requests for aid and for ministerial service have been referred to the General Committee, whose report is herewith presented.

The term of service of the following members of the Board will expire with the close of the present year, viz: Rev. W. J. Reid, D. D., Rev. W. S. Owens, and Mr. R. A. Cunningham.

WILLIAM J. REID, President.

WM. S. OWENS, Recording Sec.

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 15th, 1885.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

As directed by the Twenty-sixth General Assembly, the General Committee of Home Missions met in Garnett, Kansas, Wednesday, May 20, 1885, and continued in session until Wednesday, May 27.

The attendance was quite full, fifty-six Presbyteries and the Board being represented by delegates. The Rev. W. H. Haney, of the Presbytery of Argyle, was elected Chairman, and the Rev. J. C. Scouller, of the Presbytery of Wheeling, Recording Secretary.

In the report of the Board, herewith presented, the amount asked by the Presbyteries for the prosecution of the work during the coming year, is stated to be $56,017. Applications received after the printing of the report increased this to the extent of $710, making a total of $56,727, exclusive of the sum to be placed at the disposal of the Board for expenses and emergencies.

Appropriations were made amounting in the aggregate to $54,375. The separate items making up this sum are as follows: 1. Appropriations by the General Committee for stations heretofore aided, $32,167; 2. For new stations, $2,950; 3. For Special Missions to be placed in charge of the Board, $2.300; 4. Grants by the Board to Special Missions, $9,950; 5. Assigned to the Board to meet the wants of stations referred under the sliding scale, $1,108; 6. For cases referred to the Board, $950; 7. For expenses and emergencies, $3,000.

The expenditures of last year very considerably exceeded those of any previous year in the history of our Church; yet it will be seen that more is now called for. Though large beyond precedent the appropriations made are not greater than the necessity of the cause demanded. Indeed, it was only by postponing or but partially meeting the claims of new fields, that the grants could be kept within the limits above stated. Neither are these increased demands beyond the ability of the Church to meet. God, in his providence, seems to be, on the one hand, pressing upon us a vigorous support and a rapid enlargement of our home work; and on the other hand arousing in our people a deeper interest in it, and a greater degree of liberality toward it than ever before. At no time has the general condition of the work been better. There is, upon the whole, a marked and steady improvement in the efficiency of the laborers. New and highly promising fields in hitherto unoccupied Territories, as well as in the older States, in great numbers invite our efforts. There has been a great and, in the circumstances, remarkable and unexpected increase in the contributions of our people to this cause. All these things indicate that it is our duty and our great privilege to go forward actively and hopefully. It is true that the expenditures of the last four years have exceeded, by nearly $13,000, the contributions of the Church for Home Missions, and that this deficiency is a debt which ought to be repaid. It has been met by repeated drafts upon the reserve fund, which has proved itself an invaluable auxiliary to our home work, and has become indispensable, if we are to maintain prompt and regular payment to our self-denying missionaries. Yet if efficient measures are taken to evoke and develop the liberality of the Church, money enough will be given not only to meet the amount of the expenditures, but to repay every dollar of a fund, the impairment or loss of which would be so serious a calamity.

The names of 105 ministers and probationers, representing the full time of 98 men were submitted by the Presbyteries for appointments. Of these, 65 received appointments for the whole year, 8 for one quarter, 13 for two, and 5 for three. Few, if any, efficient laborers were left unemployed. The improvement in this direction within a few years has been noteworthy and gratifying.

III.—SPECIAL ACTION.

In reference to certain stations which have been under the special care of the Board, the following action was taken:

I. We recommend that Bad Axe, in the Presbytery of Detroit, which has been for three years under the care of the Board as a special mission, be not replaced in the list of such missions. It is the judgment of the General Committee, that nothing in the location or circumstances of the mission requires any departure from the common methods of management. We recommend also that the appropriation to this place for the coming year be $400, p. s.

II. The Board having reported that, owing to peculiar circumstances, it may not be expedient to continue Lawrence, Kan., under its care as a special mission, it is recommended that this congregation be removed from the special list, and that its appropriation for the coming year be $400 on condition of settlement, or $200 for supply.

III. The mission at Oshkosh, Presbytery of Wisconsin, has been long a beneficiary upon the funds of the Church, and has this year closed a term of five y: a under the special care of the Board. The General Committee, as well as the Board, has difficulty in deciding what ought to be done. After as full consideration as could be given, it was recommended that Oshkosh be continued as a special mission, for three years, and that $600 be granted for the next year on condition that the congregation raise $400, and that Rev. J. W. McNary be sent to the field.

IV. WHEREAS, Indianapolis, in the Presbytery of Indiana; Topeka, in the Presbytery of Kansas, and Burlington, in the Presbytery of Keokuk, have been under the care of the Board as special missions for five years, and Presbyteries respectively ask their continuance in that relation; it is recommended that the following action be taken:

That Indianapolis be continued as a special mission for three years, with a grant of $550 for the first year; Topeka, for three years, with $600; Burlington, for three years, with $550.

V. With gratitude to the Master whom we serve and love, for the opening of the hearts of our people to respond to the appeal of the Board on behalf of the Warm Springs Indian Mission, and for the raising up of a missionary for that isolated and difficult but very important and interesting field, we recommend:

1. That the Board be given the authority to make any special appeal to the Church on behalf of this mission which in their judgment may be desirable.
2. That $1,400 be granted for the support of the work during the year.
3. That the General Assembly be requested to empower the Board of Church Extension to take action in the matter of erecting a suitable house for the missionary, and to submit the case to that Board with a favorable recommendation.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

The closing year has been one in which our song has been of mercy constantly. The work has been more than the workers could do, yet none of them has been laid aside from service through sickness, nor have their hands grown weary through excessive toil, but actively in the service from the beginning to the end of the year have they gone on trusting him for his promise who said, "Lo I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."

THE WORK.

KNOXVILLE.—No interruptions other than ordinary have happened at this station. Religious services, consisting of Sabbath School at 9 A. M., followed by the preaching of the gospel, have been conducted in the chapel of the College throughout the year with the exception of three Sabbaths in August while the rooms and halls were undergoing repairs.

Two mission schools, one near the College, and the other two miles distant, have been continued more than two years. The attendance in the college chapel has ranged from 90 to 234, with an average of 162. The average attendance in the afternoon at the mission schools is about 25 and 65. The teaching in the morning is done by the regular teachers in the College. In the afternoon, at the mission schools, it is mainly done by the students.

Prayer Meetings.—The regular Wednesday evening prayer meeting is attended by all on the college grounds, and by others; the room, capable of seating comfortably one hundred, being usually crowded. Nearly all the professing Christians in the College meet voluntarily at 6:30 o'clock on Sabbath evening in six or eight sections to pray for God's blessing especially upon the general prayer meeting or Bible reading that follows at 7:15. At these smaller meetings of males and females separately, the more timid are called out in prayer, and are prepared to exercise their gifts in public. The general meeting, which follows at 7:15, is usually led by one of the students, and, as far as possible, the responsibility of this meeting is allowed to rest on them.

Bible Readings are held in private houses, mainly by students who are members of the different churches. Those who willingly offer themselves are organized as a workers' class. These workers meet on Sabbath morning under the direction of Prof. Parker, and study, discuss and pray over a Bible reading on some topic, and report on the work of the previous week. They are divided into six sections. Each section is assigned a district. Families are visited, invitations to hold prayer meetings or Bible readings are received, arrangements are made to suit the convenience of a few families, and the members of the section meet at the appointed time and spend half an hour or three-quarters in religious exercises, generally using the Bible reading that had been discussed in the morning. The object is to train the lay element of the Church to usefulness and effort in the salvation of souls. From 20 to 25 have thus labored throughout the school year. Their services have been generally welcomed, and while they have been mutually helpful to one another, their labors for others have not been in vain. A record has been kept for about seven months, and the following figures give some idea of the work done: Number of Bible readings, 111; number present at these meetings, 523; number of visits, 302; number of requests for prayer, 23; number of conversions reported, 8.

The Statistics of the congregation are: Colored members, 30; white, 7; increase by profession, 5; adult baptisms, 3; contributions to the Boards, $65; total, $212.

The College.—The laborers here are: President, J. S. McCulloch; Lady Principal, Miss Eliza B. Wallace; Teachers, Prof. James Parker, Prof. M. J. Smalley, Mrs. A. H. Wait, Miss M. A. McClelland, Miss M. A. Aikins, Miss M. M. McBride. Mr. L. W. Douthit has charge of the primary school. Mrs. Mary C. McCulloch superintends the sewing. Mrs. M. J. Smalley has taught music both vocal and instrumental. Mrs. Mary J. Johnston has directed the work of the kitchen and dining room, and Miss Maggie McDill has been Matron of the Little Girls' Home. Miss Jennie McCahon has assisted in the Sabbath School work, though employed elsewhere during the week.

The enrollment for the year is 285. This is the largest number enrolled in any one year, and is partly owing to the fact that an arrangement was made with the directors of the public school by which all the children of the district have the advantages of a graded school for nine months instead of an ungraded school for four months.

Colored Teachers.—Nearly one hundred of the present and former students of the College have taught during the past year. The average time taught is over four months. The average number enrolled in each school is over 50. The average attendance at each school is nearly 40. The average wages reported are $30.

Training School.—The Training School, organized two years ago, is a success, and meets a want much felt. Students are selected from the advanced classes, and put in charge of the Training School. Each student, thus put in charge of a class, drills this class every day in one study. Another student takes the same class in another study, and so on. The rooms are arranged so that the teaching and order are under the eye of the principal, Mrs. Agnes H. Wait. Her long experience as a teacher, and her interest in the work, render her peculiarly well qualified to criticize and advise young teachers. No half-way work can escape notice, or be tolerated. Students who enjoy such training for two or three years, and attend the regular meetings for instruction in Theory and Practice, cannot fail to meet, in a good measure, the pressing demand for better work in public colored schools.

Sewing.—A few of the advanced students who can sew well and all who teach in the Training School are excused from sewing. With these exceptions, all the girls from the Third Reader and upward sew during the time of one recitation (40 minutes). They come into the sewing room in classes of from ten to twenty, and, with scarcely any exception, enjoy the hour as a relaxation. They are not allowed to spend this time in study, but may chat and sing while they sew. The sewing is continued a little over seven months, four days in the week. The work is all done by hand. The number enrolled within the year is 101. Garments and other articles cut and sewed, 450. The person who makes a garment that will pass inspection is allowed to buy it at about half the cost of the material. The garments not bought by those who make them are put in with the second-hand clothing, and sold at a low price to needy students and Sabbath scholars. The quilts sheets, &c., are turned over to the boarding department. In this work, 900 yards of material have been used. Part of this material was taken from what was sent in boxes by friends. Over 700 yards were purchased in Knoxville.

Clothing sent.—Thirty-two boxes, barrels, &c., have been received from Ladies' Missionary Societies, Sabbath schools and individuals. They contained clothing, bedding, and 565 yards of new material and remnants of various kinds. What was not used in the sewing room was sold at a reduced price. All the clothing, with rare exceptions, is sold at a nominal price (not given away). The money thus obtained is used in furnishing material for the sewing room, and giving aid in very needy cases.

Little Girls' Home.—This peculiar feature of our work is no longer regarded as experiment. It has been tried three years, and the results seem to justify and demand continuance and enlargement. Not only is a home provided for little girls, but parents are willing and anxious to send their children a long distance, that they may enjoy its advantages. The religious influence, the moral tone, the orderly and industrious habits of the Home, and the thorough school-training are more and more appreciated by thoughtful parents who wish to do the very best for their daughters. If the people of our church could see these little ones, from six to thirteen years of age, gathered around Miss McDill as she settles their troubles, helps them in their lessons, and in writing letters to friends, they could only rejoice in their happy lot, and in the promise of the future. In ten or twelve years, many of these girls will be teaching other little ones either in schools or in their own homes. Who can doubt the elevating effect? The Psalms sung from memory, the touching story read from book or newspaper, the timely advice, the order at meals, the Bible study, and the private and family devotions will all be repeated, and the influence of the Home will be felt far and wide. Is there not some who will gladly maintain one or more of these little girls, as the most hopeful means of extending and establishing the kingdom of Christ? The income from this Home has been $663, and the expenditures $362.

Aid to Students.—A few moments' reflection will convince any one that the average colored youth must have assistance to go through any thorough, academic course of study, or he must suffer long interruptions to make money enough to meet expenses. Very few families have means to keep their children long in a boarding-school, and fewer still are inclined to make great sacrifices for this purpose. Many of the most promising young men and women have pushed forward from year to year with scarcely a word of encouragement from home, and even against the remonstrance of nearest relations. Is it any wonder that many give up when only half through? The States appreciating this need are doing more, the National Government is planning to do more. The work of elevating the negro has only begun. Millions must be expended. The Church must lead. The higher institutions (blessed be God) are already under her control. Shall they not be crowded with consecrated youth who shall be qualified to teach the common schools, and fill the pulpits, and lead their people? Can we excuse ourselves, if we allow the best professors and teachers in our colleges to waste their time on small classes, when, by judicious and timely aid, the number in these classes could be doubled at once? The demand for educated, Christian teachers and leaders was never so great as now. The oldest workers in the South are only beginning to realize how much is to be done. The letters that come back from our students, teaching in destitute portions of the great cotton belt, reveal the disappointment of the writers at the actual state of things among their own people, and show how sorely their faith is tried, as they attempt missionary work in Sabbath schools and families. Nearly every student, that goes out from our college to teach, does missionary work in some form, and hundreds more are needed. Shall they not have the means to qualify their heads and their hearts for the great work?

Boarding Department.—The total attendance during the year has been 120—the number remaining at present is 97. There has been an excellent class of students in attendance this year. They seem to improve every year. Of the number enrolled, sixty-six were not church members; but during the year, almost all were under conviction, and more than half have professed to have found peace in believing. Some united with the Church; others have not done so, but we believe are trying in their feeble way to live Christian lives.

We spent during the last summer vacation, for repairs, the purchase of necessary articles, &c., $397.47.

The Income of this Department—estimating the amount for May—has been $4,570.19, the expenditure has been $3,804.17, leaving a balance in favor of the treasury of $766.02. The hall has been crowded to overflowing during the year, and at times, a building outside intended for self-boarders, and one of the class rooms in the College were filled. This was inconvenient, but we could not dismiss applicants as long as room could be found. Our prayer is that God may open the eyes of his children to see the great work he has for them to do among this people, and to duly appreciate the favor shown his servants in their efforts to do his will.

PRAIRIE BLUFF, ALA.– About fifty miles below Selma, on the Alabama river, Miss Henrietta M. Mason, a graduate of the class of '84, has conducted a school for eight months. The public funds were used four months, but by arrangements with the proper authorities, the Board secured the continuance of the school and the missionary work she was doing with so much satisfaction. She has assisted in a Baptist Sabbath school, visited families, and held many Bible readings. Her services seem to be very acceptable, and both the people and school officers insist on her return next year. A very few words from her last monthly report must suffice to give some idea of her work outside of regular school hours. "Our Sabbath school is increasing in numbers and interest. My Old Ladies' class numbers eleven now. I am teaching them the Ten Commandments, in connection with their regular lessons. I have no trouble getting places to hold Bible readings. Have more invitations than I can accept. I held three readings this month. There were present at the first, 17; second, 28; third, 25." Her descriptions of school-houses, housekeeping, church services, and home influence have been intensely interesting, and excite our regret that we have so few prepared to undertake and prosecute the self-denying work in which she is engaged.

CHASE CITY.—The workers at this station are Rev. J. H. Veazey and Misses Ella N. Reed, Elvia Anderson and Anna Kellar.

This mission, though not the largest, is one of the best organized and most efficient under our care. For several years, our work was hindered by unaccountable, and bitter opposition. This appeared to come not so much from the fact of our presence there, as from the fear of the introduction of some new phase of religious belief, and the establishment of a Church. The uneducated ministers led in the opposition, and many of the people, through their influence, turned against our work, and in many ways manifested a dislike to the missionaries. This last year has not developed the slightest trace of such opposition, but on the other hand, both the work and the workers are held in high esteem by all. This fact will appear when we report that the parents, whose children are in the school, have cut and delivered free of charge all the wood used in the school building this last winter, and in other ways have manifested an interest in the work, and an appreciation of its benefits. The number enrolled in the Sabbath schools, for the whole year, is 326. Many of these belong to the Baptist Church, and can attend with us only a part of the time. The preaching of the word follows immediately after the service of the Sabbath school, hence all who attend the school have the advantage of the regular preaching service additional to the Sabbath school lesson.

Two young men were received into the membership of the mission congregation during the year. The roll now bears thirty-two names. These are reported as faithful and consistent, and are being instructed so as to develop in them all the graces of the Spirit. They contributed last year to religious purposes, $25. This sum seems small, yet it is really liberal for these poor people, many of whom have not always a sufficiency of the plainest kind of food. The weekly prayer meeting has been well attended, and is apparently highly appreciated. The sewing school, conducted by the female missionaries, has afforded its advantages to all the girls of the school and to many of the mothers. The school work has been conducted during the year with a good degree of success. The teachers have labored faithfully and efficiently, and the progress of the pupils has been good. The total enrollment was 240. Twenty-four former pupils have been engaged in teaching during the past year, and a class of seven has been qualified for entering this profession next autumn, which will give this school a representation of thirty-one among the teachers of Virginia and North Carolina.

A reading room and library have been established here by the diligence of the Superintendent, which have been kept open during the whole year. This is a most valuable acquisition, and has already done much in the way of cultivating a taste for good literature, and has assisted greatly in supplementing the knowledge obtained from text books.

BLUESTONE.—Rev. J. A. Ramsey continues in this field; also, the former assistants, Misses Sadie Peet and Maria McClintock. Mrs. J. A. Ramsey was employed part of the year.

The little congregation organized here, just as we were closing the previous year, has maintained its existence, and now numbers 16 members. The opposition, with which the organization met, was intensely bitter, and for a time threatened to defeat the effort entirely, but the Master enabled the little band to stand firm, and by careful and prudent dealing, the flame was soon extinguished. Since the last New Year, but little has been heard on the subject, and the little flock is now undisturbed in its humble earthly fold.

The gospel is preached almost every Sabbath at the close of Sabbath School, and all usually remain for the service. The attendance varies according to the condition of the weather, or the number and kind of attractions in the vicinity, such as public baptisms or funerals. The whole number entered in Sabbath School for the year is 337.

The weekly prayer meeting has been conducted regularly and is well attended. The missionaries are diligent in visiting from house to house, teaching and encouraging the people in the right way.

The day school has an enrollment for the year of 225, and the work done in the class has been earnest and efficient.

NORFOLK, VA.—The new building here was occupied at the beginning of the school year, September 1st, and although large and commodious, all its room has been demanded. The enrollment has been 986 in the day school and 64 in the night school—which was kept open only a short time—whose names did not appear on the day school rolls, making a total of 1,050, who have received instruction during some part of the year.

The school is divided into four departments, primary, intermediate, grammar and high school. The primary includes all below the third reader, and comprises about two-thirds of the school. This department is in charge of Misses Agnes Stevenson, Ella Shaw, Ella Comin and Mrs. Kate Clark. These are taught on the half day plan, a part coming in the forenoon, and the rest coming in the afternoon. The intermediate is taught by Miss Mary Coon, the grammar department is taught by Miss Helen McLean, and the high school is taught by Prof. W. W. Grove. All in these three departments are full day pupils, and pay a small tuition fee of fifty cents per month. All branches, from the first reader to algebra and book-keeping, are taught in the school. Two literary societies have been organized and are in successful operation.

Religious Training.—Moral and religious culture is regarded as of paramount importance here, as in all other missions; hence, no opportunity is allowed to pass without inculcating moral principle and impressing Bible truth on the mind and heart. In addition to devotional exercises in the chapel every morning, each teacher has prayer, with reading of the Scripture, with the pupils in the class room, at some suitable time during the day.

Sabbath Morning Meeting.—A catechetical meeting is held in the chapel every Sabbath morning at 9 o'clock, and though the attendance is not large, the meetings are often deeply interesting and cannot fail to do good. These meetings are more especially in charge of Prof. Grove.

Sabbath School.—The Sabbath School meets every Sabbath at 3 P. M. The attendance has varied from 125 to 398. The same routine is observed here that obtains in the day school. Each teacher goes to her class room, followed by her class, numbering from 20 to 50 each. On assembling in the chapel at the close of the recitation hour, Rev. M. Clarke, minister in charge, gives a gospel lecture on some topic usually suggested by the lesson of the day. There have been at least 1,000 different names placed on the Sabbath School roll during the year.

Wednesday Prayer Meeting.—Every Wednesday at the close of noon recess, a prayer meeting is held in the chapel, for three-quarters of an hour. On the first three Wednesdays of the month, the afternoon primaries meet with the all-day pupils in their meeting; and on the fourth, or last Wednesday, the whole school meets, numbering sometimes nearly 700.

On these occasions the chapel is crowded, every seat being occupied, many standing in the aisles and sitting around the edge of the platform. Rev. Clarke, in speaking of their exercises, says, "These seasons of prayer are deeply interesting. Peculiar emotions are awakened, as we look over the large audience of bright-eyed children looking earnestly in our face, and think of the strange contrast between the past and the present. Only a quarter of a century ago, the fathers and mothers of these same children were bought and sold like cattle at the auction block! Now the shackles are stricken from both body and mind, and Christians are spending their time and money freely to elevate and enlighten the race." "What hath God wrought?"

The teachers at this station have been subjected to much inconvenience, and no little hardship during the last year, because of the impossibility of securing a suitable place of lodging and healthful boarding. The Board feels constrained to ask the special attention of the Assembly to this matter.

SUMMARY.

In most cases the teacher uses the same lessons he has studied in the school in which he received his education. Bible Songs are used whenever they can be obtained.

By this summary, all can see the work at a glance. About 8,000 pupils in schools of different grades, all more or less directly under the influence and direction of ous missionaries, and at least as many in the Sabbath Schools. Who can estimate thr good that may result to the thousands brought within the reach of these religioue influences?

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension respectfully reports to the General Assembly that amid many perplexities, and also with many tokens of God's favor, the work committed to its care has been prosecuted with all possible diligence and care, and that the good results following call for gratitude to God, and greater confidence in his [illegible] gation it was considered to be desirable to erect a parsonage at the same time with the church and on the same lot. This has been done at a cost of $2 976 56. The cost of the whole property, including some legal expenses, was $14,700. Of this the Board has paid $7,540, and will make a loan of $2,700 for the parsonage. Of the amount paid, $7,500 is charged to the Quarter-Centennial fund; $1,000 being as a loan. The mission has shown remarkable liberality and zeal, and has been well sustained by the community. A third memorial church will be erected during the coming season.

In the case of the contested will of the late John Thompson an appeal was taken, and a final judgment has not yet been reached.

The last General Assembly authorized "the Trustees of the General Assembly to release the West Twenty-fifth Street Church, New York, from the declaration of trust executed by the congregation, on condition the congregation would repay to the Boards all the money it has received, with interest." At that $275 of the last appropriation of the Board to pay the interest on the congregation's debt was not yet paid. The Board, in view of the above action, assumed that it was not needed, and sent a statement of the payments it had made, including $419.59 paid in 1867-8. The congregation refused to recognize this sum as included in the action of the General Assembly, and also asked the payment of the balance of the appropriation. The Board proposed to leave the disputed point to the judgment of the present General Assembly, and to either accept the repayment of the money recently given, or to pay the balance of the last appropriation, if the congregation would give the usual mortgage for donations; and also that, in case of the sale of the property, the Board would release its mortgage for one of like amount on the new property. This proposition has not been accepted. It is understood that the declaration of trust was not executed according to law, and for the late payments the Board holds only a bond for $550, and an interest in an insurance policy. The whole case is referred to the General Assembly for instructions.

RECEIPTS AND PAYMENTS.

During a considerable part of the year much embarrassment was experienced in consequence of the smallness of the receipts. To meet the emergency the Board made a Temporary loan, and appealed by circular to the churches for relief. The response was liberal and met the immediate necessity; but the contributions are still very far below the appropriation by the General Assembly.

The receipts from all sources have been—

From Congregations,	$10,244 42
" Missionary Societies,	405 80
" Sabbath Schools,	788 07
" Individuals,	521 20
Total direct contributions,		$11,959 49
From Quarter-Centennial Fund,		7,400 00
" Legacies,		1,419 17
" Loans repaid,		953 55
" Sales of property,		12,399 90
" Rents,		1,343 48
" Interest,		2,629 97
" Investments matured,		1,037 48
Total,		$39,142 94
Balance, May 1, 1884,		7,068 29
Total,		$46,211 23
The payments have been—
To Congregations,	$24,497 56
" Annuity,	125 00
" Investments,	12,520 00
" Salaries and expenses,	1,087 61
Total,		$38,230 17
Balance, May 1, 1885,		7,981 03

The appropriations not paid amount to $16,025 00.

In regard to the investments it should be remembered that they do not arise from an accumulation of funds not needed, but from bequests, the Quarter-Centennial Fund, and contributions for permanent funds, the proceeds only to be used.

It will be noted that the contributions of the Congregations, Societies, and Sabbath Schools have amounted only to $11,959.49, or a little below 40 per cent. of the appropriation. For the past five years the direct contributions have averaged a a little less than 43 per cent. of the appropriations. The attention of the Assembly is called to this, that appropriate measures may be taken to raise the whole amount.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The following appropriations have been made:

Congregation.	Presbytery.	Donation.	Loan.
Alpena,	Detroit,	$ 900 00
Apollo,	Conemaugh,	1,000 00

Fair Grove,	Detroit,	600 00
Fremont,	Detroit,	400 00
Greenwich,	Argyle,		200 00

North Cedar (release,)	Kansas,	80 00
Octoraro,	Philadelphia,	650 00
Orchard,	Omaha,	500 00
Oskaloosa Parsonage,	Des Moines,		1,200 00
Philadelphia Tenth,	Philadelphia,	3,000 00

Pretty Prairie,	Arkansas Valley,	400 00
Sciota,	Chillicothe,	200 00
Total,		$20,000 00	$7,050 00

The appropriation to Kittanning was necessary in order to prevent the foreclosure of a mortgage, the pastor and a large part of the congregation having withdrawn from our communion.

THE QUARTER-CENTENNIAL FUND.

The money received from the Quarter-Centennial Commission is held for special work which otherwise would draw too heavily on the ordinary resources of the Board. For the memorial churches at Denver and Portland, $16,500 have been paid in donations; $5,000 have been loaned to congregations; and the balance, $18,3[illegible], is secured by first mortgages on property regarded as ample security.

PARSONAGES.

The Thomas Hanna Fund has been used to some extent for the erection of parsonages, with good results thus far. The help is given as a loan at a low rate of interest, to be repaid in installments extending from ten to twelve years. Its benefit is chiefly where rents are very high.

SECURITIES.

The following securities have been received during the year:

Mortgages for Donations.—Sharon, Pa., $1,300; Paterson, N. J., $3,900; Topeka, Kan., $1,450; Second Cedar Rapids, Iowa, $150; Chikaskia, Kan., $485; Emporia, Kan., $500; Bayard, Iowa, $635; Boyden, Iowa, $725; Fair Grove, Mich., $600; Greeley, Col., $3,100; Barclay, Iowa, $500; Alpena, Mich., $900; Pretty Prairie, Kan., $400; Pine Grove, Pa., $670.

Personal Notes for Loan.—Blue Mound, Kan., $200.

Deeds.—Second San Francisco, Cal.; Denver, Col.; Welda, Kan.; Portland, Oregon; Orchard, Neb.; Plainview, Neb.; Scottdale, Pa., Second Cleveland, O.; Fairview, Kan.; Miltonvale, Kan.; Liberty, Neb.; Mitchell, Neb.; also Declarations of Trust from Paterson, N. J., and Sharon, Pa.

The Committee on Finance and Real Estate have carefully examined the Books of the Treasurer and the securities for the various funds and payments to congregations, and have found them correct and satisfactory.

VACANCIES.

The term of office of Rev. J. D. Turner, Rev. J. M. Fulton, and Mr. William Campbell expires with this year.

IN CONCLUSION,

The Board asks the same appropriation as in former years, and earnest prayer for the blessing of God, that to the members of the Board may be given sound judgment, to the ministers and the members of the Church a deeper interest in this work, and to all a more unreserved devotion to the Lord.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Board.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

During the past year the work entrusted to this Board has been carried on as efficiently as in any former year, and apparently with more than usual satisfaction to its supporters and the Church at large.

We have just reason for gratitude to the Head of the Church, for the harmony and unanimity which have prevailed in our regular monthly and frequent special meetings. There do not seem to be any views or feelings among the members of the Board which at all interfere with brotherly kindness and good will toward each other. This is perhaps owing in some measure to the fact that we are frequently brought together, understand one another, and are persuaded that each one is actuated by sincere desire to advance the good cause and honor the divine Master in connection with this department of Church work.

The last General Assembly directed the Board "to make, or have made, such revision of the Psalter as in their judgment shall be deemed wise and proper, and to submit the same to the next General Assembly for approval."

In accordance with this direction the Board have appointed what is believed to be a most competent committee, of which Dr. W. J. Robinson is chairman, with corresponding members throughout the Church, to perform this work.

The committee entered at once upon the duties for which they were appointed several months ago, and have made good progress. The work, however, is one of great difficulty, requiring much care and demanding much time and labor. Their work is not yet so advanced that it can be submitted to the Assembly for its approval. So soon as the work of the committee has been completed, it will be laid before the General Assembly.

The Assembly also instructed the Board to "take into consideration the propriety of publishing the Lesson Leaves without the Bible text, in order to encourage a more general use of the Bible both in the study and recitation of the lesson."

The Board are impressed with the importance of the constant use of the whole Bible in the study of the lessons, and also in the Sabbath School; and it will be their aim, with the co-operation of parents, teachers, congregations and the Assembly, to place a Bible in the hands of every scholar who may be without one. In the meantime, the scripture text will be published with the notes for sake of convenient reference in the study of the lesson, and in the belief that "the truth as it is in Jesus"—the instrument in the conversion of every soul—will be brought to the minds of some who otherwise would be left without this knowledge.

The only new publications of the Board during the year have been "Calvanism," by Dr. J. B. Scouller, and "Letters on Psalmody," by the late Rev. William Davidson, D. D.

In our report to the Assembly of 1884 it was said: "We have added to our liabilities the sum of six thousand dollars, in the purchase of additional real estate at the rear of our present property. This amount will be further increased in the near future by an addition to our present building, which we find necessary to accommodate our business."

The addition to our present building has been made, which affords ample accommodations for our business, and enables us to afford needed facilities to a desirable class of lessees of the parts of the building not required for our own use.

In accordance with the instructions of the General Assembly of 1883, the Assembly Monthly was transferred, after the issue of the July number, from the Assembly's Permanent Committee on Finance to the Board of Publication. In making this transfer, the Board paid unpaid bills of the Committee of Finance, amounting to $521.25, for the issue of the paper from February to July, 1884. It was then found that the accounts and subscription list of the paper were in such a condition as to be almost useless, either for the purpose of correctly mailing the paper, or for collecting and crediting unpaid subscriptions.

The Committee on Finance have been at work for several months on the tedious and difficult task of correcting these accounts. Meantime, owing to this, we have been able to issue the paper only at very irregular intervals, unsatisfactory alike to ourselves and the subscribers.

The loss to the Board of Publication in publishing the paper the past year has been large—almost double the amount furnished by the Church for this purpose according to the provision of the last General Assembly. This loss arises from two or three causes: First, the Board had to assume a large debt of the Finance Committee; Second, owing to the very unsatisfactory condition in which the Committee left the accounts of the paper, and the long delay in correcting this neglect, the Board has been able to collect but little of the back subscriptions; Third, the present subscription price of the paper is not sufficient to defray the expense of its publication, and unless the General Assembly will take some positive action, requiring each congregation to subscribe for a sufficient number of papers to supply each family, the paper cannot be published at its present price, except at a loss.

In our judgment the paper does not accomplish good commensurate with the cost of publishing it, and unless the Assembly will take some action requiring congregations to put a copy in each family, it should be discontinued.

We respectfully ask the Assembly's careful consideration of this matter, and instruction as to what shall be the future of the paper.

Our work as related to the Sabbath Schools of the Church is making, we think, satisfactory progress, and seems to be growing in efficiency. The following statement prepared by the Board's Committee on Sabbath Schools, of which the Rev. S. J. Shaw is chairman, is herewith presented.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

No reports have been received this year from the following eight Presbyteries:—Arkansas Valley, Big Spring, Boston, Colorado, Detroit, Indiana Northern, Mansfield, Stamford. Arkansas Valley, Big Spring and Stamford have not sent us a report for two years. For the purposes of comparison we add the last year's report of the other five to the fifty Presbyteries reporting this year.

The reports of this year contain fewer remarks and suggestions than either of the past two years. But there are a few, and some of these seem so excellent, that we think them worthy of being published for the benefit of the entire Church.

Many of the Presbyterial Superintendents speak of the Sabbath School work as being encouring. Some report it as being at a stand-still, and the remarks of others lead us to the conclusion that the interest in the work during the past year has not been so great as in some other years.

One proof of the apparent lack of interest is shown in the fact that the number of Conferences and Conventions was only 29, while last year the number reported was forty-three. It appears that not one-half of the Presbyteries held any Conferences on Sabbath School work, as several Presbyteries alone report having held as many as three and four during the year. This neglect cannot be laid upon the Presbyterial Superintendents; for several of them report that they find it very difficult, if not impossible, to interest their Presbyteries in Conventions.

Some of the Superintendents are trying to maintain an interest in this important part of the work of the Church by visiting the different congregations, and preaching upon the subject.

Attendance of Pastors.—It is a pleasure to find that so many of our pastors are actively engaged in the work. Some of them are reported as acting both as superintendent and as teacher of adult classes, and many are reported as teaching the Bible class. While it is very gratifying to see and know the zeal which they manifest in their willingness to fill both such responsible positions, yet it is our conviction that it would be better for their interests and the healthy developement of their Sabbath Schools, if they would lay part of this responsibility upon some of the members.

It is true that it is very difficult sometimes to find suitable persons to fill these positions, but we should try to train them for the work. And if we cannot find the right person among the male members of the congregation, why should we not ask some excellent Christian woman to act as Superintendent? It is well known that some of the most efficient principals in our public schools are ladies.

If a pastor does all the important work, the school and congregation will learn to depend too much upon him; and when he is taken away, the work will suffer a serious loss, and perhaps a complete wreck.

Contributions.—It is unfortunate that the blanks this year contain a column for the Quarter-Centennial, instead of a distinct one for School Expenses. Some of the schools have reported contributions to the Quarter Centennial Fund, which we believe were reported last year. And for this reason we do not include this amount in the total of contributions reported.

Many of our schools deserve special praise for their liberality. One of the schools in the Presbytery of Pawnee is worthy of special mention. It reports a contribution of $312. Of this amount $96 were given to School Expenses, and other purposes; $26 towards educating a boy in India, and $190 towards building a new church.

Scholars Uniting with the Church.—It is cheering to note that while the enrollment reported this year is less than last year by more than 11,000, yet the number of those reported as making a profession of their faith is about 100 larger this year than last.

The report also shows that there has been an increase upon the attendance of the Study meetings and Normal classes.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

I. That the matter of gathering statistics of Sabbath School work be referred to the Second Clerk of the Assembly.

II. That Presbyterial Superintendents be directed to visit the Sabbath Schoo under their care.

III. That the third Sabbath of October be observed as a day of special prayer for Sabbath Schools, and that pastors and sessions be requested to hold special services on that day in the interests of this work.

We do not ask for any appropriation to this Board to carry on its present work. The term of office of the following members of the Board expires with the present year, viz: Rev. W, J. Robinson, D. REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

I.—BENEFICIARIES.

During the year the Board has given assistance to nineteen young men. Seventeen of these are students of theology, and two are literary students. Of the theological students, nine attended the Seminary at Allegheny, Pa., and eight the Seminary at Xenia, Ohio. The literary students are members of the senior class in Westminster College.

The following Presbyteries have been represented: Chartiers and Monmouth, three students each; Butler, Mansfield and Muskingum, two students each; Allegheny, College Springs, Le Claire, New York, Pawnee, Southern Illinois, and Wheeling, one student each.

In two cases the Board has withheld part of the appropriation asked by Presbytery. The explanation is given in the following regulation adopted by the Assembly of 1881: "The amount paid to each student shall be proportionate to the time of his actual attendance at the Seminary during the session."

Reports have been received that, in some cases, the pledges given by students, respecting the use of tobacco, have been violated. In these cases, the responsibility must rest largely with the Presbyteries, or with the supervising officers of the Colleges and Seminaries, as the Board will withhold all appropriations when satisfied that such violations have taken place.

II.—FINANCES.

The annual report of the Treasurer, properly audited, is submitted to the Assembly. We present in this a general statement, showing money received and disbursed, as follows:

III.—ACADEMIES.

The last Assembly recognizing the fact th t "Academies are needed, that they are imperatively demanded," declared, "That the Board of Education should not only encourage this good and important work, but also actively aid in its promotion." A plan was adopted for aiding academical institutions. The sum of $3 000 was appropriated to the Board, and congregations were recommended to contribute liberally for this purpose.

Of the $5,000, appropriated for this and the general work of the Board, less than $2,000 have been placed in the hands of the Treasurer; or when compared with the contributions of the preceding year, it would seem that less than $600 have been contributed for this special work. Five Synods were visited by representatives of the Board, and in every case the work of aiding Academies, as outlined and recommended by the Assembly, was heartily endorsed. The Church, as represented in Synods and Assembly, stands committed to this new work assigned to the Board of Education. It is to be hoped that the contributions of the past year are not to be taken as indicating the measure of the Church's interest in this work.

During the year, six Academies were recommended for assistance. Four of these have complied with the requirements of the Board, and have received the full amount for which they were recommended. Two, Pawnee, Neb., and San Jose, Cal., have not reported to the Board, and the amount appropriated has not been forwarded.

The following is a report of the Academies aided:

Aledo, Ill., Rock Island Presbytery.—Three teachers; fifty-four students; value of property, $5,000. The property is owned by the principal, Mr. J. R. Wylie. Amount, $150.

Lincoln, Tenn., Tennessee Presbytery.—Three teachers; seventy-two students, value of property, $900, vested in a Board of Trustees. Amount, $300. The Principal of Lincoln Academy writes: "The Trustees are elected by the stockholders. A large majority of the stock is held in trust by the session of Hopewell congregation. A majority of the balance is held by members of the congregation. We thus have a very complete control."

North Liberty, Ohio, Chillicothe Presbytery.— Two teachers; fifty-four students; value of property, $2,500; owned by Presbytery. Amount, $200.

Tarkio, Mo.—Five teachers; sixty-five students; value of property, $30,000, vested in a Board of Trustees, representing the Synod of Kansas and College Springs Presbytery. Amount, $500.

The aggregate shows thirteen teachers; two hundred and forty-five students; value of property, $38,400; amount paid, $1,150.

The full amount has been paid by drawing largely upon the interest received from our permanent investments. This we have been able to do during the past year, but the increasing demands are such that we cannot depend upon this in future. One year ago we reported nine beneficiaries, this year nineteen. Indications are that the new regulation of giving assistance to literary students of the senior class will greatly increase the number of applicants. It must be remembered, also, that, in carrying out the will of the donor, much of our annual income must be applied directly in aiding young men who are preparing for the ministry; so that we cannot transfer these funds to the general work of aiding academies. The fact is that, if the Church decides to encourage and prosecute this important work, the means must be provided by adding to the general funds of the Board.

IV.—The Board.

The object and duty of the Board, as indicated by the constitution adopted by the Assembly of 1874, is "To cherish and diffuse an educational spirit throughout the church; to co-operate with Presbyteries, and Synods, and the Assembly in the establishment of institutions of learning; and to assist in the education of pious and promising young men for the ministry." For years, the most that could be done, with the money placed at our disposal, was to assist students who were preparing for the ministry while the other department of our work has been entirely neglected. We are prepared now, for the first time in our history, to report practical results in carrying out the original purpose of the church in the formation of this Board.

The permanent funds of the Board, amounting to more than $20,000, are invested on real estate, secured by first mortgage, some of the loans bearing seven, others eight per cent. interest.

In order to meet the demands for academies and beneficiaries, during the year, we ask for an appropriation of $5,000.

The term of office of Prof. E. F. Reid, Hugh Nash, and Rev. J. A. Reynolds, D.D., members of the Board, expires at this time. It is for the Assembly to elect.

Respectfully submitted,

D. MacDill, President.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The year 1884–85 has been the most eventful in the history of our Board, in the amount of money received and in the amount paid out to beneficiaries. To all who have been formally recommended, appropriations have been made, in most instances to the full amount asked.

FUNDS.

The Treasurer's account shows as follows:

Receipts from	Presbyteries and Congregations,	$2,894 75
"	" Individuals,	915 38
"	" Legacies,	896 92
"	" Societies,	188 00
"	" Quarter-Centennial,	2,200 00
"	" Investments,	2,523 00
Payments to	Beneficiaries,	3,896 77
"	" Permanent Fund,	5,350 00

Several churches and Presbyteries have greatly enlarged their gifts, and liberal contributions have come from warm hearted friends of the cause. We notice, on the other hand, that six Presbyteries have contributed nothing.

The Board has been much helped in its work by the co-operation of some Ladies' Societies in donating boxes of clothing, or by furnishing the means by which the Treasurer has been enabled to purchase suitable articles of comfort and necessity for those in need. This part of our work has been enlarged.

As the work of the Board has been growing, it has been found desirable to prepare new blanks for applications, more in accordance with our present needs, and, by having different forms for a minister and a minister's widow, simplify the work of the Presbytery. It has also been found that the renewal of an application after the first year, without a formal statement, but simply by certificate of Moderator and Clerk of Presbytery, has worked well.

It is desirable that, as our Board is increasing its operations, and as we are yearly receiving more demands on our treasury, our rules be properly understood. Where a minister has a family who are able to support him, we do not consider him a proper applicant for aid. In the same sense, if a widow has children who have arrived at a proper age to support her, we do not consider that she comes within our rules for aid. We have many in our church who in the Providence of God are left without any means of support, and these it is the province of this Board to seek out and assist.

Many needy and deserving ones have been made happy by the church's benefactions, which were gratefully accepted with the invocation of an earnest benediction on their kind benefactors. It is no uncommon thing for our beneficiaries to contribute of their means to the Relief Fund; others, who declined to ask aid for two or three years, have been constrained by necessity to apply again for assistance, and it was granted.

We insist that Ministerial Relief is in no sense a charity; it is a debt due to faithful men who have devoted their lives to the self-denying work of the holy ministry, and to their families, when left in indigent circumstances. An aged "Mother in Israel" writes us: "Winter is now severely upon us; sickness compels me again to ask aid from the 'supplementary work' in the way of clothing, etc. 'Tis now two years since I received help from that source. Though in need, I thought others might be in still greater need. I have been sick, and the infirmities of age are growing upon me; I cannot endure hardships or privations as heretofore; hence whatever you may deem proper in the way of warm underwear, with a winter dress, wrap or shawl, will be gratefully received." She was supplied.

Another writes: "My only daughter, who has been in poor health for years past, tries to support herself and assist me by teaching when she is able, and often when she is not able; but the most discouraging part is to spend her earnings on physicians and medicine without receiving permanent relief, and I fear 'tis only a question of time when she must cease her efforts altogether, unless directed to means which the Lord will bless to her restoration. My only stated income is what the Board grants, $150. From that I reserve, first, the Lord's portion, $15; the taxes on my little home, say about $15; then my fuel, which by the strictest economy and keeping but one fire, amounts to $30 more; and my old stove being worn out I was compelled to get a new one costing $16; then a doctor's bill (I don't know how much). You can imagine what I have left for all other purposes during the year. I am grateful for your past kindness, and will trust the Lord for the future. He has never yet forsaken me. I enclose one dollar to be used in this noble work; it is a part of the Lord's money." She received the needed aid.

Another writes under date of February 9, 1885: "Your great favor received. I would have replied sooner, but was prevented by sickness. I am now better and can write just a little. Oh, how grateful for the money you sent me in my sore distress, but I feel a thankfulness I cannot express in words." This poor woman lives on a small farm (her own, but some in debt) with her children, where her husband died some four or five years ago. A hard-hearted creditor was about to put the sheriff on her, and sell her team; hence her appeal and our help.

The following is an extract from the letter of a minister's widow who is literally alone in the world, and who has located on a section of Government land in the far West, which she bequeaths to the Ministerial Board when she is done with it: "February, 1885.—I am under the painful necessity of asking aid of the Ministerial Relief Board. I have suffered this winter from the intense cold weather. My little house being unplastered requires a great amount of fuel, and I have had to burn corn, it being cheaper than coal. I did not teach school last summer, having to live on my land to save it from claim jumpers. I started to take a school this winter, but a storm turned me back, and it was as well so, as the severity of the weather closed the school. I have since been appointed to organize for the Women's National Christian Temperance Union. I was out on that business in December last, and was caught in a blizzard, had both fingers and feet frozen, and this day is the first I have been able to handle a pen. Oh! I have had such a hard winter.

For eight days during the storm I never saw a human being, and two nights the wolves were scratching and howling at my door. My distant neighbors thought I was not at home. I have now possession of 160 acres of beautiful land, borrowed money and made final proof." A sister of such pluck needs and deserves a little help, and she receives it.

Another writes under date of March, 1885: "Oh! how thankful were we to our Heavenly Father, and the Board, for his mercy and their kindness. Such terribly severe and continued cold we have never experienced, and our house is far from being a warm one. Had it not been for the kind help received, we would have suffered for both food and fuel. But God is good; he fulfils his promises to the widow and orphans."

Another sister writes March, 1885: "The box of goods for myself and children came through all right without charge and in good condition, and such nice serviceable goods, just what we so badly needed, and how glad we were to get them; but thanks to the Board and kind-hearted friends for this generous gift, which supplies us with so many things to make us comfortable. I am left alone with my five young children to provide for, and without income or worldly goods. The future at times looks very dark, but I sincerely hope God in his mercy has something good in store for me. I have his precious promises to the widow and orphan to rely upon, and know our Heavenly Father never fails those who trust in him."

In conclusion, the Board asks the Assembly to favorably recommend to the churches its work, and that the usual appropriation of $5,000 be made.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

The Church of God is an object of very great love to Christians. It is to most of them the place of their spiritual birth, and to all the true children of God the scene of their highest enjoyments. Hence, it is a very interesting and momentous question to them, How does the Church flourish? Is she advancing or is she declining? It is a question which ought to be answered honestly, for it can do no possible good to misrepresent the real condition of the Church. And it is a question which ought to be answered carefully and prayerfully, lest, on the one hand, we discourage the humble people of God, and withhold from God the honor which is due to him for the mercies and blessings which he has bestowed on us; and lest, on the other hand, we cover up the deficiencies, which ought to be made known, and be like those who "heal the hurt of the daughter of God's people slightly, saying Peace, peace, when there is no peace."

About two months since, an outline for a conference on the State of Religion was sent to all the Presbyteries of the Church in this country, with the request that they hold a conference on this subject, and furnish your committee a report on the State of Religion in their bounds, as soon as convenient. Some of the Presbyteries held such a conference, and others did not. Reports on the State of Religion have been received from the Clerks of all the Presbyteries, with the exception of a very few. The substance of these statements will be found in a subsequent part of this report.

Your committee has received from the Second Clerk of the General Assembly, a condensed statistical table for the past year, which, so far as it is possible to do so in figures, sets forth the present condition and strength of the Church and the work accomplished during the year just closed. From it we glean the following items: Net increase in membership of the Church during the year, 1,234; net increase in membership in the Missionary Presbyteries, 715; total membership of the Church, 88,871; members received on profession during the year, 5,185; during the previous year, 5,024; adults baptized during the year, 1,187; during the previous year, 1,110. Eastward in the Church, the increase by profession is larger than by certificate, westward, it is the reverse. Total contributions for all purposes this year, $955,248; total contributions last year, $1,184,185; a decrease of $228,937. But while this is true, it is owing to the fact that contributions to the Quarter-Centennial Fund have this year to a great extent ceased, these being mainly paid up previously. To all objects, except the Quarter-Centennial Fund and congregational purposes, the contributions this year are in excess of what they were last year. Ministers deceased during the year, 8; dismissed to other churches, 4; received from other churches, 2; ordained, 22; net increase in ministers, 12; total ministers, 732. Besides these, the Church has 58 licentiates, 41 theological students not licensed; 36 licensures have occurred during the year. Congregations organized during the year, 15; dissolved, 7; a gain in congregations of 8; total congregations, 868; unorganized mission stations, 124; mission stations established during the year, 33; houses of worship erected during the year, 25, at a total cost of $101,035. Sabbath Schools, 826; scholars, 78,086; contributions, $44,740. Congregational missionary societies, 493; members, 17,477; contributions, $29,763.

Eight fathers and brethren in the ministry have died during the year. Some of them had reached the "fourscore" years to which men may attain by "reason of strength," and long and faithfully served the Master; others were young in the ministry, and also, comparatively so, in the "days of the years of their pilgrimage." Their names, placed in the order of time, in which their deaths occurred, are as follows: Robert Anderson Hamill; Samuel Alexander Buck; James Casner Campbell; James Barnett; James Morrow; John Anderson Nelson; Joseph Clokey; and James Pringle Tedford. Your committee understand that Friday evening, May 29, is the time at which the memorial service for these deceased brethren will be held by the Assembly. It seems that upon some former occasions of this kind, the exercises have been somewhat protracted and wearisome, owing to the fact that so many were to pronounce words of eulogy upon the deceased. It is, therefore, recommended, that instead of having one minister to speak for each deceased one, a brother shall be appointed this year to make an address of a more general character, and that the subject of that address shall be, "The Minister's Memorial." And it is further recommended that the Rev. W. S. Owens, of the Presbytery of Steubenville, be appointed to deliver this address. And in accordance with the requirements of a previous Assembly, the following statements in regard to the lives, labors, and deaths of the deceased brethren are presented for permanent record.

IN MEMORIAM.

ROBERT ANDERSON HAMILL, of the Presbytery of Pawnee, the son of William and Caroline (Tedford) Hamill, was born at Marysville, Tenn., May 16, 1841. He became connected with the United Presbyterian Church at Columbus City, Iowa, in the year 1860 (exact date not known). The Rebellion arising, he enlisted in the army as a private soldier, and served his country during the greater part of the war, in which service he received injuries which were the means of terminating his life. He pursued his literary studies at Washington, Iowa, but did not graduate. He studied theology one term at Xenia Theological Seminary. He was licensed to preach by the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in the year 1875, being for a time in connection with that Church. He was ordained to the office of the gospel ministry by Concordia Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church, June 22, 1881. He served as stated supply at Concordia, Kansas; Amity, Kansas; Bethany, Neb.; and Minden, Neb. He was married April 7, 1863, to Miss Margaret J. Greer, of Louisa County, Iowa. The fruits of this union were two sons and five daughters, all of whom, with his wife, survive him. He was without charge at the time of his death, which occurred at Marysville, Tenn., his native place, August 3, 1884. His death was caused by hæmorrhage of the lungs. He was a laborious worker in the vineyard of the Lord, ofttimes while suffering severe affliction. His last words were, "God is merciful and good to those who trust in him."

SAMUEL ALEXANDER BUCK, of the First Presbytery of Ohio, son of Thomas M. and Margaret (Williamson) Buck, was born near College Corner, Ohio, November 27, 1851. He publicly professed his faith in Christ in the congregation of Hopewell, Ohio, April 17, 1868. He graduated from Monmouth College in 1875, and attended Xenia Theological Seminary three terms. He was licensed to preach by the First Presbytery of Ohio, April 9, 1877. He labored as stated supply at Indianapolis, Ind., from July, 1878, till October, 1879. Having received and accepted calls from the congregations of Sycamore and Hopkinsville in the First Presbytery of Ohio, he was ordained to the office of the gospel ministry and installed pastor of these congregations, September 22, 1880. He was released from this pastoral charge, September 25, 1883. He was married September 3d, 1878, to Miss Henrietta Elliott, of Morning Sun, Ohio. Two children were born to them, one son and one daughter, both of whom are dead. His death occurred near Florence, Washington County, Pa., August 14, 1884, of a disease complicated in character, but in its most decided form pronounced to be typhoid dysentery. He was without charge at the time of his death, but was engaged in supplying vacant congregations. His wife survives him. A brother in the ministry writes of him, "From associations of a most intimate character, as a classmate, a room-mate, a regular correspondent, etc., the writer can testify to the unreservedness of his consecration, to the sincerity and utter unselfishness of his aims and purposes, and to the earnestness with which he performed his work."

JAMES CASNER CAMPBELL, of the First Presbytery of Ohio, son of John and Margaret (Casner) Campbell, was born near West Alexander, Washington County, Pa., November 18, 1823. He connected with the Church by a public profession, in the congregation of Mt. Vernon (since merged into the congregation of Center, Presbytery of Chartiers), about the year 1841; graduated at Jefferson College, Canonsburg, Pa., in 1845; attended Allegheny Theological Seminary four terms, beginning in 1844, his senior year at college; was licensed by the Presbytery of Steubenville, April 14, 1847; by which Presbytery he was also ordained, November 14, 1848. He was pastor of the congregation of Wellsville, Ohio, from November, 1848, till October, 1855 (having also charge of Knoxville congregation, at least a part of that time); of the congregation of Paris, Washington County, Pa., from October, 1855, till April 20, 1875 (being pastor of Cross Creek congregation for a time, in connection with that of Paris); was stated supply at Indianapolis, Ind., in 1876; was pastor of the congregation of Hopewell, Preble County, Ohio, from March 26, 1878, till January 26, 1884. He was Principal of Wellsville Academy from 1848 till 1855, and of Paris Academy from 1855 till 1865; received the degree of A. M. from Jefferson College. He was married April 16, 1850, to Miss Eliza Jane Gardner, of Paris, Washington County, Pa., by whom were born to him four sons and four daughters. His wife with four daughters and one son survives him. He died near Trading Post, Kansas, August 19, 1884, of dysentery. At the time of his death he was filling appointments given him by the General Assembly in the Presbytery of Garnett. As a preacher he was above the average in ability, and possessed an uncommon gift in prayer. One of the oldest and most highly respected ministers of the Church has written of him: "He was affectionate and kindly in all his relations; a kind husband; a kind, tender, loving parent; a kind, obliging neighbor; a kind, true pastor; a kind, faithful friend; a kind, genial, pleasant companion."

JAMES BARNETT, D. D., of the Presbytery of Neosho, was the son of Samuel and Mary (Mitchell) Barnett, and was born in Dauphin County, Pa., June 16, 1816. His parents removed to Ohio when their son James was one year old, and connected with the Associate Reformed Church of Mt. Pleasant, Butler Co., O., of which Rev. S. P. Magaw was then pastor. In this congregation, James Barnett professed his faith in Christ, April 6, 1836, when he was twenty years old. He pursued his literary studies at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, and graduated thence in 1839. He studied theology at the Associate Reformed Seminary at Oxford, attending that institution four terms, receiving instruction from Rev. Jos. Claybaugh, D. D. He was licensed to preach by the First Presbytery of Ohio, April, 1842, and ordained by the same Presbytery, July 23, 1844. He was chosen missionary to Syria by the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Church, at its meeting in the spring of 1844; sailed in January, 1845; landed at Beirut, Syria, February 18, 1845, and began mission work in Damascus in 1846. In December, 1854, he was transferred to Cairo, Egypt, where he remained until 1875, when, on account of ill health, he retired from Foreign Mission work, and came home. He was, with Rev. Thomas McCague, the founder of the Egyptian Mission. He wrote largely for the papers of the Church on religious and missionary subjects, and translated books for the benefit of the mission. He received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from Monmouth College in 1862 or 1863. He was married June 20, 1865, to Miss Margaret Lees Duff, of Scotch Ridge, Wood county, Ohio, by whom were born to him two sons and four daughters, all of whom, with his wife, survive him. He died of cystitis, October 2, 1884, at Emporia, Kansas. He was without charge at the time of his death, but as his health permitted, had been engaged in Home Mission work, chiefly in the city of Emporia and vicinity. "He was a man of good mind, excellent scholarship, and earnest devotion to the principles of his profession." "He was characterized by great energy and perseverance, heartily laid himself upon the altar of Christ, as long as health permitted served him devotedly in the Foreign Mission field, and whether at home or abroad earnestly labored for the glory of God, the maintenance of divine truth, and the good of men's souls."

JAMES MORROW, of the Presbytery of Southern Illinois, was the son of John and Grizelda Morrow. He was born in the vicinity of Murraysville, Westmoreland Co., Pa., March 21, 1799. He professed his faith in Christ, May, 1816, probably in the congregation known as "Forks of Yough," belonging to the Reformed Dissenting Presbytery. He studied at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, but did not graduate. He studied theology under the direction of Rev. Wm. Taylor, of the Reformed Dissenting Presbytery, and was licensed by said Presbytery in May, 1837. He was ordained January 2, 1840, by the First Associate Reformed Presbytery of Ohio, for labor in the Western field. He became pastor of Washington in the First Associate Reformed Presbytery of Illinois in 1849, and also of Hopewell congregation in the same Presbytery about the same time, giving one-half time to each. He demitted the charge of Hopewell congregation June 15, 1853, and of Washington congregation April 3, 1861. He was twice married (dates of his marriages unknown). His first wife was Miss Jane McWilliams, by whom three children were born to him, all of whom died in infancy. His second wife was Miss Hester McLean, who gave birth to one son. His second wife and all his children died before him except one son. His death occurred at Tilden, Ill., October 27, 1884, he being about 85 years old. He had been on the list of infirm ministers for some years previous to his death. A brother who visited him during his last illness writes thus: "His last illness was protracted, and at times his sufferings severe, yet his bearing through it all well exemplified the grace of patience and submission to the Master's will. Although the summons came suddenly at the very last, yet I cannot doubt that the end was peace."

JOHN ANDERSON NELSON, of the Presbytery of Caledonia, was the son of James and Mary Jane (Forsythe) Nelson, and was born at New Concord, Ohio, October 16, 1842. He made a profession of religion in the congregation of New Concord, October 13, 1860. He served his country as a soldier during the greater part of the war for the Union. He graduated from Muskingum College in 1867; attended Xenia Theological Seminary three terms; was licensed by the Presbytery of Xenia, March 30, 1869, and ordained by the Presbytery of Westmoreland April 9, 1872. He acted as pastor of Mt. Pleasant and Madison congregations from July 1, 1871, till July 31, 1875, although not ordained and installed till the date mentioned above. He organized, during the latter part of his pastorate here, the congregation of Scottdale. He was stated supply at Topeka, Kansas, from July 1, 1876, till July 1, 1877; was pastor at Lawrence, Kansas, from July 1, 1877, till April 2, 1884; and at Mumford, N. Y., from April 20, 1884 (though not formally installed till May 7,) till his death. He published numerous articles in the papers of the Church. He was married, June 26, 1866, to Miss Mary Helen Crawford, of Keene, Coshocton county, Ohio, by whom were born to him one son and one daughter. His wife and both his children survive him. His death occurred at Mumford, N. Y., November 8, 1884, and was caused by disease of the liver and bowels. At the time of his death he was pastor of the congregation of Mumford. He was a man of fine mental gifts and acquirements. "He was accounted as among the most scholarly of the younger ministers of the church." As a preacher in the pulpit he is said to have been above the ordinary. "He was orthodox, scholarly, profound, clear, logical and spiritual." A minister of another denomination says of him: "He was a grand man."

JOSEPH CLOKEY, D. D., of the Presbytery of Xenia, was born in Dauphin county, Pa., December, 25, 1801, and was the son of Joseph and —— (Sawyers) Clokey. The place of his first confessing Christ was Peters Creek Church, Washington county, Pa., but the exact date of it has not been ascertained. He graduated at Jefferson College, Canonsburg, Pa., in 1823. He attended the Associate Theological Seminary at Canonsburg four terms, and was licensed by the Associate Presbytery of Chartiers, July 4, 1826. He was ordained by the Associate Presbytery of Muskingum, September 18, 1827. He was pastor of the Associate congregations of Belmont and Mt. Pleasant, Ohio, from 1827 till 1834, and of the Associate congregations of Mt. Pleasant and Piney Fork from 1834 till 1840. At this time, passing with the congregation of Piney Fork into the Associate Reformed Church, he was pastor of Piney Fork and Warrenton congregations from 1840 till 1848. He was pastor of St. Clair congregation, Pa., from 1848 till 1855, and of the congregation of Springfield, Ohio, from 1855 till 1875. He was Professor of Pastoral Theology and Homiletics in the United Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Xenia, Ohio, from 1859 till 1874. He was Moderator of the United Presbyterian General Assembly in 1860, the third meeting of the Assembly. He was twice married, to Miss Jane Patterson, of Wheeling, Va., in 1828, and to Miss Elizabeth Waddle, of Short Creek, Va., in 1838. He was the father of eight children, five sons and three daughters. His wife, three sons and three daughters survive him. He died of congestion of the kidneys, and without charge, at Springfield, Ohio, December 8, 1884. He was a man of eminent ability and of commanding influence. He was very successful and highly esteemed as a pastor, as a theological professor, and was a recognized leader in Church courts. While he lived, he was one of the links which connected the Church of the present with that of the past. He lived to a good old age, and still took pleasure in the service of Christ. In his old age he frequently preached to the people of his former charge at Springfield, with satisfaction to them and with delight to himself. On the Sabbath before his death, he enjoyed fellowship with Christ at his table, and assisted to some extent in dispensing the Lord's Supper to the congregation of Springfield. That night he was taken suddenly ill and soon rested from his labors, passing almost immediately from communion with Christ by means of visible signs and emblems to communion with him where such signs are not needed.

James Pringle Tedford, of the Presbytery of Xenia, was the son of John and Elizabeth (Hamil) Tedford, and was born at Columbus City, Iowa, March 13, 1853. The exact date of his making a profession of religion has not been obtained; probably, it was in the fall of 1875, and it was done in the United Presbyterian congregation of Columbus City. He pursued his studies for some time at Monmouth College, but did not graduate. He attended the Theological Seminary at Xenia, Ohio, three terms, and was licensed to preach by the Presbytery of Keokuk, April 6, 1881. He was ordained by the Presbytery of Chillicothe, May 31, 1881, at which time he was also installed pastor of Greenfield and Fall Creek congregations, which charge he held until the close of his life. He was married September 18, 1881, to Miss Anna Reed McKenzie, of Ainsworth, Washington county, Iowa. He was the father of one son, who, with his wife, survives him. He died at Ainsworth, Iowa, February 10, 1885, of consumption, being still pastor of Greenfield and Fall Creek congregations. He is spoken of by brethren in the Church, who knew him, as a young man of unusually bright talents, and of great promise as a minister. He was possessed of a clear and logical mind. He was among the best in his classes, both in College and at the Seminary. His parents were members of the Associate Church, and from his youth he was well instructed in the doctrines of religion. His pastorate was brief but successful. In a short time after the commission was given him, "Go preach the gospel," it was said to him, "Give an account of thy stewardship." How mysterious are the ways of God! He says to us, "Be still, and know that I am God."

Thus fathers and brethren have passed away. Their places will know them no more. They have done their work and entered into rest. God says to us, "Be ye also ready."

The State of Religion.

I. The Statements contained in the Reports of Presbyteries.—The pastors are universally reported as being faithful, earnest and devoted to their work. Some Presbyteries say, "We think increasingly so." At the same time the question is started in one report, whether the ministers of the Church generally realize that a necessity is laid on them to preach the gospel, and argues that, if it were so, their labors would be more abundantly blessed. Another says, "There is no want in preaching; but pastoral work is not up to the standard of the past. Teaching from house to house is too much neglected, and as a consequence the young are often lost to our Church." Another says, "There must be more house to house, face to face, hand to hand work, both by ministers and people." Attendance on public worship is also universally reported as being good. There is no decline in this respect, and in some cases an improvement. While in some instances the attendance at prayer meeting and interest in it are reported good and improved, yet in the great majority of cases they are far below what they ought to be. The work and interest of the Sabbath School seem to have been well maintained during the year. There seems to be a decline in family religion, not perhaps specially during the past year, but a decline increasing for some years past. Quite a proportion of those who come to the Lord's table do not worship God in their families, and the instruction of children is largely given over to the Sabbath School. The same is true in regard to the observance of the Sabbath. It is by no means so strictly and devoutly kept as it once was. The influence of the world is greatly affecting the Church in this particular. Several reports speak of the abounding of worldly conversation and of the increase of social visiting on the Sabbath. A number of Presbyteries report that the Church in their bounds is consistent and firm in maintaining the distinctive principles of the United Presbyterian Church in relation to psalmody, secret societies, etc. Others again do not report so favorably. Some say, "They are not very well maintained, but about as in most other places." One suggests, "They are observed about as well as the ten commandments are." Another says, "The spirit of the law is observed, the letter not." One says, "There is not that readiness to meet violations of these rules with the exercise of discipline which formerly existed." Another says, "We no longer hear of discipline for occasional hymn singing." And still another says, "It would be very hard to enforce the authority of the Church in regard to these things." The violations of the rule in regard to psalmody seem to be more frequent than of the one in regard to secret orders. The churches are generally reported to have a strong hold on the communities in which they exist, and to exert a good degree of influence over them. This, however, depends materially on the surroundings of the churches. In some places they meet with much opposition, and have much less influence. While in almost all the churches there are some humble, earnest and efficient Christian laborers, the great majority are inactive and indifferent, and do not manifest much interest in the cause of Christ, or much sense of their responsibility to God. It is not equally heard from all the Presbyteries, yet there is a great complaint that professing Christians are conformed to the world, and that many are not characterized in any marked degree by holy living. The cause of religion, as represented by the United Presbyterian Church, seems to be advancing. This is specially true in the western part of our country, in which most Presbyteries say, "The work is advancing;" and some say, "it is advancing rapidly." A very few Presbyteries admit that the cause is declining in their bounds. In several Presbyteries there have been evidences of God's special presence and power during the year; sinners have given evidence of being turned to God, and the souls of his people have been greatly revived. In some congregations, large additions have been made to the membership. Contributions during the year have, in some parts of the Church, increased, and in others diminished. In the total amount contributed there is a decrease. The Presbyteries find their encouragements in the success with which God is crowning their work, and in his promise of more abundant blessing. They meet with discouragements in the worldliness and apathy of professing Christians, and in the want of means, men and money to carry forward the work of the Lord.

II. Remarks on the Presbyterial Reports.—Pastors are universally reported as being faithful and earnest in their labors, and your committee certainly have no disposition to doubt the truth of these statements; but whilst this is true, might they not, as is suggested in some of these reports, be yet more heartily and entirely devoted to their work? Might they not attain to greater singleness of aim and purpose in their labors? Might they not be more free from worldly cares and distractions, exercise greater self-renunciation, and be more consecrated to the work of the Lord? Might they not possess more of the Apostle Paul's determination to know nothing among the people save Jesus Christ and him crucified? Ought they not to seek greater power from on high, that they may be more successful in their labors? The attendance on public worship is universally reported good, and in some instances improved, but might there not be still greater improvement? Might there not be still larger multitudes gathered together to worship God on the Sabbath? Are there not enough of non-church going people within reach of the great majority of the United Presbyterian Churches to completely fill them on the Sabbath? Why should any neglect to hear the glad tidings of salvation, who have an opportunity of doing so? Should not ministers and people stir up all around them to go to God's house and worship him? Should they not say, "Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise; be thankful unto him, and bless his name?" Attendance at prayer meetings and interest in them are acknowledged to be greatly inferior to what duty would require. A comparatively small proportion of professing Christians regularly attend the social meeting for prayer. And how formal and monotonous oftimes are the prayers which are presented to God here, as well as in our families! If it be true, as has often been said, that the prayer meeting is the true index of spiritual life in the Church, that life cannot now be possessed of very great vigor. Greatly does the Church need to have "poured upon her the spirit of grace and of supplications." Faith and prayer are the great means of spiritual revival. The Church should use them more earnestly.

Every thoughtful Christian realizes the great importance of family religion.

Surely there are none who have so good an opportunity to train the young for the service of God as parents have. Their influence is constant and potent, and is exerted upon minds and hearts that are impressible. To parents, primarily, is committed the religious training of their children. Perhaps the former method of parental training might be improved by adding a little more general and thorough instruction, and by mingling with it more of a spirit of tenderness and love; but it is an evidence of decline when the former attentiveness to this duty and carefulness in it are abandoned.

Like importance is to be attached to the proper observance of the Sabbath. The Sabbath is one of the great bulwarks of Christianity. It seems to be of the greatest importance to have a portion of time specially set apart for the worship and service of God. God taught us this truth, when he appointed one whole day in seven to be observed as a holy Sabbath. It is the Lord's day. It is much to be lamented that it is so greatly desecrated by the world, and that professing Christians are so much conformed to the world in this respect, and do not observe the Sabbath so strictly and devoutly as formerly.

The United Presbyterian Church holds certain principles by which she is distinguished from various other branches of the Church. From many she differs in her views of Church government, and also of the doctrines of grace and salvation. From some, with which she agrees in reference to the subjects already mentioned, she yet differs in regard to the qualifications for membership in the Church, and also for admission to sealing ordinances. By her standards, she denies membership in the Church to those who are connected with secret, oath-bound associations, and those also who use in the worship of God other songs of praise than those given by divine inspiration, and, as a rule, refuses to admit to the Lord's table those who do not acknowledge subjection to her authority and laws. Now, many of the Presbyteries admit that the Church in their bounds is not very faithful and firm in maintaining her distinctive principles. Can this be consistent or right? Can it be right to maintain an organization specially to promulgate certain truths and principles, and then fail to carry out those principles in the organization itself? It is of great importance to the success of a Church that it have, in a high degree, the respect of the community in which it is located. Doubtless many of our congregations have had and still have a great influence over those among whom they are intermingled. The consistent godly lives of our fathers are still remembered by many. We may well imagine that the echoes of the Scripture Psalms, as sung in days gone by, can yet be heard in many places. But the world is active, busy, restless. The Church should be alike active and untiring, seeking to retain and increase her influence, studying adaptation to her work, seeking to find access to the hearts of men, endeavoring to exert her power over the young, and make aggressions upon the world. Christians should all be laborers in the vineyard of the Lord. God says to each and every one, "Son, go work to-day in my vineyard." How important to bring into active employment all the talents and resources of the Church! Christians are a peculiar people, and should not be conformed to the world. Christians were chosen to be holy, redeemed to be holy, called to be holy, regenerated to be holy, and holiness becomes them forever. Most important to the honor of God, and the progress of his cause, is the practical piety of his people. The Church should be continually advancing. "The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed." "There remaineth yet very much land to be possessed." More abundant contributions should flow into the treasury of the Lord. Christians should give themselves and their substance to God.

III. Colleges and Theological Seminaries of the Church.—We have, in general, a good report from these institutions of learning. In Westminster College about seventy per cent. of the students are members of the Church, and a fair spiritual condition is reported. A very active organization of young men and women conducts prayer meetings, Bible classes and outside Sabbath School work, but the need of a thorough revival of religion is very deeply felt.

The spiritual condition of Monmouth College is reported as excellent. Ninety per cent. of the students are members of the Church; quite a number have professed faith in Christ, and united with the Church during the year. Young men, who two years ago were infidels, are now leaders in the work of the Church.

All the members of the senior class at Muskingum College are members of the Church. This is the third class in succession of which this has been true. About eighty per cent. of the students are members of the Church. There are two Christian Associations in the college, one composed of ladies, the other of gentlemen.

In Allegheny Theological Seminary the conduct of the students is reported as being entirely in keeping with the work in which they were engaged, and the prospects they have in view. The attendance at weekly prayer meeting has improved during the year. The students were engaged in religious and benevolent work in the city, and manifested a good degree of interest in the subject of personal religion.

In Xenia Seminary the students were thoroughly devoted to the work of preparing to become ministers of the gospel. The instructions were thorough and the examinations well sustained. Those who have gone forth from both these institutions this year give promise of being efficient ministers of the gospel.

IV. The Work in the Foreign Missionary Presbyteries.—Very encouraging reports come to us of the work of the foreign missionaries during the year.

In Egypt one new central station, occupied by a mission family, has been established. Four sub-stations have been added to the list. The gain in Church membership has been 172. Four adults and 166 infants have been baptized.

In India there is a net increase of 543 communicants, or about forty-eight per cent. of the membership of the preceding year. More than one-third of the entire present membership has been added during this year, and almost all of these were adults, who have been baptized and were previously heathen. This shows that the leaven of the gospel is rapidly spreading, and the Church is extending her borders. In regard to the state of piety among these people, we are informed that they give credible evidence of sincerity in their profession, a sense of sin and a desire to forsake it, and to persevere in the effort to be Christians, and to work for Christ.

In conclusion, then, we have great reason to be thankful to God for the measure of success which has attended the work of the Church during the year; for the additions made to the membership, both in this country and foreign countries; for the manifestations of God's presence in the Church, and for the liberality of her contributions. At the same time the Church has great reason for humiliation, because that, on account of her sins and unfaithfulness, greater things have not been accomplished during the year. And we have great need to plead with God, that he will "arise and plead his own cause; that he will be merciful unto us and bless us, and cause his face to shine upon us, that his way may be known upon earth and his saving health among all nations;" that "he will revive his work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known and in wrath remember mercy."

On behalf of the Committee.

REPORT OF THE QUARTER-CENTENNIAL COMMISSION.

The Quarter-Centennial Commission report that, during the year, they have endeavored, under the instructions of the General Assembly, to complete the work entrusted to them.

As reported to the last General Assembly, the Commission, in February, 1884, sent blanks to all the congregations of the Church, with a letter of instructions, asking them to report the money subscribed and paid to the Quarter-Centennial Fund by the congregation, the Sabbath School, the Ladies' Missionary Society, and the individuals who did not wish their subscriptions to be included in the subscriptions of the congregation. Only 370 out of 839 congregations complied with this request. To secure the desired information, the Commission, about January 1, 1885, sent the same blank to the 469 congregations which had not reported. Some have responded. We have now received reports from 514 congregations in all. From these reports, and from information received from other sources, it appears that $435,953.85 have been subscribed to the Memorial Fund. 165 congregations report that they have subscribed for the payment of Church debts, the erection of new buildings, etc., during the progress of the Quarter-Centennial movement, $329,490.07. This makes a total of $765,443.92 which is to be credited, directly or indirectly, to the Memorial Fund.

The last General Assembly took the following action: "Deeming it important that the Assembly should know the use made of the Quarter-Centennial Fund, we would recommend that each Board and institution, receiving aid from the Quarter-

Centennial Commission, shall report to said Commission by July 1, 1884, the use made of the moneys, the nature of the investments, and the income derived therefrom, and shall make a similar report at the 1st of April, 1885, and that the Commission make a report thereof to the next General Assembly."

None of the Boards or institutions has complied with this recommendation except the Board of Church Extension. This Board reports that it has received from the Commission $39,800, and that it has used the money as follows: In donations for Memorial Churches, to Denver, Col., $10,000; to Portland, Oregon, $6,500. In loans to congregations, $5,000; on first mortgages, $18,300.

The Commission reported to the last General Assembly that $244,700.07 had, at that time, been paid to the Boards and institutions of the Church. Since our last report, the following sums have been paid, either by the Commission or by the donors directly, to the following Boards and institutions:

Board of Foreign Missions,	$ 6,050 00
" Home Missions,	2,750 00
" Freedmen's Missions,	2,200 00
" Church Extension,	7,700 00
" Ministerial Relief,	2,200 00
Allegheny Theological Seminary,	4,950 00
Xenia Theological Seminary,	4,950 00
Westminster College,	8,705 00
Muskingum College,	4,753 20
Monmouth College,	8,362 86
Knoxville College,	1,650 00
Lincoln College,	200 00
Franklin College,	2,440 00
Orphans' Home,	2,602 69
Total,	$59,513 75

From this statement, it would appear that the Board of Foreign Missions had received less than its proportion, and Westminster and Monmouth Colleges more than their proportion. The reason of this is because certain sums have been paid, or are expected to be paid, to these institutions without passing through our hands. This apparent disproportion will be removed in future distributions.

From the foregoing statements, it will be seen that the whole amount paid to the different Boards and institutions of the Church is $304,213.82. We have now on hand $9,479.82, making a total of $313,693.64 paid to date to the Quarter-Centennial Fund.

We are sorry to have to report that we have not yet been able to complete our work. We, therefore, ask that the Commission be continued for another year, with any instructions the General Assembly may think necessary.

Respectfully submitted.

W. J. SAWYER, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE TO PREPARE A SUMMARY OF THE STANDARDS OF THE CHURCH.

The Committee on the Summary of the Principles of the Church reports, that the summary prepared by it, and previously reported, has been published in the papers of the Church, as ordered by the last Assembly, and as such is now before this Assembly for any action it may choose to take.

S. COLLINS, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE WITH SIMILAR COMMITTEES FROM THE PSALM SINGING CHURCHES.

Your committee met with similar committees from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, and the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church at the time appointed. There prevailed in the conference, from the beginning to the end, a spirit of kindness and brotherly love. It was formally and unanimously declared to be "not only desirable but practicable to bring about more efficient co-operation between the branches of the Presbyterian Churches there represented." A paper, with resolutions appended, was adopted, and directed to be transmitted to the different churches represented, that they might express their judgment for the direction of a future conference.

These resolutions, as they have already appeared in the papers of the Church, accompany this report.

The following additional resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That this conference do hereby recommend the respective Churches here represented that their representation and co-operation in the future meetings of the Presbyterian Alliance be conditioned upon the exclusive use of the divinely inspired hymnology contained in the Book of Psalms."

After the other delegates had retired, but with their knowledge and expressed approval, the delegates of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, and of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, held a conference on the subject of union between these two bodies. The result was the adoption of the following resolutions:

"We, the delegates from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, and from the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, in conference assembled, recognizing the desirableness of complete organic union between our respective Churches, do recommend to the Church courts by which we have been appointed:

"1. To continue the efforts for union now so happily inaugurated.

"2. Until organic union is effected, we recommend our respective Churches to devise some plan by which they can co-operate, to the fullest possible extent, in all the aggressive work of the Church."

There was a tacit agreement that negotiations should be continued by correspondence. This correspondence has been exceedingly pleasant, and, it is hoped, not without advantage to the cause of union. In order to have something definite before us for consideration, the writer of this report suggested a general plan of union to Rev. M. W. Pressly. He gave it his approval, and having embodied it in a circular, distributed it extensively through the Southern Synod. It is as follows:

I. Let the Confession of Faith, the Catechisms, and the Testimony of the United Presbyterian Church be the doctrinal standards of the United Church.

II. Let the forbearance in love, which is required by the law of God, be exercised toward any brethren who may not be able fully to subscribe to the standards of the United Church, while they do not determinedly oppose them, but follow the things that make for peace, and the things wherewith one may edify another.

III. Let it be explicitly declared that this forbearance is to be extended to those who may not be able to assent to the declaration of Article XIV of the United Presbyterian Testimony on Slave-holding.

IV. Let action be taken concerning details, as follows:

1. Let the respective Presbyteries and Synods of the two Churches remain as at present constituted, until otherwise ordered.

2. Let the Supreme Court of the Church be a General Assembly composed of delegates from the respective Presbyteries, the number of delegates to be according to the proportion of members constituting each Presbytery, as now fixed by the United Presbyterian Church, until a change be found expedient.

3. Let it be declared that the different Boards and Institutions of the respective Churches shall not be affected by this union, but shall have control of their own funds, and shall conduct their operations as heretofore, and that the Associate Reformed Synod of the South shall retain its name, and all its corporate rights and privileges, and be controlled in its Government, Discipline, and Worship, as at present, until the interests of the Church shall require a change.

With regard to this plan, Dr. R. Lathan, chairman of the conference committee from the Synod of the South, says, "I am perfectly willing to go into the union on the basis set forth in that circular. I have no objection to it, not even a suggestion to make in the way of a change." In referring to the subject of slavery, he says, "There are none of our ministers who are or ever were ultra men on the slavery question. Our record is good. We might say, if we were so disposed, that the Associate Reformed Church was opposed to slavery, and no man could take our records and prove the contrary. In our Church courts we never said one word about the subject." He finally suggests that, inasmuch as our Assembly meets before their Synod, we formulate a basis of union, and send it to them; and adds, "The basis you formulate may be modified by our Synod, and again, when sent back to you, it may still be modified. But if we can get fairly to work on the subject of union, I think a favorable end will be reached."

Fathers and Brethren, We have endeavored to set before you the present state of the negotiations for union, in the confidence that he whose prayer is that his people "all may be one," will preside in your deliberations on this important subject, and lead you to such a conclusion as will promote the interests of his kingdom.

Respectfully submitted.

DAVID PAUL, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE WITH THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

The Committee of Conference with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South has not had any meeting during the year. It is, however, believed that the sentiment in favor of more intimate relations between the two Churches is growing.

In behalf of the Committee.

A. G. WALLACE,
J. W. WITHERSPOON.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MEMBERSHIP IN THE GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

The question submitted to your committee is as follows: "Is membership in the Grand Army of the Republic consistent with Article XV of the Testimony?" According to our understanding of this article, that only is in opposition to the principles contained therein which requires an unwarrantable use of an oath, or in which an obligation is imposed, the real nature and effect of which are not understood at the time it is assumed.

What then are the facts bearing upon these points in regard to membership in the Grand Army of the Republic? 1st. As to the obligation taken by its members, we find it is a solemn promise upon the honor of a soldier. 2d. According to Article XIII of the rules and regulations adopted in 1883, and now in force in the association, the ritual, unwritten forms, reasons for rejecting applicants for membership, and the pass-word are to be kept secret; but any part of the proceedings of any department of the association may be, and frequently are, made public. 3d. The design of the association is to perpetuate the "fraternal feelings" which bind together the soldiers of the late war; to cherish the memory of those who were slain or have died; to care for their loved ones, and to guard the principles, the institutions and the interests for which they fought. These are the well authenticated facts in reference to the obligation, the nature of its secrets, and the objects to be accomplished by this organization. These we have gathered from various sources, but chiefly from the constitution and rules, by which the association is now governed.

Upon the basis of these findings, your commiitee would answer the proposed question as follows, viz.: That whilst there are minor points of likeness in this association to the class of secret orders against which Article XV of the Testimony is intended to operate, yet the law does not clearly cover the case of membership in the Grand Army; because there is nothing in the obligation imposed, or in the manner of administering it, that partakes of the nature of an oath. Neither is the conscience bound by an unknown code of laws, because the constitution and laws of the association are open to the inspection of every one proposing to become a member.

There remains, however, the fact that its ritual and some other things are to be kept secret, in consequence of which it has an appearance of the evils opposed by the law, and also something of a tendency to weaken. rather than strengthen, the efforts of the Church to defend those principles. Therefore, in order to avoid the very appearance of evil, we think it is wise and proper to counsel the members of the United Presbyterian Church to stand aloof from this and all similar associations.

Your committee, therefore, submit for adoption the following:

Resolved, That the answer and counsel contained in this paper be and hereby is adopted, as expressing the views of this Assembly in relation to membership in the Grand Army.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON A WOMAN'S BOARD.

Inasmuch as the Women's Convention, lately held at Xenia, O., gave their expression adverse to the establishment of such a Board at this time, and this may fairly be assumed as the mind of a majority of the women of the Church, your committee have not deemed it advisable to present anything to this Assembly for its action, and would offer for adoption the following:

Resolved, That the committee be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. COLLINS, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATES TO THE THIRD GENERAL COUNCIL OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES, HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM.

Although your delegates to the Third General Council of the Presbyterian Churches, held in Belfast, have had no meeting to effect an organization, and although no one of their number has been appointed to prepare a report, yet those delegates, who are present at this meeting of the Assembly, feel that some report should be presented to the Assembly.

According to the directions given by the Assembly at its last meeting, the delegates, on their arrival at Belfast, held a meeting and filled all the vacancies in the delegation by the appointment of ministers and elders of our Church, who were present in Belfast. In this way our Church was represented in the Council by a full delegation.

As the proceedings of the Council have been widely published, and as they have probably been read by the members of the Assembly, it is not necessary for us to attempt any report of the acts and deliverances of the Council.

It was decided to hold another General Council in London in 1888. It is for the Assembly to determine whether it will continue its connection with the Alliance. The meetings of the Council and its committees are attended with considerable expense, which has hitherto been borne by the voluntary contributions of individuals. The last Council requested the different churches of the Alliance to bear these expenses in proportion to their membership. The Executive Committee of the American branch have already decided to raise the sum of $3,000 in the American churches for expenses during the present year, of which our proportion will be $269. They have also agreed to endeavor to raise $10,000 for the Church in Bohemia, of which our proportion will be $897. If the United Presbyterian Church is to remain in the Alliance, arrangements should be made for paying our proportion.

We would suggest that this whole matter be referred to a committee to report to the next General Assembly.

Contributions for other objects than Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Missions and Church Extension are arranged under a general heading. When the particular object is known, it is given in the second and third columns, and reference is made to it by a †. By "Home Work" is meant that the money has been used in the Congregation, for missionary work, or for building, repairs, &c.

N. B.—An * affixed to the name or a number, indicates work in the Congregation.

An ? affixed to the number of members indicates that the number was not reported, and it is therefore estimated.

A ‡ prefixed to contributions shows that the aggregate was reported, but not the distribution to the several funds.

10. VITAL STATISTICS.

The following tables have been prepared from the records of the ordained ministers of the United Presbyterian Church, and of the Associate and Associate Reformed Churches as given by Dr. Scoullers' Manual, and the Minutes of the General Assembly.

Two lists have been used; one covering the whole period of these churches, including four hundred and sixty-two lives, the other extending only over the years 1869 to 1885, inclusive, including one hundred and seventy-three lives.

The length of ministry is counted from the date of licensure.

PARTIAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The Committee on Correspondence beg leave to report that the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, the fraternal greetings of which have been expressed to this Assembly to-day by Dr. Wells, is to meet in New Brunswick, and that in our judgment it would be a becoming act of courtesy for this Assembly to respond by the appointment of a delegate to convey to the Synod at its forthcoming meeting our Christian regards.

The following resolution is accordingly recommended for adoption, viz.:

Resolved, That Rev. W. W. Barr, D. D., of Philadelphia, be appointed to bear to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America the Christian salutations of this Assembly.

Proceeded to the order of the day, viz., a conference on Foreign Missions, Rev. W. P. McNary in the chair. At 9:55 o'clock, the conference rose and reported, through the chairman, that a very interesting conference had been held, in which had been heard an instructive account of the work both in India and in Egypt. This report was adopted. After prayer by Rev. J. D. Rankin, the Assembly adjourned.

FRIDAY.

9 o'clock, A. M.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The committee, appointed by the last Assembly to prepare a scheme of Ministerial Sustentation, presented such a scheme. After discussion, the following action was taken :

ACTION ON MINISTERIAL SUSTENTATION.

Resolved, That the proposed plan of ministerial sustentation appears in its general features to possess much to commend it to acceptance; that in a matter so important, however, it seems wise to take further time for maturing the plan and exciting an interest in it; that to this end the report which has been read be printed in the papers of the church, as well as in the Minutes of the Assembly; that the committee which prepared the report be continued, and that the Presbyteries be asked to communicate by January 1, 1887, to said committee in a general way their views in relation to the report, which communications the committee will condense and convey to the next Assembly, together with such suggestions as they may deem proper.

The Committee on Judiciary presented the following report on the complaint of Rev. J. W. Logue and others, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE COMPLAINT OF REV. J. W. LOGUE AND OTHERS.

In the case of complaint by Rev. J. W. Logue and others against the decision of the Commission of the First Synod of the West, in the matter of the appeal of Rev. S. R. Frazier and others from the Presbytery of Cleveland, your committee would submit the following report: We have examined the papers in this case and find that the complaint is not regular because premature; it having been made against the action of a Commission which had not yet reported to the court appointing it. The law of commissions reads as follows: "It," that is, the Commission, "shall submit a full record of its proceedings to the court appointing it, which, if the proceedings have been regular, and the Commission has not exceeded its powers, shall become part of the records of the court. The right of dissent, protest and complaint, and the rules of procedure therein shall be the same as in full court. The reason for protest, appeal or complaint shall be lodged with the Moderator or the Clerk of the court appointing the Commission." (See Minutes of Assembly, Volume V, page 527, Sections 5 and 6.)

Now this language plainly implies that the records of the Commission shall be submitted to the appointing court, and be declared regular, and within the limits of the Commission's power, before an appeal or complaint against its action can be admitted. Until this action has been taken by the appointing court, the higher court can have no access to the records of the Commission in case of complaint or appeal, and could not, therefore, issue the case. Also, the law declares that the reason for protest or complaint shall be lodged with the Moderator or Clerk of the court appointing the commission. These conditions not having been complied with in this case, we, therefore, recommend that the complaint be dismissed.

The Committee on the Board of Church Extension presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

We have examined the report of the Board, and are satisfied that this part of our church work has been conducted as prudently and efficiently as it can be, with the amount of money at the disposal of this Board.

The direct contributions to this Board, the past year, amount to $13,711.79. This is less than half the amount which the last Assembly asked from the church for the work of this Board. From the Quarter Centennial Commission, in loans repaid, and other sources, $16,834.91 have been received.

The donations and loans to congregations amount to $31,579.50. Appropriations amounting to $19,175 remain unpaid. And the necessities of the coming year will be greater than of the past year.

We recommend the following action:

Resolved, 1. That the conduct of the Board during the past year be approved.

2. That we earnestly request all our congregations to liberally support this Board.

3. That it is not the design of this Board ordinarily to aid established congregations in enlarging or re-building churches, but to secure to new and needy congregations a suitable place of worship.

4. That in view of the many new mission congregations requiring help, the Board should guard against giving too largely to any one mission.

5. That Presbyteries be instructed to co-operate with the Board in urging upon congregations the prompt payment of their loans.

6. That so far as it can, with the means at its disposal, the Board be instructed to continue to encourage the building of parsonages in weak congregations.

7. That the sum of $30,000 be appropriated to this Board for the ensuing year.

The nomination of persons to fill the vacancies in the different

Boards of the Church was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

PARTIAL REPORT ON THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Resolved 1. That the Board of Foreign Missions be directed to send out, as soon as practicable, six missionaries, two for Egypt and four for India, of whom one shall be a physician.

2. That a committee of five be appointed to collect, during the meeting of this Assembly, information touching persons who might be suitable to serve as missionaries, and communicate the information thus collected to the Board without presenting it in the open Assembly.

Revs. James Harper, D. D., D. A. McClenahan, W. A. Mehard, D. D., Ed. F. Reid, and R. J. Miller were appointed the committee provided for in the second resolution of this report.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Missions to the Freedmen was made the second order of the day for Monday afternoon.

At 3:30 o'clock, after prayer by Rev. W. M. Coleman, the Assembly adjourned to meet on Monday at 9 o'clock, A. M.

MONDAY.

9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. D. Irons.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Chas. B. Smyth, appellant from a decision of the Synod of New York, being unable to be present, requested that some one be appointed to represent him in his case before the Assembly. His request was granted, and Rev. J. D. Gibson, D. D. was appointed.

The report of the delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America of 1885, was read, and referred to the Committe on Finance.

The report of the treasurer of the Gibson Trust Fund was presented, and referred, without reading, to the Committee on Finance.

A communication was received from the local post of the G. A. R., inviting the General Assembly to participate in the services of decoration day. The invitation was accepted with thanks.

The Committee on Judiciary presented a report on the appeal of Rev. George A. Roseberg. This report, as amended and adopted, is as follows:

REPORT ON THE APPEAL OF REV. GEORGE A. ROSEBERG.

In the case of protest and appeal by the Rev. Geo. A. Roseberg against the decision of the Commission of the First Synod of the West in the Youngstown case, your committee would submit the following report: We have examined the papers in this case and find that, as in the case of complaint by Rev. J. W. Logue and others, already decided by this Assembly, this appeal is premature, and, therefore, irregular, having been taken before the decisions of the Commission were recorded by the Synod appointing it. We, therefore, recommend that the appeal be respectfully returned.

The Committee on Judiciary presented a report on the complaint and appeal of Charles B. Smyth and others. After discussion the case was referred to a Commission. The nomination of the members of this Commission was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

Rev. W. M. Grier, D. D., the delegate from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, addressed the Assembly in a few farewell words, and the Principal Clerk responded in behalf of the Assembly.

The following report of the Special Committee on Sabbath Observance was adopted:

REPORT ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your committee, to which was referred the subject of Sabbath observance, respectfully reports:

Taking into consideration the prevailing disregard of the sanctity of the Sabbath, and the threatenings of the Lord of the Sabbath for such disregard, and on the other hand His gracious promises to those who remember His day to keep it holy, that we and others may avert His righteous judgments, and secure His gracious favor, it becomes us to sigh and cry for these and other abominations that are done in the land. We recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. That pastors of congregations, and supplies in vacant congregations be enjoined to preach on this subject at an early day.
2. The Synods and Presbyteries be requested to hold conferences on this subject, and take such action as may be thought most proper to bring this matter before our National and State Legislatures, and the various railroad companies in their respective districts.
3. That the Moderator and Principal Clerk, in the name of this Assembly, address sister churches so as to secure their co-oporation in this matter.
4. That forasmuch as we are not likely to obtain our object at once, a permanent committee be appointed to take this matter in charge.

The nomination of the members of the committee provided for in the fourth resolution of this report was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The Committee on Correspondence presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The Committee on Correspondence beg leave to report as follows: Three papers have been placed in our hands, namely:

1. A report, prepared by a committee appointed by the last Assembly, in reference to the Presbyterian Alliance, or Alliance of the Reformed Churches.
2. A communication from the secretary of the Executive Commission of the American Branch of the Alliance aforesaid, asking the Assembly to appoint delegates to the next Council of the Presbyterian Alliance.
3. A communication from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, asking the Assembly to appoint delegates to attend a council which it is proposed to hold in Kampen, Holland, on October 15, 1886, consisting of representatives of all the churches adhering to the principle that the Scripture Psalms should exclusively be used in the service of praise.

Touching the first of these documents, namely, the report prepared by a committee appointed by the last Assembly, it is our opinion that it presents substantially the action which this Assembly ought to take. It may, however, be advisable to condense the report and modify it in a few particulars. With this view we submit for adoption the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, The constitution of the Presbyterian Alliance provides that there shall be no interference with the internal order or discipline of any church which has joined the confederation;

AND WHEREAS, In 1875 our General Assembly adopted a paper on this subject, asking that in consideration of the fact that several of the churches are, on conscientious grounds, opposed to the use of uninspired hymns in the worship of God, and that every Presbyterian branch of the church of Christ has acknowledged that the inspired Book of Psalms contains matter suitable to be employed in the praise service, the consensus of the Reformed churches be respected by the Confederation in its devotional exercises, and that a specific guarantee to this effect be incorporated in the constitution which may be adopted;

AND WHEREAS, The guarantee thus sought has not been given, while at the last Council our position was even practically disregarded by the use, to some extent, of uninspired compositions in the devotional exercises of the meetings;

AND WHEREAS, In the reception of churches to its confederation, the Alliance has shown a disposition to interpret in a very lax and, in our view, an improper manner the phrase, "the consensus of the Reformed churches;"

AND WHEREAS, The good likely to be accomplished by the Alliance seems hardly commensurate with the expenditure of time and money required; Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly, representing "The United Presbyterian Church of North America," hereby discontinues its connection with the Presbyterian Alliance.

2. That the Principal Clerk of the Assembly be, and is hereby, directed to issue an order on the Assembly's Treasurer for the payment of $269.00, our proportion of the expenses already incurred by the Alliance.

3. That a copy of this action be forwarded by the Principal Clerk to the Secretary of the Executive Commission of the American Branch of the Presbyterian Alliance.

The action thus recommended, if adopted, will dispose of the second paper placed in our hands, as indicated in the list given.

In reference to the matter specified in the communication from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, the following thoughts are offered:

We recognize with great pleasure the zeal evinced by our sister church in behalf of the Scripture Psalmody, and regard with much interest the project proposed, that of holding a Pan-Psalmody Council. At the same time we venture respectfully to suggest that serious objections may be urged against the proposition to hold such a council at the time and place named in the communication made to us.

For instance, this matter has not been brought sufficiently before the public mind to warrant the hope of securing such a meeting as is to be desired. Would it not be better, before determining the time and place of such a meeting, to obtain the judgment of the various Psalm-singing churches as to the feasibility and desirableness of the plan in general? Moreover, it does not appear that any invitation to hold the meeting proposed in Kampen has been given by the friends of Scripture Psalmody in that place. It would seem to us more feasible for the American churches, or the English-speaking churches, favoring a Scripture Psalmody, to hold a meeting of the sort meant. Afterwards arrangements might be made for a more comprehensive gathering.

In view of these considerations and of others which time forbids us to specify, we recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That, in the judgment of this Assembly, it is not advisable to hold a Pan-Psalmody Council until at least fuller discussion of the project can be had and preparation made.

2. That the Principal Clerk be directed to communicate this action to Rev. R. F. Bradley, chairman of the committee appointed by the Associate Reformed Synod to correspond with us in the case.

Another matter we suggest to the Assembly as claiming its attention. The Assembly has heard with delight the earnest and eloquent message borne to it by Rev. Dr. Grier, from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South. To reciprocate this courtesy is surely the duty of the Assembly.

The following action is, therefore, recommended for adoption:

Resolved, That the Assembly appoint a delegate to convey to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South our most cordial Christian greetings.

The last resolution in this report was adopted by a rising vote. The nomination of the delegate to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The Special Committee on National Reform presented their report. Before disposing of this report the hour of adjournment arrived, when the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. David Thompson.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. Wm. Galbraith.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on Nominations were instructed to appoint the place and time for the meeting of the Commission in the matter of the complaint and appeal of Charles B. Smyth and others.

The Committee on the Board of Home Missions presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

The only papers that have been placed in our hands are the reports of the Board of Home Missions and the General Committee of Missions.

It is with thanksgiving that we note the progress of our Home Mission work. More than one-half of the entire gain of the membership of the church, during the past year, has been in the Home Mission field, and there has been a very marked increase in the pastorates. There has been a very gratifying increase in the contributions to the funds of this Board. There has never been a time in the history of our church when our special Missions were in a more prosperous condition than they are to-day.

There is an urgent demand pressing itself upon our church to occupy the new territory that is so rapidly opening before us. A few years delay will debar us from many fields that are now full of promise to us. The vast scope of country west of the Mississippi, especially Western Kansas, Nebraska, Dakota, and on to the Pacific Slope, must be very soon occupied, or else lost to us as Mission fields. A few years will find the favorable openings occupied by other churches, and our opportunity for successful work cut off.

An especial need in the Home Mission work is efficient men. We have the money, but we lack the men to carry on the work. May not consecrated men, seeking the endownment of the Holy Spirit, be urged to enter on this work?

We wish to call the attention of our church to the present condition of our country. Immigration has brought a social and political leprosy with it, which has seriously infected our people, and, if unchecked, threatens the direst disaster. The only remedy for this malady is the gospel of Christ. We should carry this gospel, not merely to the respectable and rich, but to the degraded in our own localities; not only those who may claim a heritage in our church and country, but to those who have only known the church as an object of hate. Every United Presbyterian congregation should be engaged in a mission work at home, as well as abroad. If we overlook Christ's work at our own doors, how can we hope for His blessing in points at a distance?

The reserve fund of the Home Board has proved a font of blessing to the missionaries. The deficiencies of the past five years have, however, more than half consumed it. The church should replace this money; it has proved an excellent oil, giving cheer and confidence to those engaged in the work.

We recommend—

1. That the work of the Board of Home Missions be approved.
2. That the action of the General Committee of Missions be approved, and their recommendations be adopted.
3. That every congregation be urged to some special Home work.
4. That we more earnestly seek the gift of the Holy Spirit in our Home work.

During the discussion of this report, the following resolution was offered as an amendment, to be inserted after resolution 2:

"Resolved, That no appropriation be made from the Home Mission Fund in aid of any congregation or station using, in its worship, instrumental music, unless such practice be abandoned."

The amendment was lost; and Rev. James Harper, D. D., gave notice of protest against this action, in his own behalf and in behalf of any others who might join with him.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented majority and minority reports on the memorial from the Pittsburgh Conference. The chairman of the committee was directed to have these reports printed for the use of the members of the Assembly, and their consideration was made the order of the day for to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The Committee on the Board of Missions to the Freedmen presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

The report of the Board of Freedmen's Missions shows that the work committed to its care has been prosecuted with notable vigor, and with a marked degree of success. The past year has been one of the most prosperous and interesting in the history of the mission. The missionaries have enjoyed unusual good health and have been enabled to continue without intermission in the work. Some new and interesting features characterize the enterprise in the various stations. Special efforts have been made throughout the field, in the management of Sabbath Schools, in the training of teachers, in prayer meetings, and in the general educational departments. A brief glance at the different points will discover at once what has been accomplished.

Knoxville exhibits an increase in enrollment, the number now being 328. Religious services were conducted regularly, with spirit and with profit throughout the year. The normal department received particular attention, and it has been especially satisfactory.

In the Mission school at Chase City, the interest continues unabated. Thirty of our former pupils have imparted instruction to over fifteen hundred colored children. There are in the Mission school 206 scholars, and in the Sabbath school 356. There is a membership in the church of 27. The work in this station has been prosecuted with much efficiency, and the results are eminently gratifying.

At Bluestone, there is a church membership of 18. The enrollment of scholars this year has reached 206, and in the Sabbath School 356. While the fruit has been somewhat disproportionate to the effort, yet it affords no ground for discouragement.

The enrollment at Norfolk is 892, with a high average attendance. The different departments of this mission have been managed with skillful arrangement, and have resulted very favorably. The home for the teachers, authorized by the last Assembly, has been secured, and the benefits anticipated have been measureably realized.

The Board asks the Assembly for an appropriation of $35,000 for the prosecution of the work and the payment of the debt, incurred in part in procuring a home for the teachers. This is $5,000 less than the whole appropriation of last year.

At Prairie Bluff, Alabama, the prospect for the work was not flattering at the beginning of the year, but circumstances are somewhat changed for the better. The work has principally been in charge of one of the pupils of the Knoxville school, and has met with encouragement.

The little girls' home has been tenderly nurtured and has aided largely in contributing to the prosperity of the mission.

A boarding department has been attached to the mission, and has supplied an efficient instrumentality in affording temporal support to many who would not otherwise have an adequate maintenance in securing a continued prosecution of their education. This department has been so managed that it has been self-sustaining, and thus has proved a very great help.

The committee therefore would recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That sincere thanks be given to God for the especial favor He has accorded this Board in the prosecution of the work committed to its care, and the remarkable success achieved during the year.

2. That the sum of $35,000 be appropriated for the prosecution of the work for the current year, and the payment of the debt.

3. That the work of this Board be cordially and urgently recommended to the sympathy and liberality of our people; and especially is it requested, that the Sabbath Schools and Ladies' Missionary Societies make this cause a prominent object of their liberal benefactions.

After prayer by Rev. G. P. Raitt, the Assembly adjourned.

7:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. R. M. Patterson.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Proceeded to the order of the day, viz., the consideration of the report of the Special Committee on Temperance. Before disposing of this report, the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. E. Z. Thomas.

TUESDAY.

9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev, D. H. Pollock.

The roll was called and the minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises under the direction of the Moderator.

The Committee on Nominations presented the following partial report, which was adopted :

PARTIAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS.

WHEREAS, We believe it to be for the best interests of future General Assemblies and the church at large to have the Committee on Reduced Railroad Rates composed of a permanent committee of one; therefore,

Resolved 1. That this Assembly appoint one suitable person, with an alternate, as such committee.

2. That it shall be the duty of said committee to attend all the meetings of the General Assembly.

3. That provision be made for the payment of all expenses incurred in the discharge of his official duties.

Proceeded to the order of the day, viz.: The consideration of the majority and minority reports of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the memorial from the Pittsburgh conference. Before disposing of these reports, the hour of adjournment arrived. Their further consideration was made the order of the day for this afternoon immediately after the reception of papers.

After prayer by Rev. James Boyce the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. T. G. Morrow.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The following resolution was offered and referred to the Committee on the Board of Publication:

RESOLUTION ON A QUARTERLY REVIEW.

Resolved, That the Board of Publication be directed to consider the expediency of publishing a bi-monthly or quarterly review to be under the control of six editors, four of whom shall be professors in the Theological Seminaries, and two professors in the colleges of our church, and report the result of their consideration to the next General Assembly.

Took up the reports of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the memorial of the Pittsburgh Conference. The majority report was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

MAJORITY REPORT ON THE MEMORIAL FROM THE PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE.

A memorial from the Pittsburgh Conference was referred to the committee for its consideration.

It complains of a "divisive course" on the part of some in the Church, who, the memorialists declare, have disregarded the action of the last, and former Assemblies and the covenant in the law of overtures; and also that the hearts of "many dear brethren" are grieved and their consciences wounded by such a course.

It also contains a statement of certain facts and principles which it holds to be true, and which it asks this Assembly to consider.

The resolutions attached to the memorial represent "that the authoritative exclusion of instrumental music from the worship of God in the United Presbyterian Church is necessary to a final and peaceful settlement of the difficulty;" "that a a representation to this effect be made by this Conferenee to the next General Assembly, and that the Assembly be respectfully asked to order the exclusion desired;" that in case of refusal on the part of the Assembly to grant their request they are placed "under the painful necessity of choosing between obedience to the authority of Christ, and acquiescence in such refusal."

In response to this memorial of brethren greatly esteemed and beloved, the General Assembly would say:

It is to be regretted that trouble has arisen and continued for so long a time in the Church, on account of the repeal of the law prohibiting instruments of music in the worship of the Church.

This law was declared repealed by overture by the Assembly of 1882. This leaves all free, subject only to the law of love, and the question of edification, as declared by the last General Assembly.

The attempt to anthoritatively exclude instrumental music from the praise service in our congregations, as asked by the Memorial, would be an attempt to re-enact the law already repealed, and this is clearly beyond the power and authority of the Assembly.

Moreover, such authoritative exclusion, under pain of discipline, would be regarded as oppressive and intolerable by brethren, who do not believe that such law is warranted by the Word of God.

These facts being as stated, and in view of deliverances by former Assemblies, it is hereby respectfully declared by this Assembly, that the request of the memorialists cannot be granted, and that any further action by this Assembly is not necessary.

This report was adopted under the call for the ayes and nays, by the following vote:

The Assembly met and was opened with singing Psalm 67 and with prayer by Rev. J. B. Dales, D. D.

Before the opening prayer, the Moderator read a telegram announcing the death of Rev. W. M. McElwee, D. D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The following protest against the action of the Assembly in refusing to withhold appropriations from those mission congregations and stations using instrumental music in worship, was read and referred to a special committee consisting of Revs. W. P. McNary, J. P. Sankey, D. D., and Mr. J. A. Gardner:

PROTEST AGAINST THE ACTION OF THE ASSEMBLY IN REFUSING TO WITHHOLD APPROPRIATIONS FROM MISSION STATIONS USING INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC.

The following resolution was offered in a regular manner in the Assembly, namely: "Resolved, That no appropriation be made from the Home Mission Fund, to any congregation, or station, using instrumental music in its worship, unless such practice be abandoned."

The proposision, thus submitted, was rejected.

Against this action of the Assembly, the undersigned protest and offer the following as their chief reasons for so doing, namely:

1. This action is oppressive, for it disregards the convictions of all those in the church, and they are many, who count the use of instrumental music in worship unlawful in the New Testament dispensation. It is implied in this action that the use of instrumental music in a congregation, or station, is no barrier to the bestowal upon it of pecuniary support out of the common treasury of the church; yet the entire church is called to supply that treasury with funds. The opponents of instrumental music are, therefore, called upon to foster and further by their contributions what they deem a corruption of worship.

2. This action is unconstitutional, because it assumes that instrumental music may lawfully be used in worship in our church, whereas the liberty to use it has never been determined in the orderly way, by overture. The alleged repeal of the rule in our Directory prohibiting instrumental music, even if constitutionally effected, which we deny, was not equivalent to a permission to use such music in worship.

3. This action contravenes the deliverance of the last Assembly to the effect that the law of brotherly love "requires brethren and congregations to refrain from grieving the hearts and wounding the consciences of many dear brethren who feel that the use of instrumental music in praise is a corruption of worship."

Let this Assembly exemplify that charity which the last Assembly so properly commended, and if it do, it will rescind the action now complained of.

The following resolution was presented and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures:

Resolved, That a Permanent Committee be created to be known as the Committee on Reform, to whom shall be referred all memorials and papers on the subjects of the Sabbath, Temperance, National Reform, etc.

An invitation to the General Assembly to hold its next meeting in the Second Church, Philadelphia, was accepted, and the hour of meeting was fixed at 7:30 o'clock, P. M.

Charles Street Church, New York, was chosen as the place for the meeting of the General Committee of Home Missions, and the hour of meeting was fixed at 2:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Committee on Finance presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

Your committee would respecfully report that we have examined the reports of the Treasurers of the Boards of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Missions, Church Extension, Publication, Education, Ministerial Relief, of the General Assembly fund, Gibson Trust fund, and the Chinese mission, and find them carefully prepared, and with the exception of the last two, properly audited. With these exceptions, which we trust the Treasurers of the Gibson Trust fund and the Chinese Mission will notice, the recommendations of the Finance Committee and of the General Assembly of last year were complied with.

We have also examined the report of the Quarter Centennial Commission, and recommend its approval; also that the commission be continued for another year, with the thanks of this General Assembly for their past faithfulness. We note the fact that the Trustees of Westminster College, Muskingum College and Knoxville College have not complied with the instructions of the last two General Assemblies to the effect that "each Board and institution, receiving aid from the Commission, make report of the same," and that the Trustees of Xenia Seminary have made only a partial report. We recommend that these instructions be reiterated, and that each Board and institution be directed to report to the Commission not later than April 30, 1887.

We have received and examined the report of the Trustees of the General Assembly and recommend its approval. We note the fact, however, that the Secretary of the Board of Trustees, in making his report, has not been careful to state, in all cases, the specific object or objects for which bequests have been made to the Board. We recommend that the Trustees be directed to proceed with the settlement of the estates under their care, and to use the proceeds for the objects designated by the donors, so far as they have been specified, and that in all other cases not mentioned in this report, the funds be divided among the Boards of the church in proportion to the appropriations made by this General Assembly.

We recommend that the proceeds of the Elizabeth Pinkerton estate ($564.71), and of the Charles White estate ($499.25), now in the hands of the Trustees of the General Assembly, be appropriated to the reduction of the debt of twenty-eight hundred dollars borrowed to pay off the debt on the Boston Church. We recommend also that an appropriation of $5,000 be made to the Assembly's fund and that the Trustees be directed to use so much of this, as shall be necessary, to pay off the balance of the debt on the Boston Church. We recommend that the proceeds of the John Greenlee estate ($300) now in the hands of the Trustees of the Assembly, be appropriated to the Board of Ministerial Relief.

The General Assembly having already agreed to contribute its share of the necessary expenses of the Alliance of Reformed churches, holding the Presbyterian system, for the year 1884-5, your committee deem it unnecessary to make any recommendation.

In regard to the memorial from the Presbytery of Colorado, asking that the General Assembly take such action as may be necessary to carry into effect the action of the Assembly of 1884 in the matter of a general delegate fund, we recommend the following action by the Assembly:

1. It shall he the duty of the Treasurer of the Assembly, in his yearly estimates for the Assembly's fund, to provide for the payment of the actual traveling expenses of commissioners to the Assembly, over and above what would be paid by an assessment of ten cents per member in the Presbyteries from which they are delegates.

2. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Assembly to pay out of the Assembly's fund, all actual traveling expenses of delegates, which would not be paid by an assessment of ten cents per member in Presbyteries represented, and not otherwise paid, upon the recommendation of the committee on Delegates' and Commissioners' expenses.

3. The Assembly shall appoint a standing committee of one on Delegates' and Commissioners' expenses.

In regard to the petition addressed to the General Assembly from the Women's General Missionary Society, your committee recommend the following action:

That appreciating very highly the spirit manifested in the late meeting of the Women's General Missionary Society, and in their petition addressed to us, we are encouraged to make a special effort to cancel the debt now resting upon the Boards of our church.

That beginning immediately and continuing until the meeting of the next General Assembly, our Congregations and Missionary Societies be directed to make a special effort to cancel the debt now resting upon the Boards of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Missions and Church Extension, giving three months to each Board, and taking them in the order named; that the Secretaries of the Boards, Financial Agents, Pastors and Sessions be directed to instruct the people as to the indebtedness of the Boards, and the work they are doing, and that special collections be taken up for them in the order named. These collections, however, are not to interfere with the regular collections for the Boards of the church. All moneys collected for this purpose shall be so designated, and shall be used only in the payment of debt.

We recommend the payment of the following bills:

Expenses of the Delegates to Associate Reformed Synod (South)	$262.20
Murdoch, Kerr & Co., Printing and Mailing Circulars	8.17
Stevenson & Foster, stationery and printing	29.04
Expenses of Committee on Railroad Fares	6.50
Sexton U. P. Church, Morning Sun	10.00
Expenses of Delegate to General Synod of Reformed Church in America	12.00
C. M. Campbell, printing	4.50
Principal Clerk, expenses	19.00
Second Clerk, expenses	17.00
Sexton U. P. Church, Hamilton	20.00
Clerks of General Assembly for desk purchased	45.00
Delegates from Presbytery of Oregon	181.20
Delegate from Presbytery of Colorado	25.80
Delegates from Presbytery of San Francisco	163.50

We recommend that the Clerks be authorized to purchase a fire proof safe for the safe keeping of valuable papers belonging to the General Assembly, and that a warrant be drawn on the Treasurer of the Assembly's fund for a sum sufficient to pay for it.

Resolved, That Financial Agents be urged to attend all meetings of Presbytery, as the Assembly's officers, and be diligent in the discharge of their duties, as laid down by former Assemblies.

Resolved, Also that the worthy and efficient Treasurer of the Assembly, be requested to attend, if possible, all meetings of the General Assembly.

Took up the report of the Committee on National Reform, which was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON NATIONAL REFORM.

Previous Assemblies of the United Presbyterian Church have recommended to our people the general principles of National Reform. It is gratifying to learn that the presentation of Bible ideas of government by the advocates of reform, and by the press devoted to its discussion, is educating the people to recognize that civil government is an ordinance of God, and derives its authority to administer justice from him alone; that Jesus Christ, the Head of the Church, is, by appointment of the Father, the Ruler of nations, and has laid down in his Word the fundamental principles by which the enactments of every civil code are to be tested; and that this Word ought to be recognized as the fundamental law of the nation and be incorporated into its very constitution.

We view with deep concern the determined and persistent efforts of Secularists to eliminate all distinctively Christian legislation from the statute books of the several States and of the nation itself, and to abolish all Christian usages and observances from our national life.

We therefore regard the continued advocacy of this reform as imperatively necessary, and rejoice in its successful advocacy of Bible truth on this important subject against the Secularism which assails us, and against persistent violations of God's law by human enactments. Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That the various utterances of former Assemblies, relating to National Reform, be reaffirmed.

2. That we commend to the generous financial support of our people the Secretaries, and advocates of this movement, as they labor to promote and disseminate just and proper views on this subject.

After prayer by Rev. D. M. Sleeth, the Assembly adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 8:30 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY.

8:30 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with singing a part of Psalm 98 and with prayer by Rev. A. N. Hagerty.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The matter of fixing the amount of the expenses of the delegates to the present Assembly was referred to the Committee on Finance.

The nomination of the Committee on Delegates' Expenses was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The report of the Special Committee on Temperance was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

The traffic in intoxicating drinks as a beverage brings good to no one, but its terrible effects are evil, and only evil to all who are brought beneath its baneful influence. It is an out-law, which is trying to ascend the throne of American politics, and by its insolence and wickedness, bring both the State and National governments under its misrule..

It then becomes the duty of Christians everywhere, with great unanimity, while differing as to methods,to place a united front against this terrible system of iniquity and do all in their power to accomplish its overthow. Hence it is with no little joy that we witness the great awakening and recruiting in behalf of temperance in the ranks of the Christian army; a willing people in this, the day of Christ's power coming to him, to the help of the Lord against the mighty for the suppression of this sinful traffic. Therefore, we recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. The liquor traffic is forbidden by the Word of God, (Hab. 2: 15,) and is a barrier to the growth of the church, an enemy of the home and the State, and its legitimate fruit is, and has ever been, oppressive taxes, wretched paupers, cruel madmen, wasted fortunes, ruined homes and lost souls.

2. That, as it is in the power of the General and State governments, within their respective jurisdiction, to abolish and prohibit the liquor traffic, in their failure to do so, and in licensing, taxing or taking revenue of the liquor traffic, they become parties in the nefarious business, and are guilty of establishing and encouraging iniquity by law.

3. That it is the duty of the dominant political parties, and of all in authority in civil government, to submit the prohibition of the liquor traffic to a vote of the people under their care, and not to bow before the Moloch of the liquor power.

4. That we unhesitatingly declare ourselves for the prohibition of the liquor traffic, both State and National, and will labor by our counsels, our prayers and our votes, as God gives us to see the right, for its speedy accomplishment.

5. That in the rapid progress now being made in the cause of temperance, much credit is due to the prayers and labors of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, and while not endorsing everything they do,—notably, some of their Sabbath meetings,—we rejoice in the great and good work they are accomplishing, and bid them God-speed.

6. That the signs of the times, in which we live, indicate that the liquor traffic is the next great evil, which the Lord of Hosts, in his great strength, has arisen to destroy; and that a willing people, in this the day of his power, are rapidly coming to his help. So we thank God and take courage.

The Committee on Statistics presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON STATISTICS.

There have been referred to your Committee the following papers: 1st. The report of the Second Clerk with statistical summaries for the year ending March 31, 1886, statistics of Ladies' Missionary Societies, and the alphabetical list of ministers. 2d. A recommendation from the clerks of the Assembly, that the historical record of congregations, showing their geographical location, Presbyterial connection, date of organization, and successive pastorates, which has been prepared by Rev. J. B. Scouller, D. D., be published in the Minutes of the Assembly.

I. In reference to the statistical tables, we find they have been compiled with great care and accuracy. The statistics of the Missionary Societies, while very full and satisfactory, involve a large amount of work, difficult both in the preparation and printing, because of the effort to give the fullest details.

We recommend the following resolutions:

1. That the statistical tables, as submitted to the Assembly, be approved.

2. That the Second Clerk be authorized to omit the minor details of the Missionary Societies.

II. In regard to the recommendation of the clerks of the Assembly to publish the historical record of congregations, as prepared by Rev. J. B. Scouller, D. D.

Resolved 1, That the clerks be directed to publish the historical record of congregations in the Minutes of the General Assembly this year.

2. That a vote of thanks be extended to Rev. J. B. Scouller, D. D., for his great care and vast labor in preparing the history of our congregations, and that in recognition of his services, the Principal Clerk be directed to draw a warrant in his favor for $100.

The Committee on the Board of Education presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

From the report of this Board, we learn that during the past year aid has been given to twenty-two Theological, and three Literary students, coming from seventeen different Presbyteries. Assistance to the amount of $1,200 was given to one College and three Academies, having nine teachers, and two hundred and fifteen students.

To meet the probable demands, the Board asks for an appropriation of $5,000 for the coming year.

While it is evident that the trust committed to the care of this Board is conducted with marked prudence and faithfulness, it is important for the church to remember that in order to the judicious expenditure of the funds contributed to this cause, and the accomplishment of the greatest possible good by this agency of the church, it is imperative that Presbyteries exercise the greatest care in the selection of students, and institutions of learning, recommended for aid.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the work of this Board for the past year be approved.

2. That Presbyteries be reminded of the necessity for the exercise of the utmost care in the selection of students, as beneficiaries of this Board, and in recommending only such institutions as give promise of permanence and usefulness in the cause of Christian education.

3. That $5,000 be appropriated to the Board for the coming year.

4. That the church be and hereby is earnestly urged to contribute the full amount appropriated.

The Committee on Revision presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON REVISION.

We have had placed in our hands printed and certified copies of the Minutes of the General Assembly, the Synod of New York, Synod of Pittsburgh, First Synod of the West, Synod of Illinois, Synod of Ohio, Second Synod, Synod of Iowa and the Synod of Kansas; also a manuscript copy of the Minutes of the Presbytery of Sialkot, written in a plain and legible hand.

As far as we have been able to examine these records, we find that the business has been transacted Presbyterially, and that the records have been neatly and correctly kept.

We, therefore, recommend the following action:

Resolved, That the above mentioned records be approved by the General Assembly.

The records of the Synod of the Pacific and of the Presbytery of Egypt have not been received, and we find that these records have not been presented for examination for some years. This ought not so to be. Therefore Resolved, That the Synod of the Pacific and the Presbytery of Egypt be required to present their records for review to the next General Assembly.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a report on on the formation of a new Synod, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON A NEW SYNOD.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures, to which was referred the memorial from the Synod of Iowa, praying that that part of said Synod lying west of the Missouri river be organized into a new Synod, to be called the Synod of Nebraska; also, a resolution of the Presbytery of Colorado, asking to be transferred thereto, in case the Synod of Nebraska be established, begs leave to present the following;

Resolved, 1. That the prayer of these petitioners be granted, and that all that part of the Synod of Iowa lying west of the Missouri river, be formed into a new Synod, to be called the Synod of Nebraska, and that the Presbytery of Colorado, now and heretofore belonging to the Synod of Kansas, be transferred to the Synod of Nebraska.

2. That this new Synod hold its first meeting at 7:30 P. M, on the last Tuesday of September next, in the city of Omaha, to be constituted by Rev. Marion Morrison, D. D., and that Rev. R. J. McCready be his alternate.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a report on the Memorial from the Women's Auxiliary Board, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY BOARD.

The establishment of a Women's Board was brought to the attention of the General Assembly of 1884. By that Assembly, and at the instance of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions, it was referred to a special Committee on Women's Missionary Societies, who reported the following, which was adopted, viz.: "That without committing this Assembly to the measure, a committee be appointed to consider the subject of establishing a Women's Board, and, if in their judgment, the way be clear, to mature and report a plan for the organization, to the next General Assembly." The committee, appointed in pursuance of this resolution, consisted of Rev. J. A. Collins, Rev. W. T. Meloy, D. D., and Rev. J. A. Wilson. This Special Committee made a report to the General Assembly of 1885, which was adopted, and is as follows: "Inasmuch as the Women's Convention, lately held at Xenia, Ohio, gave their expression adverse to the establishment of such a Board at this time, and this may fairly be assumed as the mind of a majority of the women of the church, your committee have not deemed it advisable to present anything to this Assembly for its action, and would offer for adoption the following:

Resolved, That committee be discharged from the further consideration of the subject."

At the third annual meeting of the Women's General Missionary Society, convened in the city of Allegheny, Pa., on the 11th inst., the establishment of a Board was agreed upon, to be styled "The Women's Auxiliary Board," to "take charge of the Missionary Work of the General Society; to devise ways and means of carrying on that work, sending out foreign missionaries, supporting native helpers, Bible women, and children in schools, supporting teachers in the home fields and giving aid to all the various departments of missionary work undertaken by the regular Boards of the Church; and for this purpose, to receive and disburse all money which shall be contributed or placed in its charge by Auxiliary Societies." "No work to be undertaken without the advice of the regular Boards of the Church."

At the same meeting in Allegheny and by the same convention, fifteen ladies were elected to serve as members of this Board. From these comes the Memorial now before your Committee, "asking for the counsel of the General Assembly and the sympathy of the whole church," accompanied by a copy of the amendments to the constitution of the Women's General Missionary Society and the By-Laws of the Board of Managers.

Your Committee is embarrassed by the question thus brought before it. We feel grateful to God for the great and growing interest in his cause as manifested in the organization and work of the Women's Missionary Societies of our Church. We bid them God-speed and hope much will be accomplished by their organized efforts to help on the good work, as represented by our various Boards. Yet we have grave doubts as to the propriety of establishing a Women's Board on the basis indicated in the papers accompanying the Memorial. Your Committee therefore recommends the following, viz.:

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly tenders cordial sympathy to the women of our Church in their laudable efforts on behalf of the cause of Christ, and heartily bids them God-speed.

2. That we cordially approve the purpose of the Women's Missionary Board, as auxiliary to the Boards of the General Assembly, and to be conducted according to their concurrent advice.

3. Whereas it is desirable that confusion and the possibility of collision in any respect should be avoided. Therefore,

Resolved, That a committee be appointed by this Assembly to confer with these ladies or the officers of their Auxiliary Board, in relation to their proposition, said committee to have the right, if in their judgment they deem it proper, to draft a constitution for such a Board and submit it to the next Assembly.

The nomination of the Committee provided for in the last resolution of the above report was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on the Memorial concerning the Knights of Labor, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures, to which was referred the memorial of the Presbytery of Albany, finds it impossible to report anything of a decided character in regard to those associations, known as "Knights of Labor," and other kindred associations, because we have no adequate knowledge of their true character, or of the forms and extent of the obligations which are assumed at the time of initiation.

There is, however, too much reason to believe that these associations require a surrender of personal liberty to act in accordance with the individual's own conscience of right and wrong, and hence are an entanglement and a snare, which we earnestly counsel all our members to avoid.

Your committee would have the Assembly direct all our sessions to carry out the rules of our church in dealing with any members who have joined, or who may be about to join, any of the associations in question, as they shall obtain such positive information as will enable them to act intelligently in the case.

We recommend the adoption of the following, viz:

Resolved, That we enjoin upon all our members to abstain from connection with any association which might lead to acts of violence, or to the invasion of the rights of property, or interference with the liberty of men to engage in honest labor where and when, and for whomsoever they may choose.

The Committee appointed to answer the reasons of protest of Rev. James Harper, D. D., and others, presented the following report, which was adopted:

ANSWERS TO REASONS OF PROTEST AGAINST THE ACTION OF THE ASSEMBLY IN REFUSING TO WITHHOLD APPROPRIATIONS FROM STATIONS USING INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC.

Your committee, to which was referred the protest of Dr. James Harper and others against the action of the Assembly in granting aid to congregations and mission stations using instruments of music in worship, would respectfully suggest the following reply:

1. To the second reason:—The Article in the Directory forbidding the use of instruments was declared repealed by a clear constitutional majority by the General Assembly of 1882, the highest court of the church and the only Assembly that could count and declare the result. That decision has been recognized by each succeeding Assembly. It is, therefore, constitutionally repealed. That repeal clearly signifies that there is not sufficient authority in the Word of God to justify their exclusion on Scriptural grounds; and in any case, the repeal of a prohibitory clause gives liberty to do that which before was forbidden. Moreover, that action taken in its historical significance, that is, considering the overture by which it was repealed was sent down in the face of a memorial praying for its enforcement, is equivalent to permission to use instruments in worship.

2. To the first reason:—The Church, having repealed the law prohibiting instruments, cannot justly discriminate against congregations or mission stations using them. In reference to the oppression complained of; it is one of the hardships incident to the government of the church by majorities of fallible Presbyters, which we believe to be of Scriptural authority, that minorities are sometimes placed in positions which require the exercise of forbearance. In such cases, when persons in the minority have used all scriptural means to oppose the action of the majority, and have entered their protest against that action, there ought not to be any burden on their consciences.

3. To the third reason:—The action of the last Assembly was intended, as far as possible, to relieve the hardships which may be imposed by inconsiderate majorities in congregations. Such majorities are thereby earnestly exhorted not to use their liberty to the offense of others; and that counsel we most heartily reaffirm. But it should be remembered that the law of love is of mutual obligation.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on the subject of union with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, which was adopted:

REPORT ON UNION WITH THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

On the subject of union with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, the Committee on Bills and Overtures reports as follows:

WHEREAS, The Joint Committee of Conference of the United Presbyterian Church of North America and the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, at a meeting held in Due West, S. C., September 26, 1885, adopted and ordered to be submitted to the Supreme Courts of the respective churches, for their approval, a Basis of Union;

AND WHEREAS, The union of these churches, so closely allied in doctrine, government, worship and history, is highly desirable; Therefore,

Resolved, That the Basis of Union adopted by the Joint Conference be sent down in overture to the Presbyteries, according to and in the terms of its recommendation, the vote thereon to be taken during the year and reported to the next General Assembly.

The basis, as reported by the Joint Committee, is as follows:

1. The Confession of Faith and Catechisms, as now received by both Churches, together with the Testimony of the United Presbyterian Church, shall be the doctrinal standards of the united Church, with the explicit understanding that the forbearance in love, which the law of God requires, shall be exercised towards any brethren who may not be able fully to subscribe to all the Articles of the Testimony, provided they shall not determinedly oppose them, and shall follow the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

2. The arrangement concerning details, until the interests of the united Church require a change, shall be as follows:

(1) The respective Presbyteries and Synods of the two Churches shall remain as at present constituted.

(2) The Supreme Court of the Church shall be a General Assembly, composed of delegates from the respective Presbyteries, the number of delegates to be according to the proportion of ministerial members constituting each Presbytery, as now fixed by the United Presbyterian Church.

(3) The different Boards and institutions of the respective Churches shall not be affected by this union, but shall have control of their own funds and shall conduct their operations as heretofore; and the Associate Reformed Synod of the South shall retain its name and all its corporate rights and privileges, and be controlled by its Book of Government, Discipline and Worship, as at present.

The Assembly consented to the absence of Rev. J. F. Hutchison during the remaining sessions of the Assembly.

The Committee on Sabbath Schools presented their report. Before disposing of this report, the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Elder J. C. Robinson.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. M. Atchison.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The report of the Committee on Sabbath Schools was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

It is with gratitude to God that we learn, through the report of the Sabbath School department of the Board of Publication, that the divine blessing has rested upon the Sabbath School work of our Church during the past year.

Two thousand one hundred and forty-six scholars have confessed Christ, and there has been an increase of three thousand five hundred and eighty-one in the total number of scholars, and of $1,536 in the amount of the contributions. Forty-three Presbyterial Conventions and Conferences have been held, in which more than ordidinary interest was manifested. Ten Presbyteries failed to report. But, in the forty-eight reporting, there are one hundred and twenty-two Teachers' Preparation Meetings and ten Normal Classes—not so many as there should be in view of the great advantages to be derived from a weekly interchange of views among the teachers in regard to the truths of the lessons and the best methods of teaching them, and of the great importance of elevating the standard of teaching by providing an adequate force of trained teachers.

It is found that the plan of having Sabbath Schools contribute to special objects has generally resulted in securing an increase of contributions, wherever it has been tried.

The Day of Prayer for Sabbath Schools has not been as generally observed as it should be, but we believe that this fact does not necessarily show the designation of the third Sabbath of October for that purpose to have been unwise. This is the day found to be most suitable by most of the other denominations, and it is believed that the failure to secure its general observance in our own Church is mainly due to the neglect of Pastors and Sessions.

Your Committee recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. That Presbyterial Superintendents of Sabbath Schools be directed to use all reasonable effort to have Teachers' Preparation Meetings held weekly in all the Sabbath Schools of their respective Presbyteries, and to encourage the forming of Normal Classes for the training of teachers.

2. That this Assembly hereby expresses regret that ten Presbyteries, viz.: Big Spring, Boston, Detroit, Illinois Southern, Le Claire, Missouri Western, Princeton, Rock Island, Stamford and Vermont, failed to report to the Sabbath School Committee of the Board of Publication, thus rendering the statistics collected by them incomplete.

3. That the last Sabbath of June, 1886, be appointed a Missionary Day in all our Sabbath Schools, with the recommendation that special services be held in the interest of missions. And inasmuch as we have learned that provision has been made already for the purchase of a new boat for the use of our missionaries on the river Nile, that special contributions be made on that day for the payment of the expense of repairing the boat Ibis, all money contributed in excess of the amount necessary for this purpose to be divided equally between the Training Schools in our missions in Egypt and India.

4. That all our Sabbath Schools be requested to contribute to four special missionary objects during the year, beginning July 1, 1886, said special objects for each quarter of the year to be designated by the Boards of Home Missions, Church Extension, Freedmen's Missions, and Foreign Missions, in the order named. Such contributions shall be forwarded at the close of each quarter to the Financial Agents of the respective Presbyteries.

5. That we recommend to the patronage of all our schools the Sabbath School publications of our own Church, and express our gratification on account of the general support which has been given them.

6. That since it is very desirable that the Board of Publication have the fullest possible information concerning the Sabbath School interests of our Church, the work of gathering annual Sabbath School statistics be again committed to its care.

7. That the third Sabbath of October be observed as a day of special prayer for Sabbath Schools, and for the preaching of sermons to the children, and that pastors and sessions be urged to hold special services upon that day in the interest of this important department of the Master's work.

8. That a conference upon Sabbath School work be appointed for the second evening of the next General Assembly, and that the Sabbath School Committee of the Board of Publication be appointed to arrange and publish a programme.

The Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Your Committee would recommend the following resolutions:

1. That the Assembly approve the report of the Board of Foreign Missions, and direct the publication of 10,000 copies of it.

2. That the Assembly especially recognize the hand of God in His mingled dealings with our foreign work during the past year. On the one hand, He has given large ingatherings of native converts, and led multitudes, more than ever, to wait and plead for the Gospel at our hands; and on the other hand, He has suffered us to be much in want of funds, has laid aside for the time several of our missionaries, and there are sad evidences that two more of the ordained missionaries must cease work ere long. In His sovereignty He has taken away one of the foremost by death, at a time when all felt he was needed the most. Is not the hand of God in all this?

3. That the Assembly express its sense of the loss thus sustained, in the death of Dr. John Hogg, of the mission in Egypt, and its sympathy for the bereaved widow and children, and that the Board be directed to continue to Mrs. Hogg the allowance of a returned missionary for the year 1886. [Adopted by a standing vote.]

4. That the commendation of the Assembly be given to the Women's Missionary Societies, and the children of the Sabbath Schools for what they have so happily undertaken, and in good measure have done for this work during the year.

5. That the appointment of the following persons be confirmed to the Foreign work, viz.: To India, Misses Anna F. Given, Maria White, M. D., and Rosana T. Wilson; and to Egypt, Misses Adella Brown, and Matilda Strang; and that the Board be instructed to send out at the earliest day possible four new missionaries to India, one of whom should be a physician, and two to Egypt; and that the church be called upon to meet these loud calls of the Master as soon as it can be done.

6. That the following appropriations be made for the ensuing year viz: For India, $36,262.60; for Egypt, $38,455,00; for missionaries' children in this country, $1,100; for the Board's expenses, $800; for printing and mailing reports, circulars, etc., $1,050; for outfits and transportation of new and returning missionaries, $7,200; for debt, $23,000; total, $107,867.60. A large sum indeed! but representing, as your committee sees it, the actual need of our mission fields.

7. That the attention of the whole church be called to the fact that while the contributions and legacies received during the last year have increased the funds of the Board, yet the work has increased still more, so that the Board has not been able to lessen the debt.

8. That an itemized statement of all expenditures and investments of funds intrusted to the Board, and its liabilities be made hereafter to the Assembly.

The Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The report of the Board of Ministerial Relief shows that it continues to manage its business carefully, economically and successfully. It also shows that a steadily increasing interest is felt throughout the Church in the work of this Board, contributions to its treasury, from Presbyteries, Sabbath Schools, Missionary Societies and individuals being somewhat larger each year. The endowment fund aggregates at the present time $58,000.

It deserves to be mentioned in this connection, that two liberal-minded brethren have recently contributed, each one thousand dollars, to this fund, an example which, it is hoped, will be imitated by others.

In the judgment of your committee, this Board should receive the hearty support of the Church. Its beneficaries have just and strong claims on us for assistance. If it be the duty of the State to pension its disabled soldiers, much more is it the duty of the church to care for hers.

We accordingly recommend that $5,000, the amount asked for the work of the coming year, be granted.

The Committee on the Board of Publication presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

The papers, referred to your Committee, were the annual statement and report of the Board of Publication, a resolution by the Assembly seeking action looking toward a reduction in the price of the Sabbath School literature issued by the Board, and a resolution suggesting the publishing of a bi-monthly or quarterly review. From this annual statement and report it appears that the sum total of business done in the year, in amounts, is as follows:

Business Department	$29,919 19
Periodical Department	23,114 73
Total	$53,033 92

It also appears that Rev. J. T. Cooper, D. D., on account of declining health, resigned the editorship of the Evangelical Repository, and Rev. A. G. Wallace, D. D., was elected to fill the vacancy. We learn that the revision of the Psalter is progressing, and efforts are being put forth to make it as complete as possible. We recommend the following:

1. That the business statement, operations and work in progress of the Board, as reported, be approved.

2. That the Committee revising the Psalter be requested to hasten the completion of the work, and publish the same as soon as the revision is complete.

On publishing Sabbath School literature; we have ascertained that the total cost of publication of this Sabbath School literature seems to be sufficiently close to cost prices to avoid business disaster and maintain business success. Still it might be possible to make a slight reduction in some of the periodicals without sustaining loss.

We find also the issuing of the Evangelical Repository the last year has been at a cost of $211 over its receipts. We suggest the following:

1. That the Board be directed to inquire into the propriety of making a reduction in the issuing price of any or all of the periodicals from the 1st of January, 1887, and if in their judgment no reduction can safely be made, to report the same, with reasons, to the next Assembly.

2. That the Board be directed to put the Evangelical Repository on a self-supporting basis; or, failing to do this, inquire as to the advisability of discontinuing its publication, by sale or by cessation of issue, and report to the next Assembly.

With reference to the resolution concerning a bi-monthly or quarterly review; we suggest that the Board of Publication be requested to inquire into the propriety of publishing a bi-monthly or quarterly review, to be under the control of six editors, four of whom to be professors in the Theological Seminaries, and two professors in the colleges of our Church, and to report the result of their inquest to the next Assembly.

The following protest against the action of the Assembly on the Memorial from the Pittsburgh Conference was presented, and referred to a special Committee, consisting of Revs. W. P. McNary, J. P. Sankey, D. D., and Mr. J. A. Gardner, with instructions to report their answer to the Principal Clerk, to be published in the Minutes of the Assembly:

PROTEST AGAINST THE ASSEMBLY'S ACTION ON THE MEMORIAL OF THE PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE.

Against the Assembly's action in regard to the memorial of the Pittsburgh Conference, we, whose names are hereto subscribed, protest. Our principal reasons of protest are the following:

1. The action, in question, unwarrantably assumes that the repeal of the rule in our Directory amounted to a permission to use instrumental music in the service of praise. For reasons which have been set forth in previous protests, and which our limited time forbids us to present in detail, we deny the correctness of the position thus taken for granted, while, in addition, we deny that the rule in question was constitutionally repealed.

2. The Assembly's action improperly assumes that the authoritative exclusion of instrumental music from worship would be equivalent to a renewal of the rule alleged to have been repealed. As has been often shown, that rule is of a mixed character, embracing two elements—a prohibition and a reason for it. It is conceivable, and it is also a well-known fact, that not a few who favored the prohibitory element of the rule, objected to the reason combined with that element. Opposition to the complex rule does not necessarily imply opposition to the prohibitory element of the rule. Hence, it is unfair to assume that the authoritative exclusion of instrumental music would be tantamount to a re-enactment of the rule said to have been repealed.

3. The action under consideration assumes, without right, that in the present circumstances of our Church, the authoritative exclusion of instrumental music from the service of praise is not demanded by the Scriptural law of brotherly love. The situation of our Church is this: that some regard the use of instrumental music in the service of praise as a corruption of worship, while others hold that such use is allowable, yet not imperative. Ought not, then, the latter class yield to the former, so far, at least, as to abstain from using that which is offensive to brethren? To act otherwise is an offense against the law of charity, and such an offense as, being persisted in, calls for the exercise of ecclesiastical discipline, for an offense exposing to discipline is, according to our Book of Government, "anything in the avowed belief, or in the practice of a church member, which is contrary to the word of God, or which, in its nature and circumstances, is calculated to lead others into sin."

4. The action of the Assembly errs by defect, inasmuch as it fails to renew and press the exhortation and injunction of the last Assembly, that all abstain in the matter of music from any violation of the law of love. Surely, the present condition of our Church calls for the most earnest counsel and exhortation in the line indicated. Has not the Assembly exposed itself, by its silence, to the suspicion of having studiously avoided the discharge of this obvious duty? The omission cannot have arisen from any apprehension of interfering with conscientious convictions on the part of either instrumentalists or anti-instrumentalists.

A. G. WALLACE, Second Clerk.

[According to the instructions of the General Assembly, the following answer to the reasons of protest against the action of the Assembly on the Memorial from the Pittsburgh Conference was reported to the Principal Clerk for publication in the Minutes:]

ANSWER TO THE PROTEST AGAINST THE ASSEMBLY'S ACTION ON THE MEMORIAL OF THE PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE.

Your committee, to which was referred the protest of Dr. James Harper and others, against the action of the Assembly in the case of the Pittsburgh memorial, would respectfully present, for record, the following reply:

1. The 1st reason is fully answered in the answer of the Assembly to another protest of James Harper and others, by this Assembly.

2. It is granted, that the prohibitory clause might be enacted, without inserting the reason, as it was in the Directory; but in that case, the reason there given would be implied, because no Church Court has a right to enact a law, regulating divine worship, that is not sustained by the Word of God, either by expressed or implied injunction. In any case, such a prohibitory law could only be legally enacted by an overture to the Church.

3. The law of love is of variable application. There is no rule to decide how much a believer ought to give up, of that which he believes to be, and which the Church has decided to be his right and lawful privilege, for the sake of peace and co-operation with others who differ from him. To require a majority to give up a privilege which the Church does not condemn, for the sake of a minority, and to enforce that requirement with discipline, would be a very arbitrary exercise of ecclesiastical authority. Forbearance in love would not be forbearance, if it was compulsory.

4. The action of the last Assembly is still in force, and is not in the least affected by the action of this Assembly. It is something new for members of a Church Court to protest against its non-action in refusing to reaffirm that which is still in force.

W. P. McNARY,
J. P. SANKEY.

I agree to the above, except the fourth point of the answer, which needs qualification. I consider the following preferable:

4. The action of the last Assembly remains unrepealed, and is unaffected by the action of this Assembly, except, however, as the action of the latter may be considered as declaratory of the true intent and meaning of the resolutions of the Assembly of 1885. This Assembly has not refused to affirm or press anew the action of former Assemblies. Such course was unnecessary, so long as the former resolutions (whatever their force) remain unrepealed. Failure to reaffirm in such case cannot be the subject of legitimate protest, and therefore no answer is required.

JAS. A. GARDNER.

APPENDIX.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Your Trustees would respectfully report as follows:

On July 7, 1885, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year, viz.: Rev. R. B. Ewing, D. D., President; Rev. S. Collins, D. D., Vice President; James M'Candless, Treasurer; and Graham Scott, Secretary.

Our Treasurer's account, properly audited, has been forwarded to you, and it will show our financial transactions in detail.

In accordance with the recommendation of the last General Assembly, we settled the bequest of John Greenlee, of Mercer County, Pa., by accepting from his son, Wm. Greenlee, three hundred dollars, in full of all claims against the said John Greenlee's estate.

The following estates have been under the care of your trustees for settlement, some of them for several years. Through the delays of the law, their settlement has been retarded hitherto, but we hope to be able to report some, if not all of them, settled during the coming year: Estate of Margaret Y. Cummins, of Philadelphia, Pa., house and lot, No. 2212 Locust Street, Philadelphia, probable value $4,000, subject to a ground rent of $1,300, left for the Missions of the General Assembly; estate of John M'Naugher, of Caledonia, N. Y., left to the Trustees of the General Assembly for Home and Foreign Missions; estate of Margaret Lewis, of Pittsburgh, Pa., left to the Trustees of the General Assembly for the United Presbyterian Orphans' Home, and Home and Foreign Missions; estate of Mrs. Margaret Jane Moore, of Pittsburgh, Pa., left to the Trustees of the General Assembly for the M'Carrel Fund; estate of Rev. Thomas Hanney, of Owen Sound, Ontario, Canada, $1,000 left to the Trustees for the General Assembly; estate of Andrew Mann, of Sterling, Kansas, left a farm at Hanover, Indiana, which we have not yet been able to sell; estate of Benjamin Kane, of Cherry Fork, Ohio, leaves his property to his wife, since dead, so long as she remains his widow, and then to the United Presbyterian Church for Mission purposes; estate of Samuel M'Coy, of Marshall County, Illinois, proceeds of the sale of all his property, after paying his debts, etc., to be paid to the United Presbyterian Church; estate of Robert Mackey, of Guernsey County, Ohio, left his property for Foreign Missions and the United Presbyterian Church in Oregon; estate of John Robinson, of Wellsville, Ohio, left his property to the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions and Church Extension.

Twenty-eight hundred dollars of the money borrowed to pay off the debt on the Boston church remains unpaid. The General Assembly is requested to provide for the payment of this sum, either by authorizing it to be paid out of the money now in our Treasurer's hands, or by providing funds in some other way.

The claim on the 116th Street church, New York, was compromised by taking a second mortgage for $1,200 on their church property. Their building was advertised for sale on the first mortgage, but the sale, for some cause, was postponed. Our attorney, in New York, advises us that the claim is safe, but that it will need watching.

The term of office, for which James T. McCance, Thomas Jamison and S. L. McHenry were elected Trustees of the General Assembly, will expire next July. You are requested to fill their places by a new election.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GRAHAM SCOTT, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

In presenting their Twenty-seventh Annual Report, the Board of Foreign Missions gratefully record the goodness of God in enabling this great work of the Church to be steadily and successfully carried on during another year. The following statements and suggestions are presented for the information and the earnest consideration and action of the Assembly.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The receipts for the year were:—

From Presbyteries,	$43,342 46
" Ladies' Missionary Societies,	6,796 19
" Sabbath Schools,	5,706 28
" Individuals,	9,801 64
" Bequests,	18,705 54
" Interests,	884 43
" Quarter Centennial—Special	400 00
" Gibson Trust Fund for Distributing Bibles in the East,	716 23
	$86,352 77

The expenditures were:—

India,	$31,938 89
Egypt,	46,151 70
Salaries and expenses of officers	800 00
" of Missionaries in this country,	3,693 15
Children " " ,	633 33
Travel of Missionaries,	610 81
Printing and Mailing Reports, etc,	1,053 00
Incidental Expenses,	50 22
Local " ,	119 00
Interest,	186 44
Gibson Trust Fund for Distributing Bibles in the East,	716 23
Balance forward to next year,	400 00
	$86,352 77

The above large receipts are specially gratifying, but comparing them with those of last year, it will be seen the contributions from the regular sources of income are in the aggregate just about the same in amount. The increase of say $10,000 is almost entirely from legacies. It must be obvious to every one that reliance cannot be placed for income from this source, as it will always vary so much from year to year.

A CRISIS.

In view of the greatness and the peculiar interest of our Foreign Mission work, and especially of our painful indebtedness at the time, the Assembly last year appropriated $99,781.62 for the ensuing year. And very special appeals and efforts have been made to raise this amount. Most thankful are the Board to be able to report that $86,352.77 have been contributed to this cause. But while this is a larger sum of actual contributions than have ever been made to this work in a single year, still there is a very large indebtedness resting upon us; and in no way, too, should it be forgotten that any lack of funds to meet this indebtedness and make the remittances due each month to carry on the Missions has to be provided for by borrowing, and interest has to be paid on all moneys so borrowed.

This indebtedness extends to both Missions. That to Egypt is much the larger. After speaking of it and showing that it has steadily increased since 1881, mainly through the failure of the Board to make the remittances as they were due each month, and from having, especially during the past year, to make some payments which were unforseen and could not be provided for, the Mission make the following statement which is most earnestly commended to the attention of the Assembly and all of the churches.

"The remedy for the state of things existing is difficult, indeed, to find; but surely it is unwise, nay hazardous, to send out new missionaries, whether male or female, to either of the Foreign fields when funds cannot be secured to support the missionaries who are already on the field, and are much more useful than any new missionaries can be for several years to come. Even though these new missionaries be supported by societies whose collections for that purpose may not diminish the sum of contributions on general account, still as every missionary sent out, not only requires a salary, but adds greatly to the expense of the mission, for rents, schools, teachers and missionary machinery of other kinds, any society wishing to send a missionary without increasing the cost of the mission, should contribute yearly over and above the salary a sum equal to it, besides paying traveling expenses to the field of labor. True, we are greatly in need of new missionaries, both male and female, and by all means our force should be kept up to its strength before the departure of Brother Alexander for a visit to America and the death of Dr. Hogg; but if the Church will not furnish the means of support there seems to be no remedy left but to relieve the pressure by sending home to such time as a spirit of liberality is poured out on the church, one, two or more of the foreign missionaries from each of the two foreign missions, for thus a sum in each case nearly equal to double the salary would be saved. True, such a course would greatly, fatally, injure the work which by common consent of the Christian world has been left for us to do, and which we can do, if only as a church, we are consecrated to the Master's service, and felt this service a duty and a privilege. Let it be remembered, too, that the moment we withdraw from any part, others will occupy, whose doctrines and practices we would not approve.

(Signed), G. LANSING,
A. WATSON,
JNO. GIFFEN,
Committee.

The report of the Committee was unanimously adopted."

In view of this state of things, the Board most earnestly submit to the Assembly whether a time has not arrived when one of two great alternatives are laid upon us: First, Either to take effectual steps at once to remove this indebtedness and provide against its recurrence with all its perplexities to the Board and its injury to the Missions. Or, Secondly, To seriously consider the question whether, notwithstanding all the manifest blessing God has given to our Foreign Mission work, we should not at once cease to send forth any new missionaries, disband some of the schools, curtail the work, or, last and saddest of all, withdraw some of the laborers from the fields, and that when those fields were never so white for the harvest and the calls so urgent for laborers as they are at this very hour.

Now, which of these two things shall be done? Most anxiously does the Board ask this question of the Assembly and the churches.

In view of the momentous interests at stake, and of the danger of our missions being crippled and our work curtailed, or forced to be stopped in some of its departments, it is respectfully suggested whether it would not be well every way for a day to be appointed, say the first Sabbath in November, when this cause shall be presented in all of our pulpits, and that a special collection shall be taken in all the churches for the payment of the remaining debt, in addition to the regular quota.

THE BOOK DEPARTMENT.

A very encouraging feature in our foreign work is the evidently increasing demand in both missions for the Scriptures and religious and educational works. To meet this demand the India mission published during the year 2,000 volumes and sold 3,939. The total sales reached 1,612 rupees (nearly $800), and much good it is believed was done by the works thus scattered abroad.

In Egypt the whole number of publications, tracts and other works was 10,000. There were sold, of the Scriptures, 9,962 copies; religious publications, 8,886; and educational, 19,324; total, 38,172. The amount secured for these various works was $8,371.46, of which $2,576.84 were for the Scriptures.

Special thanks are due the American Bible Society for the grant of 8,016 copies of the Scriptures and to the British and Foreign Bible Society for 1,072. Both Societies bore full share of all the expenses connected with the circulation of the Scriptures in connection with this mission.

THE WORKERS.

Of the eighteen foreign missionaries and the fifteen unmarried female missionaries, all but three of the former, and three of the latter were steadily and usefully engaged in the work during the year. But in the constantly increasing labors, and responsibilities of that work through the new openings of each year, and the pressing demands which the largely growing numbers of new converts, as well as new fields, are making for the most careful and earnest spiritual oversight, many of the missionaries are being greatly broken down, and unless speedily relieved and strengthened must in all probability early fall on the high places of the field. Most urgent is the call for more laborers.

RETURNED MISSIONARIES.

Revs. James S. Barr, D. D., and Andrew Gordon, D. D., with their families, and Misses Elizabeth McCahon and Cynthia E. Wilson of the India Mission are now in this country, the latter two having returned on the 25th of July last. Miss Isabella Strang and Rev. J. R. Alexander and family of the Egyptian field are also in this country, the latter having returned last July. Most of these laborers had been in their respective fields about ten years each and were all in need of a respite and a change. Already most of them are showing marked signs of improvement. All of them also feel so much the need of their labors in the missions that they will return at the earliest day in their power. It is hoped nearly or quite all of them will do this in the ensuing fall. In the meantime they are doing good service in pleading the cause of missions as far as they are able here at home.

NEW MISSIONARIES.

At the last Assembly very urgent calls were made for reinforcements to each of our missions. Greatly to our regret the Board have been unable during the year to meet these calls. Yet good work has been done. Early in the last year Rev. Gurgis Anshalian, a native of Armenia in Turkey, was brought to the attention of the Board for the work in Egypt. He had been a convert, and for several years was pastor of a native church, of the American Board in Mesopotamia; then on coming to the United States he became a member of the Second United Presbyterian Church of Jersey City, was taken under the care of the Presbytery of New York, afterwards studied for a time in our Seminary in Xenia, O., and at length was sent out by the Board in September last to be employed as a native minister in connection with the mission in Egypt. From his knowledge of the language and the earnestness with which he engaged in the work, it is hoped great good will come from his labors. At our last word he was about to be settled as pastor of the native church at Koos in Upper Egypt.

During the year the Board were cheered to find that a number of the Women's Missionary Societies were willing to undertake the support of new female missionaries that might be sent out, and thus, while in the low state of our treasury the Board could not assume the responsibility of taking upon it new liabilities and expenses, yet when these offers were made, the way opened up, and the following persons were unanimously appointed, subject to the confirmation of the Assembly:—Misses Anna F. Given, Adella Brown, Maria White, M. D., Rosanna T. Wilson and Matilda Strang. All these persons, it is understood, will accept the appointment if it is finally made, and they have been requested to be ready to set out for their fields by September next.

Most earnestly is it hoped there will be at least one new man also to go out at that time to each mission.

REV. JOHN HOGG, D. D.

It is with profound sorrow that the Board mentions, that on Saturday, the 27th of February last, this very able and devoted missionary of Christ departed this life. He fell in the midst of his manifold labors, after eleven days illness in his mission home at Asyoot, Upper Egypt, in the 53d year of his age. Born and trained in Scotland, he went to Egypt as a Bible distributor and teacher in 1856, joined our mission fully in 1860, and thenceforth to the day of his lamented death was identified with every movement for the evangelization of the people of Egypt through the labors of our mission to spread abroad the Gospel in that land, and to bring the people to enjoy the benefits of a Christian education. He loved the Master and the Master's work. His zeal consumed him. He was a model missionary. He wore himself out. He rests from his labors. His works do follow him.

The Board most earnestly commend his widow and her eight children to the sympathies, the prayers, and the tender consideration of the Assembly and of the whole Church. The salary of Dr. Hogg has been continued to them by the Board for the current year, and it is hoped that then arrangements will be completed for several members of the family to be engaged in our mission service,—a position for which it is believed they are well fitted every way.

SPECIAL WORK IN THE MISSIONS.

During the past year each mission has sought to carry on thoroughly every department of its work. The effort to reach and evangelize the low caste population by the India mission has continued to be followed with the most happy results. Large numbers of these people have readily embraced the Gospel and made public confession of Christ. The number of converts is almost marvelous. In Egypt, also, the missionaries have continued to find access to the Moslem as well as the Coptic population, and many of them have embraced the Christian faith.

In both missions the schools have been carefully maintained, and especially the Training Institutes at Asyoot, Egypt, and Sialkot, India. Great interest has been manifested in each mission in the bringing forward of a well qualified native ministry. Very largely was Dr Hogg engaged during the year in translating into the Arabic language, and Dr. J. S. Barr into the Hindustani, valuable works in theology for the use of native young men preparing for the ministry. Others of the missionaries have done good service in this way, and the best results are expected to follow.

In each mission also constant attention has been paid to the Zenanas, or the work of having Christian women bear the Gospel, with all its precious light and influence, into the benighted homes of native and hitherto untaught and unreached heathen women. Thus large numbers have been made to hear of the way of life, and in numerous instances have been brought to confess faith in Christ.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

During the year the interest of the women of our Church in the work of missions, and especially that part of it which aims at having the Gospel made known to heathen women, has continued to increase. The number of women's missionary societies has steadily increased, and the Board gratefully acknowledge the sum of $6,796.19 from these societies the past year to aid in carrying on our great work. Only let every woman of our Church take an interest in this work and give it her sympathies, her prayers, and her offerings, and no one can tell how much may be accomplished. And why should she not? Who can tell how much Christian woman owes to the Gospel? Should she not desire to have her heathen sisters have that Gospel also, and enjoy its great benefits?

Very special pleasure is felt in mentioning that twelve Women's Missionary Societies are now engaged in supporting, in whole or in part, unmarried female missionaries in our mission fields. Some have nobly done this for years, others are just entering upon the work, and already great good is seen from the movement—good here at home in a far deeper interest being awakened in the cause of missions in all who unite with these societies, and good in the mission fields by having several persons sent to the work who could not have otherwise been taken up, as the Board had not funds to do it.

Most earnestly, however, does the Board hope that any society that thus undertakes to raise the salary of a new missionary, and have the Board send her, will perseveringly and faithfully see that the contributions for this purpose shall be regularly continued each year. If there should be any failure to do this, the burdens of the Board will be increased to that extent, and that at a time and in a way which it would not for a moment have undertaken to assume but for the pledge of the society. But there is every confidence that there will not be any such failure. Only let every society keep up its meetings, and every member do her duty, and then under the blessing of God there will be no possibility of a failure or lack.

In all this, also, it is most earnestly hoped that in no case will the raising of these moneys be allowed to interfere with the regular quota from the churches, as without this all our work must seriously and perhaps disastrously suffer.

THE SABBATH SCHOOLS.

The appeal last year for the Sabbath Schools of the Church to raise the means of carrying on the educational work, especially of the Training Schools at Sialkot and Asyoot has been very largely responded to. Many of the Schools have made liberal contributions for this purpose, and the effort has happily showed how much the children of the church can do (and will do), if a sufficient object is presented them and they are afforded the opportunity of contributing for it. The effort to raise up a native ministry, and those who shall be the teachers and educators in our mission fields is a noble one. The ultimate success of the mission work largely depends upon this being thoroughly and generally done. The twelve native pastors and licentiates of the Egyptian Mission, and the eleven of India, or the twenty-three native preachers of the Gospel in all, are gratifying evidences of what may thus be usefully done. Most urgently is it desired that their numbers shall be largely increased.

In many instances great encouragement has been given to the young to engage in this and other ways of helping forward the work of missions by having them formed into Mission Bands or Societies. Thus much missionary information is given them. They are taught to make efforts for the cause of Christ, and are led to do much present good, and to form good habits and principles for all their after lives.

HELPERS.

The Board gratefully mention that during the year much good has been done by the circulation of the Scriptures again among the Arabic speaking population of the East under the Trust Funds of Dr. William Gibson. Each year it is hoped this work will increase yet more and more in its extent and usefulness.

The American Tract Society has, as usual, made a contribution to our mission for doing any work that is in its line. The American and British and Foreign Bible Societies have made their liberal grants again of the Word of God for general distribution.

In both the India and Egyptian missions, the civil administrations have shown gratifying, and in some respects, very helpful interest in our work by their officials, sometimes attending upon the exercises of the missions, and sometimes contributing for carrying them on.

The Turkish Missions Aid Society of London, and the Ladies' Missionary Society of Paisley, Scotland, have rendered their usual good service in furnishing us funds, and thus again have materially aided our work. In regard to the latter of these, the Paisley Ladies' Missionary Society, many will deeply regret to learn it has closed its operations. In announcing this, the Board most gratefully record its deep sense of the liberal help which for so many years this society generously gave for carrying on the girls' school which it founded in Alexandria, Egypt, and then liberally long helped in carrying on.

THE WORK AT HOME.

While it seems singularly strange that a cause, that lies so manifestly near the heart of the great Head of the Church, has not found a place in the contributions of some of the congregations under the care of the Assembly, yet there is gratifying evidence that interest in the cause of foreign missions is a living and increasing feature of our church. Many ministers more and more preach about it, and pray for it, and give information in regard to it. Many people are asking for more of this attention to it, and showing the effect by themselves thinking and speaking and praying and doing more for it. The children too are reading and inquiring more in regard to it, and are more largely making their offerings for it.

To meet and increase this state of things, the Board are happy to report that the ten thousand copies of the last report were published according to the direction of the Assembly, and were promptly put in circulation. As far as possible they were made to reach every congregation, and there is reason to believe, the careful reading of them did much good. Already large numbers of our next report are asked for in advance.

With a view also of meeting the desire for information in regard to our work, the Board have taken steps to issue with the report this year a map of each of our missions. Much good is anticipated from these maps being widely circulated, as they will give more definite and extensive information respecting the great fields we occupy.

OUR WANTS.

These are varied, immediate and pressing:—

We want prayer in the closet, in the family, in the sanctuary, specially for the manifestation of the Holy Spirit, to awaken and deepen the spirit of missions in the church at home, and to make the labors of our missionaries more and more effective for the salvation of multitudes in all their fields abroad.

We want more missionaries, male and female. The fields are white for the harvest. The laborers we have are lamentably few. Several of them are feeling the weight of the years and infirmities of their long, hard service. Most certainly should persons be sent to be prepared to take their places and be at once their earnest helpers. Often in the past the cry of this Board has been "whom shall we send" and "who will go for us." But never has this cry been more earnestly called for, and laborers more pressingly and immediately needed than at this very moment.

We want funds—the funds to meet the expenses that are going on every day, summer and winter, and that must be met or the missionaries suffer, and their work be hindered—funds to send out the new missionaries which are so much called for by all the necessities and the best interests of the case—and funds to pay off the unworthy and mortifying indebtedness that is upon us.

Will not the Assembly and the Churches consider these and the like wants of this great work, and promptly see that they are at once and fully provided for?

REPORTS OF THE MISSIONS.

These are prepared by each mission with great care, and contain a vast amount of information. They will follow this statement of the Board in our Annual Report and are most earnestly recommended to the careful reading of every member of our church.

By order of the Board,

W. W. Barr, President.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

In presenting its annual Report to the General Assembly the Board of Home Missions feels that there is special reason for gratitude to the great Head of the Church in view of the prosperity that has attended the work during the year, and the highly encouraging prospect for continued and increasing success. "Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake."

The regular monthly meetings have been held, and one additional meeting, occupying the greater part of two days, the 26th and 27th of April. At this extra meeting the claims of the special missions under our care, and the requests made by Presbyteries for the exemption of stations from the operation of the sliding scale rules, were considered.

At the regular meeting in July last the Rev. John G. Brown, D.D., Corresponding Secretary, asked to be immediately relieved from his duties. In view of the reasons urged by him, the Board was constrained to comply with the request, and directed the present Secretary, whose term of office under the action of the last Assembly would not have begun until January 1, 1886, to take charge of the work at once. Dr. Brown was elected President of the Board, and thus continues to give the Church the benefit of his counsels and of his long experience in this important department of her service.

I. CONDITION AND PROGRESS OF THE WORK. This may be most satisfactorily exhibited in the following comparative statement, which is chiefly a summary of the facts gathered from the reports received by the Board. Details will be given in the statistical tables submitted to the General Committee. The year covered by the reports closes with the 31st of March.

	1885-6.	1884-5.
Number of Stations granted aid	231	228

From these figures it is apparent that in every important particular there has been marked advance upon last year, though that was justly regarded as the most prosperous year ever reported in our Home Mission work. It must be borne in mind, too, that the tables understate, rather than overstate, the facts as to our mission stations. Nine of the number have sent in no reports during the year. Eighty-two report for less than four quarters. Twenty-four, part of them having become self-sustaining, received no appropriations for the current year, and are represented in the tables only by reports for the fourth quarter, ending June 30, 1885, the accounts of which are necessarily included in this annual report. Many things of importance, indicating an unusually promising condition of our mission stations generally, cannot be presented in figures, or fully set forth in any printed statement. It is enough to say that God has evidently and greatly blessed the labors of his servants, and is giving abundant encouragement to the United Presbyterian church to prosecute her Home Mission work with renewed vigor and with increased confidence of success. At some points, indeed, we have met with disappointment and loss; at others the outlook is not very encouraging; but these are comparatively few in number and are but exceptions to the general prosperity.

II. Grants by the Board. To meet the needs of stations referred to the Board for fuller consideration of claims for exemption from the sliding scale rules, the Assembly placed at our disposal $1,108; for other cases referred $950; and to provide for emergencies, $3,000, a total of $5,058. Of this sum the Board has appropriated to different stations $4,548, as reported in detail below. Names of Presbyteries are distinguished by italics.

For increase to stations referred under the sliding scale rules: Argyle, Greenwich, $90, s.; $40, s. s.; College Springs, Corning, $194, s. s.; Detroit, Brockway, $62, p. s.; Crosswell, $69, p. s.; Fremont, $63, p. s.; Garnett, Ottawa, $70, p. s.; Missouri Western, Kansas City, $75, p. s.; Neosho, Walton, $40, p. s.; total, $663.

For other stations referred: Omaha, Sterling, Dak., $400, s. s.; Illinois Central, Pana, $50, s. s.; total, $450.

For increased appropriations asked by Presbyteries during the year: Cedar Rapids, Barclay, $100, s.; College Springs, Irwin, $100, s.; Colorado, Denver, $200, s. s.; Concordia, Concordia, $60. p. s., for full time; Detroit, Commerce, $50, s.; Fort Gratiot, $50, s. s.; Southern Illinois, Grand Av., St. Louis, $200, s. s.; Indiana, Indianapolis, $50, p. s.; Rushville, $75, p. s.; Omaha, Bonilla & Woonsocket, Dak, $100, s. s.; San Francisco, Fresno, $100, s. s.; Sidney, Buckland, $60, s. s.; Wheeling, Buchanan Hill, $32, s.; total, $1,177.

For old stations that received no appropriations from the General Committee: Lake, Franklin, $200; Neosho, Howard, $400, s. s.; Omaha, Elkhorn, $130; Steubenville, Carrollton, $125; total, $855.

To settle claims of the preceding year, for which no appropriation had been made: Westmoreland, Connellsville, $120, Scottdale, $125; total, $245.

For new stations in which work was begun during the year: Boston, Chicopee, $400; College Springs, Eden, $300; Detroit, Maple Ridge and Con, $35; Omaha, Bartlett and Ewing, $50; Pawnee, Benkleman, $373; total, $1,158.

The appropriations specified in the last four paragraphs were all made to meet emergencies. They amount to $3,435. The necessities of the work called for more than the $3,000 placed at our disposal, but we felt at liberty to meet the need by using a portion of the unexpended balance granted for cases referred.

III. Approriations Withheld. In a number of instances, as in other years, the conditions upon which aid was granted were to a greater or less extent unfulfilled, and the appropriations were withheld for a part or all of the time. The amount thus withheld is: For the fourth quarter of last year, $1,511; for the first three-quarters of the current year, $5,386; total, $6,897. Detailed statement of these cases seems to serve no practical use, and will therefore be omitted in this and in future reports.

IV. Special Missions. During the year seventeen stations have been, by direction of the Assembly, under the care of the Board as special missions. With very few exceptions, the reports of Presbyteries, and the full statements recently received directly from the missionaries in charge, show these congregations to be in excellent condition and to give promise of becoming self-supporting within a reasonable time. Five have settled pastors; three others, pastors elect; eight, stated supplies who are expected to remain. From one the stated supply has just removed, and no successor has yet been appointed. One station has withdrawn from the Church.

Twelve of these stations were placed under the care of the Board for terms extending beyond the present year. They are here named in alphabetical order, with a brief statement of facts in regard to each one. The figures following the names indicate the periods for which they have been made special missions. Few statistics are given, as these are fully reported in the tables.

Alpena, Presbytery of Detroit. 1884-7. The Rev. J. L. Thompson has continued to serve as stated supply, and has recently been called as pastor. He reports steady growth, an efficient working organization, and a very encourging prospect for increase and for the establishment of a good congregation. The city is in a comparatively new region, which is filling up with people from Canada in sympathy with our principles, yet not very well instructed in regard to them. Judicious management will, it is believed, bind them firmly to us. New mission fields are opening up in the vicinity, and the missionary is diligently endeavoring to supply them and to provide for their occupancy. The climate is severe in winter, and there is danger that Mr. Thompson's health may give way; but we trust he will be able to continue in the field and prosecute the good work he has begun. The appropriation by the Board is $600, the same amount as last year.

Burlington, Presbytery of Keokuk. 1880-5-8. This station reports a small loss in the total membership and a less encouraging outlook than formerly, owing to business depression and the tendency to remove from the city. These adverse circumstances may reasonably be expected to change by and by. The congregation is at peace and in good working order. The interior of the church building has been, at considerable expense, put in much more inviting condition. Rev. Peter Swan is still the hard working pastor. $550 was asked for next year, but the Board, believing that a larger amount could and should be raised by the congregation, granted but $500, $50 less than last year's appropriation.

Chinese Mission, Los Angeles, Cal. 1884. Concerning this mission little can be added to the full reports of past years. The Missionary, Rev. J. C. Nevin, continues his labors amid some discouragements, not the least of which is the anti-Chinese agitation on the Pacific coast, but with the conviction that good is being done among these people, and in the full persuasion that the seed he is sowing will yet produce an abundant harvest. He has the assistance of some of the people of our mission Church at Los Angeles in the Sabbath School work. For the coming year the Board has appropriated $1,400.

Davenport, Presbytery of Rock Island. 1884-9. Another year of active and efficient work by the same stated supply, Rev. W. A. Spalding, has been attended with a good degree of success. At no former period in its history has the general condition of the mission, or its prospects for growth and success, been so encouraging. The attractiveness and comfort of the house of worship have been greatly increased by extensive improvements to the Sabbath school room and the entire renewal of the heating apparatus. This has been done without incurring debt, at a cost of $750, and without impairing other contributions. The attendance, interest, and working spirit are all excellent. An appropriation of $600, the amount granted last year, was aked for the coming year. The Board has appropriated $550, in the hope that the congregation will endeavor to raise a little more, and thus enable us to help others. Mr. Spalding is reappointed as stated supply.

Denver, Presbytery of Colorado. 1882-7. Early in the year Rev. J. D. Rankin, somewhat unwillingly, owing to his sense of the arduous and responsible nature of the work, but constrained by the urgent entreaties of the people, accepted our appointment as stated supply, and was shortly afterwards called, ordained to the ministry and settled as pastor of the congregation. He does not now regret that he was led to recognize the hand of God pointing him to this field of labor. His special report to the Board is in the highest degree encouraging. Everything is in good condition; embarrassing debts all paid; numbers increased; a fine spirit prevailing; attendance on the services constantly increasing. Nothing now seems to stand in the way of steady progress, and with God's blessing upon the efforts that will be put forth there is no apparent reason to doubt that within a few years we shall have a strong congregation in that important city, amply repaying all our outlay and doing efficient service for Christ. The gratifying report comes from this station, as from both the others in the Presbytery, that the full quota has been raised for all the Boards of the Church. $1,100 has been granted for next year, a reduction of $100. This large amount was given the more cheerfully in view of the pastor's expressed belief that the appropriation could hereafter be considerably and steadily lessened.

Indianapolis, Presbytery of Indiana. 1880-5-8. Rev. J. P. Cowan, continues his labors here as pastor. No net increase is reported, but there has been very decided advance in all the elements that contribute to the efficiency of a congregation. There is entire harmony; an increased and very efficient session; a thoroughly organized Sabbath school, with a corps of competent and devoted teachers; and on the whole an outlook quite as favorable as the peculiar history of this congregation warrants us to expect. At the request of the missionary, and by direction of the Board, the Corresponding Secretary made a visit to Indianapolis in March, spending a Sabbath and assisting at a communion service. The impressions from that visit fully sustain the opinion of the pastor, that all things considered, the mission has never been in such hopeful condition or the prospects of ultimate success so encouraging. The years of devoted, patient work given by brother Cowan to this place have not been in vain. He has overcome some difficulties that once seemed to be insurmountable, and will soon, we trust, be rewarded by an ingathering of the Lord's own granting. The prospect of increase is at present good. Last year injustice was unintentionally done to the missionary by the implied conclusion in our report that the erection of the parsonage relieved him of considerable expense, and by the reduction of the appropriation under that impression. We now know that the cost of the house is to be met by annual payment, not by the congregation, but by the pastor, of about $240 from his own limited salary. This fact led the Board to increase the grant of last year, and to continue it without reduction for the present. It is $600.

Leavenworth, Presbytery of Kansas 1884-9. This is the only station under its care for which the Board did not succeed in securing, during the year, a permanent missionary. Under the discouraging effects of repeated disappointments, it would not have been surprising had the congregation declined in numbers and been weakened materially in other respects. It is gratifying, indeed, to be able to state that no such results appear. On the contrary, our mission at Leavenworth is now regarded by the Presbytery and the Board as giving better promise of success than for years. By the energetic efforts of the ladies of the congregation the interior of the house of worship has been made as neat and attractive as could be desired. The Secretary of the Board states this from personal observation. The building is very well located, in an unusually conspicuous position, and in easy reach of the fine mission field, less accessible to other churches, which is opening up with the recent growth of the city in that direction. Already the Sabbath school is largely increased. Supplies have been sent as they could be obtained. Rev. J. A. Morrow did excellent sevrice during about half of the third quarter. To him we are indebted for a very full and satisfactory special report upon the condition and prospects of the mission. With the hearty concurrence of the people the Board has recently appointed Rev. W. J. Gillespie, pastor of Union congregation, in Southern Illinois Presbytery, as the stated supply. He has accepted the appointment and expects to take charge of the mission at an early day. The Presbytery earnestly requested a grant of $800 for the coming year, an increase of $200. The Board, after careful consideration appropriated $700.

Los Angeles, Presbytery of San Francisco. 1883-8. With the aid of the Board of Church Extension, a small but neat and comfortable house of worship has been erected in a good location, and was rejoicingly entered a few weeks ago. This will put the work in much more favorable condition for progress. Rev. J. M. Hervey has continued to serve efficiently throughout the year as stated supply, and is reappointed. He reports very encouragingly as to the prospects. The grant this year is the same as last, $800.

Newton, Presbytery of Neosho. 1884-9. At the beginning of the first quarter Rev. R. C. Wyatt took charge of this mission, under the appointment of the Board, as stated supply. His labors during the year have been greatly blessed, the report sent in by him being one of the most cheering that the Board has received. Aided by the Board of Church Extension this station also has been enabled to build a suitable church, well located, in the midst of a good mission field, not reached by other English-speaking churches. Its completion has been delayed by the severe winter, the railroad strikes and other uncontrollable circumstances, but they expect to finish and enter it now in a short time. Sabbath school, prayer meeting, ladies missionary society, have been well sustained. The work has been greatly hindered hitherto by the unsuitableness of the place of meeting, but when this is remedied the report of the missionary, who is reappointed for the next year, shows that plans are matured for active service in every direction, and that the continued blessing of God alone is needed to secure success. The condition of things at Newton is especially gratifying in view of the years past during which it seemed so doubtful whether our Church had sufficient encouragement to undertake work there at all. $700. an increase of $100, was asked for the coming year by Presbytery. The Board has granted $650, and hopes that notwithstanding the large contributions they must give, this willing people will be able to get along and give due support to their minister with this amount of aid.

Oshkosh, Presbytery of Wisconsin. 1880-5-8. In accordance with the appointment of the last Assembly, Rev. J. W. McNary, began work in this field in July last. From the outset he was not favorably impressed with the prospects, but labored during the first quarter and part of the second with his well known zeal and earnestness. Early in the second quarter the congregation, having great difficulty in securing a competent leader of the singing, and hoping to improve the prospect of success by making the praise service more attractive, decided to procure an organ, but by the advice of Mr. McNary asked the counsel of the Board before doing so. It is already well known that the Board advised against such a step. The result was, that almost without exception, the members became completely discouraged, and the missionary reported that in his judgment further effort in Oshkosh by our church would be useless, and that he would leave the field not later than the end of the quarter. Soon after this an arrangement was entered into by which nearly all the members agreed to unite with the Presbyterian congregation of the city. A call was extended to Mr. McNary to become the pastor of the united church which he concluded to accept. It is due to him to say, that from all the evidence before it, the Board is entirely satisfied that Mr. McNary had no responsibility for the course that was taken, up to the time when he was asked to consider a call from the Presbyterian church.

Portland, Presbytery of Oregon. 1882-7. The progress of this new congregation during the year has not been so decided as was hoped for. This is doubtless due in large measure, to the great depression of business which has prevailed in that part of the country, and the consequent arrest laid upon immigration and upon the growth of the city. The mission, however, is in healthy condition. There has been some increase. So far as can yet be seen there is no reason to doubt ultimate success, but under present circumstances the growth must be slow, and must be sought mainly from the city itself. Some debts, arising chiefly from the failure of subscriptions that had been counted on in building church and parsonage, and from expenses on these accounts beyond what were anticipated, together with the unfavorable condition of business, burden the ability of the little congregation. In view of this, and considering also that the parsonage is to be paid for largely, if not wholly, by the equivalent of an annual rent from the missionary, the Board made for the coming year the unchanged appropriation of $1,100 asked for by the Presbytery. Rev. Wm. R. Stevenson, who has served so efficiently from the outset, will continue to be the stated supply.

Topeka, Presbytery of Kansas. 1880-5-8. Never before have we been able to present so cheering a report concerning our Church in the Capital of Kansas. Since the meeting of the Assembly in that place last May the work has gone forward prosperously, having no doubt received an impetus from that event which will long continue to be felt. There has been a very large increase of membership, resulting from special services and continued active work, making the congregation, even after a pretty thorough pruning of the roll, a really strong one numerically. The improvement in working force and organization has been quite as decided. Looking back but a few years, we cannot but say in wonder and praise, "What hath God wrought!" Rev. M. F. McKirahan, who has labored for nearly four years as stated supply, and who is now reaping so happily, has been called as the pastor. He hopes to be permitted ere long to announce the congregation able to get along without aid. The amount asked and granted for the coming year is $500, a reduction of $100.

The terms of the remaining five stations as special missions expire with the current church year. All reports and information in possession of the Board respecting them will be submitted, together with their requests and our judgment thereupon, to the General Committee. We present a brief statement concerning each of them.

Creston, Presbytery of College Springs. 1883-6. In the judgment of the Presbytery, the progress of this mission during the three years it has been under the care of the Board has surpassed expectation, and the prospect for steady growth is exceedingly favorable. Rev. L. N. Lafferty who has been the stated supply has accepted a call to the pastorate upon the condition that the congregation be continued as a special mission. This is asked by the Presbytery for another term of three years, with an appropriation of $650, being a reduction of $50 upon the last grant.

Emporia, Presbytery of Neosho. 188[illegible] During part of the first quarter no regular supply could be obtained, but in September Mr. James A. Reed, then a licentiate, took charge of the mission under the appointment of the Board. He has since become the settled pastor, and has steadily and faithfully prosecuted the work, with a good degree of encouragement. For many reasons it does not at present seem likely that there will be as rapid growth as in some other places; but there are no peculiar hindrances to the success of our cause, inside or outside the congregation, and we believe that united and patient work by pastor and people will, in due time, under the blessing of our gracious Lord, be abundantly rewarded. This point was visited by the Corresponding Secretary, who spent a Sabbath there just before Mr. Reed entered upon his labors. The place is an important centre, and may assume even greater prominence in the near future. We should maintain and strengthen our hold upon it. The church building is neat, attractive, and very desirably situated, and the people seem devoted and willing to labor and give for the success of of the cause. The Presbytery asks that Emporia be continued as a special mission for five years longer, and that $700, the same amount as last year, be granted.

Greeley, Presbytery of Colorado. 1883-6. This young church, under the pastoral care of Rev. H. F. Wallace, has shown vigorous life and enjoyed substantial and rather rapid growth from the beginning. It still prospers. No special discouraging features are reported this year, though financial reverses and some removals have made the support of the work and the payment of building debt more of a tax upon the members. The prospects are quite favorable. Presbytery asks that Greeley be made a special mission for two years longer, and that a grant of $450, $50 reduction, be made for next year.

Marshalltown, Presbytery of Cedar Rapids. 1881-6. Rev. W. B. Cherry has served during the year as stated supply, but left the field, by his own wish, at the begining of May. No provision has yet been made for the supply of the pulpit after that time, the matter being left in the hands of the Superintendent of Missions for the present. The Presbytery asks a renewal of the grant of $500 and continuance for one year as a special mission. In the judgment of the Board it is neither necessary nor desirable to commit any station to its care for so short a term. We have not a sufficiently clear or full understanding of the condition and prospects of the mission to decide what is best to be done. We recommend a careful examination by the General Committee before any action is taken.

Grand Avenue, St. Louis, Presbytery of Southern Illinois. 1883-6. At the end of June Rev. T. C. McKelvey removed to another field of labor. During the second quarter Rev. D. Livingston, who had been settled as pastor at Traer, Iowa, having accepted an appointment from the Board, began his work as stated supply, and has ever since been laboring with much zeal and acceptance. The condition of the mission is in all respects good, and while growth may not be rapid, it is believed that faithful and persevering effort, wisely directed, and with the blessing of Him who alone giveth the increase, will be rewarded with ultimate success. With a neat building, in a fine portion of the city, yet near to a very large population of the middle classes, such a result may not unreasonably be expected. Brother Livingston is planning and prosecuting vigorous work, and while recognizing that time and much patient labor must be given, feels hopeful as to the outlook. The Presbytery has endorsed a rquest for continuance as a special mission for five years, and a grant of $1,100 for the coming year.

V. Other Special Work. In addition to the above stations regularly committed to our charge for specified terms, other important work has claimed and received the special attention of the Board.

Warm Springs Indian Mission, Oregon. The Rev. R. W. McBride has continued in charge of the mission throughout the year, and is expected to remain permanently. He is proving himself the right man for this peculiar and difficult service. The full and interesting report submitted by him to the Board will, with a few necessary omissions and changes, be published in the church papers and will do much to enlighten the church as to the nature and claims of this interesting mission work, and to deepen the interest already felt in it. In view of this proposed publication we think it needless to attempt here any full statement. The missionary very much desires the sending out of another minister and his family, and the Presbytery would have requested this but for the fear of unduly taxing the probable resources of the Board. In our judgment thorough investigation of the needs of the mission, and careful consideration of the methods by which they can best be met, should precede the adoption of plans for the future. Possibly greater efficiency may be secured by having but one minister in the field, giving him full control and providing necessary assistants as teachers. It would be well if the Board could have authority to send one of its officers or members, if found advisable, to visit the mission and report upon the whole subject. For the coming year the Presbytery asks a grant of $1,600, $1,200 for salary of the missionary, and $400 for other expenses. We recommend that these appropriations be made, with the understanding that so much of the $400 as may be necessary shall be expended under the direction of the missionary and the Board.

Eastern Washington Territory. This portion of the new northwest is in the bounds of the Presbytery of Oregon, but at a great distance from most of its members. In the near future it will receive a large immigration. Rev. Joseph Alter has remained in the field during the year, preaching one-half of his time, though not upon alternate Sabbaths, at Waitsburg, and the other half at Pleasant Valley, some seventy miles distant, in the vicinity of Colfax. At these two points we now have organised Churches. Others invite occupation and seem to offer favorable prospects if we begin work without undue delay. Towards the close of the third-quarter Rev. W. G. M. Hays, pastor at Elvira, Iowa, was released from his charge to accept an appointment from the Board, and removed with his family to Waitsburg. He will be located there, while Mr. Alter prosecutes the work at and near Pleasant Valley. Both these brethren are expected to do pioneer work in their respective neighborhoods, and to report to the Board all favorable opportunities. It will be the aim of the Board to organize centers, from each of which one man, properly supported, can care for a considerable extent of country round about him, rather than to multiply separate stations rapidly. Neither the efficient working force of ministers likely to be available for such work, nor the means of support at our command will justify the latter course in any part of the new regions now calling so loudly for the care of the Church. For the coming year the Presbytery asks, and the Board recommends, a grant of $850 for Pleasant Valley and vicinity, with Rev. Joseph Alter, as the missionary, and of $1,000 for Waitsburg and vicinity, with Rev. W. G. M. Hays as the missionary.

Dakota. This huge territory, four times the size of the State of Ohio, rapidly filling up, capable of supporting and plainly destined to have an immense population, is an annex to the Presbytery of Omaha, but for obvious reasons can receive from it no proper supervision. Rev. W. T. Moffet, the pioneer of our church in that region, is located as stated supply at Woonsocket, a thriving town in the southern part of the Territory, and preaches there and at Bonilla, some thirty miles to the north on a railroad. Under instructions from the Board he not only gives pastoral care to these organized congregations, both of which have buildings under way aided as usual by the Board of Church Extension, but watches the developement of the country, visits and explores other points not too far off when necessary, and keeps the Board informed of desirable openings for new work. Two hundred miles to the north of this, at Sterling, on the main line of the Northern Pacific R. R., twenty-five miles east of Bismarck, the Capital, we have another organization full of life and promise. After long continued effort and many disappointments we were enabled, at the opening of the third quarter, to send to this field Rev. G. W. Hamilton, who was settled as pastor at Little York, Ills. It grieves the Board to interfere with happy and useful pastoral settlements in this way, but we must have selected men, with some experience, for this pioneer work. Brother Hamilton is meeting with great acceptance, and confidently expects, under the blessing of the Master, a successful developement for our work in that region. Like Mr. Moffet, he will be expected to exercise constant oversight of a wide field. With unusual energy the people of Sterling, likewise aided by our Church Extension Board, during the winter season pressed to partial completion a house of worship and are now occupying it. They expect to finish in the fall, trusting God for a good crop to furnish the means. Though as yet few in number their report shows commendable determination to succeed, and a praiseworthy liberality, the full quota having been raised for every Board, and a sum pledged for the support of ordinances very far beyond what older and wealthier congregations give per capita. For the coming year aid is asked as follows: For Bonilla and Woonsocket, with Rev. W. T. Moffet as stated supply, $550; for Sterling, with Rev. G. W. Hamilton as the missionary, $700. These applications were submitted directly to the Board, and are recommended to be granted. And in view of the great distance from the occupied portion of Omaha Presbytery, and the impossibility of proper supervision, the Board recommends that Dakota be commited to its care as a special mission field, with authority to make appropriations and appointments as may be deemed advisable, until a Presbytery be organized in that region.

In the month of August last the Corresponding Secretary, by direction of the Board, visited Dakota, spending three Sabbaths at Sterling, and acquainting himself as fully as possible with the country, its prospects, the kind of people who are seeking homes in it, and its claims upon our Church as a mission field. Returning to St. Paul, he then went south and again west to reach Woonsocket, where a day was pleasantly and profitably spent with Brother Moffet in seeing the town, talking of the mission work and helping to decide the location of the new church. Going and coming brief stops were made in the interests of our work at Chicago, Omaha, Leavenworth, Emporia, and St. Louis, but the main object of the journey was Dakota, especially the northern part. A great development awaits that portion of the country. Along the line of the Northern Pacific R. R., and for hundreds of miles to the north as well as to the south of it, soil and climate are peculiarly adapted to the raising of wheat and other cereal grains. The whole region is found to be remarkably healthful. An unusually fine class of settlers seem to be taking up the land thus far. We are persuaded that our Church will miss a golden opportunity for growth and extension, and suffer the loss of many valuable members as well, if we fail to give prompt attention to the calls for aid that are reaching us. In addition to reports from the missionaries in the field, the Secretary of the Board frequently receives letters from members of our Church in different parts of the Territory calling his attention to groups of our people, earnestly asking if a minister cannot be sent, and giving assurance of excellent promise of success. What shall we do?

VI. The Sliding Scale. In former reports the Board has repeatedly expressed its conviction of the necessity, the wisdom, and the practical good effects of these rules, and need not now repeat what has so often been said. We desire, however, to call renewed attention to the fact that one of the leading objects of the rules was to make obligatory upon Presbyteries a more careful and searching examination into the condition and prospects of mission stations under their care. The spirit and intent of them is not met by simply calling upon the stations asking aid to give reasons why they think exemption necessary. The deliberate and intelligent judgment of the Presbytery should be reported to the Board in every case for which exemption is asked. The majority of the Presbyteries do this, but a few either overlook their duty altogether, or fail to give the careful attention necessary, and as a result the information given to the Board affords no sufficient basis for intelligent decision. Some also, notwithstanding the special and emphatic reminders sent to the clerks year by year, fail to send in their applications at the time required and thus render it difficult, sometimes impossible, for the Board to consider them and report its judgment to the General Committee. In this connection we suggest that it might be well to make the Superintendents of Missions responsible for these and all other reports to the Board. The clerks have so many blanks to fill at the same time that it is not strange that these are often delayed.

Requests have been received and acted upon from 29 Presbyteries for the exemption of 61 stations, for the coming year, from the operation of these rules. As already stated the Board spent considerable time in the patient and careful consideration of the facts presented. In but 21 of these cases, one-third of the number, have we been able to recommend that the request be granted. Some of the others, owing to the failure of Presbyteries to present the facts fully, or to misapprehension upon our part, may possibly be as well entitled to exemption as those recommended. If so, the General Committee will no doubt reverse our judgment. But in many instances where exemption has been refused, the deliberate opinion of the Board is that the best interests of our Home Mission work would be promoted by forcing the congregations to bear the burden of their own support, or by dropping them from the list of stations aided, even if this should result in the dissolution of some of them. We cannot be justified, and many of those who contribute to this cause are unwilling to support us, in permitting the labors of useful ministers and large sums of money to be expended upon unpromising stations, when both men and money are so pressingly demanded for more productive work elsewhere.

VII. Matters Referred to the Board by the Last Assembly. These relate to three different subjects.

Average Attendance. At the last meeting of the General Committee doubt was expressed as to the reliability and usefulness of the figures given in the column of the statistical tables headed "Average Attendance," and the Board was requested to consider the advisability of dropping it. In the judgment of the Board this column should be retained. But to secure uniformity in the method of reporting this item, the following rule is recommended for adoption:

The report of "Average Attendance," in cases where two or more preaching services are held, shall be based upon the number present each Sabbath at that service which is most largely attended.

Business Methods of the General Committee. By request of the General Committee the Assembly instructed the Board "to consider the methods of transacting business in the General Committee of Home Missions, and what changes might with advantage be made in them, and to report to the next Assembly." Upon this subject we are not prepared to make a definite report, though it has been under consideration by a committee of the Board consisting of Dr. W. J. Reid and the Corresponding Secretary. In preparing the work of the General Committee the Secretary has found that a classified arrangement of the stations for which aid is asked naturally suggests itself, and believes that it may afford a satisfactory remedy for the difficulty felt for some time, chiefly the lack of time for the proper transaction of business by the General Committee. We recommend that a trial be given to this arrangement, which will be fully explained to the Committee, and that for the present no further action be taken. But the Board thinks that the time has come for a careful revision of the Regulations, with a view to their re-publication in the form in which we are now under instructions to send copies of them annually to the Presbyteries. If action to this end is taken, the business methods of the General Committee will necessarily come under consideration in the process of such revision

Musical Instruments in Mission Churches.—The second resolution of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions, adopted by the last Assembly, is as follows: "That the recommendations of the General Committee of Home Missions be approved, and that the question of granting or withholding appropriations of money to congregations using musical instruments in worship be referred to the Board of Home Missions, in the confidence that said Board will carry out the spirit and intent of the action of this Assembly in adopting the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the memorial of the Xenia convention." This action, while recognized as imposing a delicate and responsible duty, was not understood by the Board as a requirement, or even an authorization, that we should, without request from Presbyteries, or from others directly concerned, take up the question of withholding aid from stations already acted upon by the General Committee, although commonly reported as using musical instruments. We therefore took no action, except upon cases of this kind concerning which some request was properly laid before us. Two such cases were presented. The first was that of Boston, Mass., which came before us by a petition signed by twenty-eight persons claiming membership at the time in the congregation, and by eight others said to have withdrawn until the organ should be removed. After most careful consideration, and full inquiry into the judicial proceedings in the case of the courts of the Church having jurisdiction, we decided unanimously that the Board could not rightfully disregard the action of the Presbytery and of the Session and undertake practically to reverse their judgment; and a reply to this effect was given to the petitioners and published to the Church, accompanied, however, by a declaration of the Board's desire to carry out the spirit and intent of the Assembly's action, and of our judgment that congregations aided from the Home Mission funds ought not to introduce organs in violation of the convictions of some who contribute to those funds. The second case was that of Oshkosh. It came up, as already stated, by a request for advice as to the introduction of an instrument. By the same unanimous vote we expressed our conviction that it would be contrary to the spirit and intent of the action of the Assembly, and kindly counselled the congregation not to take the step. The effect is known. We have sought to discharge our duty in each case, and submit our action to the judgment of the General Assembly. The Board is of the opinion that the imposing upon it of special responsibilities in connection with this question is unwise. Like any other thing that may produce trouble in mission stations and endanger the prospects for success, the introduction of instruments may, and doubtless will, at times claim the attention of the Board, and may justify the refusal of aid asked or the withholding of aid granted; but we believe this particular thing cannot, without serious danger, be singled out from all others and made the occasion of clothing us, nominally, with powers and responsibilities which belong only to the regular courts of the Church, and which cannot really be vested in any Board. If it is the will of the Church that aid be refused to all stations in which instruments are used, the Assembly should so declare. If, on the contrary, there is to be any exercise of discretion and discrimination, it is perfectly evident that the established courts of the Church, and these alone, have the right to judge and can command the necessary information to judge wisely.

VIII. FINANCIAL CONDITION.—The report of the Treasurer, printed at the close of the statistical tables, exhibits in detail the receipts and disbursements of the year. A comparative summary is presented here:

	1886.	1885.
Total Expenditures	$47,582 05	$44,019 84
Received from Presbyteries	31,474 88	30,532 43
" Sabbath Schools	806 97	763 95
" Ladies' Miss. Societies	878 12	1,708 15
" Individuals	1,290 32	*4,170 24
" Legacies	7,784 06	5,049 27
" Interest and Dividends	675 50	*included above.
Total Receipts from ordinary sources	$42,909 85	$42,224 04

By an oversight in making up the financial statement last year, the sum of $1,100 received in partial repayment of a loan on mortgage was counted in the miscellaneous receipts. It should have been deducted from the receipts of the year and added to the debt reported. The figures given above for the present year show the actual cash receipts applicable to current expenses. Taking nothing else into the account the receipts have been $685.81 greater than those of last year, but are $4,672.20 below the total expenditures, which increased by the large sum of $3,562.21 over those of last year, and are by that amount the greatest ever reported in the history of our work. The contributions from the Presbyteries increased nearly $1,000, and the receipts from Sabbath schools are slightly, and from legacies very much greater. There is a falling off in the receipts from the Ladies' societies, which is to be regretted. On the whole, even if our financial statement ended with this, it would be but right to say that the Church has done comparatively well for this important department of her work When we remember the unprecedented increase reported last year, being more than $8,500 above the contributioas of the year before, and nearly $5,000 above the largest sum received in any year preceding, except one in which a great legacy came into the treasury; and keeping in mind also the disturbed condition of business throughout the country, we have certainly reason to be grateful that the contributions have been kept up so well. But more can, and in view of the necessarily growing requirements of Home work for some years to come, ought to be done. The Providence of God is in many ways emphasizing the claims of this work, and there is evidently a growing interest felt in it by God's people. If pastors and elders will but present the appeal the response will come in largely increased offerings.

But our statement does not end here. Within a few weeks Col. John McFarland, an aged member of our Church, at Ligonier, Pa., who wished to avoid all possible risks of a legacy to be paid after his death, sent to our Treasurer fee simple deeds for thirty-seven lots in the town of Ligonier. At the donor's estimate the value is $5,000, and we hope to realize a large portion of that amount. Had we been able at once to turn this generous gift into money, our receipts for the year would probably have covered even the greatly increased outlay made necessary by the growth of our work. May the Lord move upon the hearts of his people so that in coming years the need will be as fully met.

During the year there has also been received from the Quarter Centennial Commission $1,316.35, making a total of $20,257.74 since 1883 from that source. In accordance with the Assembly's instructions, the whole amount has been turned into the Reserve fund, and has enabled us thus far to maintain its efficiency. As the balance of the Q. C. fund will this year and hereafter be combined in the report of the Treasurer with the Reserve fund, it is thought well to give now a complete statement.

The amount originally set apart for the Reserve fund was $15,000. Out of this we have paid the deficiencies of 1882 and 1883, amounting to $4,065.99; leaving the balance of this fund as reported last year, $10,934.01.

Out of the $20,257.74 received from the Q. C. commission we have met the deficiencies of 1884, 1885 and 1886, aggregating $14,513.26; leaving an unexpended balance of this fund of $5,744.48.

The whole amount credited to both funds, Reserve and Q. C., is $35,257.74. The whole amount of debt paid from them, covering the dficiencies of five years, is $18,579.25. The balance remaining, which constitutes the Reserve fund as reported this year, is therefore $16,678.49. Of this balance $800 is temporarily loaned. The actual cash in the Treasurer's hands is therefore $15,878.49, as reported.

At the rate at which we have been drawing from this fund, as shown in the above statement, there is serious danger that it will be exhausted. $3,579.25 more than the entire amount first set apart as a reserve fund has been swallowed up. The fund is not now any larger than is absolutely necessary to maintain the prompt payments which have contributed so much in the last few years to increase the efficiency of the whole service and to promote the comfort of the laborers in the field. Any serious reduction of it will be a calamity. If the amount already taken from it cannot be repaid in full, as perhaps we can scarcely expect in view of the increasing demands from our rapidly widening field, the Church should at least see to it that the annual contributions are made large enough to fully cover the appropriations and provide for the new work that must necessarily be undertaken.

IX. THE COMING YEAR.—Fifty-seven Presbyteries have sent in their annual reports to the Board. They submit the names of 112 ministers and licentiates, and of one unlicensed student, for appointments, representing the full time of 108 men; and ask for the full time of 90. Quite a number of the brethren whose names are reported do not desire or cannot fulfil appointments; so that it is probable that the supply of ministerial service at the disposal of the General Committee will be below rather than above the demand.

The aid applied for by the Presbyteries for stations under their care, and for new work which they desire to undertake, is $57,043, so far as reported. All these requests for men and money have been referred to the General Committee, whose report will as usual be submitted in connection with our own.

The term of service of the following members of the Board will expire on the 30th of June, viz: Rev. D. Barclay and Messrs W. A. Shaw and James McCutcheon.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

The twenty-seventh annual meeting of the General Committee of Home Missions was held, as directed by the General Assembly, at Morning Sun, Ohio, beginning Wednesday, May 19, 1886, at 2 o'clock P. M., and closing Wednesday, May 26th. Fifty-six Presbyteries and the Board of Home Missions were represented by delegates.

The Rev. T. B. Turnbull, of the Presbytery of Argyle, was elected Chairman, and the Rev. Russell Graham of the Presbytery of Monmouth, Recording Secretary.

When all the requests of Presbyteries had been received, it was found that the amount asked for the prosecution of the work during the coming year was $59,413. Appropriations were made which, with the grants previously recommended to the Assembly by the Board for special missions, aggregate $55,230. The separate items making up this sum are as follows: 1. Appropriations by the General Committee for stations heretofore aided, $32,090. 2. For new stations, $2,825. 3. For special missions committed to the Board at this meeting, $6,250. 4. To the Board, to meet the probable needs of cases referred, $2,565. 5. To the Board, to meet emergencies $3,000. 6. Grants by the Board to special missions, $8,500.

The report of the Board shows that the expenditures of the last year exceeded by $3,562 those of any preceding year in our history. Even a greater outlay is now called for. After most careful and patient consideration of the claims presented, the General Committee recommends the granting of the amount above stated, as the very least that will meet the necessities of the work which God is clearly calling upon the United Presbyterian Church to do in the home field. We are well able to raise this sum. Our people will give it, and give it willingly, if the claims and the needs of the cause be presented to them aright. Increased contributions during the past few years indicate a growing interest in the evangelization of our own country. The dangers threatening our national life, as seen in recent alarming occurrences, emphasize the necessity and the duty of employing all the resources at the command of the Church of Christ, to bring the saving power of the gospel to bear upon all classes in every part of the land. The work itself was never in better condition. More than one-half the net increase of membership in the Church during the past year has been in the Home Mission congregations. In most of them the prospects are bright for continued growth. New and important fields of labor have been occupied, and many others are inviting our entrance. The great question is not whether we can raise money enough, but whether we have efficient men enough to do the work.

The names of 120 ministers and licentiates, representing the full time of 115 men, were submitted by the Presbyteries. Many of these did not desire or could not fulfill appointments. Sixty-five obtained employment for the whole year; 9 for three-quarters; 8 for two; 4 for but one. The needs of the Presbyteries were not fully met, and it is feared the efficiency of the service will in some cases be seriously impaired by the failure to obtain needed supply. "The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few."

I.—AID GRANTED.

[The following characters are used to express the conditions upon which the appropriations are made: p. s., continuance of pastoral settlement; s., settlement; s. s., stated supply. Where there are no figures, the appropriation is for full time. III.—ACTION ON SPECIAL MISSIONS.

1. We recommend that the following stations, which have been under the care of the Board as Special Missions, be continued in that relation:

Creston, in the Presbytery of College Springs, for the term of three years, with a grant of $650 for the coming year, on condition of settlement.

Emporia, in the Presbytery of Neosho, for the term of five years, with a grant of $700 for pastoral settlement, on condition that the congregation raise $400 for the support of ordinances.

Greeley, in the Presbytery of Colorado, for two years, with a grant of $450 for pastoral settlement.

Grand Avenue, St. Louis, for five years, with a grant of $1,100 for the year; the Rev. D. Livingston to be continued as the stated supply.

2. It is recommended that Greenfield, in the Presbytery of Des Moines, be made a Special Mission and committed to the care of the Board for a term of three years; that $500 be appropriated for the prosecution of the work during the coming year, and that the Rev. J. C. Scott be appointed as the missionary.

3. In view of the distance from any Presbytery and the impracticability of the usual presbyterial supervision, it is recommended that Dakota Territory be placed under the care of the Board as a Special Mission field until a Presbytery shall be organized in that region, and that $1,250 be appropriated for the stations now organized.

4. That for carrying on the work in the Warm Springs Indian Mission for the coming year, $1,200 be appropriated as the salary of the missionary, and an additional sum, not exceeding $400, to be used for the payment of assistants as the missionary and the Board may deem to be necessary.

5. That the application for the establishment of a new mission in Chicago, Ill., be referred to the Board and recommended to their favorable consideration, and that so much of $1,000 as they may find to be necessary for the prosecution of the work during the coming year, should they enter upon it, be appropriated for that purpose.

6. That the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Home Missions be authorized to visit during the coming year as many of the Special Missions as practicable, especially in the far West and on the Pacific slope.

IV.—GENERAL.

The following recommendations to the Assembly were adopted:

1. That hereafter the annual reports of the Presbyteries to the Board of Home Missions be made by the Superintendents of Missions of the several Presbyteries.

2. That the Board be directed to make a careful revision of the Regulations for the Home Mission work, with a view to their publication at as early a day as possible.

3. That the Board be authorized to withhold aid from any congregation that has been organized over three years without having taken steps in good faith to erect a church building.

4. That the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Home Missions be requested to devote his time exclusively to the work of the Secretaryship, and on condition that he do so, be allowed an annual salary of $1,800 and expenses.

5. That pastors and sessions be earnestly exhorted to secure the full proportion of their quota to the Home Mission Board.

6. That $10 be appropriated to the sexton of the church at Morning Sun, for his services during the sessions of the General Committee.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

The record of another year is made. Many failures, through short-sightedness, lack of faith and courage, will no doubt be charged against us; yet the Divine Master has granted us many tokens of his favor, which have greatly encouraged us in our efforts to serve him, for which we desire here to record our profound gratitude.

THE WORK.

KNOXVILLE.—The past year has b[illegible]rently, the most successful in the story of the mission in this place. Secular, literary and religious efforts have ffered no serious break. The instances are very rare in which the laborers have en laid aside for even a day.

The religious services held at the College are continued without material change, bbath School being held in the morning, followed by a sermon. The evening rvice combines Bible-reading and prayer meeting. The attendance at prayer eting on Wednesday evening is very regular throughout the school term. The mber present ranges from ninety to one hundred and twenty. Group prayer etings are held on Sabbath evenings at half-past six, in the rooms of teachers d students. Nearly all the students boarding in the College attend one or the her of these meetings, and very few, if any, professing Christians fail to lead in ayer, either voluntarily or when called on. The younger and more backward mbers are, in these smaller meetings, encouraged to exercise their gifts, and thus ted for more public exercises.

Mission effort is carried on systematically in two mission schools, on Sabbath afnoon. One is near the College, and the other about two miles distant. Bible adings are held every week in private houses, by members of the Workers' Class. wenty-seven young men and women have labored thus with general acceptance, d at the same time with profit to themselves. They have been under the instrucn of Prof. Millin, who conducts a Bible exercise with them in the morning every bbath, besides assisting in the out door work. The Secretary reports: Number rolled in the class, 27; number of districts, 6; teaching in the Sabbath schools, 9; oks studied, Joshua and Judges. Efforts were directed to the following classes:) Families without the Bible; (2) families not Christians, or not church-goers;) children not in Sabbath schools; (4) persons in want.

A Ladies' Missionary Society is organized, in which work for others and the imarting of missionary intelligence combine with social converse and devotion. The eetings are held monthly; and besides making up bundles of clothing to be sent way, the members have collected a considerable amount of money for the Little irls' Home.

Twice within the year special meetings were held, and the results are cheering d assuring, both in the quickening of believers and the conversion of sinners. esides the number received into our own church on profession of their faith, any others professed to have found peace, and they will be received into their me churches.

The Statistics of the congregation are: Colored members, 46; white, 8. Increase profession, 17; by certificate, 1; decrease, 4; adult baptisms, 8. Contributions the Boards, $64; total contributions, $520. Average attendance at church and bbath School, 166; at Fairview Mission School, 62; at Mitchell's Chapel, 23.

The College.—President, J. S. McCulloch; lady principal, Miss Eliza B. Walce; teachers, M. J. Smalley, J. R. Millin, Mrs. Agnes H. Wait, Miss M. A. eland, Miss M. A. Aikins, Miss M. M. McBride. Miss Jennie P. Henry has arge of the primary school; Mrs. Mary C. McCulloch, sewing; Mrs. Ella Smalley, sic; Mrs. Mary A. Wallace, kitchen and dining room; Miss Maggie McDill, the ttle Girls' Home.

The enrollment for the year is 328. The average attendance is 195. A large prortion of work done is necessarily common-school work. Of those enrolled, 92 long to the Primary, 123 to the Training, 49 to the Intermediate school, and 64 the Normal and College classes. This thinning out of classes as they advance to e higher grades is a matter of deep regret, but it ought not to surprise us, when we flect on the shortness of the school term in country districts, and the almost unirsal poverty of the negro.

Colored Teachers—About one hundred teachers, laboring in several States within e past year, received their training largely in this school. Nearly all of them ented cheerfully in Sabbath School work, and as their schools probably averaged 50, me idea may be formed of the influence exerted in favor of Bible study and correct aching in dark places.

Training School.—A large number of the Normal students has enjoyed excellent portunities for practical drill in being assigned to the charge of regular classes, der the supervision and instruction of Mrs. Wait. They come fresh for their rk; and as their selection is an honor, they are generally ambitious to excel. ter two years of drill in work thus assigned, and instruction in theory and practice, e student cannot fail to be better qualified than the average teacher of past years, and he is furnished with a certificate which is valuable in bringing him to the notice of school directors.

Sewing.—All the girls of the Training School, and as many as possible of the intermediate and more advanced classes, sew four days in the week, forty minutes each day. No machine work is done in the sewing room. The object is to teach the use of the needle, and put work together in plain garments. The number enrolled is 110; garments and other articles cut and sewed, 430; material used, 900 yards. Of this material about 220 yards came in boxes and barrels, sent by societies and friends. The amount purchased in Knoxville is 680 yards. Many of the girls avail themselves of the privilege of buying, at a reduced rate, any garment made. They are graded daily in these classes as in grammar and arithmetic, and not a few are ambitious to reach 100, the highest mark. Some show their appreciation of mother's good opinion by mailing to her the garment that has passed inspection.

Clothing Distributed.—Thirty-six barrels, boxes and packages of clothing have been distributed. It is sometimes thought that people for whom the clothing is sent have outgrown the necessity for such aid, but the last cold winter made the articles sent unusually welcome.

The Little Girls' Home.—It is now plain that the demand for enlargement in accommodations for little girls is accepted. The responses to appeals have been so numerous and hearty that retreat is not thought of. The number of inmates this year is nineteen, and the whole number sheltered since the opening, four years ago, is thirty-six. Some have not met our expectations, but in no instance do the good impressions seem to be lost. Children soon form an affection for the Home, and, if unable to return, they ever remain its fast friends, and delight to speak of it to others. Parents struggle hard from year to year to maintain their loved little ones in a place where they can have the best school training, with the least exposure to vice. Many are the regrets expressed by fathers and mothers that they cannot avail themselves of the advantages afforded for their children. Then the orphans, the homeless, the deserted! Are there not hearts that will be made happy by providing for some of these? Homes for the protection and education of colored children are few indeed throughout the country. Has not this one come to our Church with tokens of Divine favor? Shall it not speedily have a house of its own?

PRAIRIE BLUFF, ALA.—The opening of the year was dark at this station. Miss Mason, who had labored with so much acceptance last year, for many reasons hesitated to return. It was so far from home; the house accommodations for board so poor; so lonely, perhaps imprudent, for a young girl to keep house; the schoolhouse so open and cold, yet so dark; the attendance so irregular and fluctuating, the good results so tardy, and the chills so bad. But the people would take no denial. She must come or send some one from the college. At length a letter came from Judge Henderson, a prominent citizen, commending her work, but at the same time severely rebuking her fears. She weighed the matter again, and she said, "I will go." She prepared for housekeeping and took her younger sister along for company and help. Judge Henderson, according to promise, built a little house for the teacher. The people rallied and cleaned up the schoolhouse, and gave her a most hearty welcome. She called the parents together and set before them their duty to their children, and after a time she introduced sewing. The attendance increased, and the average for February and March was over seventy. A few lines from her last report will give some idea of her work:

"From the figures you will see that I have a very full school for the season. Quite a number of the parents are trying to keep their children in school till it closes. I have thirteen new ones this month. Since I have opened I have the names of one hundred and fifty enrolled. I have given little lectures, or rather talks, around at some of the churches, and I have tried very hard to make the parents see the importance of keeping their children in school regularly, but I must say that I have had just as many this session as I could accommodate. Sometimes I have been considerably crowded, yet I did the best I could, and notwithstanding all the hindrances and discouragements, I feel that the Lord has been, and is, with me, and the work is moving on very prosperously. The average attendance of the Sabbath school this month was fifty-nine. Held one Bible reading, and had a very interesting meeting. There were eighteen present.

HENRIETTA M. MASON."

After all her hesitation at the outset this year, she is much better satisfied with her work than last year. She seems to realize that while it is not what she would have chosen, it is what the Lord has given her to do. Oh that we had thousands of teachers ready, with her spirit and qualifications, to do the vast work that must be done among her people!

What missionary society or individual would not feel thrice rewarded on reading one month's faithful record of the labors of such a missionary educated or assisted by them?

The number of young men and women who need some assistance to supplement their hard earnings is increasing, because the demand for their labors is increasing. A larger number of students in Knoxville College receive more help this year than ever before. Three hundred and fifty dollars were paid to seven of them from the State Normal Scholarship Fund, and about the same amount from State University Scholarship will be distributed to some sixteen others. And yet the demand for better qualified teachers for the public schools cannot be met for many years to come. Every cent ($1,005) has been paid, or loaned, out of the Student's Fund that could be given, and yet the most worthy young men and women are teaching with half qualifications, in order to get the means to advance higher without running hopelessly in debt. Again the appeal comes. Who can help them and hasten the work of lifting up?

BOARDING DEPARTMENT.

(The report of this part of the work is in the words of the lady principal, as given in her annual report to the Board.)

This department opened Saturday, September 5, with 33 boarders; excess over last year, 13. At the close of the first week we had 58; excess over 1884, 17. The whole number enrolled during the year, 132; present at this date, April 26, 104, including teachers; number enrolled in the "Little Girls' Home," 20; now present, 15.

Expenses since September 1: Flour, $602.56; meat, $774.58; butter, $412.38; coffee, $49.72; tea, $26.25; sugar, $299.60; syrup, $33; oatmeal, $45; baking powder, $8.65; eggs, $29.06; milk, $23.20; vinegar, $9.06; spices, $20.90; vegetables, $207.60; fruit, $115.55; wood, $83; coal, $587.45; oil, $54.43; soap, $45; lard, $47; cheese, $22.25; dried fruit, $75.72; canned fruit, $16.60; fish, $16; rice, etc., $34.28; work, $6.31; cow-feed, $111; furnishing, $114.13; sundries, $93.58. Amount in all, $3,997.82. We have all bills paid, and on hand, $38.01. Uncollected, $1,236.50. When expenses of May are taken out, we shall probably have a surplus of about $800. The amount due from "cadets" not being yet paid, accounts for the large amount uncollected. We have yet coming to us from last year (which we expect to collect) $179.74. We lost on the year 1883, $23, and on 1884, $77.50. It is possible that some of the last may be collected. During last vacation we painted the halls in the "dormitory," paint and oil costing $41.20. We also papered sitting-room, parlor and office, paper costing $10.80. We had all the rooms whitewashed. Carpet for "office," $17.50; clocks for halls, $15; paid out for work, $146.05. Whole amount spent during vacation, $704.29. We also canned some four hundred and forty quarts of blackberries, and something near the same of tomatoes. If it was not for the work required in overseeing, such work might prove profitable, and give employment to our students. All the work done in vacation was done by students. Our range proving entirely too small, we have bought a new one with steam stable, costing $365, which we expect to pay for out of proceeds of this year.

This year I have taken entire charge of the students, both boys and girls, out of school hours, governing mostly by monitors, thus relieving teachers of hall work. However their presence there prevents any serious disorder. During the first four months I took all in the "Training School" and Intermediate to one of the school rooms between the hours of 6:30 and 9. We found this to be a good thing, as many of them did not know the meaning of the word study. It was, however, thought best to give it up, as it was not wise for me to leave the building during those hours. A few, however, come to the sitting room to study. We had to expel two of our students, and would have suspended another if she had not left. But we have had a good class of students, and with few exceptions, they are earnest and faithful, both in study and work. One of our boarders, who was converted last year, had a very severe attack of pneumonia, from which she never recovered, and she died shortly after going to her home. Her simple, childlike faith in her Saviour was a comfort to us all. Three others had to leave on account of sickness, but are, so far as we know, improving. The number of conversions is eighteen, and many who were already church members have been led to understand better the plan of salvation and the necessity of holy living. We have been very much crowded during the year, having had to put beds in the bath-rooms, three in a bed, and four in a room,—also beds in one of the recitation rooms. We need very badly a hall for girls. It seems impossible to do the work efficiently without. But as this hall will cost $11,000, and the Board is in debt, our faith grows weaker as we ask for it. Yet is not all the wealth in the world our heavenly Father's? And this work is his, and he has during the last year given such direct answers to our prayers, that our faith grows strong as we look back, and also as we listen to the prayers of young boys and girls who, one year ago, were scoffers, but were converted in answer to the prayers of students and teachers. And has he not said: "If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say to this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea?" Our prayer is, "Lord, increase our faith."

ELIZA B. WALLACE.

CHASE CITY.—The interest in this field continued unabated through the year. The workers were constantly cheered by encouraging evidences of the good they were able to do. Hence a busy, prosperous year. In July and August of last year —after the close of the regular school term—a Normal Class for teachers was conducted by Principal Veazey for six weeks. The results were so satisfactory that it has been resolved to conduct a similar class this year. A large number of colored teachers have expressed a desire to be admitted to the class, and it is hoped much good may be done.

During the past year thirty former pupils have imparted instruction to fifteen hundred colored children. In four of these schools Bible songs have been used daily in their devotional exercises.

Many of the teachers conduct Sabbath schools composed principally of their day school scholars, and thus sow the good seed of the Word.

The average length of the term of these schools is about seven months.

In the mission school the enrollment was about 200, and in the Sabbath school 335. The average attendance in Sabbath school was 150. There has been great increase of interest in the religious work. In addition to the regular services on Sabbath and the weekly prayer-meetings, services were conducted for three weeks during the month of February. The attendance was larger than ever before at similar meetings. Four persons, all heads of families, were received into the Church, and many others were awakened into earnest inquiry. The interest has continued unabated ever since. The statistics of the congregation are as follows: Communicants, 27; increase by profession, 4; decrease, 2. Infant baptism, 1; adult baptism, 1. Contributions to Foreign Missions, $16.25; to Home Missions, $15. A young men's prayer-meeting was organized in January, and has been conducted by the students ever since, with a good attendance. The missionaries at this station are Rev. J. H. Veazey, Misses Bessie J. Snyder, Elvia Anderson and Anna Kellar.

BLUESTONE—The enrollment in this school reached 206 during the year, and in the Sabbath school 356. But the average attendance at the Sabbath school fell to 73. The workers at this station are Rev. J. A. Ramsay, and Misses Anna Johnston and Maria McClintock. The work of the school was conducted as in former years. The religious services consisted of prayer-meeting Wednesday of each week, preaching and Sabbath school every Sabbath. There were special services conducted for a week preceding each communion, three of which were held during the year. At these services special interest was manifested, and a goodly number was led to inquire after God. But few, however, were fully persuaded to give themselves to Christ, and enlist in his service. The statistics of the congregation are as follows: Communicants, 18; increase by profession, 2; decrease, 1. Infant baptism, 8; adult baptism, 1. Only one former pupil of this school was engaged in teaching the last year. A number of pupils conducted Sabbath schools in the vicinity, and others were helpers in the Sabbath schools in their regular places of worship. It is the day of small things at this station, but we think the mists are clearing away, and that a brighter day is dawning.

NORFOLK—The enrollment in this school has been 892, with an average attendance for the year of 541. The school is divided into four departments: Primary, ntermediate, grammar and high school. The primary is divided into three sections, and is taught by Misses Maggie Kuhn, Ella Comin and Agnes Stevenson. This department has a total enrollment of over 600 pupils. These are half-day pupils, and are taught free. The intermediate department is divided into two sections, and is taught by Misses Helen McLean and Mary Kuhn. These take the studies usually assigned to this department, and are full-day pupils. They pay fifty cents per month tuition. The grammar school is in charge of Mrs. E. E. Cooley. The total number enrolled is 65. They are full-day pupils, and pay fifty cents per month tuition. The enrollment in the high school has been 87, though the daily attendance rarely exceeded 72. This department is in charge of Prof. W. W. Grove, assisted by Prof. H. W. Moore. The higher branches taught in this department are physiology, English literature, Latin, algebra, etc. The Latin and algebra classes number about twenty-five each. The monthly tuition is one dollar for each pupil.

Religious Work—Every Sabbath a Sabbath School is conducted, under the direction of Prof. Grove, at 9 A. M. The average attendance is about fifty. This school is considered of much importance, as nearly the same scholars are present every Sabbath. The classes being small, much earnest personal work can be done. Great pains is taken to teach the Catechism thoroughly to these pupils.

Another Sabbath school service is conducted at 3 P. M. The average attendance for the year in this school is 164.

At 8 P. M. a preaching service is held every Sabbath. This service is slimly attended, the average being not more than 70.

Every Wednesday at 1 P. M. a prayer meeting is conducted in the chapel at which all the pupils in the school are required to be present. This makes an attendance of 350 to 400. At 8 P. M. every Wednesday a prayer meeting is held. A small attendance is reported, the average being not more than 35. All these exercises, except the Sabbath morning Sabbath school, are conducted by Rev. M. Clarke.

Organization.—It is with special pleasure that we report the organization of a congregation at this place. This was effected on the 25th of April, and the first communion of the First United Presbyterian congregation of Norfolk was held on the same day. Fourteen communicants sat at the Lord's table together. A large and interested audience witnessed the ceremony. Of those admitted on profession of their faith, two received the rite of baptism.

Teachers' Home.—As soon as possible after the meeting of the last Assembly the Board began to carry out the instructions received in reference to the erection of a house, as a home for the teachers. A lot adjoining the school property was purchased from Mrs. Susan Turner for $1,800—one-half payable in one year from date of purchase, the balance in two years, with interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum. Plans and specifications for a house were prepared by W. S. Fraser, architect of Pittsburgh. Bids were received from a number of contractors in Norfolk, and returned to the Board. The lowest bid from a responsible bidder, was $5,798 for the house complete. After consultation with the architect, and on his assurance that a house of sufficient size could not be erected for a less sum, the contract was awarded to Tee & Brittingham, of Norfolk, for that amount. They fulfilled their contract, and shortly after the New Year the whole corps of teachers moved into their new home. We regret to say, however, that while the General Assembly made a special appropriation for the building of this home, only $772.33 have been contributed to that fund; hence the greater amount of the cost of the home has been taken from the general treasury.

Brother Clarke concludes his annual report to the Board as follows: "On taking a review of the past, we cannot but recognize the good hand of God upon us. A school building, capable of accommodating 600 people, has been erected; a comfortable home has been provided for the teachers, and hundreds of youth who might never have learned a letter have been gathered from the streets and brought under the benign influence of Christian training, to prepare them for usefulness here and the glories of heaven hereafter. Surely there is every reason for encouragement, and it becomes us all to gird up our loins for greater efforts in the future."

SUMMARY.

Missionaries Employed.—Four ordained ministers, four male teachers and 21 females—total 29. Number of stations occupied; Four principal stations, and three out-stations—total 7. The three out-stations are connected with the College, and are controlled by the Board through the Faculty. The total enrollment in the schools is 1627, and an equal number in the Sabbath schools. Over one hundred former and present students in Knoxville College have been engaged in teaching in the public schools in nine Southern States. The aggregate enrollment of their schools is not less than 5,500. Thirty former pupils of Thyne Institute, and one from Bluestone, have been similarly engaged in Virginia, with an aggregate enrollment in their schools of not less than 1,600, making a total of 131 teachers and 7,100 pupils, in addition to the regular missions. Most of these conduct Sabbath Schools in the districts in which they teach, and as a rule, use the International Bible Lessons and Bible Songs, when they can be obtained.

By this summary we can best see the work: Nearly 9,000 pupils in schools of different grades; nearly as many in the Sabbath schools. All these are more or less directly under the direction and influence of the missionaries at the regular posts. In all these places there is sowing: some day the harvest will assuredly be gathered.

Quarter Centennial.—The funds designated to the Freedmen's Mission were distributed, 4 per cent. to the general work, and 3 per cent. to Knoxville College. These funds have been used to erect necessary buildings at Norfolk, the amount designated to the college being borrowed to complete the work. This, however, will be refunded, and used strictly as intended when the distribution was made.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION respectfully reports to the General Assembly, that, as in former years, the blessing of God has rested upon its work. The calls for its help have been very numerous and very urgent. The amount asked has been much beyond the means of the Board, and at times there has been much perplexity as to the proper distribution of the funds, and as to the payment of appropriations when due.

The Board has endeavored to sustain the missionaries who have entered the new fields in the West and Northwest by assuring them of prompt help in the erection of suitable churches.

Owing to circumstances beyond his control, it was not possible for the Corresponding Secretary to visit any of the Synods, but means were taken to have the work of Board fairly presented.

During the year a Memorial Church has been erected at Los Angeles, Cal., which is reported to be very comfortable and satisfactory.

According to the action of the last Assembly, the Board authorized the Missionary to the Warm Spring Indians to take the necessary steps for the erection of a residence. The plans have been approved, and he is now engaged in the work. The cost will be $1,600 or over. Of this amount $464.49 have been received as special contributions in response to an appeal by the Board. The government does not allow any land in the Indian reservations to be sold or leased, but approves of an arrangement by which the Agent allows the Mission to select a piece of ground for the use of the mission.

The case of the contested will of the late John Thompson came to trial last June, without results, because of the disagreement of the jury. The fees and expenses in this case have added largely to the expenses of the Board.

In the case of the West Twenty-fifth street church, New York, upon which action was taken by the last General Assembly, the Board has not been informed of any action by the congregation.

The congregation of Oshkosh, Wis., having withdrawn from the United Presbyterian Church, the Board has placed its property, for which it holds the title, in the hands of an agent for sale. In the meantime the house is rented. It is due to the trustees of the late congregation to say that they are cordially co-operating with the Board's agent to effect a sale.

RECEIPTS AND PAYMENTS.

During a considerable part of the year much embarrassment was experienced in consequence of the smallness of the receipts. Several times it was necessary to make temporary loans, involving of course some expense. It has also been necessary to use some of the permanent funds. This is to be regarded as a debt. Every matured claim has been paid, but the balance left is smaller than usual and is entirely too small to meet the demands of the work until the contributions begin to come in.

The receipts from all sources have been

From Congregations	$11,635 96
" Missionary Societies	812 92
" Sabbath Schools	930 91
" Individuals	332 00
Total direct contributions		$13,711 79
From Quarter Centennial Commission		4,200 00
" Loans repaid, including the Thomas Hanna Fund		1,682 25
" Sales of property		478 15
" Rents		841 33
" Interest on Permanent Funds		2,799 85
" Investments matured		6,833 33
		$30,546 70
Balance, May 1, 1885		7,981 06
		$38,527 76

The payments have been:

To Congregations	$31,579 50
" Annuity	125 00
" Investments	2,100 00
" Expenses	1,641 45
Total		$35,445 95
Balance, May 1. 1886		$3,081 81
The appropriations not paid amount to		$19,175 00

The contributions made directly to the Board are nearly $1,800 larger than last year, but still amount to only a little over 44 per cent. of the appropriation. For several years previously the average amount was less than 43 per cent. of the appropriations. The Board, therefore, joined with the other Boards in an earnest appeal to the congregations to raise the full amount of the appropriations for all the funds. The result has been favorable, but the deficiency is still very great. The General Assembly is therefore asked to give special attention to measures calculated to secure the full amount granted.

From the above statement it will also be seen that the present balance is $4,899.25 less than the balance one year ago. Of the investments maturing and paid $4,733.33 have not been re-invested. Of the Quarter Centennial money received, $500 have not been used. Thus it appears that to meet the necessities of the work, the funds of the Board have been reduced $10,132.58, of which $5,233.33 belongs to the permanent funds and investments. This is to be regarded as a debt. And as the reduced balance will not be sufficient to meet the maturing appropriations, for the next few months it will be necessary to draw again upon the investments. In reality it may be said that there is a deficiency of $10,000.

APPROPRIATIONS.

Appropriations have been made as follows:

Woonsocket, Dak	Omaha	750 00
Total		$24,300 00	$14,350 00
Total appropriations			$39,650 00

As this amount is unusually large, and as the necessities of the coming year will be equally great, it is of the utmost importance that the contributions be liberal and early in the year.

PARSONAGES.

In accordance with the action of the last General Assembly, the Board has continued to grant aid for the erection or purchase of parsonages. This has been altogether in the form of loans. The correspondence had during the year develops the fact that many of our missionaries are living in discomfort and working at a disadvantage for the want of suitable houses. Thus far the results of the aid given are very satisfactory. The THOMAS HANNA fund is not large enough to meet the need, and the Board regrets to say that the funds at its command do not allow the enlargement of this department of its work to any considerable degree.

THE QUARTER-CENTENNIAL FUND.

The Board has paid for the Los Angeles Memorial Church, including the lot; $5,500, of which a part is a loan. The total amount paid for Memorial Churches is $23,000. These churches are in important places, and it would not have been possible to build them without withdrawing help from other places. The balance of the fund is secured by mortgages and notes placed to its account.

SECURITIES.

The following securities have been received during the year:

Mortgages for Donations. Greenville, Pa., $500; Hiawatha, Kan., $1,200; Leavenworth, $965; Richmond, Kan., $400; Jamestown, Kan., $800; Concordia, Kan., $700; Mt. Washington, Pa., $1,500; Fourth Philadelphia, $800; Scioto, O., $200.

Mortgages for Loans. Oskaloosa, Ia., $1,440; Irwin, Ia., $896; Olathe, Kan, $1,400.

Bonds. Portland, Ore., $1,000; West 55th St., New York, $5,000; Jamestown, Kan., $200; Greenwich, N. Y., $200; Boyden, Ia., $660; Minden, Neb., $500; Bonilla, Dak., $300; Stow, O., $632.

Deeds. Los Angeles, Cal.; Lebanon, Mo.; Sterling, Dak.; Woonsocket, Dak. Bonilla, Dak.; Sterling, Kan.; Minden, Neb.

VACANCIES.

The terms of office of Mr. Thomas McCance, Mr. W. J. Sawyer, and Rev. M. M. Patterson, and of the Corresponding Secretary, expire with this year.

In conclusion the Board calls the attention of the General Assembly to the new fields opened, and to the necessity for a vigorous effort to provide a church for every mission, that the laborers may work with advantage. It also asks for such instructions as may be deemed necessary, and for prayer that the Spirit of God may give direction and help in all the work.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Board,

E. S. McKITRICK, President.
SAMUEL DYER, Secretary.
A. G. WALLACE, Cor. Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

The Board of Publication respectfully submits the following report of its present condition and work during the past year:

It will be seen from the financial statement contained in this report that the condition of our business is substantially the same as it was one year ago.

There has been a slight falling off in the circulation of some of our periodicals and an increase in others. The value of Bibles sold the past year was $5,343.71; the previous year, $6,954.40. We have sold during the year 2,774 more Psalm Books than in the previous year. In other merchandise, chiefly Sabbath School and other religious books, our sales have been $3.470.18 in excess of the previous year, which, notwithstanding the continued depression in business, we regard as an encouraging increase.

We have published only one book since our last report, "EMMA'S TRIUMPH," by Mrs. S. J. Collins. We have now in press, and will issue in a few days, A Manual for Mission Bands, by the Rev. M. F. McKirahan, which will supply a want which has been widely felt.

It is with deep sorrow that we report to the General Assembly the resignation of the Rev. Joseph T. Cooper, D. D., as Editor of the Evangelical Repository. Dr. Cooper was placed in this position by the Board only one year ago, and though at the time he was in the enjoyment of excellent health, soon afterwards his strength began to fail, and for the greater part of the year he has been able to perform but little editorial work. At our regular meeting in May, the Rev. A. G. Wallace, D. D., was elected to the chair made vacant by the resignation of Dr. Cooper.

Included in our statement of liabilities are the McElroy Bible Fund, Indiana County Bible Fund, Latta Bible and Psalm Book Fund, Reid Bible and Psalm Book Fund, and Sproull Fund, amounting in the aggregate to $22,052.43. These are funds permanently invested in our Bible plates and real estate, the annual interest on which is used in making donations of Bibles, Psalm Books, &c., &c. They are not subject to cash payment either in principal or interest. The only part of our liabilities subject to cash payment is Bills Payable, Mortgage and Accounts due to sundry persons (bills for month of April) amounting in the aggregate to $10,907.12.

The progress that has been made in the work of revising the Psalter will appear from the following Report of the Committee of Revision:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO REVISE THE PSALTER.

To the Board of Publication:—

The Committee appointed to revise the Psalter respectfully report that they have prosecuted the work committed to them, with a good degree of diligence during the past year; and while they cannot report the work completed, they are able to report some progress made. They have given to the work the utmost time and attention consistent with their other engagements. Indeed personal and more private interests have been made to yield to this, in the desire to hasten the completion of the work. Thirty-five meetings have been held. Besides, a large amount of work has been done by individual members during the intervals of meeting.

The endeavor of the Committee has been to search the whole field of sacred music, and to select only that which has highest merit, and best adaptation to the sentiment and to congregational use. The work has now reached the one hundred and first Psalm. This has required three hundred and ten selections, with one, and occasionally two tunes to each selection. About one hundred and seventy-five tunes which are not in the old Psalter, have thus far been selected. Some of the best tunes have been repeated, occasionally the second and third time. Each selection and its music will constitute a single page. The book, when completed, will have from five hundred to five hundred and fifty pages. It is the confident expectation of the Committee, that unless some unforseen obstacle arises to prevent, the work will be completed by the close of the present calendar year.

Respectfully submitted. W. J. ROBINSON, Chairman.

The condition of our work as related to the Sabbath Schools of the Church is set forth in the Report of the Sabbath School Committee, of which the Rev. S. J. Shaw is Chairman, and is herewith appended:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

We have received reports from forty-eight Presbyteries, but we regret to state that the following ten Presbyteries have failed to send us reports; Big Spring, Boston, Detroit, Illinois Southern, Le Claire, Missouri Western, Princeton, Rock Island, Stamford, Vermont. Four of these Presbyteries were reported among the delinquents last year, and two of them, Big Spring and Stamford, have not sent any report for three years.

Although the last General Assembly recommended that the gathering of statistics be referred to the Second Clerk of the Assembly, yet the Committee felt that it would be desirable to receive some other information about the Sabbath School work. We wished to hear about the general work in the Presbyteries, and to learn also to what extent the recommendations of previous Assemblies were being carried out. A new form of blanks was therefore prepared, and sent out to all the Presbyteries, asking for some facts that could not be given in the regular statistical report of congregations.

The following is a summary of the figures reported to us by the Second Clerk of the Assembly:

Number of schools, home and foreign	886
Average months open	11.4
Number of officers and teachers	9,030
Number of scholars	81,596
Contributions	$46,276

From the reports sent to us by the Presbyterial Superintendents, we have gathered the following items:

I.

Number of Presbyterial Conventions	28
Number of Sabbath School Conferences	15
Schools observing day of special prayer	120

II. CONTRIBUTIONS.

Number of Presbyteries calling attention of schools to special objects, answering, Yes	30
Presbyteries answering No	10
" " in part	8
Amount contributed to special objects	$ 2,855
" " Boards of Church	9,448
" " contingent expenses	7,780
Total reported to us	$20,083
Number of Teachers' Study meetings	122
" Normal Classes	10
Scholars making profession of faith	2,146

By comparing the statistics given to us by Dr. A. G. Wallace, with those prepared by him last year, we find that the number of the schools is sixty more than last year. Indeed, the whole report shows an increase in every particular.

Increase of Officers and Teachers	185
Increase in Number of Scholars	3,581
Increase in the Contributions	$1,536

This part of the report should lead the friends and workers in the Sabbath Schools, both in the foreign and home fields, to take fresh courage and go forward with renewed energy and zeal. The only discouraging feature about it is, that the increase of the officers and teachers has not been as great in proportion as the increase of scholars. The figures indicate that the increase in the number of scholars has been nineteen times greater than the increase of officers and teachers.

CONVENTIONS.

It is a pleasure to know that so many Conferences and Conventions have been held during the year. The reports given indicate that more than an ordinary interest was manifested.

DAY OF SPECIAL PRAYER.

From the new blanks sent out this year the Committee have learned several things that have not been reported to any previous Assembly. One of these facts has reference to the observance of the day of special prayer for Sabbath Schools. The General Assembly of 1880 was the first to recommend the observance of such a day. This recommendation has been repeated by every Assembly for the past six years; and this year, out of the whole number of schools in the Home Field (784), we hear that only 120 schools are reported as complying with the recommendation. We regret that so many of our schools have neglected this recommendation, and would suggest the propriety of appointing a day at a different season of the year.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO SPECIAL OBJECTS

Another new feature of our report this year is the information we have gathered with reference to the contributions of the schools. More than one-half of the Presbyteries report that they have called the attention of their schools to the special objects suggested by the Boards. And the statistics of these Presbyteries show that they have received much larger contributions than those who have neglected to take such action. Several of the Presbyterial Superintendents express their approval of having these objects, and desire us to recommend certain times for giving to the different missions of the Church. We believe that these suggestions are good and practical, and if faithfully carried out they will assist in cultivating a spirit of liberality among the members both of the schools and of the congregations. We always feel a deeper interest in our giving when we know the purpose for which our gifts will be used.

The gifts will be larger, and a greater blessing will follow the giving. The S. S. Reports of 1884 show that the contributions of Sabbath Schools for 1883 exceeded those of any previous year by more than $16,000. This increase was chiefly due to the fact that many of the schools gave special contributions to the "Q. C." memorial.

The amount mentioned in our report as given to special objects, we are confident, is far below the actual amount, because a great many of the reports contained no definite sums.

SCHOLARS MAKING A PROFESSION OF FAITH.

If the Committee had been able to hear a full report from all our Presbyteries (or even had the ten Presbyteries that failed to send us any report sent us this item), we believe that the number of scholars added to the Church during the past year would have been the largest ever reported. As it is, the number falls only 56 below that reported last year, with ten Presbyteries making no report. Some of the reports contain great encouragement upon this point. One congregation is reported as receiving last year eighteen members through the Sabbath School; another received twenty-six, while a third sends us the cheering information that forty-one of their scholars made a profession of their faith. It is with profound gratitude to God that we record the fact that the Holy Spirit has been pleased to bless the efforts of pastors, officers and teachers, in leading so many of our scholars to confess their faith in His Son, Jesus Christ.

It is gratifying to the Committee to know that our papers and helps for the study of the lessons are giving such general satisfaction.

In reply to those who have asked us to revise the Bible Songs, we would say that we feel that it is not expedient to engage in such work at present, until the Psalter is completed.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. That the last Sabbath of June be appointed a Missionary day; and that special services be held in Sabbath Schools in the interest of Missions; and that every school be requested to bring special contributions on this day to be used for the purchase of a new boat for the use of the missionaries on the river Nile; all money that is contributed above what is needed for the boat to be divided between the Training Schools in Egypt and India.

2. That the General Assembly request all our schools to contribute to four special objects during the year. Let contributions of first quarter be given to Board of Foreign Missions—for the training schools in Egypt and India; the contributions of the second quarter to some objects to be named by the Board of Home Missions; those of the third quarter to some object to be named by the Board of Church Extension, and the fourth to one named by the Board of Freedmen's Mission.

3. That these contributions be sent at the close of every quarter to the Financial Agents of the Presbyteries, whose duty it shall be to forward them at once to the Treasurer of the appropriate Board, and then report the same to the Presbyterial Superintendent for the use of the Committee.

4. That a special effort be made to increase the circulation of the Young Christian among the adult and Bible classes of our schools, so as to enable the Board to publish it weekly instead of semi-monthly, as at present.

We do not ask the Assembly for any appropriation to this Board.

The term of office of the following members of the Board expires with the present year, viz: Revs. D. R. Kerr, D. D., and D. S. Littell, and Messrs. William Stevenson, Addison Lysle and R. E. Stewart. The term of office of the Corresponding Secretary expired one year ago. Through an oversight of the Committee on Nominations no appointment was made to fill the vacancy. The Board re-appointed the former Secretary for the year.

* For several years previous to the addition to and improvements of our Real Estate made two years ago, it was valued in our schedule of Assets at $37,500, to this was added on completion of the improvements the cost of the additional ground purchased, and of the New Building amounting to $19,906.87, making our Real Estate valuation $57,406.87 as shown on last Annual Report. It is thought best to reduce this valuation to a more nominal figure of $50,000, (which we believe is less than its real value), hence we have this year closed into Profit and Loss account $7,406.87 of last years Real Estate valuation making the valuation $50,000 as shown above.

† Among our Bible Plates in Schedule of Assets in former Annual Reports was a set of Plates of 18 mo. Bagsters Reference Bible, made many years ago at a cost of $3,000. These Plates are of such a character as to be now of so little practical value as not to justify our longer carrying them as valuable assets. We have therefore removed them from the item of Bible Plates in Statement of Assets, closing the value $3,000 into Profit and Loss account, reducing the Bible Plates account to $9,300. These Plates are retained in the vault subject to any future use we may find for them.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

I. BENEFICIARIES.

During the year Presbyteries have recommended twenty-five students to the Board for assistance. Twenty-two of these are students of theology, and three are literary students. Of the theological students eleven attended the Seminary at Allegheny, Pa., and eleven the Seminary at Xenia, Ohio. Two of the literary students are members of the Senior class in Monmouth College, and one a member of the Senior class in Westminster College.

The following Presbyteries have been represented: Monmouth, four students; Chartiers, three students; Illinois Southern, Muskingum, and Steubenville, two students each; Allegheny, Big Spring, Butler, Conemaugh, Frankfort, Mansfield, Mercer, Ohio 1st, Pawnee, Philadelphia, Sidney and Wheeling one student each.

In two cases the appropriations were not paid. One student, having obtained assistance from another source, asked Presbytery to withdraw his application. The appropriation for one theological student was withheld, by the approval of Presbytery, the Board having received satisfactory evidence that the requirement of the Assembly, respecting the use of tobacco, had been disregarded.

II. FINANCES.

The annual report of the Treasurer, properly audited, is submitted to the Assembly. We present this general statement, showing money received and disbursed, as follows;

III. ACADEMIES.

The Assembly of 1885 made a special grant in favor of Tarkio College. The instruction of the Assembly has been carried out, and $500 paid to this institution.

The following is a report of the Academies recommended: North Liberty, Ohio, Chillicothe Presbytery—Three teachers; one hundred and six students; value of property, $2,500; owned by Presbytery. Amount $200.

Pawnee, Neb., Pawnee Presbytery—One teacher; thirty-eight students; value of property, $2,200; vested in a Board of Trustees, a majority being members of the United Presbyterian Church. Amount asked $300; the Board granted an appropriation of $200.

Tarkio, Mo., College Springs Presbytery—Five teachers; seventy-one students; value of property, $30,000; held by the United Presbyterian Church. Amount $500.

Coultersville, Ill., Illinois, Southern Presbytery—At the beginning of the year an appropriation of $400 was asked for this Academy. The school was in operation two sessions, with a reported attendance of twenty students, and then discontinued. The Board has referred the whole matter of payment to the Presbytery for advice.

In addition to the direct outlay for Academies during the present year, there was an appropriation of $300 in favor of Pawnee, for the year 1885, paid after our last report was transmitted to the Assembly.

The aggregate for the present year shows: nine teachers; two hundred and fifteen students; value of property, $34,700; amount paid, $900.

IV. THE BOARD.

In order to meet the demands for Academies and Beneficiaries during the year we ask an appropriation of $5,000.

The terms of office of R. Graham, D. Graham and W. C. Williamson, members of the Board, and of W. T. Campbell, Cor. Sec., expire at this time; also the vacancies, occasioned by the resignation of D. MacDill, and J. A. Reynolds, are to be filled by the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

R. GRAHAM, President.

W. T. CAMPBELL, Cor. Sec.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

In presenting their Annual Report to the Assembly, the Board of Ministerial Relief feel that special thanks are due to God for all the work of relieving and helping his worthy servants and their dependants, which he has enabled it to do through another year. It has been a year of encouragement and good results.

RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS.

The total receipts for the year 1884-85 were from:

Presbyteries	$2,890 98
Legacies	896 92
Individuals	894 38
Ladies' Missionary Societies	175 00
Disbursed to Beneficiaries	3,924 27

During the year 1885-86 the receipts were from:

Presbyteries	$3,356 20
Legacies	411 00
Individuals	1,207 42
Ladies' Missionary Societies	184 87
Sabbath Schools	105 30
Disbursements in 1885-86	4,207 07

—happily showing thus a steady increase of the relief which this Board gives to the aged or disabled minister of Christ, and to the widows and children of such as have died and left them to the care and concern of the church.

BENEFICIARIES.

The whole number of beneficiaries aided during the year was thirty. Much the larger proportion of them were the widows and orphan children of deceased ministers. Into many a home during the past year have the funds of this Board carried some good measure of comfort, and many an anxious heart has had heavy burdens lifted from it and good cheer given—funds which faithful and devoted ministers of the Gospel well earned when they were able to labor, and which the sympathising and loving of Christ's people have generously given for this purpose. Most affectingly also has it been shown how the receivers of these favors themselves feel, when $23.25 were received for this work from some of these beneficiaries, as they gave the tenth of what they had thus received and which they devoutly felt belonged to the Lord.

PROGRESS.

In the whole history of our United Presbyterian Church and of the churches from which it came, there has been some thought or provision for aged and infirm ministers. It was not, however, until in 1864 that a fund for this purpose appeared in the Minutes of the General Assembly. Four congregations, one Presbytery, and one individual, a lady, were the contributors; and the whole amount was $44.68, of which the First church, Xenia, O., gave $21.80. During the next five years, no detailed report appears in the Minutes of the Assembly, but in 1869 the treasurer reported a balance in hand of $1,217.18; and up to that period $300 had been paid out to aged ministers. Since that time, and under the blessing of God, upon the statement of the case to his people, and the careful nursing of it, this fund, which has been variously termed the "Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund," the "Superannuated Ministers' Fund," and finally "The Ministerial Relief Fund," has steadily grown, and these benefactions of Christian men and women to it have steadily increased from year to year, until, as we are now most happy to say, there has come into our treasury the total sum of $87,943.39. Of this $29,943.39 have been paid out to beneficiaries. According also to the wish of the donors in many instances, and under the direction of the Assembly, a Permanent Fund has been created, amounting now to $58,000, which is well and safely invested, and the income of which is used each year for the great work of the Board. All this is gratifying, and it cannot be doubted the blessing of God will rest upon a church, which thus provides for the deserving and affecting charge which God lays upon its hands.

In this connection it should be stated that the demand upon the Board steadily increases from year to year. At this very time, the Board could distribute judiciously, and where it is greatly needed, the income of a hundred thousand dollar endowment, in addition to the annual offerings of the church. Never indeed, since its organization, has it refused legitimate aid to the full extent of its means, when the application was properly made. But that aid or help, though always given as far as our available means would allow, has not been as large as was often most earnestly desired. Gladly would we increase the annual grant 25 or 50 per cent., and if only adequate funds are put into the treasury this increase shall be promptly made.

OUR WORK.

All applications for this fund are made to the Board through the Presbytery, to which the applicant, if a minister, belongs, or the Presbytery in whose bounds the widow or children reside. Thus the Board is materially shielded from making injudicious or unwise grants, and the responsibility rests on the Presbyteries.

Besides the grants of money, the Board has carried on again a most useful supplementary work in the way of furnishing boxes of clothing, and of the necessaries of life to the needy. For this work, the Board are very greatly indebted to the women of our church. Individuals, and in many instances, societies, have thus been the means of having unspeakable joy carried into many a home in the far west, and the richest blessings have been invoked in return upon their heads. Special mention deserves to be made of the congregations of the First church, Allegheny, Washington, Pa., Richland, Indiana, and others as doing this work. Most touchingly there is frequent occasion for this kind of benevolence, and if any society or person would like at any time to have a case for such a supply, the treasurer of the Board will be happy to inform them of one, if he has knowledge of such.

THE BOARD.

It only remains to say this Board has, from the beginning, been in a condition, from the nature of things, to have scarcely any outlays. It has never had to pay any salaries, and its expenses have been on the lowest scale. All the expenses, connected with receiving and disbursing the moneys of the past, amount to only $163.55, of which $30 were for rent paid for a lock-box in a bank vault for the safekeeping of the endowment securities, and the balance was for printing, and distributing through the postoffice, reports, blanks for applications, stationery, etc.

It is cheering to record that during the past year Mr. James Graham, of Scroggsville, Ohio, and Mr. James McCandless, of Philadelphia, contributed each one thousand dollars to help make the Permanent or Endowment Fund of this Board reach a sum, where its income will fully supplement the contributions of the churches, from year to year, in making the provision that ought to be made for the disabled minister, or for his often needy and tried widow and children. Only let pastors bring this cause before their people, and they should feel no delicacy in doing so, and let every member of the church do something for it, and there will be no lack. It will require but a few years, judging from the past interest taken by the church at large in this Christ-like work, to increase the Permanent Fund to $100,000. Relief will then be carried to more of the tried and worthy needy. Joy will be given to many an anxious and sad heart. All thus giving will find that "Blessed is he that considereth the poor."

The terms of Jas. McCartney, John P. Scott and John McLaughlin, expire at this meeting of the Assembly.

By order of the Board,

J. B. DALES, President.
JAS. MCCANDLESS, Treasurer.
J. D. MCKEE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

"The Kingdom of God is as if a man should cast seed into the ground, and should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how." There are many things that are mysterious in nature; there is also much that "passeth knowledge" in grace. Yet, although we cannot understand the workings of the laws of either kingdom, we can look on with admiration and record the visible results, which are the evidence of his presence, to whose loving-kindness the Church and the world alike are indebted for "rain and fruitful seasons."

A review of the operations of the Spirit in the United Presbyterian Church, during the year past, shows that the steady, and, we believe, healthy growth that has marked all her history, continues; and in this token of the abiding favor of the Lord we have cause to rejoice. It would be gratifying to note a decided increase in the rate of advancement, but there is no reason for discouragement in the fact that such increase is not manifest. We are persuaded that the apparently unchanged degree of progress, that appears in comparing the results of one year's labors with those of another, does not by any means indicate stagnation. It is the sameness of the river's flow, rather than the dead calm of the land-locked pool. Yet, while this state of affairs gives assurance that the connection with the great Fountain-head has not been broken, nor the channels of communication and distribution choked, it also furnishes evidence, that the abundant showers of grace, which shall make the waters to break out in the wilderness have not yet fallen. "One cometh and another goeth." Additions to the Church are announced and we are all glad. Departures are taken, some to other branches of the Church of Christ on earth, others to the Church in Heaven, and others still go out from us because they are not of us, and, when the year ends, the gains exceed the losses far enough to strengthen the belief, that the final victory is sure, but not enough to give expectation of speedy triumph.

"Draw me, we will run after thee," is the language of the Spouse—a prayer in which recognition of dependence upon grace, and desire for nearness to the Lord are not more prominent, than our fixed purpose of "new obedience" and clear realization of full responsibility in winning souls to Christ.

It is not questioned that the spirit of this petition breathes in the prayers of our Church; but is the pledge that follows readily taken and faithfully fulfilled? As we count the results of the past year's work, the judgment is fairly warranted that we have neither "run" after the Lord, nor brought many others with us. We have made some progress; we are certainly in advance of the position occupied one year ago; but we have narrowed and shortened the engagement of the Spouse, and have been too much content to walk after the Lord, and that alone.

That this conclusion is not without basis in either of its members, will appear in the Narrative that follows:

NARRATIVE.

The Membership.—The footings, furnished the Committee by the Second Clerk of the Assembly, show the present number of communicants in the United Presbyterian Church to be 91,086, a gain of 2,215. Every Synod has a larger increase in membership by profession of faith for 1886 than for 1885. The number of adult baptisms is nearly 28 per cent. larger than ever before, being 1,516 as against 1,187 for 1885. Of this number, 537 must be credited to Sialkot Presbytery, which, in this and every other respect, continues to stimulate the mother church to renewed effort in the work of evangelizing the world, by the manifest zeal and marvelous success which have characterized the work and the workers in that mission field.

It is pleasing to note that this sacrament has been administered to 979 persons in the home church during the year, a larger number by 363 than that reported last year. Fifteen new congregations have been organized, 1 received from the Associate Reformed Church, and 7 dissolved; making a net gain of 7 congregations, and a total of 881. The pastoral changes number 664; unorganized mission stations, 139; mission stations established during the year, 29. Twenty-eight houses of worship have been built, at a cost of $102,022; and 82 congregations are still without homes. The reports from the foreign fields—so far as the faithfulness of the few laborers which the church is content to leave there from year to year, almost without re-inforcement, and their labors are concerned—are most cheering. The net gain in membership for the year is 648, with 469 infant, and 539 adult baptisms. It may not be generally known, that the Missionary Presbyteries now have a communing membership which numbers 265 more than that of the Synod of Kansas, and which is just one-half as large as that of the Second Synod.

Sabbath Schools.—The Sabbath Schools of the church now number 887, a gain of 61; with 81,595 scholars, a gain of 3,509. These figures show that not all the members of the church are doing their duty in this sphere.

Contributions.—In contributions there has been a welcome and encouraging increase all along the line. The sum of $977,424.00 found its way into the Lord's treasury during the year. There have been but two years in the history of our church, in which the total was larger, 1883 and 1884, and but one, 1884, in which the amount received was greater, after deducting the Q. C. contributions; and in that year, the congregations spent $75,000.00 more upon themselves than was thus expended during the past year. Every Board, save the Board of Publication, has received a larger sum than came to it, through the ordinary channels, during the year which ended March 31, 1885. The aggregate of the contributions to the Boards is $14,000.00 larger than for 1885, and $22,000.00 in excess of that of 1884.

The Sabbath School collections amounted to $46,206.00, a gain for the year of nearly $1,500.00.

Comparing the amounts appropriated by the last Assembly to the various agencies of the Church, with the amounts contributed, it appears that the expectation was much larger than the realization, which indicates serious lack of consecration of means to the Lord's service, on the part of the church; but comparing one year's gifts with another's, we find some ground for the hope that the time is coming when "the plowman shall overtake the reaper."

Women's Missionary Societies.—There has been a goodly growth in numbers and in consecrated liberality on the part of these efficient auxiliary agencies in the Church's work. Thirty-two Presbyterial Societies are reported, a gain of 7; 469 congregational Societies, a gain of 70; and 13,585 members, a gain of 1,514. Their total contributions for the past year amounted to $38,769, an increase of $8,982.

The Ministry.—The rolls of Presbyteries show 515 pastors; 221 ministers without charge; total ministers, 736. Eleven ministers have died during the year; 8 have been dismissed to other churches, for better or for worse; 21 have been ordained, and 2 have been received from other churches.

The releases and installations nearly balance, there being 70 of the former and 69 of the latter. This proportion is somewhat better than that of 1885, and much better than that of 1883 and 1884. There are 51 licentiates; 25 of whom received licensure during the year; and 58 students of theology not licensed. These statistics discover an increase of 17 in the number of students preparing for the ministry, which is certainly cheering, but they show also that the number of pastors continues to decrease. For four years the roll of "pastors" has steadily shortened, and the roll of "ministers without charge" has as steadily lengthened. In 1882, there were 541 pastors, and 168 ministers without charge; in 1886, there are 515 pastors, and 221 ministers without charge. It is the boast of the M. E. Church that she has no vacant pulpit and no minister, who is able and willing to preach, without charge. There is no good reason why the United Presbyterian Church should not be able to say the same, and to make her boast more literally true. That it is now so far from being the case with us, makes it clear that there is something wrong with our methods under the best and most practical ecclesiastical polity. Making all due allowance for the number of aged and infirm ministers, and of those employed by the Church in spheres outside the pastorate, the fact that so many remain unemployed, while there are 149 pastoral charges or 265 congregations vacant, and 139 mission stations, and the number of each increasing every year, points to one or possibly to all of three conclusions: that the Church at large is sadly slack to do her duty by her weak congregations; that many congregations inexcusably fail to appreciate and to enjoy their God-given privilege of "seeing their teachers"; or that there are some ministers who might better serve the Lord in some other sphere than that which they now occupy.

The hand of Death has not been idle during the year. Eleven of our brethren have fallen. Three of these were entitled to be recognized among the fathers of the church, and all but one had reached the half century. The average age is somewhat above sixty years. In the case of all but two or three, who lingered long in sickness, the work of death was quickly done. Two were taken with no warning, that was evident to others. The church can never know in time, what these brethren have done for her; but their record is on high, in the keeping of One who righteously estimates their work and labor of love, and they shall have their full reward.

According to the custom of former Assemblies, arrangements have been made for a memorial service, to be held on Friday evening, the 28th inst., in testimony of our affectionate regard for our fallen brothers. It is suggested by the Committee that this exercise partake more of the nature of a religious service than formerly, and that Rev. Russell Graham, of Biggsville, Ill., be appointed to preach a sermon on this occasion.

MEMORIAL RECORD.

The names of the dead, with a bare outline of their lives and labors, are hereby entrusted to the affectionate guardianship of the Church, which was dear unto them as the apple of the eye.

PHILIP YOUNG SMITH, of the Presbytery of Boston, son of John and Sarah (Young) Smith, was born at Maryhill, Lanarkshire, Scotland, April 14, 1833. He united with the Established Church of Scotland, in his 20th year. He was educated at the University of Glasgow, Scotland, and at Union Theological Seminary, New York. He also studied Hebrew with Rev. James Harper, D. D. He was licensed by the United Presbyterian Presbytery of New York, September 15, 1863, and was ordained by the Presbytery of Boston, February 28, 1866, and installed pastor of the Sutton congregation, Wilkinsonville, Mass. Prior to his settlement, he labored for about two years in the mission fields of the West. He was married, Nov. 22, 1857, to Mary Martin Pollock, of New York City, by whom he had one son and four daughters. His wife and daughters survive him. He died at Grafton, Mass., July 21, 1885. His illness was brief and his death unexpected. The cause of his death was a malignant carbuncle.

JAMES LEIPER PURDY, of the Presbytery of Frankfort, son of Andrew and Annie (Leiper) Purdy, was born Sept. 17, 1821, near Clinton, Allegheny Co., Pa. When 17 years of age, he made a public profession of faith in Christ, and connected with the Associate congregation of Montour,—now the United Presbyterian church of Clinton. He received his literary training in Frankfort and Hookstown Academies, and Franklin College, and was graduated from the last named institution in the fall of 1850. He entered the Theological Seminary at Canonsburg, Pa., the following winter, and after completing the prescribed course of study there, he was licensed to preach by the Presbytery of Chartiers, June 14, 1853. October 18, 1854, he was ordained and installed pastor of Pine Grove, Susquehanna and Clearfield congregations by the Associate Presbytery of Clarion. He labored in this triple charge for five years. In January, 1860, he was installed pastor of King's Creek, by the Presbytery of Frankfort, and seven years after, the congregation of Hanover was added to his charge. He continued to minister to these congregations until April, 1880, when he was released from King's Creek, which was followed in April, 1881, by his resignation of the charge of Hanover.

For two years, he preached within the bounds of his own and neighboring Presbyteries, and then, in 1883, he accepted an appointment by the Assembly to Neosho Presbytery. Here he labored with much acceptance, preaching in Holland Creek, Kansas, until July, 1885, when he returned to his family at Florence, Pa., to spend a short season with them; but God willed it that he should rest in Heaven. On Sabbath, August 10, 1885, while in apparent good health, he was stricken with apoplexy, and almost immediately expired. He was married, May 22, 1854, to Miss Mary Jane Sterling, and to them were born two sons and five daughters. She, with her two sons and three daughters, survives her husband. A brother minister said of Mr. Purdy, that "he was always doing some good thing." May those, whom he has left behind, find the bread which he cast upon the waters.

ELLIOTT DAVIDSON CAMPBELL, of the Presbytery of Argyle, son of Rev. Davidson Elliott and Maria I. (Bigham) Campbell, was born February 12, 1852, at Futtegurh, India. His father, mother and two of their children, younger than himself, were murdered during the Sepoy mutiny in 1857. He was providentially spared and was brought to America in 1859, by Rev. William Janvier, and was taken to the home of his widowed grandmother in Millersburgh, Ohio. He united with the church while at New Wilmington, Pa., attending Westminster College. Here he was educated, graduating with the class of 1871. He spent one year in the Theological Seminary of Allegheny, two at Xenia, and one at the Seminary of the Free Church of Scotland, in Edinburgh. He was licensed April 21, 1874, by Mansfield Presbytery; was sent to Burlington, Iowa, where he organized a mission station, and supplied it until July, 1877. December 10, 1877, he was ordained by Bloomington Presbytery, and installed pastor of Paxton congregation, remaining in charge of this field until June 24, 1881. He was called to the pastorate of Putnam congregation, Argyle Presbytery, and installed August —, 1881, which charge he resigned in October, 1884. He was appointed Assistant Professor in New Testament Literature and Criticism, in Allegheny Theological Seminary, in 1885. He was married, September 2, 1879, to Miss Margaret Wallace, of St. Louis, Mo., daughter of the late Rev. James Wallace, of Sparta, Ill., who is thus early left in widowhood, with one son and one daughter. He died, August 15, 1885, of pulmonary consumption, at Monmouth, Ill.

JOHN ERSKINE, of the Presbytery of New York, son of Samuel and Margaret (Stewart) Erskine, was born 1820 in Kearney Hill, county Monaghan, Ireland. He was trained in Belfast College, and licensed to preach by the Presbyterian Presbytery of Monaghan. He came to America in 1851, joined the Associate Reformed church, and on the 8th of January, 1852, was ordained and installed pastor of North Kortright congregation, Delaware county, N. Y., by Saratoga Presbytery. He resigned this charge September, 1860, and became pastor of Graham's church, New York Presbytery, March 13, 1861; occupying this post until the Master called him home. He was married to Miss Harriet Parker, by whom he had one son, who survives him. He died suddenly near Walden, Orange county, N. Y., September 26, 1885.

SAMUEL TAGGART, of Chartiers Presbytery, son of John and Mary Bell (Carnahan) Taggart, was born in County Antrim, Ireland, March 26, 1803. He made a profession of faith in Christ in 1819, and was received into the congregation of Connor, County Antrim. He came to America when 17 or 18 years of age, landing at Montreal, Can.; and a year or two afterward removed to Pittsburgh, Pa. He entered the Western University at Pittsburgh, and, finishing the course of study required there, was graduated in 1831. He attended the Associate Reformed Theological Seminary in Allegheny three terms, and was licensed to preach the gospel, April 1, 1834, by the Associate Reformed Presbytery of Monongahela; and by the same Presbytery he was ordained April 14, 1835. He preached, as stated supply, in West Middletown and Mt. Vernon, from the autumn of 1834 until the date of his ordination, when he was installed as pastor over this united charge. He resigned the latter in 1845 and the former in 1855. Going to Illinois, he preached to the congregations of Bloomington and White Oak, in McLean county, during the spring and summer of 1855; received a call to Harmony, in Peoria county, October, 1855, but was afflicted with the ague and returned to Pennsylvania. His old charge of West Middletown was still without a pastor, and extended a call to him to renew his former relation to them. The call was accepted and he was reinstalled over that congregation, September 25, 1856. This charge he held until September 9, 1884; when, at the age of 82 years, he resigned the active work of the ministry, but did not cease to minister; nor did he cease to receive manifestations of reverence and affection from the people whom he served so faithfully for fifty years. He was married July 18, 1839, to Margaret McAyeal, of North Star, Washington county, Pa., who, with their two sons and one daughter, remains for a little while to mourn the death of one with whom she walked for forty-seven years. Mr. Taggart was Moderator of the General Synod of the Associate Reformed church, in 1848, at Xenia, O., and filled the same position of honor in the United Presbyterian Synod of Pittsburgh, in 1863. He died of "heart derangement," October 21, 1885, at West Middletown, Pa.

ALEXANDER BLAIKIE, D. D., of Philadelphia Presbytery, son of William and Lilias (Cameron) Blaikie, was born October 10, 1804, at Greenhill, Pictou, Nova Scotia. He united with the Presbyterian Church of his native place in June, 1823. He studied at Pictou Academy, and graduated in 1826. He received his theological training at the United Presbyterian Seminary of Nova Scotia. He was licensed, June 28, 1830, and ordained, October 10, 1831, by Pictou Presbytery. He preached, as supply, in Nova Scotia, Prince Edward's Island, New Brunswick and Canada. He came to the United States and labored in the Western Home Mission field, under the supervision of the Associate Reformed Church, for two years, and was the first minister to lift the banner of a Psalm-singing church west of the Mississippi river. He was pastor of the York congregation, Livingston Co., N. Y., from January, 1836, to February, 1845; commenced, May 20, 1846, to establish an Associate Reformed congregation in Boston, Mass., of which he became pastor, July 18, 1847, and continued to serve that people in this relation, until July 13, 1880; when he resigned, after being actively engaged in the ministry of the gospel for more than half a century. He received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from the Western University of Pennsylvania in 1865. Dr. Blaikie was busy with his pen during his ministry, as well as with his voice. He published a pamphlet, on "The Schools," and a "Catechism on Praise," in 1853; "The Philosophy of Sectarianism," 362 pp., in 1854; "The Organ and Other Instruments," in 1862, and a "History of Presbyterianism in New England for 200 Years," 12 mo., pp. 500, in 1881. He was married, July 9, 1839, to Miss Nancy King, of Erie, Pa. The fruits of this union were four sons and one daughter. The daughter and one son preceded their father to the other world. The rest remain. He died, December 31, 1885, at Philadelphia, of congestion of the lungs—a man whose work was done—a shock of corn fully ripe. The last day of the year was a fit time to die.

JACKSON DUFF, of Neosho Presbytery, son of William and Sarah (Wallace) Duff, was born at Point Lick, Garrard Co., Kentucky, September 24, 1814. He united with the Associate Reformed congregation of Hopewell, Preble Co., Ohio, in 1834. He attended Miami University, Oxford, O., and graduated there in 1839. His theological training was received at the Seminary at Oxford. He was licensed by the 1st Ohio Presbytery, April 3, 1843, and ordained by the 1st Presbytery of Illinois (A. R.) June 27, 1844, and at the same date installed pastor of Harrison and Virginia Grove, Iowa. This charge he resigned in 1847; was installed pastor of Scotch Ridge congregation, Sidney Presbytery, in June, 1853, and remained at that post until April, 1869. Going thence into the West, he preached as stated supply in different congregations in Neosho Presbytery, for the most part at Kalida, being in charge of this station when death released him. He was married, February 18, 1840, to Miss Margaret M. Lees, of Richmond, Ky. To them were born three sons and three daughters. His wife, one son and two daughters survive him. He died at Centre Ridge, Woodson Co., Kansas, February 9, 1886, of pneumonia.

JOSEPH BUCHANAN WADDELL, of Chartiers Presbytery, son of James and Jane (McDonald) Waddell, was born near Wheeling, West Va., July 20, 1836. In 1852 he united with the Tent congregation. He studied at Muskingum and Franklin colleges, graduating from the latter in 1860. He was prepared for the work of preaching the gospel at Allegheny Theological Seminary, and was licensed by Wheeling Presbytery, April 9, 1862. He was ordained and installed over Evansburgh and Shenango congregations, September 15, 1863, by Lake Presbytery, and continued in this pastorate until May, 1871. He was called to Centre congregation in Chartiers Presbytery, and began his pastoral labors there, June 10, 1873, and remained with this people until the pastoral relation was dissolved by death, February 12, 1886. He was married, July 7, 1863, to Miss Mary Elizabeth Crawford, of Rix's Mills, Ohio, who, with four sons and one daughter, survives him, one daughter having already fallen asleep. His sickness was long and painful, but under all his fiery trial he was patient, sustained by the grace of the Lord Jesus.

JOHN HOGG, D. D., of the Presbytery of Egypt, son of John and Mary (Richardson) Hogg, was born April 30, 1833, at Gladsmuir, Haddingtonshire, Scotland. In 1848, at fifteen years of age, he connected with the United Presbyterian church of Tarnent, Scotland. His college course was taken in the University of Edinburgh, where he was graduated in 1853. "He studied theology in the United Presbyterian Hall, Edinburgh, until 1856, when he was sent out by a Scottish society to open a Protestant school in Alexandria, Egypt; returned to Scotland in 1859, finished his theological course, and was licensed in November, 1859, by the United Presbyterian Presbytery of Edinburgh; returned immediately to Alexandria as a missionary, under the Board of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, and was ordained, May 22, 1860, by the Presbytery of Egypt. Broken down in health, he visited, in 1872, Scotland and the United States. He labored principally in Alexandria and Asyoot, and largely in the educational department of the mission." He was professor in the Theological Seminary at Cairo and Asyoot from 1863 to 1886. He received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa., in 1869. Among his publications may be mentioned "The Poor Lad who Found a Precious Treasure," "The Shining Lamp," "The Life of Lord Haddo," "Argument on the Plymouth Controversy," and a number of educational books and translations for the use of the Protestant schools in Egypt. He also left a large number of manuscripts, more or less ready for the press. His numerous publications attest the ripe scholarship, and the indefatigable energy of Dr. Hogg in spreading the truth as it is in Jesus. He was married, January 10, 1860, to Miss Bessie Dodds Kay, of Edinburgh, who survives him, "a sadly stricken widow, with eight children, the youngest but a few weeks old." He died at Asyoot, Egypt, February 27, 1886, of congestion of the stomach and liver. Dr. Andrew Watson, who has been associated with the dead missionary during all his self-sacrificing career, says of him: "Dr. Hogg was a bright and shining light in all the departments of missionary work. In versatility of talent he had no equal; as an instructor he was a prince; as a preacher earnest and eloquent; as a writer he had a most wonderful flow of language, and a rich abundance of precious truths; in defense of the truths of Christianity his tongue was never silent nor his pen dry; foremost in the controversy with the Plymouthites, yet they feel to-day that they have lost a Christian brother and a noble worker for Christ and the salvation of sinners; the churches, especially in Upper Egypt, feel that they have lost their father; the mission mourns for him as one of its founders and foremost laborers. How mysterious the ways of God!" "He being dead, yet speaketh." Buried under the lonely mountain, he preaches even a more glorious hope, than that to which Joseph's unburied casket witnessed; telling of the day when "The LORD shall be known unto Egypt," and shall say, "Blessed be Egypt, my people." Like his Master, he rests in a borrowed tomb, "hewn out of rock." Egypt, that gave him a sepulchre, shall herself be his monument. No stately obelisk, no sculptured rock, no massive pyramid, but a redeemed people, shall be his everlasting memorial. There is no tomb in any land that better deserves the ancient inscription, "Si monumentum quæris, circumspice."

JOHN C. MCELREE, of Butler Presbytery, son of Edward and Martha (McClintock) McElree, was born at Harrisville, Butler County, Pa., August 12, 1835. He connected with Harmony congregation, Butler Presbytery, in June, 1859. Westminster College gave him his collegiate course, graduating him in June, 1865; and Allegheny Seminary prepared him for the special work of the gospel ministry. He was licensed by Butler Presbytery, April 29, 1867, and ordained by the same Presbytery, and made pastor of the congregations of East Unity and Clintonville, Venango county, Pa., May 5, 1869. From this charge, he was released in September, 1885, and was installed pastor of Grove City congregation, Butler Presbytery, Oct. 1, 1885, whence the Lord took him to the church in Heaven, April 5, 1886. He was married May 12, 1874, to Miss Maggie J. Tannehill, of McDonald, Washington county, Pa. Two sons and one daughter were born to them, all of whom are living. He died of pneumonia, April 5, 1886, at Grove City, Pa.

WILLIAM HUMPHREY JAMISON, of Cleveland Presbytery, was born in County Derry, Ireland, in the year 1820. He was educated at Blaine's Academy, Belfast; came to America and studied theology at Allegheny Seminary; was licensed by Steubenville Presbytery (A. R.), April 30, 1845, and by the same Presbytery ordained, June 23, 1846. He was pastor of Mechanicstown, Yellow Creek and Lebanon from June, 1846–1854. He joined the Free Presbyterian Church, and was pastor at Darlington, Beaver Co., Pa., for three years; returned to the Associate Reformed church, and was installed pastor at Evansburgh and White Oak Springs, in 1858. He resigned this charge, January 16, 1878, and has not since been actively engaged in the ministry. He died at New Lisbon, Ohio, April 13, 1886.

To this roll it is fitting that the name of another "father in Israel" be added, whose death, although it came at such a time as to include it in the mortuary record for next year, so touches the heart of the Church, that it must needs be mentioned.

WILLIAM FINDLEY, D. D., died at his home in New Castle, Pa., May 9, 1886, fitly closing, on a quiet Sabbath evening, an able and devoted ministry of fifty-four years.

These fathers and brethren have fallen asleep in Jesus. They have ended their labors and have entered into rest. The providence that has called them to give an account of their stewardship and to receive their reward, should serve to quicken us who remain, to diligence and vigilance. "Blessed are those servants, whom the Lord, when he cometh, shall find watching."

STATE OF RELIGION.

"Go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock," is the Lord's direction to any who would find the place of his rest and communion with his people. No better direction can be given to any who would ascertain the spiritual condition of the Church in any age. If these footsteps lead to the house of God, and there be evidence that they have quickened, as they have turned thither; if they hold steadily toward the Sabbath school, the prayer meeting and the family altar; if they have well-beaten the way to the treasury of the Lord, and to the house of want and sorrow; if it is seen that they have always gone by the King's Highway and not through

"By-path's Meadow;" if they bear far away from the card-table and dancing-hall and theatre, and from all places, where the feet that have the print of the nails cannot go; if it be manifest that they have been made only by the sandals of the preparation of the gospel of peace, at their resting places; if, swift as hinds, they have "run the way of God's commandments," and not turned back in the day of battle, nor followed time-serving leaders in Church or State; then it may be set down as certain that the spiritual state of the people is excellent.

The reports of Presbyterial conferences, which are the indications on which we must rely in forming our judgment in this matter, are, for the most part, encouraging, but they give some evidence of halting and even of wandering.

The attendance on public worship is said to be generally good; that on the prayer meetings, not so good. The proportion of adult membership, actively engaged in the Sabbath Schools, is altogether too small, and there is ground for fear that household religion and family instruction are not up to the standard. A few reports indicate that the young people in some quarters are drawn into entangling alliances with the world; and some lament that the defiant and increasing opposition to the law of the Sabbath, on the part of the State and powerful business corporations, is working against the righteous observance of the Sabbath among their people.

Interest in missions is certainly increasing in some measure, if the amount of money contributed is a reliable indication; but the fact, that in the matter of contributions we have fallen far short of the appropriations, and that our missions are struggling under burdens and against obstacles which liberality on the part of the Church would easily remove, shows clearly that the increased supplies bear no due proportion to the growing demands.

It is matter for congratulation that our church is so generally interested in social and political reforms—that, too, in so large a measure our people "act as citizens worthily of the gospel of Jesus Christ." The question, which was intended to bring out the state of mind prevalent in the Church on the subject of reforms, was answered in a great majority of the reports, so as to give good hope that our brethren are generally ready to champion the right and condemn the wrong; but in some cases, there seemed to be a hesitation to answer without explanation, which was suggestive of a fear, on their part, that the question might, in the end, prove to be a sort of third party Joab, with a friendly greeting in the right hand and a deadly dagger in the left.

Our colleges and theological seminaries continue to be strongholds of righteousness. Monmouth reports that 92 per cent. of the members of the college classes are professing Christians, and that the spiritual tone of the college is excellent. Westminster reports 80 per cent. of all her students in the Church, with a daily one-half hour prayer meeting kept up through the entire winter term; and Muskingum, 83 per cent. of new students and 90 per cent. of those in the literary department, in the church, with two associations holding weekly prayer meetings.

The young men of our seminaries seem to be devoted to the work which the love of Christ has constrained them to undertake. The troubles, that vex and annoy in other churches, respecting "Higher Criticism" and "New Theology," are unknown in our institutions.

Religious conventions were held in various parts of the church during the winter and spring, and special and extended services in many congregations—for which Presbyteries arranged,—and it is believed in all cases with good results. In these meeetings, we have a goodly token that there is a longing after a greater degree of godliness in the church at large, and we welcome it as the harbinger of better things, and the earnest of a time of well-founded peace in all our borders. It is well that we can find a reason for any such hope, for we seem to have fallen upon troublous times. That unholy trinity—the world, the flesh and the devil—seems to have a new lease of power. The squadrons of the lawless one are forming everywhere, and massing for a mighty struggle; and they can only be successfully resisted by a Church that is strong for righteousness toward God and toward man.

A religion of hollow forms, of fair seeming but of false being, is not the religion for the times. A Church, that strives more zealously to please men than to honor God, can neither hope to gain the respect of the great, nor to win the confidence of the lowly; and can have no influence, either to check the grasping greed of the oppressor, or to quell the unrighteous violence of the mob, to which oppression opens the way.

Sensational preaching may attract, but will never Christianize the masses. Elaborate display of music and adornment may prompt a pretentious world to put on its newest, richest, Easter attire, and come to stand with unmoved heart and undimmed eye by the empty tomb of Christ, but never to put its trust in the crucified and risen Lord, and to exchange the robe of fashion for his spotless robe of righteousness.

The elements essential to the life of a Church, and which we must have if we would not have our "candlestick removed out of its place," are vital godliness, consuming zeal for God's house, Spirit-born love for one another, and Christ-like compassion for the poor "world that lieth in the lap of the wicked one."

We believe that we have good reasons for maintaining our existence as a separate ecclesiastical organization; that every doctrine or ordinance, for which we witness, has been entrusted to us with some such earnest charge as that which Ezra gave to the Levites, when he weighed the treasures devoted to the service of the Lord in the temple, and committed them to their guardianship in the perilous wilderness; "Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the Lord."

But let us remember that we hold these treasures not for their own sake simply, nor for our own use merely, but for the good of the world and the glory of the Master. The law that reigns both in the natural world and in the spiritual world is, Use or Lose. We are "debtors both to Greeks and to Barbarians, both to the wise and to the unwise"; and ours is an indebtedness which never can be cancelled without full payment; which in some sense, we must pay and will pay, whether we consent or refuse. If the Church does not enrich the world, the world will impoverish the Church. "There is that scattereth and increaseth yet more; and there is that withholdeth what is justly due, but it tendeth only to want." The Church's "want," if it come thus, will come with more destructive might than that of whole legions of "armed" men. If Tamar's heaven-sanctioned right be not recognized, and Shelah come to years, and, because of parental solicitude, be not joined to her in love and righteousness, she will tempt Judah to his fall. If the sons of the Church be not devoted to do the kinsman's part, to restore this widowed world to its lost inheritance, it will not be strange if, by and by, the parent's feet be taken in its snares.

Let the spirit of the Psalmist's words ever inspire us, in working, in praying, in watching: "God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us; Selah. That Thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations."

On behalf of the Committee.

REPORT OF THE QUARTER-CENTENNIAL COMMISSION

To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, to meet at Hamilton, O., May 26, 1886, the Quarter Centennial-Commission would report:

At the time of our report to the last General Assembly, $304,213.82 had been paid to the Boards and institutions of the Church. Since that time the following payments have been made:

Board of Foreign Missions	$13,400 00
Board of Home Missions	1,316 35
Board of Freedmen's Missions	1,200 00
Board of Church Extension	4,200 00
Board of Ministerial Relief	1,200 00
Xenia Theological Seminary	3,000 00
Allegheny Theological Seminary	3,000 00
Westminster College	1,495 00
Muskingum College	3,046 80
Monmouth College	1,962 14
Knoxville College	900 00
Orphans' Home	326 00
Total	$34,746 29

The whole amount paid to the different Boards and institutions of the Church to date is $338,960.11. We have now on hand $2,384.54; making a total of $341,344.65 paid to the Quarter-Centennial Fund.

In compliance with the directions of the last General Assembly, the following Boards and institutions have reported the way in which they have used the amounts received from the Quarter-Centennial Fund:

The Board of Foreign Missions reports: "The money that came into our hands has been forwarded to each of our missions, India and Egypt, as they have desired it, and in each case it is already invested in buildings and the permanent work of the mission, or is being held in good and safe investments until it is called for, for its purpose. In Egypt, portions of it have been used on the Cairo building, the building for the training college at Asyoot, the Pressly memorial building, and on buildings for church and school purposes at Mansoura and Tanta. A considerable sum was appropriated for a mission building at Alexandria, but it is not yet used, as a suitable lot has not been secured yet for the purpose. In India, the moneys are invested at six per cent. interest, and will be used at once and in full as the opportunity offers and as the occasion calls for buildings and other special permanent work of the Mission. The portion of the money not yet remitted remains in our hands, and will be sent out as soon as the brethren of the Mission call for it."

The Board of Home Missions reports having received $20,257.74. "This amount has been turned into the treasury and added to the reserve fund, as per our annual reports."

The Board of Missions to the Freedmen report that they have received, for the Board, $11,757.68; for Knoxville College, $9,540; total, $21,297.68. They have expended, for grounds at Norfolk, Va., $2,500; for school building at Norfolk, Va., $15,545; part payment on Mission house at Norfolk, Va., $1,332.68; for grounds at Knoxville, Tenn., $1,500; balance on hand, $420; total, $21,297.68.

The report of the Board of Church Extension is as follows: "The Board has given aid to purchase lots and build memorial churches in the following cities: Denver, Colo.; Portland, Ore., and Los Angeles, Cal. The balance of the funds has been invested in first mortgages and one lot of ground, through well known and reliable agents, except a few small sums which were credited to congregations for special purposes. As these do not, in every case, appear on our books, there may be a small discrepancy between the amount stated below as received, and the amount charged to the Board by the Commission. During the past year the Board was not able to make new investments for all the amount received, but holds other mortgages which it is free to transfer to this account, and which will be so held.

RECEIPTS.

From the Commission	$43,030 00
From the Trustees of the General Assembly	3,000 00
Total	$46,030 00

PAYMENTS.

For Memorial Church at Denver, Colo	$10,000 00
For Memorial Church at Portland, Ore	6,500 00
For Memorial Church at Los Angeles, Cal	4,000 00
Loan to congregation at Pawnee City, Neb	2,000 00
Loan to congregation at Portland, Ore	1,000 00
Loan to congregation at Greeley, Colo	2,000 00
Loan to congregation at Los Angeles, Cal	1,500 00
Loans on First Mortgages	18,300 00
Special credit to a congregation	30 00
Lot purchased in Omaha	700 00
Total	$46,030 00

The loan to the Los Angeles congregation is money advanced on a lot which it is proposed to sell off their property, and is without interest. The lot, purchased in Omaha, is in a new part of the city, and was bought in view of the probable need of a location for a mission at a future day. The investments are, so far as known to the Board, well secured, and yield an income of $1,730 per annum."

The Board of Publication reports receipts to the amount of $9.25, which were placed to the credit of the general fund, from which grants are made to mission and other Sabbath schools.

The Board of Education report that they have received $146.55, and that they have placed this amount among the invested funds of the Board, using only the interest.

The Board of Ministerial Relief do not mention the amount they have received, but they report that the entire amount received has been placed in the endowment of the Board, and, with other funds, invested in Pittsburgh and Allegheny mortgages, in Philadelphia bank stock and in Allegheny county, Pa., riot bonds.

The Trustees of the Allegheny Theological Seminary report that they have received the sum of $28,620, which has been added to the endowment fund. Of this amount, $250 are in the form of a subscription note, and the rest, $28,370, is invested in Pittsburgh and Allegheny mortgages. The annual income from this investment is $1,717.20, and it is used in meeting the current expenses of the Seminary.

The Trustees of the Xenia Theological Seminary report that "said Seminary has received from the Quarter-Centennial Commission $28,565.73."

The Trustees of Monmouth college do not state the amount received, but report that it has all been added to their endowment fund and placed in loans, secured by first mortgages on farm lands at 8 per centum per annum.

The United Presbyterian Orphans' Home reports receipts to the amount of $326.

These are the only Boards and institutions which have complied with the instructions of the last two General Assemblies.

The Commission has not yet completed its work, as there are some subscriptions to be collected, some real estate to be sold, and some annuities to be provided for.

We ask the General Assembly to consider the work entrusted to us, and to give us instructions for the future.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM J. REID, President.
W. J. SAWYER, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE.

The Joint Committee of Conference of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, and of the A. R. Synod of the South, met at Due West, S. C., September 26, 1885, and held several earnest and prayerful sessions. On the part of the United Presbyterian Church there were present: Rev. D. R. Kerr, D. D., Rev. W. W. Barr, D. D., Rev. W. J. Reid, D. D., Rev. D. W. Carson, D. D.; on behalf of Associate Reformed Synod: Rev. James Boyce, D. D., Rev. R. A. Ross, D. D., Prof. J. P. Kennedy, Rev. J. E. Pressly, D. D., Rev. C. B. Betts, Rev. M. W. Pressly, and Prof. J. M. Todd. After careful consideration, the following general statements and basis of union were adopted, and ordered to be submitted to the supreme courts of the respective Churches for their approval:

I. GENERAL STATEMENTS.

1. The United Presbyterian and the Associate Reformed Churches are so one, in doctrine, government and worship, that in our judgment they should be organically one.

2. While there may be minor points in which there is some divergence of views and practice, yet it is believed that, by mutual forbearance in regard to these points, the two Churches, when united, would ultimately grow into unity and uniformity.

II. BASIS OF UNION.

In view of the truth expressed in the above statements, it is our judgment that a union may be effected on the following basis:

1. The Confession of Faith and Catechisms, as now received by both Churches, together with the Testimony of the United Presbyterian Church, shall be the doctrinal standards of the united Church, with the explicit understanding that the forbearance in love, which the law of God requires, shall be exercised towards any brethren who may not be able fully to subscribe to all the Articles of the Testimony, provided they shall not determinedly oppose them, and shall follow the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

2. The arrangement concerning details, until the interests of the united Church require a change, shall be as follows:

(1) The respective Presbyteries and Synods of the two Churches shall remain as at present constituted.

(2) The Supreme Court of the Church shall be a General Assembly, composed of delegates from the respective Presbyteries, the number of delegates to be according to the proportion of ministerial members constituting each Presbytery, as now fixed by the United Presbyterian Church.

(3) The different Boards and institutions of the respective Churches shall not be affected by this union, but shall have control of their own funds and shall conduct their operations as heretofore; and the Associate Reformed Synod of the South shall retain its name and all its corporate rights and privileges, and be controlled by its Book of Government, Discipline and Worship, as at present.

III. RESOLUTION.

Therefore Resolved, That we transmit to our Presbyteries this Overture: "Shall the foregoing basis of union between the United Presbyterian Church and the Associate Reformed Synod of the South be adopted?"

[Signed.]

JAMES BOYCE,
DAVID R. KERR,
R. A. ROSS,
J. P. KENNEDY,
MASON W. PRESSLY,
D. W. CARSON,
W. W. BARR,
WILLIAM J. REID,
J. M. TODD.

Whereas, in the judgment of the undersigned, representing the minority of your Committee of Conference on the subject of union between the Associate Reformed and United Presbyterian bodies, our Churches are at present unprepared for union, because such agitations might arise as would disturb the peace and prosperity of our Churches; and, fearing that serious injury might result from overturing the proposed basis; we, therefore, have respectfully declined to append our names thereto.

Respectfully and fraternally,

JOHN E. PRESSLY,
C. B. BETTS.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE PRESBYTERIAN ALLIANCE.

The Committee on the matter of the Presbyterian Alliance presents the following report:

The United Presbyterian Church, having been associated with the Alliance and represented by delegation in it, is asked to bear its proportion of the expenses incurred, and of a fund proposed to be raised for the Bohemian Church—the former amounting to $269, and the latter to $897, an aggregate of $1,166. This is but a small sum, and in the event of our continuance in the Alliance, should be cheerfully and promptly paid.

Your Committee, however, respectfully represents that the Constitution of the Alliance provides that there shall be no interference with the internal order and discipline of any Church which has joined the confederation; that notwithstanding this, the Alliance has so far interfered with the internal order of the psalm-singing churches composing part of it, as to use in its praise service "the devotional compositions of uninspired men;" and, although, in 1875 our General Assembly adopted a paper upon this subject, asking that in consideration of the fact that several of the churches are, on conscientious grounds, opposed to the use of uninspired hymns in the worship of God, and that every Presbyterian branch of the Church of Christ has acknowledged that the inspired Book of Psalms contains matter suitable to be employed in the praise service, the "consensus of the Reformed Churches be respected by the confederation in its devotional exercises, and that a specific guarantee to this effect be incorporated in the Constitution which may be adopted," there has been no response given, no guarantee, but a practical disregard of our position and petition.

The Committee is of opinion, that to remain in the Alliance while the service is conducted contrary to these expressed convictions upon our part, and while the desired guarantee is withheld, would be a compromising of our principles upon the subject of psalmody, and a virtual consent to this disregard of our convictions. It is also well known, that, contrary to the consensus of the Reformed churches, the Council admitted a body of Presbyterians which, in its Confession of Faith, positively repudiates the Calvinistic doctrine of Predestination. We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That, cherishing as we do, the fraternal fellowship of the brethren associated in the Presbyterian Alliance, and deeply regretting that there is anything to interfere with that communion, we kindly and firmly notify the Alliance that we will not take part in their proceedings, or appoint delegates to represent us in the meetings, until the guarantee asked shall be given, and the practice of the Alliance in its praise service shall not conflict with our principle upon this subject; and, therefore, will not be held under an obligation to meet any part of the expenses which may hereafter be incurred, or to contribute through the Alliance to the fund proposed to be raised for the Bohemian Church.

2. Inasmuch as we have acted with the Alliance hitherto, we are under obligation to bear our proportion of the expenses incurred, and therefore direct the payment of the $269 asked; and the Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to issue an order upon the Treasurer of the Assembly in favor of the Treasurer of the Alliance for that amount.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. French,
W. W. Barr.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE TO PREPARE A SCHEME OF MINISTERIAL SUSTENTATION.

1. The object of this scheme is to so supplement salaries as ultimately to secure to each pastor at least one thousand dollars a year.

2. That the annual appropriation be made by the General Assembly for this purpose.

3. That the management of the scheme be committed to the Board of Ministerial Relief, with authority to make all special rules and recommendations to the General Assembly necessary to the attainment of the end in view.

4. That the congregation paying a salary of at least $500 a year, and an average per member to the salary of at least $7, estimated on the membership at the beginning of the year, with full quota of all appropriations of the Assembly, may, upon application and fulfillment of the prescribed conditions, be admitted to the benefits of the scheme.

5. No congregation shall be admitted, except in case of a pastoral settlement, and when that portion of the salary contributed by the congregation is paid quarterly in advance, the pastor paying no part of it, and when there is no reduction from the salary of the preceding year.

6. All applications for admission to this scheme shall be approved by the Presbytery and certified by the clerk.

7. The money shall be paid out to congregations only at the close of each quarter of the church financial year, and only to congregations reporting all conditions fulfilled. Such reports are to be certified by the pastor and clerk of session and by a sustentation agent to be appointed in each Presbytery.

8. Each year the funds at the disposal of the Board shall be so distributed among the congregations on its list, that all salaries shall be equal, until the standard ($1000) be reached.

9. No congregation shall be admitted to the benefit of the scheme, when in the judgment of its own Presbytery it may be so grouped with another, or others, that the united charge may pay a salary of $1000.

10. The grant once made shall continue so long as all conditions are fulfilled, and it shall be deemed necessary in the judgment of the Board.

11. The admission of any congregation to the scheme removes it from the care of the Board of Home Missions, but in the case of congregations so located that a larger salary is required, a supplement may be made by that Board.

12. One-half of the first appropriation shall be distributed during that year, and the balance carried forward for distribution during the year following; one-half of the second appropriation shall be carried forward for distribution during the third year, and so on each year.

13. That our people be encouraged to make special donations and bequests to this fund, and that all such donations and bequests be set aside, unless otherwise specified by the donor, as a permanent fund, the interest of which only shall be used.

14. That in the case of congregations on the list, which may have considerably increased in membership by reason of revivals, etc., without corresponding increase of ability to contribute, the Board may make exceptions from the rigid application of the rules for a period not longer than two years, but only after the facts have been duly certified by the Presbytery to which such congregations belong.

Your committee would also recommend, inasmuch as the success of this scheme will depend upon an understanding of its advantages and a corresponding interest in it, that the Board be directed to take steps to disseminate information in regard to it among our people, and that the Assembly appoint a Sustentation Agent in each Presbytery to co-operate with the Board in advancing the work.

While your Committee are aware that difficulties will arise in the way of the successful execution of this scheme, as is the case with all the enterprises of the Church, and as seen in the history of sustentation elsewhere, we are convinced that through time and experience, with patient and persevering effort, these difficulties may be surmounted to such a degree as to make the scheme proposed a great blessing, not only to the Ministers but also to every department of our Church work.

W. W. CURRY,
R. TURNBULL,
D. H. GOODWILLIE,
Committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE TENURE OF CHURCH PROPERTY.

The undersigned would respectfully set forth that the committee appointed at St. Louis, two years ago, on "The Tenure of Church Property," and continued at the last meeting of the Assembly, has no report to present, and is not likely to be able to agree upon any; and would respectfully ask to be relieved from serving on that committee. That the King and Head of the Church may guide you in all your deliberations is the prayer of your servant.

3. ALPHABETICAL LIST OF CONGREGATIONS.

The following Historical Record of Congregations has been prepared by the Rev. J. B. Scouller, D. D. The records of Presbyteries, Synods, and Assemblies have been carefully examined, and, when necessary, all attainable information has been procured from the present pastors or sessions. Notwithstanding all this there may be errors, for many of the older Churches kept no records until recently, and some of the Presbyteries were very indefinite in their reports. It will be taken as a favor, if detected errors be reported to the Rev. J. B. Scouller, of Newville, Pa., so that the record may be made as correct as possible.

The list gives, 1st, the name of the Congregation; 2d, its County and State; 3d, its present Presbytery; 4th, the date of its organization; and 5th, in the second line, its Pastorates. If the Congregation had a former name, it is given in brackets.
